Cool Cars, Hot Coffee

No, it's not Vintage Weekend, but it was the Club's first ever Cars & Coffee get together.

Spearheaded by Jerry Henn, Cars & Coffee was the first Club event, outside of Vintage, to bring Members together in an easy and lighthearted manner to mingle and fawn over beautiful cars. Simple, fun, no need to register or even R.S.V.P!

"Ocean Reef Members have so many great cars in their garages that nobody ever sees," said Henn. "I always thought, we have to find a way to get these out and about.

For years, there have been Members who would drive and park their cars near the Lobby to have breakfast at the Ocean Room or grab coffee. That's where I got this idea. Seeing all those cool cars parked outside, I thought, we could really make this into something."

Henn brought his idea to Director of Member Events Kyle Landers who, along with his team, took off with it, coordinating the breakfast items, the coffee and the location, which was a very important part of Henn's concept.

"I wanted to host it in a place where Members could drive by, see the event, and come join," he said. "I want the whole community to have the chance to enjoy a cup of coffee and admire the cars."

That's exactly what Terri McLaughlin did as she and several friends met at the Business Center Parking Lot. "None of us own vintage cars ourselves. It was a delightful morning and we were even able to meet some other Members that we did not know before."

Fred and Jeffrey Olefson, on the other hand, were there exhibiting the Lamborghini they only just acquired the week prior.

What is the Advisory Council?

Members of the Advisory Council at Ocean Reef play a vital role in the success of the entire community. There are 36 neighborhoods represented, with more than 45 Council members respectively – all Equity owners. There are two seasonal meetings held in which the Board of Directors of Ocean Reef Club and the Ocean Reef Community Association attend, along with representatives from the Medical Center, the Chamber of Commerce and the Real Estate CLS. The three basic goals of the council are to increase the Board of Directors' and Management's awareness of current community issues, concerns and recommendations, encourage a free flowing, open exchange of information, ideas and concerns between community leaders and Membership and lastly, enable Council members to hear and deliver accurate information to the community.

Over the past few years, Advisory Council members have been encouraged to submit questions and concerns in advance of the meeting for both the Club and ORCA with a goal of having them answered in advance, or if relevant to the community, shared and answered at the Council meeting. This process has been extremely effective in getting isolated problems resolved quickly and creating an atmosphere of information sharing that is helpful to all members of the community.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, March 17, 2022. For reference, Advisory Council members are listed on page 47 of the ORCA Directory. You are encouraged to share feedback on the season and submit questions to your Council member.

Rules of the Road

As published in the March 3 edition of TORN.

Our community is well known for many fantastic things, one being the use of golf carts as our main mode of transportation. With 2,500+ registered carts in Ocean Reef and the number of drivers increasing over spring break, ORCA would like to remind our residents of our cart and pedestrian path rules.

Cart Paths

Cart paths are only to be used by carts 17 mph and under and slow cyclists. Faster carts and cyclists must use roadways. Drivers must follow the cart signage and painted directional symbols that are placed along each route.

As shown in the map below, the path along the dockside of Gate House Road is a mixed-use path (ORANGE). Carts and pedestrians share the path from Harbor Green, past Wynn's, all the way to Ocean Reef Drive. When traveling on the mixed-use path, please be sure to follow the painted cart or pedestrian symbols to prevent accidents and injuries.

When using the mixed-use paths (ORANGE) on Gate House Road, carts use the lane closest to the boat docks, and our pedestrians use the outside lane.

Map of the various cart, walking and mix-used paths.

Paver Brick Pedestrian Paths

Remember, paver brick pathways are for pedestrians only and can be walked on in either direction. No carts or bicycles are allowed.

Left-Hand Turns & Heading Straight

If you are making a left-hand turn or going straight at an intersection in a golf cart, you must use the car lane to avoid a possible accident. Only when you are making a right-hand turn should you be in the cart lane.

Mandatory Golf Cart Registration & Speed Rated Cart Decals

Registering your private golf cart with ORCA Public Safety is mandatory and only takes a few moments. Public Safety will provide a registration decal denoting the type of golf cart, fast carts are 18 mph or higher and slow carts 17 mph or lower. To register your cart, visit orcareef.com to fill out the electronic form or call the Public Safety Member Services desk at 305-367-7343.

ALL Golf Cart Operators Must be Licensed:

- Persons 16 years and older may operate a golf cart if they possess a valid state motor vehicle license. They must carry their license with them at all times.
- Minors 12 years or older may operate a golf cart, during daylight hours, if they possess an Ocean Reef golf cart license which must be worn with the provided lanyard. Lanyards are provided by Public Safety.

