A Unique Way of Life

July 25 - August 21, 2025

What I Did on My Summer Vacation

Whether here all year round or simply for a summer stay, these "Only on The Reef" Club traditions create memories to last the whole year through - not to mention make great headlines in those classic back-to-school essays. For more summer fun photos, see pages 26-28.

I sailed in an ocean regatta.

I medaled in a 5k.

I competed in an Iron Chef competition.

I perfected my swing with a full gallery watching.

I performed in Frozen on "the big stage".

Investing in Wellness: Spa Expansion & Renovation

Following the Board's approval of plans to renovate and expand the Spa, covered in the May 9, 2025 edition of the Ocean Reef Press, here are some updates on the progress of this project:

Construction

In June, Monroe County issued all the necessary permits for the Spa renovation and expansion to break ground. The project is expected to continue through the summer of 2026. Craft Construction, a trusted partner responsible for the 2020 Clubhouse renovation and nearing completion on the Associate Housing project, has been selected for the Spa project.

To ensure that the project area looks as desirable as possible during the construction timeline, the Club and Craft have been working on concealing the construction as best as possible. In addition, a new traffic pattern has been created.

The Spa Relocations

It is also important to note that throughout this time, the Member Fitness Center, Member Fitness Pool and Cold Plunge are entirely operational, with the main entrance and The Academy entrance remaining open.

PORT O'CALL IS OPEN!

The patio and deck area at Port O'Call Patio is currently receiving a well-deserved restoration. While Spirits Bar is temporarily closed to accommodate the construction, Port O'Call continues serving Members throughout the project. See hours on page 31.

NEWS & HAPPENINGS

Fishing Charter in Burgee Shop Breezeway

The Club's Fishing Charter program (previously Orvis) is currently located in the Burgee Shop Breezeway, where you will find Tori Fraga, previously the Orvis Manager, who has joined the Club as the new Fishing Charter Manager.

If you have any questions, Members may continue to use the existing contact information: 305-367-2227 or email charterdesk@oceanreef.com.

Islander Relocated to Ocean Room

While the Islander undergoes their annual maintenance, along with a roof replacement for a newly-renovated look, the team has temporarily relocated and will serve dinner at the Ocean Room.

To view their schedule for the week of July 28, see page 31. You may read more about the ongoing projects at the Club on pages 1 and 3.

Barbershop Services

With the current Spa expansion and renovation project ongoing, Barbershop services are limited for the summer. They will be available at the Member Fitness Center by appointment only. If you would like to make an appointment or have any questions, you may call The Spa at 305-367-6506.

Gotta Question?

I seem to have lost my purse somewhere around The Reef. What's the best way to go about finding it?

The Housekeeping Department has your back!

Does it matter where I lost the item?

Regardless of whether you leave something at Burgee Bar, the Tennis & Games Center, or even on the side of the road, you can count that it will make its way to Housekeeping's Lost & Found. This even applies to items that have been left at the Inn or in any of the Vacation Rentals.

How do I retrieve it?

Housekeeping has a system that logs and stores all the lost and found items that are turned in.

When you contact Housekeeping, to confirm the item you are looking for they will ask for a description and pull the corresponding item. If they find more than one item that fit the description they will pull them all as well.

While some Members come by in person to identify their item, you also have the option to receive an email with a picture of the item.

If you have already left and are contacting from off property, do not worry. Housekeeping will send a Lost & Found form to complete digitally. Once your item is confirmed, they will ship it out to you!

Found a lost item?

This also applies to those who have found lost items. In fact, in years past Public Safety recovered a kayak following a wind storm and turned it in to Housekeeping. Following the storm, the Member contacted Housekeeping to find that their kayak was safely stored in Lost & Found. A happy ending!

If you have any questions about missing items, contact Housekeeping at 305-367-2611 x5280. They are available daily from 8 a.m. – 7 p.m.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

If you would like to submit a question, email the Ocean Reef Press at orp@oceanreef.com.

Improvements Underway on the Islander & Buccaneer Island Bridge

As part of our summer capital maintenance program of Club facilities, the Islander is now temporarily closed for upkeep. This year, that work includes replacing the roof, epoxy kitchen flooring, fresh paint and a deep clean.

To make the most of the closure, the Club is simultaneously completing some walkway improvements to the Buccaneer Island bridge. By coordinating both projects at the same time, we are able to minimize disruption by only closing entry to one side of Buccaneer Island once. Buccaneer Island can still be accessed from the Marlin Inn side.

As of this week, the Amberjack walkway, Buccaneer Island bridge walkway, and the Islander are closed. The restrooms on Buccaneer Island will remain open throughout the project, which is expected to take approximately three to four weeks.

Dining Updates:

- Islander dinner and Palm Court lunch are being served in the Ocean Room as of Monday, July 21.
  - Reef Lounge is open daily throughout the project.
  - The Beach Grill will close briefly for roof work on Monday and Tuesday, July 28 and 29, and will resume normal hours on Wednesday, July 30.
- We appreciate your understanding as we take care of these summer improvements. For the latest dining hours and locations, please visit oceanreef.com/Dining or see page 31.

ASSOCIATE VILLAGE

Work on the Associate Village, which includes a new four-story housing building for 150 Associates as well as dedicated recreational areas, is progressing steadily toward completion, with the first floor 80% complete and floors two, three and four 95% complete or more. The new building is expected to open in time for season.

OCEAN REEF COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

ORCF Community Grants in Action: First Jobs, Bright Futures

This summer, thanks in part to the generosity of Ocean Reef Club Members, local teens are stepping into their first jobs and toward a promising future, through Branches' Climb and Climb Higher Program.

Supported by a $35,000 Community Grant from the Ocean Reef Community Foundation, students are working as "Summer Shade Guides," serving as camp counselors at Branches' Summer Shade Camp. While the program operates across three community locations with 42 counselors, the Foundation's grant specifically funds the Florida City site, where 10 teens are gaining hands-on experience while developing leadership skills, strong work ethics, and the confidence needed to succeed beyond the classroom.

Students and a Summer Shade Guide at the Branches program in Florida City.

Before camp began, participants completed intensive training that included a motivational session with Branches President and CEO Brent McLaughlin and a financial wellness workshop led by one of the organization's certified financial coaches. These sessions empower students not only to earn income but also to manage it with intention.

Summer Shade Camp and The Climb and Climb Higher Program exemplify workforce development at its best, providing meaningful employment that enables youth to lead, learn, and thrive. Ocean Reef Club Members help make this impact possible, one bid at a time. Branches has received over $700,000 in ORCF Community Grants since 2009.

AT THE CULTURAL CENTER

Library Corner

by Susan
Bohan

At first, I thought Scott Johnston's second novel "The Sanderson's Fail Manhattan" would be a light-hearted satire of the world I knew a lot about – New York City's Upper East Side.

