ALL CHARITIES
The Heart of Ocean Reef

Dear Ocean Reef Friends and Family,

Over the past year, COVID has devastated communities, businesses, families and our sense of security. Amazingly it has not swept away the spirit of our Ocean Reef community nor our depth of caring or willingness to give.

More now. More than ever.

Your generosity and participation in the All Charities Weekend enables us to meet the challenges here on the Reef to support our Medical Center, Cultural Center, ORCAT, Art League, Academy, and Conservation Association, plus empowers the Ocean Reef Community Foundation to provide immeasurable assistance and critical funding for dozens of worthy charities serving Homestead, Florida City and the Upper Keys.

Planning of the All Charities 2021 Weekend meant confronting many obstacles: In addition to all the wonderful individual items, how could we offer luxury trips, gourmet meals with friends, and the many fun gatherings that bring our community even closer? How could we support our neighboring communities where life has endured historical upheaval? The effort required patience and creativity and extensive teamwork, but we think you will agree as you look through the following pages, we succeeded admirably.

As this new year gets into full swing, with inoculations underway and hopes rising for a much healthier year, let us celebrate the endurance of family and our community. Raise your paddles high as you bid on these great auction items; your generosity will improve the quality of life and provide much-needed assistance to our neighbors and the organizations that sustain our Unique way of Life on the Reef. Your love and support is needed and appreciated, more now, more than ever.

We are deeply grateful for the commitment and dedication of the All Charities volunteer committees, our Patrons, Trustees and Chairman's Circles, the donors and most importantly, YOU, our Ocean Reef community and family.

Many thanks and blessings,

Dominic DiNapoli and Linda Johnston
Co-Chairs 2021 All Charities Weekend

EXCLUSIVE NAPA, AUBERGE DU SOLEIL, PEBBLE BEACH GOLF, AND CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE - ALL VIA PRIVATE JET

August 12-16, 2021/Two Couples

Travel with Jan and Jim Loomis to visit exclusive vineyards and enjoy delicious wine, amazing golf and fabulous vintage cars.

First, you will travel to Napa Valley aboard the Loomis's private jet, arriving in time for a private lunch at the Crouse Farmhouse at exclusive Mount Veeder Magic Vineyards, hosted by owner Karen Crouse. Karen will curate a menu just for your group and you will taste library vintages of MVMV cabs. After lunch, you will venture into the vineyard and walk among the vines that your wine was made from. You will have the rare opportunity to check the sugar levels in the grapes on the vines – something only winemakers get to do. Additionally, each couple will receive two cases (24 bottles) of Mount Veeder Magic Vineyards Cab with your own private label and personal story.

From there, you will be transported to Auberge du Soleil to check in, rest and freshen up in your deluxe hillside room with panoramic views of the surrounding Napa Valley hillsides and resort olive grove (and a custom-designed California king-sized bed).

Late that afternoon, you will proceed to Progeny Vineyards for an exclusive experience not available to the general public. Indulge in a complete sensory food and wine pairing experience featuring Progeny's Bordeaux and Rhone style wines that are limited production and highly allocated. The event also includes a private tour and barrel tasting at Progeny's state-of-the-art production facility. Estate Chef and French Laundry veteran John Gerber will prepare a multi-course dinner for the six of you, crafted with the freshest seasonal ingredients and served for your enjoyment in this intimate winery setting. As the sun sets and your first day turns to night, marvel at the expansive vineyard views and surrounding Mount Veeder landscape.

The next day, the six of you will fly to the Monterey Peninsula to play golf at one of four available Pebble Beach golf courses (Spyglass Hill, Cypress Point, The Links at Spanish Bay or Poppy Hills). And for the next three nights, your accommodations will be king suites at the Hyatt Regency Monterey Hotel and Spa.

For Day 3, you have VIP passes to Concorso Italiano, the world's largest exotic and luxury Italian car show, a multifaceted luxury lifestyle event celebrating all things Italian: wine, food, fashion, art, and, of course, Italian cars.

And on Day 4, you have Chairman's Hospitality at the Lodge passes for the 70th Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance, the flagship of Pebble Beach Automotive Week and considered to be the world's premier celebration of the automobile. With your ultimate VIP access, you will enjoy a panorama of the show field and a direct overview of all the winners driving up to the ramp, access to the show field and the Hospitality Suite.

To conclude your California dream, on the morning of Day 5, you will board the Loomis's jet one last time to return from whence you came.