Golf Cart Operations:

- Children must be secured in the seat, and NEVER ride on the laps of adults.
- Wear seatbelts! Left turns cause the greatest number of injuries because the passenger is often not expecting the turn and isn't wearing a seatbelt. Likewise, rear passengers, especially those facing backward, can easily be ejected on starts and turns if they are not wearing a seatbelt.

- Carts must have working headlights and taillights.

Thank You

Thank you for making yourself familiar with the travel routes and for making sure your guests are also aware of the rules. For a full list of cart safety rules, including age restrictions and licenses for children under the age of 16, visit orcareef.com.

ORCA's Public Safety Department will be actively enforcing all golf cart rules during our spring break season. If you have any questions or concerns, please call Public Safety at 367-2222.

Cool Cars

Their eye-catchingly green car is named Pickles. Because "when you're trying to get out of it, you find yourself in a pickle!"

The father-son car-collecting duo have gone "halfies" on all 10+ cars they have in their Fort Lauderdale warehouse (or self-proclaimed "man cave"). And they intend on bringing down a different one for each monthly auto gathering.

Another equally eye-catching car was Steve and Sabrina David's Aston Martin. The stunningly gorgeous car was Mr. David's gift to the Mrs. The surprise not only being the gift itself, but the fact that David matched the color of the car to Sabrina's favorite nail polish. Talk about customized.

So, like Vintage Weekend, the monthly Cars & Coffee events are meant as a way to celebrate cars while having a good time with fellow Members. And, it is not just about vintage cars - any and all can participate. "If you think your car is cool," Henn said, "bring it! No reservations needed."

Cars & Coffee will continue on the first Saturday of every month from 9 to 11 a.m., with the next scheduled for April 2. If you're interested, show up! It's that simple.

Reach out to Jerry Henn at genebenn1@gmail.com to be added to the email list and receive reminders before every event.

The Secret Life of Towels

By Fiona & Randy Woods, Members since 2013

It is blazing noon at the Field at Four Corners. Red-shirted Recreation Associates are receiving Ocean Reef beach towels that did not get tossed back into receptacles at Buccaneer Island. It is another Towel Amnesty Day. No questions asked. Smiles, snacks, and ice-cream vouchers are on offer.

We, nonetheless, are asking probing questions of every decent donor surrendering much-loved blue and white striped towels, and there is a story for every terrycloth square.

How many towels are you returning? One, three, twelve, thirty. Have any of these towels ever left The Reef? Oh, no, no, no - well, maybe a couple went on the plane to New Jersey. Where have your towels been? In the golf cart, my leaky boat, my son's car, in the laundry room, on the dog bed - Skippy loves them, in the cart shed, by the water heater, I shipped a clock wrapped in one once, I saw one in Maine.

Why do you have them? I used one as an umbrella in a downpour, I get cold in the golf cart, it worked as a skirt, perfect for drying the golf cart, washing the dog, mopping a spill, covering the barbecue.

The grandkids took them, my granddaughter gets them, it's because of my grandson. Beach towels disclose a generational divide. Grandchildren take them home and grandparents return them.

Vice President of Sports & Amenities, Mic O'Keeffe, arrives and describes the thirteen-pounds-per-dozen not-too-shabby yet not-too-nice quality of these towels, and the 4,000 towels his staff distributes daily on busy weekends.

Sydney Rappaport hands over towels in exchange for treats.

Many towels go missing but a surprising number are ultimately recovered. We notice that many of the towels being returned are lovingly laundered and carefully folded, short-stacked, stripes aligned.

It is not known how many of these comforting ORC flags of convenience are in circulation, but today the big rolling bin, nominally holding 332 folded towels, appears nearly full. Five were from our own pilfering.

Renowned Nature Photographer, Everglades Advocate Enlightens Ocean Reef Residents About Everglades Restoration

By Tom Davidson, Sr. and Bill Nutt

National Geographic photographer and member of The Everglades Foundation's Board of Directors Mac Stone presented his stunning photographs of the one-of-a-kind Everglades ecosystem to a full house on February 2 at the

Cultural Center at Ocean Reef. He was joined by The Everglades Foundation's CEO Eric Eikenberg, who provided riveting insights into one of the greatest challenges of our time: restoring America's Everglades.

Eikenberg and Stone also noted the momentum the Foundation has built for Everglades restoration, which impacts the drinking water for 9 million South Floridians, our economy, climate change, wildlife, and our quality of life.

Stone's camera has carried him to far-flung remote and imperiled areas, but he continually returns to the Everglades to help connect people to the largest ecosystem restoration project in the world.