He provides a pretty accurate view of private schools, exclusive clubs, financial workaholics, community service and the zeitgeist of college admissions, just to name a few of his targets. But it is much more than that. He captures these days where social media dominates, everyone has a camera and most people have a one-sided world view.

While taking the reader on a fun but thoughtful ride, his heroine finally comes to the conclusion, "The people here were like anywhere else: some good, some not, although most undoubtedly richer. All that money had a strange effect. It worked like an accelerant on people's characters, magnifying the good and the bad. In some, it brought out the madness."

It will be in the Cultural Center Library shortly. Take a look!

ORCA Rules for Moke Vehicles

Earlier this year, the ORCA Board of Directors approved updated regulations for Moke vehicles to ensure clarity in parking rules and establish a formal registration process. These changes are designed to enhance safety and organization within Ocean Reef.

Parking Restrictions

Mokes are prohibited from parking in designated golf cart spaces. Due to their larger size, they must be parked in areas meant for regular-sized vehicles.

Mandatory Registration

As of April 1, 2025, all Moke vehicles in Ocean Reef must be registered through one of the following:

1. State Registration – Obtain a valid state license tag.
2. ORCA Registration – Obtain

Mokes are a trendy alternative to golf carts, and though compact, ORCA rules state they should follow the same rules of the road as cars.

a decal from the Ocean Reef Public Safety Department and affix it to the vehicle.

Rental Mokes must also be registered, and owners selling or discarding a Moke must notify Public Safety to update records.

Driver's License Requirement

All Moke drivers must have a valid driver's license to operate the vehicle within the community.

Why These Changes?

Originally used as military vehicles in the 1960s, Mokes have become popular for leisurely coastal driving. Classified as Low-Speed Vehicles (LSVs) under Florida law, they can legally operate on roads with speed limits of 35 MPH or less, aligning with Ocean Reef's 5, 15, and 25 MPH speed limits.

Mokes are significantly larger than golf carts. At 131 inches long and 65 inches wide, they exceed the typical golf cart's 92-inch length and 48-inch width, making them unsuitable for golf cart parking spaces.

Safety & Compliance Guidelines

Ariel Artime, ORCA's Vice President/Director of Public Safety and Operations, emphasizes the importance of safe Moke operation. He offers the following reminders:

1. Register the vehicle with ORCA Public Safety and display the decal.
2. Follow passenger limits and avoid overcrowding.
3. Do not let children sit on adults' laps, especially the driver.
4. Wear seat belts. Seat belts can be installed at the Club's Cart Repair shop.
5. Turn on headlights at night for visibility.
6. Drive cautiously, following all traffic laws.
7. Alert passengers before turning to prevent injuries.
8. Adhering to these rules will ensure a safer, more orderly community for everyone. For more details, contact the ORCA Public Safety Department at 305-367-2222.

ORCA NEWS

ORCA's Guide to Mini Lobster Season

One of the busiest events in the Florida Keys is fast approaching: Mini Lobster Season, taking place this year on Wednesday and Thursday, July 30–31. This popular two-day tradition offers a unique opportunity to enjoy our waters and harvest spiny lobster ahead of the commercial season. While it's a highlight for many, it also brings mixed feelings due to the surge of visitors to the area.

Whether you plan to dive or snorkel, preparation is essential. Stay informed and follow all state and local regulations to help ensure a safe, responsible, and enjoyable experience for everyone.

Key Rules & Reminders:

- Daily Bag Limit: Six lobsters per person, per day.
- Minimum Size Requirement: Carapace must be over three inches and measured in the water. A measuring device is required.
- Night Diving: Prohibited in Monroe County during mini season (one hour after sunset to one hour before sunrise).
- Restricted Areas: Lobster harvesting is prohibited in:
  - John Pennekamp Coral Reef State Park
  - Everglades National Park
  - Dry Tortugas National Park
  - No-take zones within the Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary
  - Biscayne Bay/Card Sound Lobster Sanctuary
  - Coral Reef Protection Areas in Biscayne National Park

Review maps and local guidance to ensure you are operating outside restricted zones.

License Requirements

Participants must hold a valid Florida recreational saltwater fishing license and a spiny lobster permit (unless specifically exempt by state law).

Please adhere to these guidelines:

- Dive Flags: Always display a dive flag when divers are in the water and remove it when underway.

- Essential Gear: Gloves, a tickle stick, a net or lobster looper, and a catch bag are required tools.
- No Egg-Bearing Lobsters: It's illegal to harvest lobsters carrying eggs.
- No Harmful Devices: Tools that puncture, crush, or damage lobster shells are prohibited. Remember: harvesting responsibly helps preserve this tradition for future generations.

If you miss the mini season, the regular spiny lobster season begins August 6 and runs through March 31.

Boating Safety

With increased boating traffic, ORCA reminds Members of key boating safety tips from Pete Liashek, Flotilla Public Education Officer, USCG Auxiliary, Ocean Reef Flotilla:

- Keep a Lookout: The primary cause of accidents is not having a lookout. Ensure someone is watching the water to alert you to nearby boat traffic.
  - Situational Awareness: Stay aware of your surroundings, including other boats, swimmers, and obstacles.
  - Safety Equipment: Ensure guests know the location of safety gear like life jackets, flares, and fire extinguishers.
  - Life Jackets: Confirm you have appropriately sized life jackets for everyone on board. Standard "red" life jackets are not suitable for children.
  - Provisions: Ensure you have sufficient water and food, as dehydration can happen more quickly while boating.
  - Boating Card: Boaters born after January 1, 1988, must carry a Florida state boating card. Certification can also reduce insurance premiums. Visit MyFWC.com/boating for info. For more information, visit the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWC) at myfwc.com.
- We wish all Members a safe, successful, and sustainable lobster mini season!

Trash Talking the Raccoons

by Felicia M. Koretsky

Let's start with a firm disclaimer: No raccoons were injured, harassed, drugged, or captured for this article.

Without directly insulting these nocturnal nuisances, the fact is, we do not appreciate their late-night trash parties. Nothing spoils a morning faster than seeing your garbage and recycling cans knocked over, with your personal debris for all to see, scattered across your driveway. Pretty embarrassing.

Over the last couple of years, Solid Waste Associates have noticed a trend: Members are fighting back. Not with traps or complaints, but with creativity, determination, and possibly a little too much time on their hands.

It's become a battle of psychological island warfare. If you were pitching this storyline to Netflix, you might describe it as "Survivor" meets "MacGyver." Both sides are determined to outwit, outplay, and outlast the other.

We have clever raccoons (known to be smarter than dogs) versus inventive Members (known for category five defense skills, even in non-weather-related threats). While the Members are starting to win some battles through ingenuity, it usually takes a few failed attempts.

Simply put, Reef raccoons do not go down without a fight. Motion-activated sprinklers, flashing lights, and high-frequency radio waves may work the first night. But once these rascals realize these are just Member-made distractions, the gig is up. They're back the next night, more determined than ever.