LUXURIOUS AMALFI COAST EXPERIENCE FOR FOUR

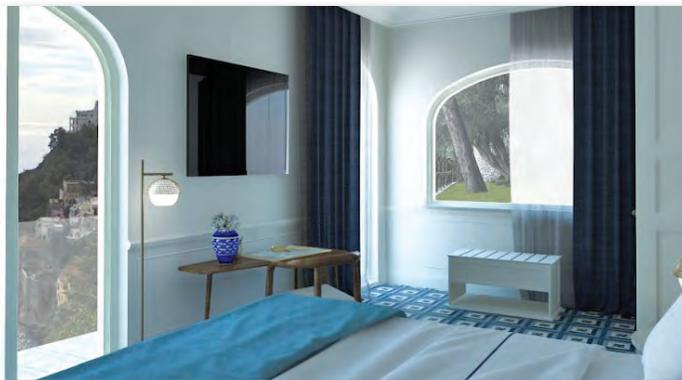

Two Couples/Seven Days/Six Nights

Your luxurious Amalfi week begins the moment you are met at the Napoli airport to be transported by private boat to Ischia Island.

Welcome drinks will greet your arrival at San Montano Resort & Spa, where for the next 72 hours you will be able to savor local aperitifs, view storied landmarks, and experience incomparable panoramas at nearly every turn. Your first evening, although the bar tab will be yours, you will be treated to a four-course dinner, and throughout your stay, the concierge will assist you with choices to fill your free time and make any needed reservations. Walk barefoot in the lemon garden enveloped with scents of jasmine and lavender, relax in one of the eight pools, get pampered in the Ocean Blue Spa with its amazing views of the sea. Fabulous Italian cuisine, from pizza to Mediterranean specialties or a food tasting experience while sitting on one of the panoramic terraces overlooking Negombo Bay, awaits you. Each morning's breakfast, either at the buffet at La Veranda or as room service if you prefer, is included.

On Day 2, choose a three-hour island tour, including wine tasting and lunch, OR a three-hour tour aboard famous vintage Italian three-wheelers led by a local guide; that evening, you will have access to Il Castello (a medieval castle) for your own private dinner.* And for Day 3, you will be treated to a private boat tour of the island, stopping for lunch at Il Giardini Eden restaurant.

After breakfast on Day 4, you will board a private boat to motor from Ischia Island to Borgo Santandrea and once again enjoy welcome drinks upon check-in. Furnishings here are the best of Italy: hand-made tiles, local stone, iconic and bespoke furniture, Murano glass, antiques, burnished brass and natural linen, framing the stunning blue of the sea visible at every turn. The secluded and romantic accommodations, 50 to 80 meters above sea level, offer incredible vistas over the borough of Conca dei Marini - a small hamlet a stone's throw from Amalfi. The atmosphere is that of a fairy tale set in the midst of splendid terraces and gardens, with the resort's magical getaway, a magnificent sandy private beach (rare on the rocky Amalfi Coast), tucked far below, accessible on foot or via elevator. Here, too, the concierge will assist you with choices to fill your free time and make any needed reservations, and each morning's breakfast, enjoying the view from the buffet at Alici or as room service if you prefer, is included.

Your first evening you will be treated to a mouth-watering four-course welcome dinner, and the next day you get to take a walking tour of the "Path of the Gods." Where to dine* that night and the next is up to you, but know that Borgo Santandrea offers experiences that celebrate local ingredients, from light snacks at the Beach Club to the casual yet traditional Alici to the gourmet La Libreria. The spectacular Libreria Kitchen also hosts cooking classes at which to learn secrets of authentic Italian cuisine.

On your last full day, you will be treated to a private boat tour of Capri and stop for lunch at Il Riccio restaurant, and after breakfast on Day 7, it will be time to check out; your departure will be eased, however, by returning to the airport in Napoli via luxury van.

Additional private dinners, tours, tastings, cooking classes or other activities can be arranged upon request.*

THE RYDER CUP AT WHISTLING STRAITS, GOLF, BOATING, FOOD, WINE AND A LAKE FRONT PARADISE ALL IN ONE

Three Couples/Five Days/Four Nights
September 23-26, 2021

Throughout your whirlwind long weekend in Wisconsin, you will have a dedicated team onsite to take care of all your needs.