"My job as a photographer is to remind the world of the global treasure we are responsible for stewarding and protecting," Stone said. "Fortunately, one of the greatest natural areas on the planet has its own dedicated champion in The Everglades Foundation, and I'm honored to support their mission through my work."

Stone's and Eikenberg's presentation was hosted by the Ocean Reef Conservation Association and the Cultural Center at Ocean Reef and sponsored by Northern Trust. A private dinner for members of The Everglades Foundation's Ocean Reef Advisory Council followed the event.

For nearly 30 years, The Everglades Foundation's commitment to restore and protect the precious ecosystem has been driven by science. Founded by two outdoor enthusiasts — Paul Tudor Jones II and the late George Barley — The Everglades Foundation works tirelessly to bring people together and provide a powerful voice for Everglades restoration at the state and national levels. Today, The Everglades Foundation stands as a well-respected authoritative source for scientific research on America's Everglades.

Finding the Right Guide!

by Rev. Dr.
Bob Henley

Travel guides line one of the bookshelves in our home. The names of the countries on the covers remind us of the many places we have been privileged to travel. While guidebooks are helpful, experience has taught us that finding the right guide is, like the commercial says, "priceless!"

This certainly applies to fishing as well! Whether you're pursuing sailfish in blue water, or trout in a mountain river, having the right guide can make all the difference – turning 'fishing' into 'catching'!

The right guide can also make a difference in an entirely different realm. That is finding your way into the myriad of books written by perhaps the most important Christian writer of the 20th century – C.S. Lewis.

Lewis, born in Northern Ireland in 1898, "produced a body of work that is as prolific in its length as it is wide-ranging in its breadth." The expanse of Lewis' thought is breathtaking. He wrote more than thirty books. Those books have been translated into more than thirty languages, selling millions of copies.

"The Chronicles of Narnia"

My personal journey with Lewis started one Christmas, nearly a half-century ago. I had purchased a set of his children's series, "The Chronicles of Narnia." Once I started reading, it was like the potato chip commercial - bet you can't read just one! I was hooked!

Besides his beloved children's series, Lewis wrote a trilogy of science fiction; the influential book Mere Christianity, which began as a series of BBC addresses during World War Two; numerous other non-fiction works; poetic works; academic treatises; and anthologies.

Lewis wrote the account of his conversion from agnosticism to personal faith in his book, "Surprised by Joy." That work has now been produced as a major motion picture, "The Most Reluctant Convert." Perhaps some of you attended the stage production when it was presented to a packed house in the Cultural Center at Ocean Reef earlier this year.

Many years ago, I had the privilege of knowing Sherwood Wirt, the editor of the Billy Graham Association's Decision magazine. Woody, as he was known to his friends, had conducted interviews with countless leaders and persons of influence. At breakfast one morning, I asked him, "Is there one interview that stands out among the others?" Without hesitation, he answered, "C.S. Lewis."

Many people, whether persons of faith or curious seekers, are aware of Lewis. The question that comes to mind is this. "If you want to get into Lewis' work, given the breadth, where would you start?"

I'm so glad you asked, because I can tell you how to find the right guide! His name is Jerry Root.

An Expert on All Things C.S. Lewis

Jerry has recently retired from his professorship at Wheaton College, outside Chicago. He has authored numerous books on Lewis, and lectured all over the world, introducing people to Lewis' writing. He is regarded as one of, if not the best guide to C.S. Lewis.

Dr. Root will be here at Ocean Reef this weekend. There will be three opportunities for you to meet him and hear his presentations.

On Saturday afternoon, he will be making a presentation at the Racquet Club at 2 p.m. On Sunday morning, Jerry will be the guest speaker in the 9 a.m. worship service of the Protestant Congregation, in the lobby of the Cultural Center. He will be speaking again that morning at 10:30 a.m., again in the lobby of the Cultural Center.

Both the Saturday afternoon presentation and the 10:30 a.m. Sunday presentation will provide opportunities to ask questions and engage in dialogue with Jerry about Lewis' works. No reservation is necessary.

Just come and be prepared to hear one of the finest guides and engaging teachers you'll ever meet, speaking about one of the most important writers you'll ever read, talking about the most important topic you could ever consider.

We Mourn the Loss Jane D. Ferger

Jane D. Ferger passed away peacefully Friday, March 4, 2022.

Jane was born in Cincinnati, OH in December 1931, the daughter of Sam and Jeanette Davis. She attended Stephens College and graduated from Denison University in Granville, OH, where she was a member of the Tri Delta Sorority.