Solid Waste Manager Jorge

The result of googling "trash can locks" makes it seem like we're not alone at The Reef when it comes to raccoon problems!

"George" Espinoza said his team has witnessed some admirable efforts from Members to secure their cans and lids. But before we get into raccoon-defense highlights, it's worth revisiting some trash prep basics because not everyone has quite mastered the art.

Trash Rules

All trash must be bagged, tied, and placed inside the can. No loose scraps. No flung-in food. No freestyle box tossing.

Small boxes? Break them down and put them in your recycling bin.

Medium and large boxes? Call Solid Waste for pickup.

Recyclables go in the blue containers. They are defined as plastics, paper, cans, and glass.

Sounds simple, right? And yet, the Solid Waste Team has fished out water hoses, metal scraps, pillows, and shoes from recycling bins. The most notable find to date was a half-eaten turkey thrown in the day after Thanksgiving. We assume this was a misguided attempt at recycling leftovers. But we digress.

Keep it Classy, Can it Right

Proper trash prep isn't just about aesthetics, though at ORC, even our garbage is expected to follow a dress code. When it's done right, it saves the Solid Waste crew serious time. During the season, on trash pickup days, four small trucks empty over 2,000 cans over seven hours. Each truck unloads up to six times a day. If bags aren't tied, boxes aren't broken down, or lids aren't secure, the crew has to stop, re-bag, or clean up debris, which slows everyone down.

Now, back to the raccoons.

Some Members have employed genuinely impressive tactics. A few have repurposed golf cart and car seat belts to strap down lids. One added screw-in hooks to the top of their cans that twist-lock the lids in place. Others have gone full Fort Knox and built cages around their containers.

The Solid Waste Department appreciates these innovations as they help speed up collection. But you don't have to be a DIY trash wrap wizard. Plenty of (non-toxic, non-harmful) anti-raccoon solutions are available for purchase. Just Google "trash can locks" or "garbage container sheds" for ideas.

And once your raccoon deterrents arrive, don't forget to call Solid Waste to collect the boxes they came in.

Summertime Dinner Made Easy

by Jody Steele

After a day on Buccaneer Island, a few tennis or pickleball games, snorkeling off of Carysfort Lighthouse, or some summer fishing, you might need an easy evening at home especially if there is any chance of rain.

The first question on everyone's mind is always "so what are we doing for dinner?" By now, you and most of the family are probably cleaned up and in your comfy clothes. Boats, golf clubs, and other toys are put away along with golf carts. AND one of the last things anyone wants to think about is tackling the kitchen.

To the rescue comes REEF EATS! Ryan Schmidt, Chef de Cuisine, and his capable team have the motto:

"Whether drizzling or a huge downpour, we are ready to deliver peace of mind and comfort to your door!"

All you need to do is view the menu on oceanreef.com/dining or call 305-367-5898 to order.

Chef Ryan shared some of the following suggestions for all ages and palates:

Pizza Night: Classic Cheese, Margarita, or Build Your Own with Unlimited Toppings in two sizes, 10" or 16". Add a salad for a complete meal.

Sushi Offerings: Melanie Roll, Spicy Tuna Roll, or California Roll-order a few and share for sushi night.

Soups, Salads & Starters: Butternut Squash Soup, Chicken Wings, Kobe Beef Sliders, Chopped Kale & Beets Salad for a light meal.

Sandwiches: Club Sandwich, Cheeseburger, Chicken Salad and along with some fruit and chips, a simple summer buffet.

Chinese Food Night: Pork Potstickers, Spring Rolls,

General Tso's Chicken, Orange Chicken, Mongolian Beef, and more all delivered in special Chinese takeout boxes with all the sauces and chopsticks for fun!

Dinner for Two: For an elegant dinner-Grilled King Salmon or a Grilled Filet Mignon with perfect accompaniments. A bottle of wine would be a nice touch.

Kids Dinner: Chicken Quesadilla, Cheeseburger Sliders, Pasta and more.

Reef Eats has desserts for those sweet cravings and even ice cream! There is also an ample list of beverages including beers, wines, and liquors by the bottle for individuals 21 years of age or older-signature required.

FEATURED BOTTLE OF THE MONTH TEQUILA KOMOS REPOSADO ROSA

Hailing from Jalisco, Mexico and made in the traditional fashion with only 100% Blue Weber agave, Tequila Komos Reposado Rosa has a few choice differences that sets it apart from many of its tequila counterparts. Its beautiful pink hue in the glass comes from French red wine barrels that this reposado tequila spends the last two months of its maturation inside. All of the Komos tequilas also partake in a light aeration of the tequilas before they are bottled, giving them a smooth, richly-textured mouthfeel. The wine cask finish gives the Reposado a wonderful mixture of agave and dark fruit on the bouquet that links to the same blackberry and plum on the palate, with just a hint of dark chocolate and butterscotch. Each bottle is hand-glazed porcelain with a reflective glaze that pays homage to the natural beauty of Jalisco and is meant to be cherished and reused in different capacities to honor the traditions of sustainability in the production of their tequilas. Come by and snag one today at Port O' Call! $126 per bottle. See hours of operation on page 31.

Taking the Plunge

by Rev. Dr.
Dan Meyer,
Chaplain-In-Residence

At the Swimming Pool

It was nearly the end of the summer and four-year-old, Dylan Stitch, still hadn't taken the plunge. His parents had tried everything to inspire him to jump off the diving board but to no avail. As Dylan's mom, Marla, describes it, "We kept saying, 'Hey, you want to give it a shot? You want to give it a try?' But Dylan had no interest in it, ever."

Enter Daniel Bliss. While attending a neighborhood pool party, the 95-year-old heard everyone trying to coax Dylan off the board. Bliss was an Air Force veteran of World War II and the Korean War. He knew a few things about fear and bravery and that sometimes what we need in scary moments is just an example.

So, Daniel asked a neighbor if he could borrow a swimsuit. With cane in hand, Bliss stepped up on the diving board for the first time in fifty years. The people at the pool party gasped and then held their breath. "Will this be a lesson in courage or in the need for first aid?"

Daniel later said: "I was up there that far, I figured I may as well go through with it." So, at the age of 95, he dove for Dylan.

It wasn't a particularly elegant or athletic dive. Nothing close to an Olympian. But it was enough, because moments after Daniel Bliss took his LAST jump off of a diving board, Dylan Stitch took his FIRST.

Today, Dylan jumps with no problem. Doing so is one of his great joys. He can hardly even remember the time when he was too scared to make that leap. But that transformation might never have happened, had a much older person not been willing to set an example.

Risks & Rewards

Fear is one of the greatest limiting factors on human joy, growth and fulfillment. It stops us from experiencing so many of the goods that could be ours if we would only take the plunge.