On Thursday, Sept. 23, fly into Milwaukee or the FBO in Racine, WI, and enjoy private transport to Linda and Charlie Johnston's home on the shores of beautiful Lake Geneva, only an hour away. The lake served as a summer retreat for Chicago icon Marshall Field and the heirs to Harris Bank and Swift & Company meats, and with a dash of bravado, Midwesterners call it the "Lake Tahoe of the Midwest" - no mountains but a multitude of classic wooden boats, golf, fine dining and, in season, great weather, all highlighted by Midwestern hospitality. On the first evening of your two-night stay here, you'll be treated to cocktails and a cruising tour aboard the lake's only remaining steam-driven passenger boat, viewing the lakefront mansions of the rich and famous, followed by dinner at and sunset from the Johnstons' home.

On Friday, you can choose to play golf or go boating. There are three local golf courses, designed by Gary Player, Arnold Palmer, and Jack Nicholas respectively, or for your boating pleasure, you'll have access to a vintage 1969 Riva Super Aquarama. Friday dinner will be in the private dining room at Lake Geneva's Hunt Club.

When you leave the Johnstons' home Saturday morning via private transport, the six of you will head to Sheboygan, WI, and the world-famous Whistling Straits Golf Course (often described as the "Pebble Beach of the Midwest") to attend the Ryder Cup. Held only once every four years in the U.S., this is one of golf's premier events.

Saturday night and the next, your dedicated driver will deliver you to and from your accommodations at the Drury Plaza Hotel in Milwaukee, a recent and historic renovation of the First Financial Centre, 40 minutes from Sheboygan. Sunday, you'll return to Whistling Straits for the Ryder Cup final. On both Saturday and Sunday, the six of you will have Captains Club tickets, which include both ground access and access to a reserved table (multiple buffets, bars, televisions, executive restrooms, Wi-Fi and luxurious décor) on the 9th fairway, plus the hospitality package (continental breakfast both days, lunch buffet, six-hour open bar, afternoon food service and dessert).

With Monday's arrival, it will be time to return to the real world, but wow, what wonderful memories!

Although airfare is not included, airport transfers are.

As featured in Nantucket Online.

Spend a magical July or August week in this brand new, high-end gorgeous home in Nantucket's Surfside area. With magnificent large doorways and three bedrooms and three-and-a-half baths (the master features a California king, the queen bedroom also has a twin XL in the loft, and the third bedroom has two full beds; on the lower level, there's an additional non-conforming bedroom with a pair of twin beds), it sleeps six comfortably and has good overflow capacity for additional kids or young adults on the lower level.

Carefully designed so that every bit of space serves a purpose, the house features a staircase that seems to defy gravity and an open floor plan that connects to a spectacular view of the Atlantic Ocean just outside the back door, which opens to a private sandy path down to the beach in Old Surfside. Additionally, the back wall of the house is designed so that on a nice day, you can fold the windows away and open it all up to the outdoors. Feeling a bit too warm? Not to worry; the house is fully air conditioned.

Also included (depending on local Covid-19 protocols), two dinners and possible golf.

Academy Award Selection Evening – Private Screening and Dinner for Six

Six of you will join your hosts, Ocean Reef members Linda and Lance Hool, in Lance's eight-seat private theater in the Hools' stunning new home on Card Sound Road as he previews a proposed category winner for the 93rd Academy Awards, which will be televised at the end of April. Afterward, the party will sit down for an elegant dinner and discuss the entry. This is an extraordinary opportunity to experience part of the process of how the Oscar selections are made.

Lance, a film producer with a uniquely multifaceted background in the industry, having also worked as an actor, writer, director, executive producer, distribution company chairman, and now studio chief of Silver Lion Films, has produced 25 major motion pictures over the past four decades. One, Two Hearts, premiered here at Ocean Reef two years ago; two, Missing in Action (1984) and Man on Fire (2004), reached No. 1 at the U.S. box office.

As a member of the Academy, Lance's voting starts February 9 when electors begin culling the hundreds of films that have been submitted to a more manageable field. The next vote comes on March 5 when the entries are winnowed down to five pictures to be nominated in each category. April 15 is when the nominations are announced and made public. The final vote takes place April 25. Lance will have to view well over 100 films before that ultimate vote.

Lance proposes to work with the winning bidders to pick a movie that has been submitted or nominated. This year he serves on three nominating committees: Best Picture (this is the Producers Branch, of which he has been a member since 1986); Best Foreign Film (where he has also served as a long-time member); and Best Animated Picture (which he has done for a couple of years now). Each of these committees usually nominates five films (from hundreds) that then go on the ballot that goes out to the whole Academy. The winners on that ballot receive that year's Oscars.