She taught in the Grandview Heights school system before marrying Robert James Curie. They had two children, Robert D. Curie and Christie R. Curie, and resided in Upper Arlington, OH. They were active members at Trinity United Methodist Church, Young Presidents' Organization and the Rotary Club. Her husband and her son were killed in a tragic airplane crash in 1974 that took the lives of many Columbusites. After her husband's death, she served on the board of directors of Liqui-Box Corporation. Jane also served on the board of directors of many charitable organizations including Childhood League, the Art Gallery, The Ohio Theater, Riverside Hospital, and Hannah Neil Home for Children.

In 1977 she married Stanley T. Ferger, who had three children, Trevor, Susan, and Steve, and they became dear stepchildren. Stan and Jane met at Ocean Reef, though they were both from Upper Arlington. They began spending their winters at Ocean Reef, dividing their summers between Columbus and Walloon Lake, MI where they were members of the Walloon Lake Country Club. Jane and Stan had been married for 22 years when Stan passed in 1999.

Jane met Norman White, originally from Bloomfield Hills, MI, at Ocean Reef and they married in 2004. They spent ten happy years together.

In the latter part of her life, Jane served for many years on the board of directors of Habitat for Humanity of the Upper Keys, and she continued to be a generous benefactor of many organizations including Denison University, Stephens College, the Ocean Reef Medical Center, Baptist Health South Florida, the Ocean Reef Cultural Center, the Ocean Reef Art League, the Protestant Congregation at Ocean Reef, the Walloon Lake Conservancy, Tri Delta, and the McLaren Hospital.

She is survived by her daughter, Christie (Robert), her stepsons Trevor Ferger (Pam) and Steve Ferger, and grandchildren, Rob Valdés, J.J. Valdés, Stan Ferger (Courtney), Martha Moriarity (Ryan); Susan Fortune (Casey), and two great-grandchildren, Oscar Ferger and Jack Moriarity. In addition, she is survived by a loving extended family that includes Yvette Valdés Smith (Jake, and step-great-grandchildren Sebastian and Leo), Nate Zoba (Sheila), Ben Zoba (Christina), and Jon Zoba. She is also survived by her brother, Samuel B. Davis, and her beloved in-laws, John and Linda Curie and Jean Hiatt.

Jane loved life and family and her many, many friends. She was the beloved matriarch of an extended, blended family. She enjoyed traveling, playing bridge and Mah Jongg, golf, tennis, fishing, boating, birdwatching, cultivating orchids, entertaining, and socializing at cocktail parties. She took a genuine interest in everyone she met.

A celebration of life for Jane will be held Friday, March 11, 2022, at 4pm at the Racquet Club. Her ashes will be interred alongside her first husband and son, Robert J. Curie and Robert D. Curie, at the Union Cemetery in Columbus in May.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Habitat for Humanity of the Upper Keys or the Ocean Reef Medical Center.

We Mourn the Loss Ronald Martin

Ronald Charles Martin of Ocean Reef, Palm Beach Gardens, FL and North Falmouth, MA, passed away Thursday, March 3, 2022, in Miami. Ron leaves his wife, Melba Hardy Martin, late wife Sharon Crowley Martin; son Chuck Martin and his wife Kristen of Winchester, daughter Elizabeth Fideli and husband Bill of Hingham, and daughter Susan Mitchell and husband Chris Mitchell of Needham. He also leaves 13 grandchildren Kaitlin, Brady, Bridget, Ryan and Dylan Martin; Ellen, Claire, Mary and William Fideli; and Thomas, Patrick, Annie and Grace Mitchell; stepdaughter the Hon. Paige Gillman Kilbane of Palm Beach Gardens; and step grandchildren Emery and Tucker Gillman.

Born and raised in Milford, MA, son of the late William and Olga Martin, Ron sadly lost his only brother, Billy, at a young age due to illness. He otherwise had a happy childhood, enjoying football, hunting and fishing, and surrounded by his mother's extended family, the Speronis. The Martins and Speronis shared a love of Italian food and cooking, which Ron carried with him throughout his life.

After graduation from Boston

College, Ron embarked on a long, successful career as a CPA, the majority of which was spent at Ernst and Young, where he eventually earned the title of Partner. His love of all things accounting, with a borderline obsession on tax, remained a passion throughout his life, and he was quick to share as much detail with anybody that would have the patience and kindness to listen. His final professional position was at the University of Massachusetts Medical Center, where he worked in financial controls until his retirement.

Ron met Sharon Crowley, his wife of 37 years, during summers in Cape Cod. They married in 1969 and settled in Wayland. Sharry and their three children relocated several times as Ron built his career, before ultimately returning to Wellesley to be closer to family. He and Sharry loved supporting their children from the sidelines of countless athletic games.

