Dear Ocean Reef Friends and Family,

We are pleased to be able to finally celebrate a traditional All Charities Weekend again.

Your generosity enables the Ocean Reef Community Foundation to perform miracles not only here on the Reef by supporting our organizations that are central to Ocean Reef’s unique way of life and culture, but also by providing critical funding for dozens of worthy charities serving Homestead, Florida City, and the Upper Keys.

Since the pandemic was declared in March 2020, it has presented novel challenges. The response of the Medical Center, Cultural Center, Art League, ORCAT, Academy and Conservation Association when introduced to Covid-driven obstacles was rapid and resourceful. Our Medical Center did an outstanding job of caring for our community: administering vaccines, providing unlimited testing and treatment of Covid patients while providing uninterrupted and ongoing medical services to our community. The Academy took on extra students. The Cultural Center moved their entertainment slate to outdoor venues because the show must go on. The Art League taught their classes outside. ORCAT veterinarians provided socially distant services to our pets. And once again, our generous community came together to support our unique way of life.

The funds raised in the past years have allowed Ocean Reef to react promptly and creatively to the needs of our neighbors and surrounding communities during this pandemic. Our grant recipients’ needs were magnified, and the Ocean Reef Community Foundation met those needs (food security, health services, foster care support, educational services, after school activities) as efficiently and compassionately as possible.

In this catalog you will find countless bidding opportunities – trips, dinners, events, items – that are truly worthy of your generous consideration. While the primary purpose is to make miracles happen for the beneficiaries of All Charities, we also want for you, as the winning bidders, to enjoy extraordinary and memorable experiences for yourselves.

This All Charities Weekend we celebrate this proud tradition of giving from our caring, kind and generous community. We are overwhelmed with gratitude for every single All Charities donor, incredibly appreciative of all the help from our committee members, and especially thankful to the tireless All Charities staff for their laserc focus on hammering out the details with grace and good humor.

Looking forward to seeing you there!

With love and gratitude,

Adele Acheson and Diane Hill

Lot 1009 is a one-week charter for up to two couples. Choose a spring or summer itinerary in Florida, the Keys, or the Bahamas (last year’s winners opted to embark on an early summer trip from Ocean Reef south through the Keys, Key West, and the Dry Tortugas). Imagine slicing through beautiful sea glass green waters, stopping each night at a new fantastic destination, experiencing the local culinary fare and meeting up with friends and family en route. This August, Somerset intends to base in the Bahamas to enjoy some of the most beautiful cruising weather for exploring through the Exumas.

Lot 1010 and 1011 are gift cards available for a season of evening sunset, dinner and/or day trips out of Ocean Reef. A sample gift card use would be six sunset and/or dinner type cruises, all-inclusive of food and beverage, plus two “day trips” (or equivalent value).

A 1971 Trumpy cruiser new to Ocean Reef in 2019, Somerset quickly became a Member favorite. Here’s your opportunity to enjoy her and let her full-time professional crew attend to your every need, ensuring an exceptional experience every time you’re aboard. While she is perfect for two couples for extended cruising, you can also opt to keep your experiences local and enjoy cocktail receptions, lunches or evening cruises.

Somerset offers the ultimate luxury accommodations aboard an unparalleled restoration completed by Yachting Solutions in 2013. She and her crew will transport you with elegance and craftsmanship that has been lost in most modern yacht construction. To ensure your experience aboard is unique, extraordinary and fun, the crew says, “Special requests are our specialty!”

Almost every day in and around the waters of Ocean Reef, she demonstrates how lovely it can be to keep your experiences local and enjoy cocktail receptions, lunch, or evening cruises with up to six guests. Although we do have to warn you, perfect sunsets combined with beautiful wildlife and Chef Steph’s amazing food will make Somerset your new favorite pastime!

Bidders must utilize all purchases during the 2022 calendar year. Dates to be mutually agreed (blackout dates: Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year, and Easter holidays). Positioning fees may apply depending on the requested destination. As is customary, food, beverages, fuel, dockage, and 20 percent crew gratuity of charter value are not included.

Hideaway for One Week in Bali, Puglia OR Corfu: Your Choice

The tough part is this: Bali? Puglia? Or Corfu? Once you’ve chosen, a locally dedicated Hideaways Club concierge will assist you to ensure your relaxation will be complete. Here’s what you need to know to make an educated decision:

Bali’s Villa Asmara, a beautiful five-bedroom ironwood home in a lush tropical setting that sleeps 10, is styled à la a Balinese temple with a large open-sided main pavilion surrounded by smaller pavilions. Two of those, hidden among palms, manicured gardens and pretty fish-ponds, serve as exquisite private bedroom suites; another houses the villa’s spa. There are shady nooks in which to hide and an elegant swimming pool protected by a giant Buddha head. Nearby, you’ll find a gorgeous beach and world-class golf. Canggu boasts several excellent places to eat, and the bars and restaurants of Seminyak are only 15 minutes away.