Obviously, there are some risks not worth taking. I recall jumping off the roof of a shed when I was five years old and getting quite hurt because I'd neglected to read the fine print on my new Superman cape: "Caution: Cape does not enable user to fly!" True story. But some risks carry rewards that we will miss out on if we allow fear to run our lives. To this point, I once read the story of a man who sought to live a very safe life:

"He saw people love each other and he saw that all love made strenuous demands upon the lovers. He saw love require sacrifice and self-denial. He saw love produce arguments and anguish. And he decided that it cost too much. So, he decided not to diminish his life with love.

"He saw people strive for lofty goals and he saw that the striving was frequently mixed with disappointment. He saw strong people fail. And he decided that it cost too much. So, he decided not to mar his life with striving.

"He saw people serving others and giving money to the poor and helpless. And he saw that while they served, the need continued to grow. He saw ungrateful receivers. So, he decided not to soil his life with serving.

"And when he died, he walked up to God and presented Him with his life. Undiminished, unmarred, and unsoiled, his life was clean from the dirt and danger of the world, and he presented it proudly saying, 'This is my life.'

And the great God said: 'What life?'

In Pursuit of Courage

All of us live with some measure of fear. We and those we love are not stupid to do risk assessments. Some leaps should not be taken no matter how red our capes. But life is, fundamentally, an adventure that demands some measure of faith and daring.

I love what Franklin D. Roosevelt observed about this: "Courage," he said, "is not the absence of fear, but rather the assessment that something else is more important." Establishing a life filled with love, reaching lofty goals, serving others, experiencing the thrill of victory—all of these things are more important than the occasional agonies of defeat.

It strikes me that one of the greatest gifts we can make to younger generations (as well as our peers) is to help them understand the risk-reward relationship and to help bolster their courage to take some leaps. As Daniel Bliss seemed to perceive, sometimes that requires getting up on the diving board ourselves and taking a plunge.

May you have a splash-filled summer.

We Mourn the Loss

Sally Quigg Peterson

Long-time Ocean Reef Member Sally Quigg Peterson, 89, wife of Warren A. Peterson, Jr., died June 23, 2025, a week shy of her 90th birthday, of complications from a stroke.

Born in St. Louis, MO, Sally grew up in Highland Park, IL, and graduated from Bradford Junior College (Haverhill, MA), followed by Northwestern University, where she was a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

She met Warren, the love of her life, in high school, and they were married on her 21st birthday. They would have celebrated their 69th wedding anniversary on June 30.

Sally and Warren first visited Ocean Reef in 1972 as guests and returned several times before purchasing their beautiful garden home on Pumpkin Cay. Very quickly, their getaway home became their main residence, spending summers only in Lake Forest, IL. They remained on Snapper Lane for 42 years before relocating to The Sanctuary in 2021.

Sally was actively involved all over The Reef, from Ladies'

Day tennis (originally at the Health & Tennis Club), golf at Card Sound, or Zumba at the Member Fitness Center, to trips and parties with the Ocean Reef Yacht Club, the Garden Group, and Questers Choose and Cherish chapter. She especially loved her collection of orchids (at one time nearly 100 in her garden), Sunday pecan rolls and coffee at The Point, and being out on the water. She even performed with her husband in one of the Ocean Reef Follies productions.

Sally was a beautiful and elegant woman who dressed impeccably and was never without perfect hair and lipstick. Always fashionable, she in later life was known for her signature blue nails. Her husband was once asked how it felt to be married to "the most beautiful girl in the room."

She loved collecting antiques and treasures from extensive travels around the world with her husband, many tied to his affiliations with the AMSA/PMA, YPO and CEO organizations, where they made many close lifelong friendships, many of whom also lived at Ocean Reef.

She dearly loved her West Highland terriers - a breed she discovered on a visit to London and decided she must have; her beautiful gardens; her many friends; and, of course, her family.

Sally is survived by her husband, Warren, daughter, Martha Peterson Shaw (Andrew), grandchildren (ORC Legacy Members) Haley Peterson Shepherd (Kyle) and Brody Arnet Peterson (Mallory). She was predeceased by her son, Warren Arnet Peterson, III in 2023. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Medical Center at Ocean Reef or the Jr. Garden Club of Lake Forest.

Services will be private.

Remembering Jean Robert Jullot

By Didi Streit, Member since 2011

Jean Robert Jullot, affectionately known as JJ, died suddenly while on vacation of a heart attack on June 12. He was a loyal member of the Ocean Reef Golf Staff for over 30 years, where he worked with dedication and pride. I know personally that he always had a huge smile in greeting the Members and the Ocean Reef golfing staff treated him like family.

His memorial service was incredibly heartfelt, with his children giving their reflections on the love they had for him. I am quoting a writing from the program that said this:

"JJ was a true gentleman - a classic man who carried himself with confidence, pride, and quiet strength. He was deeply devoted to his family and leaves behind a legacy of love, hard work, and community."

Ocean Reef Club was mentioned several times by his children in their reflections, and how important it was in their Dad's life.

Ben Claus, Bill Miller, Lucien Lassin, Matt Costigan, and Fred Sherman at JJ's memorial.

Mindfulness

We live in an age of ceaseless information, with a cacophony of distractions. At any given moment the mind is processing too many "to do" lists in everyday life and we are rushing, forgetting and causing an even more distracted and chaotic mind.

And those distracted, overwhelmed, tired moments are ripe for accidents.

Tripping on a stair, a throw rug, dropping and misplacing things- easy to do when you are not paying attention.

Creating a habit of mindfulness takes on the onus of reminding ourselves to be mindful, especially when rushed, tired and overwhelmed. Practice creating "the pause"-stopping to take a breath or two to reset.

A daily practice of mindfulness might look like this:

- Set aside moments each day for quiet reflection. Turn off devices, close your eyes, and simply observe your thoughts.

- Creative Breaks: When stuck on a problem, step away from active thinking. The mind often finds solutions in the quiet after effort.
- Nature Walks: Spend time in natural environments where human noise is minimal and allow the soundscape to refresh your senses.

The Dive Shop at The Reef: Where Adventure Meets Conservation

by Mary
Brady

Tucked above the Marina in the heart of the Fishing Village, The Dive Shop at The Reef is more than just a storefront — it's a gateway to exploration, learning, and environmental stewardship in the Florida Keys. Though intimate in size, the shop is bursting with energy and possibility, serving as both a gathering place for adventurers and a champion of marine conservation.

Every day, the Dive Shop invites guests to experience the crystal-clear waters surrounding Carysfort Lighthouse, one of the oldest working lighthouses in North America. These daily snorkeling excursions offer stunning views of coral reefs teeming with tropical fish, while guided scuba dives provide a deeper plunge into the underwater world. Each guided dive includes tanks and weights, and is led by experienced professionals who ensure both safety and excitement.