Ron and Sharry spent summers in the Cape Cod village of Megansett in North Falmouth. Ron's heart belonged to Megansett, where he was surrounded by family, lifelong friends, and all of the outdoor activities he so loved. Whether enjoying steak dinners on the deck of Megansett Yacht Club, golfing at Pocasset, fishing in Buzzards Bay, or spending time in his trademark spot on the porch regaling friends with a scotch and a cigar, he was quick to comment "that was the best day of my life" .... almost every day.

In the summer of 2007, Sharry lost her battle with melanoma. Despite the devastating loss, Ron was inspired by the incredible innovation occurring in melanoma treatment and subsequent improvement in clinical outcomes, and established the Sharon Crowley Martin Fund for Melanoma Research at the Dana Farber Cancer Institute. Supporting melanoma research remained a primary focus for the rest of his life.

In subsequent years, Ron spent his time between Megansett and Ocean Reef Club, where he met and developed a wonderful friendship with Melba Hardy. His time with Melba enabled him to rediscover happiness, and the friendship deepened, with the two eventually marrying in 2012. Melba was an amazing partner who shared many of his same passions. She became an integral part of the extended Martin family, to his children and grandchildren alike, as have Melba's daughter Paige and her two children, Emery and Tucker. Ron and Melba split their time between Florida and Massachusetts, all the while enjoying traveling, spending time with friends and family, hunting, and most of all, fishing. The two traveled the coast of the Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico sport fishing on their boat "Toast," which provided many adventures, new friends, and fond memories.

Ron lived life to the fullest and will be missed dearly.

AT THE CULTURAL CENTER

Great Decisions Russia & the US

The Cultural Center's Campus presentation of Great Decisions for Tuesday, March 15 at 5 p.m. will be Russia and the US, with a look back at the more than two decades of acrimonious relations between the two nations. During this period, from 1999 to current, Putin has held and increased his control over the Russian state, while the US has seen five different administrations try various approaches at co-existence.

So many questions arise from the recent invasion of Ukraine with few definitive answers:

how should the US support Ukraine? Why does Putin enjoy such high levels of popularity? What is the possibility of an improved relationship between Russia and the US? As always, Dr. Jeffrey Morton will frame the issues in a fact-based and non-partisan manner, and weigh the Drivers, Options and Outcomes. While this talk will have been prerecorded, Dr. Morton will be here in person on Thursday, March 24 to discuss his Great Decisions topic in person.

The Cultural Center is proud to present this informative lecture to the Ocean Reef Community, free of charge and without need for a reservation, in the Compass Room at the Cultural Center.

How We Got Here

by Mike
Smith

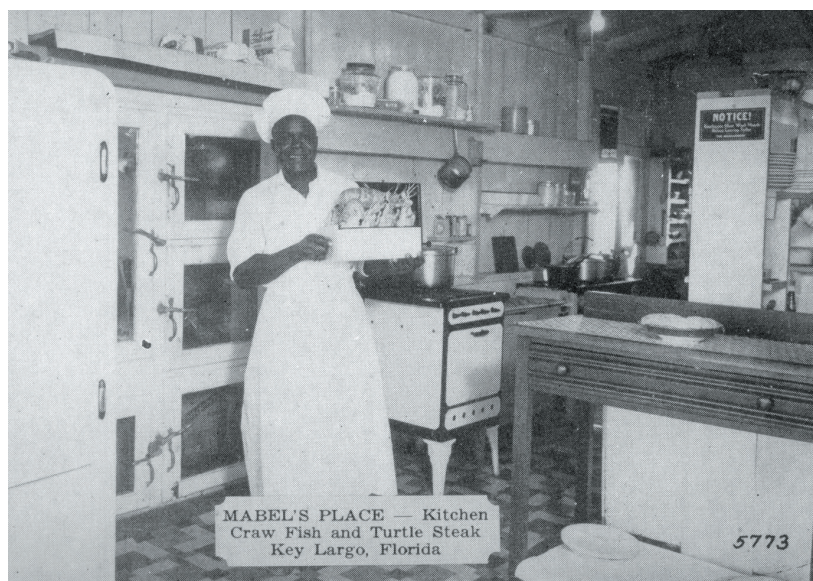

Back in January 1919, when the United States Congress ratified the 18th Amendment prohibiting the sale and manufacture of alcohol, many U.S. citizens reacted negatively to the puritanical impositions the new law posed. Their anger produced almost the opposite behavior for which the law supposedly intended.