Puglia’s Masseria l’Olivio is a newly built beautiful stone farmhouse that sleeps 10 in five bedrooms. Fashioned after 15th-century architecture with high vaulted ceilings, it sits in a private estate bordered by ancient olive groves. As the heel of Italy’s “boot,” Puglia, with its flat and wild landscape, bears evidence of Greek, Spanish and Norman influences. The main house comprises three en-suite bedrooms while an annex contains two additional ones, all centered around a pair of courtyards.

Behind Door No. 3 … the island of Corfu and Kentroma House, a four-bedroom/three bath villa with spectacular views of the northeast coast of the island and the Ionian Sea beyond. The spacious pool area is the perfect place for family and friends to enjoy barbecue and the evening. With a wide selection of beaches, shops and restaurants less than 10 minutes away, this is a private setting in which to unwind while still having access to the best of what the island has to offer.

Sonoma’s Best for Twelve Couples at the Brammer Home!

Tuesday, March 8, 2022

24 people at $2500 per person

The first 12 couples to “Buy it Now” will have a special meal prepared for you by the dynamic Dustin Valette, who was already considered one of the best chefs in California wine country by his mid-30s. Dustin and his brother Aaron are proud owners of Valette, proclaimed a “Top 100 Wine Restaurant” shortly after its 2015 opening by Wine Enthusiast Magazine.

In addition, Mark McWilliams of Arista Vineyards (the winery has been on the cover of Wine Spectator as crafting “one of California’s most sought-after pinot noirs”), will complement each course with some of the highest rated releases in the world. Arista’s emphasis on quality over quantity means you will be sipping the finest examples of small lot-produced pinot noirs and chardonnays.

The evening’s diners will find Dustin’s enthusiasm engaging. During the summer months, he shops at a local farmer’s market and tows back the bounty of local produce in a classic Red Flyer wagon. As a hobby, he makes wine at home, a few hundred cases of classic Bordeaux varietals per year, hand-harvested from his uncle’s vineyard in Alexander Valley. He began his restaurant career at the age of 13 and, after studying at the CIA in New York, worked at Aqua in San Francisco, Bouchon in Napa Valley, and Hokus at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel Honolulu before spending six years as Executive Chef of Dry Creek Kitchen, a Charlie Palmer restaurant.

There are only 24 seats available so bid now to spend an entertaining, epicurean evening with Dustin and Mark at the Ocean Reef home of Cindy and Tim Brammer.

Ocean Reef Member Fred Olefson created this piece (framed out to 19.25 x 25.25 inches), for All Charities in the style of Impressionist painter Paul Cezanne, who lived most of his life in the vicinity of Aix-en-Provence. In the early 1890s, Cézanne created a series of “Drinkers” and “Card Players,” portraying local farm workers whom he admired for their simplicity and natural dignity, in rustic dress and settings. Representative of an interesting phase of art history; the originals of these humanistic works are in the Barnes Collection in Philadelphia.

Carysfort Lighthouse
Summer 2021

Printed on canvas, this 25 x 35-inch piece demonstrates photographer Linda Carithers’ passion for the Keys, evidenced in her ability to capture the striking colors with her lens. Carysfort Reef, six miles off Key Largo and named for one of its earliest victims (the 28-gun frigate HMS Carysfort, which ran aground in 1770), was responsible for roughly 20 percent of the vessels recorded as lost on Florida reefs between 1833 and 1841. Its reef lighthouse is Florida’s oldest.

Old Weller Original 107 Barrel
Proof in “Gold Vein” bottle
“The original wheated bourbon,” named for William Larue Weller, has a softer, sweeter taste than bourbons made with the usual rye. The legendary Julian ‘Pappy’ Van Winkle established Old Weller for the Stitzel-Weller distillery after steering the distillery safely through Prohibition. The Sazerac Company bought Stitzel-Weller in 1999 and still follows Pappy’s recipe. This fabulous hard-to-find antique bourbon is best sipped neat with a bit of spring water (to lower the proof) or over one large clear ice rock. Bottle has the original neck piece and its label and tax stamp are in very good condition. It might be the best bourbon you ever taste, if you dare open it!

This pair of first-growth Bordeaux royalty is front page news! From a fabulous vintage (1985), they are ready to grace your table. James Suckling gave the Mouton Rothschild 99 points and said, “What an awe-inspiring nose of currants, shaved lead pencil, white truffles and earth. It’s full-bodied and enveloped by silky tannins that lead to an earthy, long finish. Old, traditional Bordeaux with soul and remarkable complexity. Sensational. Drink now.” Last June, he revisited the 1985 Lafite Rothschild and raved, “This is so beautiful now and exhibits real aged-Bordeaux character with currant-bush, tobacco and berry aromas that follow through to a medium body with firm tannins and a creamy finish. Still so together. The finish turns to cigar box, sandalwood and berry.” (96 pts) A rare opportunity for wine lovers! Two bottles.