For those eager to become certified divers, the Dive Shop is proud to offer a full range of PADI scuba certification courses — from beginner Open Water Diver to advanced specialties. Under the leadership of General Manager Jesus Gudino, the shop has become a trusted destination for quality scuba instruction. In fact, the Dive Shop was recently honored with a 20-Year Award of Partnership from PADI, recognizing two decades of commitment to excellence in dive training, safety, and environmental awareness. This prestigious milestone underscores the shop's long-standing role in shaping responsible divers and ocean advocates.

In addition to excursions and certification programs, the shop offers everything needed for a successful day on (and under) the water — including gear rentals, sales, equipment servicing, and air fills. Whether you're a first-time snorkeler or a seasoned diver, you'll find knowledgeable support and a friendly, laid-back atmosphere that feels like home.

The Dive Shop also plays a critical role in marine conservation. Through collaborations with organizations like Reef Renewal USA and REEF, it hosts programs that allow guests to directly contribute to reef restoration and protection efforts. A highlight of these efforts is the Summer Camp at The Dive Shop — a week-long, hands-on experience for youth that blends fun and purpose. Campers participate in coral nursery expansion, fish counts, and reef cleanups as part of the Goal: Clean Seas Florida Keys initiative in partnership with the Florida Keys and National Marine Sanctuary.

Dive Shop General Manager and Co-owner Jesus Gudino holds their PADI 20-Year Award of Outstanding Service trophy.

From daily dives and snorkeling trips to PADI certifications, sunset cruises, and conservation events, The Dive Shop at The Reef is a place where adventure and purpose go hand in hand. It's where families connect, friendships form, and a love for the ocean grows — all just steps from the sea.

SPOT ON SHOPPING

Joan the Shopper Surprises from MarineMax

I recently ran into Holly Houser in the Fishing Village. She was on her way to the MarineMax Ship Store to find a gift for her father... I had always thought of MarineMax as a fisherman's paradise. It had never occurred to me that it might be a good source for gifts.... But Holly Houser (ORC's Assistant Director of Communications and Editor of the Ocean Reef Press) is a well-informed OR shopper. I decided to follow her lead and here are just a few of the surprises I discovered at the MarineMax Ship Store.

SUNGLASSES.... Holly found a pair of Costa Del Mar sunglasses, that were perfect for her father. MarineMax has a huge supply of important brands for both men and women ($150 to 500).

SHOES.... There is a big choice of sneakers, flip-flops, comfortable flats (often waterproof). Check out my favorite waterproof boots ($55 from XRATUF).

YETI PRODUCTS –cups, thermos bottles of all sizes and, if you are into big and beautiful totes for land or sea, then Yeti's impressive Camino Carryall was made for you ($150).

SEASCAPES.... At MarineMax there is an impressive collection of stunning nautical scenes like the Carysfort Lighthouse ($750). No need for a frame, the pictures are in Plexiglas and ready to enhance any wall.

A DOG'S LIFE.... Useful and playful items for your dog, including Dawson Swim Life Jacket ($40 to 60).

STAY WARM.... This Sand Shacklet (Aficio, $79.00) is outdoorsy but stylish... It pairs nicely with the outstanding Pelagic pants ($75). They are built for fishing but are also swell for offshore ventures.

HATS ON.... MarineMax Ship Store has got your head covered. There are sun hats, rain hats and caps galore. I found a hat I couldn't resist – Kids Fun Bucket in a children's large size ($25). It is the perfect gift. To: ME – From: ME!

Chef Betania's Kitchen

Cheese Shrimp Spring Rolls (12 rolls)

by Betania Salles,
Carysfort
Kitchen Chef
de Cuisine

This dish is so yummy! We made this recipe during the Kids Camp and it was everyone's favorite. It is crunchy, cheesy and amazingly flavorful. I really recommend to marinate the shrimp in advance – it is a game changer. It is a perfect recipe to make on a family-fun cooking night. Enjoy!

Ingredients for filling:

- 1/2 lb. shrimp, 16/20 size, peeled and deveined
- 1 tbsp. Shaoxing rice wine
- 1 tbsp. soy sauce

- 1 tsp. ginger, grated
- 1/4 tsp. white pepper powder

Ingredients for Spring Roll:

- 12 tps. green Onions, finely chopped
- 12 tbsps. mozzarella cheese, shredded
- 12 spring roll wrappers
- 4 cups vegetable oil
- 2 tbsps. all-purpose flour + 2 tbsps. water

Ingredients for Sauce:

- 4 tbsps. ketchup
- 2 tbsps. rice vinegar
- 2 tbsps. Sriracha sauce

- 2 tps. honey

Directions:

- Chop the shrimp into 1/2-inch pieces. Transfer to a bowl. Add Shaoxing wine, soy sauce, ginger and white pepper powder. Mix well and let marinate for five minutes.
- Set up all the ingredients before assembling the spring roll. Discard any extra marinade from the shrimp. This is very important so the shrimp won't be too wet to cause the wrapper to break apart.
- Mix flour with water to a paste, use it as a glue when closing the rolls.

- Divide shrimp into 12 equal portions. On the lower of the wrapper add one portion of shrimp, 1 tbsp. mozzarella cheese and 1 tsp. green onion on the lower third of the wrappers. Fold the bottom to cover the filling.
- Then fold both sides of the wrapper towards the center, smear with the flour/water "glue." Tuck and roll the filling upward to seal the wrapper until it forms the spring roll.
- Place each spring roll in a tray, seam side down. Pour the oil onto a medium pot, at medium heat. When oil gets hot, start frying the spring rolls four at a time.
- Fry them until rolls are golden brown, about 2-3 minutes, then transfer them to a tray lined with paper towel.
- In a small mixing bowl, combine all ingredients for sauce, stir until well combined.
- Serve springs roll while still hot with the sauce.

K18 AirWash: A Hair Lifesaver

"Spa Notes"
by Michelle Santiago, Spa
Manager

Dry shampoo has evolved from a backstage beauty trick into a must-have in everyday haircare routines. Whether you're balancing a packed schedule, extending the life of a blowout, or just looking for a quick refresh between washes, dry shampoo offers a fast and effective way to keep hair looking fresh. But with so many options on the market, choosing the right one can feel overwhelming. After trying countless formulas, I recently discovered K18 AirWash, and it's officially earned a permanent spot in my routine.

K18 has been a favorite in our salon. Our team and Members trust this science-backed brand for its impressive, consistent results. That's why we're especially excited to now carry K18's newest innovation: AirWash Dry Shampoo.

This isn't your average dry shampoo. K18 AirWash is a biotech-powered, waterless cleansing mist designed to remove odor, oil, and buildup without the dulling effects of traditional formulas. It's a game-changer for anyone who wants fresh, clean-feeling hair without compromising softness, shine, or scalp health.

The real magic lies in its

K18 AirWash is now available for purchase at the Sunrise Villa Salon.

advanced biotech formulation, which includes:

OdorBIND Technology: A molecular deodorizing complex that neutralizes odor-causing particles instead of just masking them.