At that time, the northern Keys were sparsely populated with year-round residents and only one law officer was assigned to enforce the much-despised new rules. As he patrolled the vast area, his whereabouts were well known at all times, thanks to the 'coconut telegraph'. Boatload after boatload of hooch (alcohol) came in from the Bahamas and Cuba to quench the thirsty Keys visitors. As you might imagine, the smugglers operated with little risk and their biggest enemy might have been each other as 'turf' wars developed between the biggest of the rumrunners.

Illicit watering holes were established by local entrepreneurs to serve the hooch to demanding travelers. One such establishment was opened by Mabel Harris in 1928 on what is now route 905 about a half mile north of the 905/US 1 intersection. Simply called Mabel's Place, she offered Florida lobster, Key lime pie and of course, hooch. She and others called it a 'tea room', but her customers were not interested in a cup of Lipton's. Visitors came by land and some by sea and as Mabel's Place gained in reputation, a back room was added, created specifically for the lonely male traveler.

The importation and sale of illicit alcohol became a big industry throughout the Keys and brought wealth and employment to many. So when prohibition ended with the passing of the 21st amendment in 1933, the flow of enormous profits ceased and that cessation coincided with the beginning of the great depression. Mabel's Place closed and the era of rum running and high seas adventures was over, yielding to the bankruptcy of many businesses including the City of Key West. Struggling Keysians were stuck with a diet of grunts and grits and memories of a boom time long gone.

Mabel Harris ran a restaurant on 905 known well by travelers to the area.

World Changers

By Nicky Laak, Middle School Social Studies Teacher & Media Specialist

Some of Ocean Reef Club's youngest community members at The Academy at Ocean Reef are doing their best to solve the world's problems. The Academy's middle school students, led by social studies teacher, Nicky Laak, are busy preparing to assume the roles of delegates to the United Nations at the Miami Dade Model United Nations Conference on Saturday, March 12. During the conference, students will debate topics and reach resolutions on world affairs.

The Academy's diplomats have written and submitted their position papers from the perspectives of China and Nicaragua. Working with hundreds of delegates from other nations, they will negotiate and try to reach resolutions to address the following weighty topics: The Situation in Afghanistan, Freedom of Expression &

Religious Intolerance; Food Security & Distribution; and International Migration in Latin America & The Caribbean.

The Academy students are ready for the challenge. "I am excited to speak in front of people from so many different schools, and I look forward to hearing such a diversity of perspectives," said Valerie Gabriel, one of the 6th grade delegates.

Eighth grader, Kameron Holman echoed those sentiments, "I am ready to go to Model UN to practice my public speaking skills."

Remi Helms, also in 8th grade, concurred. "I think that Model UN is a great experience for people our age to be exposed to public speaking, negotiating and communication skills."

As Head of School, Jerome Murphy, reflected on the Model UN experience, "We often hear how valuable the skill sets Critical Thinking, Communication, Collaboration and Creativity (4 C's) are in the 21st century world. I can't think of a better initiative than the Model UN experience to shine such a bright light on the development of these important skills for our children at The Academy."

COLLECTION FOR UKRAINE

To lend a hand to those impacted by the tragedy in Ukraine, The Academy is collecting the following items for children over the next two weeks:

- Gently used warm clothing - sweaters, jackets, sweatpants, pjs
- Toiletries
- Sleeping bags
- Socks and underwear
- Diapers
- Dry formula
- First aid kits

Collected items will be delivered to a local agency in Homestead, from which they will then be sent to Ukraine.

Feeling Wordy!

"Dot.calm"
by Jane Silverman

I like to think of myself as a word nerd. I have held a lifetime fascination with the etymology of words, expressions, and their derivations. Who doesn't love learning the names for animal groups like a bloat of hippos, flamboyance of flamingoes, a smack of jellyfish, or a lounge of lizards? Or that dolphin aka mahi-mahi is actually a Hawaiian word (mahi for "strong" and then repeated for "very strong").

From the "never too old to learn something new" department of self-enrichment, here are a few great lexicon-building games that my fellow word nerds might enjoy:

Expand your vocabulary with Quizzitive.

Quizzitive – A Merriam-Webster Word Game app tests you on "1000 Words Worth Knowing" selected by the Merriam-Webster editors to challenge and help build your vocabulary. It has ten degrees of difficulty levels with fun quiz types from "Speed Drill" to "Name That Thing." The first two levels are free and then a $1.99 one-time payment unlocks the other 8 levels.

As a self-subscribed wordsmith, I love the Word Genius website and its newsletter www.wordgenius.com which sends you a word of the day along with an explanation of its usage, etymology, audible pronunciation, and multiple-choice word quizzes, and word and language trivia. If you already know the definition of pandowdy, glyptic, or quiddity then this newsletter may not be for you...