A true testament to what Chevalier can produce. A wine that will drink as well in 20 years as it will today. 2013 Bouchard Montrachet – The holy grail of white wine, simultaneously generous and precise, alluring and unreachable. With age individual flavors recede, melding together into a long, drawn-out expression. The pinnacle of white wine from the greatest vineyard the world has ever known! 2019 Dauvissat Les Preuses – Now a counterpoint: Grand Cru Chablis from one of the region’s preeminent producers. Many connoisseurs would argue that the best Chablis offers a different yet equally worthy expression of chardonnay. Producers here focus on balancing the fruit with minerality and lively acidity. This wine is a classic example of the magic that happens when perfect balance is achieved!

Something Different

An unusual two-bottle lot of wines that have a little age on them, but offer the potential for a one-of-a-kind tasting experience. 1995 Kistler “Durell Vineyard” chardonnay, a perennial critic’s favorite from Sonoma, is an age-worthy chardonnay from an excellent vintage. 1985 Marques de Riscal Gran Riserva Rioja is a Spanish noble wine of the tempranillo grape. Both bottles are in great shape and have been meticulously stored. If the years have been kind, you will enjoy a unique treasure! Two bottles.

Serious Shiraz, Mate!

The Aussies know how to make crowd-pleasing shiraz! These two gems are proof: 2005 Kaesler Old Bastard (RP: 98 pts) “A voluptuous, velvety-textured, super concentrated shiraz in perfect balance. As good as the preceding wines may be, they pale in the shadow of the 2005 shiraz Old Bastard.” And 2002 Jim Barry “The Armagh” (RP:95 pts). which is thick and mouth filling, with dense, concentrated flavors of dark berry, Cuban coffee (including the flaming orange peel) and molten chocolate. Two bottles.

Parker Raves! Rhone Stars

Here are four bottles of exceptional red wine from the Rhone. Parker rated these 98 points each – near perfection. Two bottles of the 2009 Domaine Des Tourettes. Parker notes, “This inky and opaque 2009 Hermitage gives up a heavenly bouquet of crushed rocks, blackberries, leather, wild herbs and earth… It has brilliant purity, building tannin and a blockbuster finish.” Of the two bottles of the 2010 Domaine Janasse “Chauvin,” Parker notes, “Unbelievable notes of raspberries, black cherries, licorice, truffles, camphor, forest floor and garrigue. This wine is stunningly concentrated, incredibly noble… Domaine de la Janasse is one of the great winemaking estates of not only France, but of the world.” Four bottles.

Dinner Party Ready

Invite some friends and treat them to an evening with food and these two magnums of delicious wines. Start with the versatile Château de Selle Rose as an aperitif and match with first courses; rated 93 points from Wine Advocate, this rose from Provence is sure to please. Then move to the main course with 2015 Renieri Brunello di Montalcino, rated 100 points by James Suckling. He raved, “There’s such richness to the center palate, but the fruit there is vivacious and elegant, swaddled in robust but generous tannins that breach the outermost reaches of the mouth. The finish is hauntingly long, the aftereffects of the acidity worldlessly.” Gems from France and Italy! Two magnums.

4051  A Triple Play Wine Package of Castiglion Del Bosco

4052  Your Own Side-by-Side Wine Tasting

Ocean Fathoms uses the perfect environment of the Santa Barbara Channel to cellar and age wines, which means a taste-testing for you. Two bottles of Ocean Fathoms' 2016 Super Tuscans, one traditionally cellar-aged and the other, barnacle-crusted after 12 months' aging in the Pacific in an Ocean Fathoms' patented cage of steel, copper, and zinc, which, when combined with the salty seawater, create a natural underwater battery that discharges a galvanic current, ionizing the wine to enhance and advance its aging process. Set in 70 feet of water, this ocean cellar has an optimal near-constant temperature of 55 degrees, no oxygen, no UV light contamination, and no sound as the ocean current slowly and constantly turns the wine in the bottles. The result is extraordinary. Twelve months aging under the sea produces results that would take seven to 12 years if cellared traditionally. You will be able to experience a side-by-side tasting between the exact same two wines, discerning how each has developed. Two bottles.

4054  MZM – Merlot, Zinfandel & Meritage

This mixed pack contains some of California’s best. Three bottles of 2017 Duckhorn Three Palms Merlot, a single vineyard of supreme distinction, perhaps the best America has to offer for the merlot. Smooth, bold and flavorful. Add a bottle of Zin from Napa’s famous Rombauer Winery – easy drinking with great fruit and structure. A crowd pleaser! Finish with Joseph Phelps Insignia, the first true meritage of the Napa Valley. Three bottles of the 2018 vintage: 87 percent cabernet sauvignon, 8 percent petit verdot, 3 percent malbec, 2 percent cabernet franc from 100 percent estate-grown vineyards. Truly one of the staples of Napa Valley. What’s not to love?

4055  “The Maiden” from Harlan

Floral, ripe tobacco. Turns to spices on the finish.” Sure to please your palate!