To maximize your experience, Lance proposes gathering on a date to be mutually agreed before March 5 so you can see how your group's chosen film did when the nominations come out April 15.

"And the Oscar goes to..."

Seychelles Fly Fishing Trip for Two Rods Alphonse Group April 30- May 7, 2022

Two of you will share accommodations, a skiff and a guide for the week in the Seychelles' Alphonse Group, three islands that constitute one of the most famed saltwater flyfishing destinations in the Indian Ocean and one of the most prolific bonefish fisheries in the world. Saint François is rumored to have the densest population of bonefish recorded worldwide, ranging from four to nine pounds.

Good fly anglers typically land 20 to 40 fish a day. Approximately seven miles long and four miles wide, it boasts firm white sand bottoms interlaced with channels and cuts, and over 10,000 acres of hard white sand flats. A typical session involves wading away from the skiff for a few hours casting to cruising or tailing bonefish as they forage for crustaceans. Often on falling tides huge shoals of them can be targeted as they leave the flats in what has been described as "a continuous river of bonefish." The lagoon also envelops coral finger flats and coral heads allowing anglers to catch dozens of other species on fly, including triggerfish, trevally, milkfish, barracuda, sailfish, dogtooth tuna, yellowfin tuna and more.

Sight fishing for giant trevally is one of the most exhilarating forms of fly fishing one will ever experience, especially when they grow in excess of 150 pounds! And at certain times of the year, milkfish feed on plankton near the surface and are then enticed to eat flies. Alphonse is where the "milkfish on fly" dream began and these speedy, high flying fish, which have been caught up to 40 pounds, entertain guests every season.

Your stay includes shared accommodations; three meals daily; six days' fully guided fishing (two anglers in one skiff with one guide); domestic flights to/from Alphonse; room amenities; non-motorized and land-based activities; soft drinks during activities; water, tea and coffee; complimentary scheduled communal excursions; use of snorkeling and water-sport equipment; loan of rods and reels; and public wi-fi.

International airfare not included.

Tuesday, January 18, 2022, 6:30 p.m.

Twenty lucky guests will gather for dinner at The Residence Club, Ocean Reef's newest and most exclusive club-within-the-Club, under the watchful eye of Maitre d' Rupert Rodríguez.

Enjoy hors d'oeuvres upon arrival and then sit down to wine and dine on a creative and delicious three-course meal celebrating locally sourced ingredients and prepared by The Residence Club's Executive Chef Andrea Griffith with assistance from Sous Chef Craig Rossi, formerly Ocean Reef's Banquet Chef.

For their positions, both Andrea and Craig conducted amazing tastings experienced by several Members. In anticipation of The Residence Club's official opening next fall, they are working together with Certified Master Chef Rich Rosendale to create wonderful and delicious menus for the new Club and its Members.

A Philadelphia native, Andrea's path to becoming a chef began as a child alongside her father—a firefighter with a passion for food—as he prepared family-style meals to be enjoyed with close associates, and her first official position was as a 16-year old pastry chef at Whole Foods. After playing culinary roles at the Greenbrier Resort in West Virginia, Primland Resort in Virginia's Blue Ridge Mountains, and Circa Restaurant in Philadelphia, she then earned a full scholarship to The Art Institute of Philadelphia for Culinary Arts, for which her application project, A Day in the Life of a Fireman Chef, drew on her childhood culinary experiences at the firehouse.

Moonset of the Super Moon - Card Sound

South Florida native and 35-year full-time resident of Ocean Reef Carol Ellis has been passionate about photography her entire life, having been mentored by master printers and accomplished artists at home and across the globe. She notes, “Often I’m asked what I’m looking at? As I describe the clouds, or the amazing light we are witnessing, the onlookers listen, and share my vision. Photographic vision is the aptitude for discovering beauty in what can be overlooked as every day and ordinary. Familiarity with the area, knowing the sun and the moon, the wind and tides, allows me to be in the right place at the right time.... Much of my art is devoid of the evidence of humankind. In fact, it is usually a harmonious moment of time, resonating purity of color and light.” This museum-mounted Lightjet metallic print, limited edition #1 of 5, measures 60 x 24 inches.

The Keys is like no other place on earth.”