The Vocabulary Builder by Magoosh app is another favorite; it tutors you on 1200 words with games and repetition for the GRE, GMAT, SAT, and TOEFL but it's a great challenge for anyone who wants to improve their vocabulary and memory. Warning: it starts to get darn tricky at the advanced section level 2....

"Education is what remains after one has forgotten what one has learned in school." - Albert Einstein

Farmers Market Favorites

By Susan Bohan

If you have children visiting on Spring Break soon, you will find a special treat for them (and you!) at the Farmer's Market.

Incredible Kettle Corn

Incredible Kettle Corn has five different flavors to choose from every Thursday, each more delicious than the next. The biggest seller is the Classic, which is sweet and salty. There is also Carmel, Spicy Buffalo, Berry Rainbow and Cheddar Caramel. There is absolutely no reason to tell the kids that it is actually a healthy snack! Each flavor is hand-crafted and popped in small batches which guarantees freshness. A handy tip Joel taught me is that the bags can be placed in the freezer indefinitely and since there is no liquid, each bag comes out as dry and delicious as the day you bought it. Established in 2010, this family-owned company is a great addition to our special vendors.

Gemita's Kitchen

Another "must stop" on Thursdays is Gemita's Kitchen. Their motto, "Life is Better with Burrata" is a truism. Add a few slices of tomato and either Basil or Arugula Pesto and you have a winning salad. The fresh or smoked Mozzarella can be used countless ways, as can the Nata, artisanal soft cream. The Butter, whether Sweet or Garlic & Herb makes any sandwich or simple toast a treat. My new favorite is the Preserved Onions. They are an ideal accompaniment to a simple burger or tossed into any hot or cold dish to provide a unique twist. The Roasted Tomatoes are unlike any you have had before. Gemita will also make you a delicious Panini at the booth using any of these fresh ingredients. All the products are made in Coral Gables or Orlando where her eldest son oversees all production. So if you are looking to enhance some of your favorite basic recipes or learn some new ones, stop by and Gemita will have many suggestions!

Ocean Reef ForgetMeNots March Meeting: CureAlzheimers

By Cynthia Weglarz & Fraank Gudicello,
ForgetMeNots Co-Chairs

The Ocean Reef ForgetMeNots, a caregiver support group, cordially invites you to its meeting on Tuesday, March 15 in the second floor meeting room of the Ocean Reef Medical Center. Please reserve a place at the meeting by calling Cynthia Weglarz at 708-476-6350.

Guest speaker, member Jeffrey Morby, will speak to the group about CureAlzheimers, a not for profit organization which gives 100% of funds raised to research into this very challenging condition. This is a very important effort.

The ForgetMeNots have been very grateful to have in person meetings this season. Our February meeting was held at Waterside with nurse practitioner Mara Cakans giving a great presentation on "Improving Your Immunity". Thank you, Mara.

For more information, please call co-chairs Dr. Frank Gudicello at 305-394-8208 or Cynthia Weglarz at 708-476-6350.

What do chefs do on their day off? Why, of course, they disguise themselves in "civvies" and head off in a gaggle to inspect nearby food purveyors. This week they descended on Freshpoint where we get most of our fruits and vegetables, then soldiered on to tour Halpern's meat and fish emporium.

PHOTO CHALLENGE: can you identify our Ocean Reef chefs without their "whites"? We have spiced up the test by including a couple of Freshpoint employees in the picture. See if you can pick out Betania Salles (Cooking School)(this one is a freebee), Michael Meadows (Ocean Room), Jeffrey Munchel (Pastry Chef), Javon Smith (Waterside), Jared Reardon (Ocean Reef Executive Chef), Nelio Bathelus (Gianni), and Cameron Kihnel (Cooking School).

A free Hot Fudge Sundae on me for the first one to get them all. You owe ME a sundae if you mistakenly pick a Freshpoint employee, as handsome as they are.

SPOT ON SHOPPING

Joan the Shopper

DIVE SHOP....

Like many people whose hobby (addiction?) is shopping, I seldom feel guilty about my purchases.