Lightweight Oil-Absorbing Agents: These innovative cleansing molecules absorb excess oil and sweat without leaving a heavy or powdery residue.

pH-Optimized Ingredients: Formulated to support the scalp's natural balance, helping maintain hair health, shine, and manageability.

Just spray K18 AirWash onto dry hair and scalp, focusing on oily or flat areas. It gets to work instantly, leaving your hair refreshed, as if you just washed it, but without the time or water. Perfect for post-workout touch-ups, travel, or those "just one more day" styling moments.

K18 AirWash is more than just a dry shampoo, it's a high-performance refresh mist that brings cutting-edge biotech into your everyday routine. We're thrilled to now offer K18 AirWash in the Sunrise Villa Salon, and we think you'll love it as much as we do.

The progression of Dolphin Hole #5, taken May 26, June 11, June 13 and July 24 respectively.

Project Dolphin: A Fresh Take on Hole #5

This summer, Dolphin Course Hole #5 is undergoing a thoughtful redesign as part of the Club's ongoing commitment to elevating the playing experience for Members and guests.

To execute this project, the Club hired renowned golf course architect Andrew Green, who has designed a handful of celebrated courses including Congressional Country Club, Oak Hill Country Club East Course, and Manasquan River Golf Club. Of Ocean Reef's new Hole #5 design, Green said, "When working on an established property with so much tradition, it is important that smaller projects fit the fabric of the whole. On the Dolphin, the 5th hole looked to benefit from a more interesting yet usable surface, a distance that helped the par 3s on the course be more diversified, and a green site that offered a balance of challenge and playability."

One of the most noticeable changes golfers will experience is the increased length: Hole #5 will now play approximately 20 yards longer on average.

Additionally, and to better withstand seasonal King Tides, the lowest portion of the green has been raised by 13 inches, a change that will significantly reduce stress on the turf and surrounding areas. Alongside this elevation, the green itself has been expanded by over 1,000 square feet. As Eric Bennett, Director of Agronomy, notes, "the new green will have a lot of character."

Grassed with TifEagle Bermuda, the green promises smooth, true putting conditions, while the surrounding areas feature Celebration Bermuda, known for its durability and lush appearance.

The reshaping of Hole #5 also involved the removal of the left and back bunkers, replaced by strategic mounding along the entire left side and front approach. These natural ground hazards will introduce new decision-making elements.

As of now, all grassing is complete, and the course has moved into the grow-in phase, an important period where turf establishes root systems and conditions are fine-tuned for play. The entire project remains on time and on budget.

Hammock Course Update: New Tiki Hut at the Starter Area

Also, the Club will soon begin work on enhancing the Hammock Course Starter Area, where a new tiki hut is being constructed. The hut will feature a hydration station and sand bottle storage, with fresh pavers being installed beneath and around the structure. A landscape refresh will complete the upgrade.

This area will be ready by November.

OR Community Comes Together in Guatemala

A mission team from OR Chapel descended upon an orphanage in Guatemala to lend a helping hand last month. The orphanage houses 100 kids and another 250 attend the on-campus school.

The group worked on four projects: The bathroom at the church, placing a roof on the house of a grandmother, painting one of the on-campus houses, and, of course, the biggest hit of all, pickleball, which couldn't have been received with more enthusiasm!

One night, all the boys went to McDonald's for a Big Mac meal with the men on the team, while the girls stayed back to enjoy a tea party! They all dressed up, and were served tea in fine clothes and took lots of pictures. The next night, the group took 60 girls and 25 staff to McDonald's, while the boys stayed back and enjoyed dodgeball, movies and s'mores!

On the last day, the team went to Antigua for some stunning views. They enjoyed local cuisine, sightseeing and ziplining!

Back on campus, they enjoyed the final show: "The despedida (farewell)," where each group of kids presented either a dance, a performance or a card to the group. It was very moving to watch these little ones express their gratitude. The tears flowed all around!

The next day, the group took off with heavy, but happy, hearts. But they will return! The next trip is scheduled for June 15-20, 2026. The group is very proud of what they have accomplished in under one week and are grateful for the community that helps make it possible.

BONEFISH BONNIES

MAHI Madness

by Mary
Bloom,
Bonefish
Bonnies

In her Fourth of July greetings to the Bonefish Bonnie's, President Kristina Ersek highlighted what summertime offshore fishing means: Mahi Madness. The Gulf Stream pushes closer to shore in the summer months and anglers start scanning the horizon for schoolies, the smaller, younger mahi-mahi. She said, "These fish may not win size contests, but they win hearts with nonstop action and spectacular surface strikes." She shared one old-school trick with the Bonnie's. Keep one fish hooked in the water next to the boat and it will often keep the rest of the school circling nearby, referring to the setup as perfect for introducing new anglers to the thrill of offshore fishing. In keeping with the Bonnie's' support of sustainable fishing, Ersek shared these thoughts,

No schoolie mahi here. Bonefish Bonnie Lisa Guyton found a big one.

"Just be mindful of local size and bag limits, and consider releasing the smallest fish so they can grow into next season's bulls and cows."

BB Trip Opportunities

In addition to the already announced 2025-2026 Bonefish Bonnie's Fishaways to Crocodile Bay Resort in Costa Rica in February, Flamingo Lodge in The Everglades in March and Missouri River Lodge in Montana in September of 2026, Lisa Guyton, chairperson of the Trip Committee, has announced a return trip to Mangrove Cay Club located in Andros, The Bahamas April 27- May 1, 2026. ## Big Cup Golf Tournament

"From the Gold Tees" by Ben Claus, Director of Golf

Thank you for spending a memorable Independence Day weekend with us here at Ocean Reef Club. To celebrate the birthday of the United States of America, we hosted the fan-favorite Big Cup Tournament! There was a fantastic turnout, with 70 players competing throughout the morning and early afternoon. During the round, each participant played their own ball and took advantage of 12-inch wide hole locations. The fireworks were going off on the golf course all day long, with the majority of golfers able to score in the RED numbers. Our most patriotic participants filled up their scorecards with eagles.

The friendly nature of the hole locations led to a closely contested race for first place in the Gross and Net divisions. Congratulations to Hampton Beebe Jr. for winning 1st Place Gross with a final score of 60, and to Wendy Brainard for winning 1st Place Net with a score of 53. Wendy Brainard was able to win the Net division by scorecard playoff over Griffin Mello, who also turned in a Net score of 53. Congratulations to both of our 2025 Big Cup Tournament Champions!

July Hole-In-Ones

The month of July has already yielded three hole-in-ones! Congratulations to Christine Langley, Blair Adams, and Alex Post for securing one of golf's most elusive feats!

GOLF COURSE MAINTENANCE TIP

Maintaining Our Golf Courses for Better Play

By Tim Watson,
Assistant Golf Professional

Although Ocean Reef's golf courses are currently in their off-season with less than usual play due to the high temperatures, it's still imperative to look after yourselves and repair any damage that you encounter.