Chateau Margaux Premier Grand Cru Classe 2015

2015 was a historic year at Château Margaux, and one of their best vintages. Some of the result is owed to decisions made at the time of blending; only 35 percent of the harvest went into the first wine, a record of severity. As usual, it was the Cabernet Sauvignon in first place with 87 percent of the blend; in addition to its concentration and finesse, in 2015 it provided unusual vigor and strength. The merlot has nothing to be ashamed of, at least in the great plots; it makes up 8 percent of the first wine. Cabernet franc (3 percent) and petit verdot (2 percent) also find their place in this elitist blend, confirming that great things happen when all the grape varieties are enabled to express their own propensity. One bottle. (WS 99)

Bordeaux Benchmarks

Let’s start with three magnums - oh, wow! Red wine drinkers rejoice!

These beautiful wines from great vintages are perfectly aged and at their peak; your dinner parties deserve these classics. 2001 Chateau Lafite Rothschild: “Stick your nose in this and it says something: ‘I am special.’” Deep and generous aromas of blackberries, fresh tobacco, and minerals. It’s full-bodied, with big velvety tannins and a superlong finish. Like a fine cashmere sweater” (RP and WS 96); 2000 Ch. Leoville Barton: “Amazingly rich and silky. Lots of chocolate and blackberry aromas with hints of raspberries. Full-bodied, with silky, round tannins. Great concentration. Long, long finish” (WS 97); 2000 Ch. Calon Segur: “One of those wines that reminds you how great the millennial vintage could be. The palate is medium-bodied with dense, firm tannins that provide a rigid backbone, but it is swathed in copious tobacco-drenched black fruit and a superb line of acidity” (RP 95). But wait - there’s more! Two bottles of 2000 Ch. Lafite Rothschild’s “Carruades de Rothschild”: “Full-bodied, and very velvety, with unctuous fruit flavors. Long and exotic aftertaste. Terrific wine” (RP 93).

Donated by Sally and Tom Davidson

Chateau Mouton Rothschild 1970

This bottle of a 1er Cru Classé from the Bordeaux region is one of the world’s greatest wines. It has a captivating nose of dark plum, black currant, oak, coffee, cocoa and flowers. As for taste, it is juicy, sweet and suave on entry, then brightly focused in its red fruit and black flavors, complicated by cedar and citrus. It finishes with flinty, saline nuances and suave tannins. Best savored with classic meat dishes. (WS 92)

Donated by Ed Duff

Trio of Grand Cru 1982

The Chateau Malescot St. Exupéry Margaux Grand Cru 1982 is an exceptional vintage featuring an energetic, savory bouquet with tannins that are ripe, ample and round. With its dark ruby-garnet color, all elements come together for a plush lingering ripe berry and chocolate aftertaste. Robert Parker was the first to recognize and review this illustrious vintage and his review propelled him to fame as the Wine Advocate. Chateau Palmer Margaux Grand Cru 1982 is an icon of the Margaux appellation, immediately recognizable by its elegant and inimitable velvet taste. An exuberant bouquet of berries, licorice, dark fruits, chocolates, cigar and mushrooms. Best with classic meat dishes. And Chateau Pavie Saint-Emilion 1er Grand Cru 1982 has an intoxicating rich, mouth-drying tannic structure, balanced by juicy characteristics of plum and black cherry fruit, along with chocolate and sweet spice, developing a savory tobacco and cedar flavor with age. Pairs well with beef, lamb, game and poultry, from a chateau that is considered one of the five best in the Saint-Emilion region. With the winning bid, you’ll take home six bottles, two of each of the above.

Mouton Rothschild Bordeaux 1988

This case of 1988 Mouton Rothschild in OWC has been exceptionally cellared. The first growth Bordeaux was rated 93 by James Suckling who noted, “It is full and round, displaying wonderful vanilla and plum flavors. Very silky and refined yet dense and caressing.” Don’t miss the opportunity to add these 12 bottles to your cellar, or choose instead to uncork one or two (or more!) to drink on that special occasion!

2000, The Vintage of the Century

Spectacular 1.5 liter bottle of 97+ RP rated 2000 Chateau Mouton Rothschild! This wine is a showstopper of the 2000 vintage. Check out the gold-etched bottle. Rare and very collectible, even the empty bottles are being auctioned on Ebay. Parker noted, “Medium to full-bodied, the palate packs in the muscular fruit framed by firm, ripe, grainy tannins, and seamless freshness, finishing with phenomenal length.” It is an incredibly complex and multifaceted wine. Don’t miss the opportunity to own this special bottle of First Growth Bordeaux.

Da Boam!

Grab this Jeroboam of remarkable Chateau Montelena Cabernet Sauvignon Estate 1997 – a 3-liter party in a bottle! Opaque purple-colored with a dense, chewy, full-bodied personality, it displays abundant cassis, mineral, and earth notes.