Bunker Etiquette

When your golf ball finds the bunker (or sand trap) while playing a round of golf, there are a few important tips to ensure you're carefully entering, exiting, and repairing the damage caused by your feet and club. Always enter and exit the bunker from the low side. This helps maintain quality turf conditions that live on the face of the bunker, as well as ensure a steady level of sand across the entire area. Climbing up the face of the bunker causes unnecessary wear and tear to the soil holding the face of the bunker in place.

When raking the bunker after your shot, do your best to leave the conditions in better shape than you found them. Sometimes, this may require you to clean up some missed footprints from a golfer in front of you. Paying it forward on the golf course always leads to good karma from the 'golf gods'!

Pitch Marks

It's common for a high-lofted shot to come crashing down onto the putting green and create a crater from the impact into the grass. This is okay!

Much like creating divots in the fairway, this damage can always be repaired. However, the timeliness of the repair is what's most important. When left unattended for just 24 hours, an unfixed ball mark takes approximately 14 days to heal back to its natural shape. However, when a pitch mark is fixed on the green once it's made, only 24 hours are needed for the green to revert to the shape it was in.

Care for the golf course plays such an important role in the golfers' responsibilities. As staff, we always want to ensure we have pristine conditions for our Members and their guests to enjoy. If we all join together to help each other, we'll maintain those conditions for many years ahead!

How To Repair a Ball Mark

A few extra seconds is all it takes to keep the putting greens looking and playing their best.

CHOOSE WISELY

A ball mark repair tool is recommended, but other pointed devices can be used.

PUSH DON'T PRY

Starting from the back and sides, gently push & stretch the turf to the center of the mark.

WORK AROUND

Work around the ball mark until it's filled in. Avoid lifting & twisting the turf harshly.

FINAL TOUCH

Use your putter to lightly tap down the mark. Fix other marks in addition to yours.

COAST GUARD AUXILIARY

Semper Paratus

by Fiona Woods,
Ocean Reef
Coast Guard
Auxiliary

This year the Coast Guard Auxiliary is celebrating the 86th anniversary of its founding by congress in 1939. The intended goal, then as now, was to form a cadre of volunteers willing to give of themselves in support of the Coast Guard's mission to improve maritime safety. As the mission has broadened and need for the Coast Guard has grown over the years, the Auxiliary has remained in firm partnership offering this fundamental truth: We are here for you. This simple premise holds true at Ocean Reef and across the nation.

During the past year the Auxiliary has conducted over

March 2025. New and legacy members of Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotillas 13-04 (Ocean Reef) and 13-08 (Upper Keys) visit Coast Guard Station Islamorada at the invitation of Chief Petty Officer Gerald Sparkman Jr. (right) to understand how Auxiliarists might currently support Coast Guard Missions.

77,000 safety checks for recreational vessels and devoted more than 1.7 million hours of support in various missions. Along with distinct and shining examples that make headline news, this includes the tireless work of many unmentioned heroes whose actions often save a life by improving knowledge, encouraging responsibility or inspiring correct actions on the water.

Safety does not happen by chance. Auxiliarists, including 18 of your friends and neighbors who are new this year to our flotilla, as well as stalwart members, are continually training in the ways of Team Coast Guard.

Basic Qualification involves multiple courses in various disciplines before a person can elect to specialize in areas such as boat crew, public education, radio operation, leadership, or supporting emergency management and response efforts. In our flotilla our members have logged hundreds of hours of training this year.

In times of crisis, sending prayers or funding are important, and ease compassion fatigue engendered by news cycles. However, being willing and able to serve in person brings a whole new level of meaning.

New members James McCann, Raymond Rodriguez-Torres, Brad Millsap and Currie Wooten observe a Communications Watch Stander at Station Islamorada. Watch standing is a role open to Auxiliarists.

In several recent headline-making events the assistance that was most needed was from people trained in support services. This tangible giving of one's self embodies the best of our service's core values of honor, respect and devotion to duty.

I am honored and proud to serve alongside my flotilla shipmates. That each has made a remarkable commitment to serve our country in everyday ways and through extraordinary times of crisis finds me indebted to them.

So, to each one of you, fellow members of the Auxiliary Ocean Reef Flotilla, I would like to recognize and thank you for everything you have done and will continue to do. I am grateful for your service, for becoming and remaining Semper Paratus.

Staying Motivated for the Second Half of 2025:

Movement, Longevity & Quality of Life

by Blanca Siles, Member Fitness Center Trainer & Professional Figure Athlete

As we step into the second half of 2025, it's the perfect moment to reflect on how far you've come this year and set your sights on where you want to go next.

For many, especially those who value their mobility, independence, and quality of life, these next six months are an opportunity to continue building on the foundation you've created – or to start fresh with intention and clarity.

Here are my thoughts and tips to stay motivated through the rest of 2025:

1. Remember What Movement Means for You

Movement isn't just about exercise. It's about maintaining the ability to enjoy your daily life – from golfing or pickleball, walking the dog, playing with grandchildren, to travelling with ease. When you view movement as your gateway to freedom, motivation becomes deeper than "working out."

2. Commit to Small, Meaningful Routines

You don't need to overhaul your entire routine. Choose one to two things to anchor your day: a morning stretch routine, a daily walk with friends, or gentle resistance training for your joints and bones. Consistency in small habits creates lasting changes in strength, balance, and energy.

3. Celebrate Your Wins – Big or Small

Perhaps you've improved your posture, reduced stiffness in your hips, or maintained your bone density. These are powerful achievements. Acknowledge them and use them as fuel to continue prioritizing your health.

4. Stay Connected

In a club like ORC, there is incredible power in staying social. Join group fitness classes, water aerobics, or yoga sessions. Connecting with others not Seven time Club Fitness Champion Bob "The Plankster" Schwartz is now a Guinness World Record holder. We congratulate Bob on this fantastic accomplishment!

Anton Schutz Jr. completed three mountain marathons in three days as a participant of the 29029 Trail event in Park City, Utah.

only builds accountability but also nourishes mental health, happiness, and motivation.

5. Think About Your Future Self

Imagine yourself six months from now, entering the holiday season feeling strong, mobile, and vibrant. Each day is an investment in that future – an opportunity to wake up with confidence in your body's abilities.

Movement is Medicine

I always remind my clients: your body is designed to move, at every age and stage of life. Exercise is not about punishment; it is about preservation – preserving your independence, dignity, and joy.

Wishing you a powerful, energized, and fulfilling second half of 2025. Keep showing up for yourself – your future self will thank you.

Five Winning Doubles Strategies for Tennis Players

by Hannah
Fleckenstein,
Director of
Racquet Sports

Hello and happy summer from the Tennis & Games Center! We are staying busy here with a full schedule of camps. With many summer leagues and sectional events happening in the next month, the pro staff and I thought we would highlight a few important strategies when playing doubles. Enjoy!

Doubles tennis is as much about teamwork and strategy as it is about strokes. Whether you're a weekend warrior or an aspiring league champion, these five strategies can elevate your doubles game:

1. Dominate the Net

Control of the net often decides doubles matches. When both players move forward together, they cut off angles and force opponents into risky lobs or errors. Practice split-stepping and volleying in sync with your partner.

2. Prioritize a High First Serve Percentage

Starting a point with a strong, well-placed first serve immediately puts pressure on returners. Instead of going for risky aces, aim for consistency and placement—especially targeting the weaker returner or setting up your partner at the net. A high first serve percentage allows your team to dictate play and keep opponents on the defensive.

3. Poach with Purpose

A well-timed poach can instantly change momentum.

Don't just guess—read your opponents' body language and anticipate their shot. Communicate with your partner so the server knows when you plan to cross and cover.

4. Use Lobs Strategically

The lob isn't just a defensive shot—it's a weapon. Mix in topspin lobs over aggressive net players to push them back and create openings. Following a lob with a quick transition to the net can give your team the upper hand.

5. Communicate Constantly

The best doubles teams talk between every point. Decide who takes middle balls, call out switches, and offer encouragement. Non-verbal signals—like hand gestures behind the back—help plan tactics without tipping off opponents.

By combining these strategies, players can make doubles more dynamic and fun while winning more matches.

Doubles tennis is as much about teamwork and strategy as it is about strokes.”

PICKLEBALL TIP

Control the Middle – Own the Game

"Pickleball Tip" By Alex Mabred, Head Pickleball Professional

In doubles, the team that controls the middle often controls the point. Why? Because most shots that land in the center are lower-risk and harder to poach or attack. Here's how to take advantage:

- Communicate Early – Call "mine" or "yours" to avoid confusion and hesitation.

- Paddle Up & Ready – Expect the next shot to come fast and straight down the middle.
- Forehand Takes the Middle – When in doubt, the player with the forehand in the middle usually has the easier play.
- Avoid the Dead Zone – Balls that land between you and your partner can cause indecision. Step in with confidence and close the gap.

Pro Tip: When you're in a tight rally, play a soft, controlled dink toward the middle—it neutralizes angles and resets the point in your favor.

As the saying goes, "Down the middle solves the riddle."

Tennis

Player of the Month

RYAN BENOIT

1. When did you start playing tennis?

I started playing when I was around 4 years old.

2. What is your favorite thing about playing tennis at Ocean Reef?

My favorite thing is playing competitive matches against the ORC pros and trying to beat them!

3. Since you are going to be playing Division 1 tennis at Villanova this fall, what about the college experience makes you most excited?

One thing about the college experience that makes me most excited is playing on a team and competing in the Big East Conference.

Summer Maintenance

Take advantage of the Croquet Lawn while it's open! Full court play is still available but will close soon on Monday, July 28, for maintenance, reopening August 30 for the remainder of the season.

To view the full summer maintenance schedule, please see page 41.

Croquet Tip: Borderline Position in a Hoop

Here is a tip to consider while you're on the court and experiencing one of these "borderline" moments:

If a ball is determined to be on the borderline between having run a hoop or not, the ball has run the hoop! Likewise, for a ball playing back through a hoop to scoring position, the ball ends in a borderline position, it can score the hoop on the next turn. In a borderline case, the decision favors the ball owner.

Previous Shot

Last Shot

Play is stopped.

Issue: The previous stroke was played with the opponent's ball and the last stroke was played by the other side. In this example, Blue played the opponent's Yellow ball followed by Red playing the Red ball.

Rule: 10.4

Remedy: Penalty Area Continuation. A fault in the last stroke is ignored.

Common wrong ball error and remedy.

BRIDGE TIP

Conventions You Should Learn & Know

By Gregg Van Dyke, Bridge Director

Level One:

Stayman, Jacoby Transfers, Texas Transfers, Limit Raises, Weak Two Bids, Negative Doubles, Unusual 2NT, Weak Jump Overcalls, Michaels Cue Bid, Blackwood, Gerber, DOPI, Jacoby 2NT, Splinter Raises, New Minor Forcing, 4th Suit Forcing to Game.

Level Two:

Minor Suit Transfers/Stayman, Preemptive Raises, Reverse Drury, Suit Responsive Doubles, Maximal Doubles, A conventional defense to 1NT openings (Meckwell is my preference), Jordan 2NT, Key Card Blackwood, DEPO.

Level Three:

Lebensohl, Smolen, 1NT Forcing (or semi-forcing), Any system over Reverses, Inverted Minors, McCabe Adjunct over Weak Two Bids, 4th Suit Forcing, Unusual/Unusual, Support Doubles, Puppet Stayman (3C) over 1NT.

Beyond Level 3 are numerous expert treatments and agreements (Exclusion Blackwood, BART, Upside Down Count and Attitude, etc.) but if you and your partner can get through the lists above, you are certainly well on your way to potential confusion. Despite these recommendations, I totally agree with the 90-year-old advice quoted:

"For those players ambitious to improve, I should proffer the following advice: study card valuation, develop your imagination, rely on your common sense, and adopt as few conventions as possible."
– Lelia Hattersley, Contract Developments, 1928.

Card & Games Corner

by Gregg Van Dyke,
Bridge Director

Hi Card and Gamers,

This will be my last column as I am leaving ORC on Thursday, July 31.

It has been a wonderful 12 years here. I have met tons of great people, as well as fellow co-workers. Watching the Card & Games Room develop and grow has been a privilege. You are the ones who made this happen, and continue to grow it. If you look around, there are many new people who have joined us, and if you reach out to people, I'm sure they will join.

I am not sure where I am going next, but I am looking forward to one more adventure.

I want to extend a special thank you to Mic O'Keeffe for teaching me all about Ocean Reef. He has always been there to help, guide and support me in all my projects. Together, we developed the Card & Games Room into what it is today.

Also, thank you to Ocean Reef Press Editor Holly Houser for all the help in editing she has given me the past 12 years. She takes what I give her and edits and formats it so it can be viewed in the best light. Also, thank you, Stephanie Chavez, for your help in editing.

ORC is truly a unique place to live because of the great Members who make it up. Thanks again to all the Members for your support.

I will be around by phone to answer questions during the upcoming season.

Mah Jongg Pick-Up Games

Available Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12-4 p.m. Mah Jongg cards are in, please bring in your old cards, to the Card & Games Room and they will be replaced.

Beginner Canasta Lessons

If you're looking to learn or just need to brush up on your skills, lessons are available by request! You may call Gregg at 305-367-2611 x6609, while I am here, or the Tennis & Games Center at 305-367-6583.

Farewell, ORC,
Gregg Van Dyke

CARD & GAMES ROOM IN AUGUST

The Card & Games Room will remain open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. for your entertainment.