A brilliantly made, super-concentrated pure blockbuster that possesses sweet tannins as well as a terrific finish. Sumptuous, multilayered, profoundly concentrated. (RP 98)

Lokoya Mount Veeder 2016

Three bottles in original wood box of 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon Lokoya Mount Veeder, 100 percent cabernet sauvignon and a stand-out. Deep garnet-purple colored, the wine leaps from the glass with gregarious crème de cassis, wild blueberries and black raspberries with nuances of black tea, violets, aniseed, truffles and new leather plus wafts of charcuterie and chargrill. Full-bodied, very firm and very tightly wound at this youthful stage, the palate is absolutely packed with black fruit and earthy layers, finishing with epic persistence. (RP 100)

Donated by Julie and Jon Landau

Lokoya Howell Mountain 2016

Here’s your chance to get three bottles of 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon Howell Mountain. A 100 percent cabernet sauvignon, it is deep purple-black in color and offers an incredible perfume of lilacs, black truffles, violets and menthol over a core of cassis, mulberries and warm plums plus a waft of tobacco leaf. The palate is full-bodied and built like a brick house with very firm, very ripe tannins and oodles of freshness cutting through the earthy layers, finishing very long. (RP 98)

Vine Hill Ranch 2014

Made by Françoise Peschon, the 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon (100 percent cabernet sauvignon) offers up notes of cedar wood, forest floor, loamy earth, black currants and a touch of background oak (about 75 percent new French cooperage was utilized). The wine has a dense ruby/purple color to the rim and an attractive, relatively long finish. It should drink well for the next 10 to 15 years or longer. Place the top bid so these three bottles in their wood box will be yours. (RP 92)

Donated by Julie and Jon Landau

Araujo Estate Eisele Vineyard 2016

Here are three bottles in original wood box of this spectacular 2016 cabernet sauvignon with its deep garnet-purple color and a nose that begins a little reserved, slowly revealing a quiet intensity of freshly crushed blackberries, chocolate-covered cherries, cassis and aniseed with compelling nuances of black tea, cigar box, truffles and charcuterie, plus, with coaxing, gentle wafts of red roses and crushed rocks. The medium to full-bodied palate is simply arresting, offering myriad floral and earth sparks amidst a black fruit core and with seamless, firm, very fine-grained tannins. Well-knit freshness brings forth layer after layer of delicate nuances on the very long, mineral-laced finish. (RP 100)

Colgin Cariad 2013

From Ann Colgin’s legendary Napa winery, a beautiful Bordeaux style blend. The 2013 Cariad has 50 percent cabernet sauvignon, 28 percent merlot, 13 percent cabernet franc and 9 percent petit verdot. Starting with deep dark notes of ripe plum and black cherry, the nose quickly builds with aromas of the earth. Forest floor, cinnamon stick and cardamom layer in with the delicious scent of black licorice. This vintage of Cariad is oozing with flavor: an elixir of spices, earth and complexity. The depth of flavor continues into the mouth as the tannin coats the palate with an unbelievably unctuous texture. Broad, plum and layered, this is a Cariad for the ages.

Today, Laurent-Perrier’s iconic Cuvée Rosé remains the benchmark for non-vintage rosé champagne. Included in this lot is one bottle of each of the following: Laurent-Perrier Brut, Laurent-Perrier Ultra Brut, Laurent-Perrier Rosé and Laurent-Perrier Grand Siecle.

A Bouquet of Aromatic Reds

This seven-bottle lot (four bottles cabernet franc and three bottles malbec) delivers joy to the nose and the palate. Known for their fragrance, cab franc and malbec from excellent wineries are a welcome addition to the cellar.

As an example, the 2011 Hourglass Cabernet Franc (two bottles) does not disappoint with intriguing Indian green cardamom, cedar, toasted sage, green tea, and freshly ground dark roast coffee. The wine has a tight center core finished with an unctuous outer layer of fruit and silky mouth feel. Layers of black cassis and red plum give the wine plenty of density. The other two bottles of cabernet franc are 2012 Pride Mountain. The vertical of three Hourglass Malbecs (2011, 2012 and 2013) beckons with exotic nutmeg, bright strawberry, roasted hazelnut, and earthy blood orange rind. Aromatically, it is one of the winery's most compelling wines. On the palate, imagine tangy fresh-cut strawberries and rich vanilla bean ice cream with reduced balsamic glaze-not sweet but rich, distinct, vibrant flavors.