Still I get added satisfaction about buying something at The Dive Shop at Ocean Reef, where almost everything sold there contributes in some way to protecting our environment....The Shop, owned by member Lisa Bailey Cassidy and managed by Jesus Gudino, carries all the essential equipment for chartered day trips to the Carysfort Reef for scuba, snorkeling or spear fishing.... Plus, and it's a big plus, there are lots of useful and attractive items for those who believe an "on-the-water adventure" is the deep end of the Buccaneer Island pool....At the Dive Shop I found my favorite swimsuit (Batoko $100). It is a simple blue tank, decorated with happy whales. And it is made of used plastic waste retrieved from the ocean.... Not to be missed (granted it would be hard to miss them) are the rash guard tights in such wild and pleasing designs, that they would probably put a smile on the face of a passing shark ($65). There are also tops that match or coordinate. I love these

"rashies". I can wear them for Zumba and go right on to an aerobic exercise in the pool.... For men, whose preference is to skim the water's surface, there are attractive Apex Board Shorts ($166.75). And Riffe, (known for spearfishing gear) has tees and cotton shirts, that are good to wear whatever body of water you choose (except maybe the bathtub). ...And for anybody trying to avoid after-swim goose bumps, there is the Blanket Shirt, pictured here ($170).

Bonefish Bonnies

by Sarah A. Cart

The Bonefish Bonnies are headed back to the Card Sound Sporting Clays course for their popular Cast & Blast Day at the Range.

From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Friday, March 25, the first 25 Bonnies to pre-register will take over the course (6.7 miles past Alabama Jack's on the right) for shooting and casting. Professional instruction will be provided. From beginner to avid shooter, all are welcome.

Additionally, fellow Bonnie Mona Brewer, the group's own Certified Fly Fishing Instructor, will be there to coach Bonnies on casting form. Whether new to fly fishing, an intermediate, or an accomplished angler, Mona has a wealth of tips to share to help get the line out further or make the delivery cleaner.

The cost to take part is $85 and includes range and gun rental as well as ammunition, instruction, lunch and beverages. To RSVP, email your name and ORC Member number to Bonnies' Treasurer Laura Wilson at cflba@icloud.com, or send a check made out to "Bonefish Bonnies" to 24 Dockside Lane, PMB 1; your payment will be your reservation. The DEADLINE for sign-ups and cancellations is March 22; additional participants will be invited from the Wait List in order of payment receipt if/when any cancellations come in.

OFF THE REEF

As February's full moon faded, Ocean Reef's Robin and Terry Spencer, Kendall and Laura Hendrick, Ben and Sarah Cart, and Tom and Sara Duff had a great week at Panama's Tropic Star Lodge. Between them, they caught half a dozen black marlin (including Sara Duff's 400-pounder and Kendall Hendrick's 600-pounder), nearly a dozen Pacific sailfish and plenty of mahi mahi thanks to their captains Vincente and Candelo (in blue) and mates Weimar and Avri (in yellow).

Card Sound Sailing, Oceanside!

by Frank
Schneider,
Card Sound
Sailing Club
Commodore

The sailors of Card Sound Sailing Club (CSSC) ventured out on the water last Wednesday in the opposite direction than usual. Not to our familiar Card Sound, but on to the ocean they aimed.

Using the Hobie catamarans on the beach, we set up a simple race course in the Bay and started a regatta in groups of three boats competing with each other. By pushing off the beach and jumping on the Cats, the sailors started the race, rounded the marks out in the Bay and finished back on the beach.

The winners of each group had to fight it out in a final race between them - back to the beach first wins overall.

Jim Lampman did it and with the win came the privilege to buy beers for all participants. We all toasted him with our drinks in our hand at the Beach Bar. What a great day of sailing.

Next Saturday, March 12th, we will hold one of the highlights on our sailing calendar, The Pumpkin Key Race! This is a traditional race around Pumpkin Key, the private island in front of Ocean Reef, once the property of Jane and George Berry, who invented the race many years ago and donated a "golden" pumpkin trophy. The trophy is still awarded today and can be seen at the CSSC Wall of Honor at the Burgee Bar.

Spectators are encouraged to watch the race from Greenberg Park, Anglers Club or power boats on the water (which are requested to stay distanced from the race course). Race start is Saturday, 9:30 a.m.

Everyone interested in sailing, please contact our CSSC membership chair Gary Sayia at gsayia@aol.com for more

Windy Conditions Challenge CSMYC Sailors

by Windsor
D. Coffin,
CSMYC
Commodore

The forecast leading up to last Sunday was not at all promising. Strong winds that began on Friday looked to continue through Sunday and threatened to scuttle racing on the Pond much as it had done to two days of racing for our sailing friends at the Card Sound Sailing Club. But an early Sunday morning meeting between myself, Windsor Coffin, and Al Mast at the Pond, convinced us that the winds had settled down just enough to give racing a try. With that, the Card Sound Model Yacht Club sailors gathered at the Pond, and we went racing!

The conditions dictated that our "B" Rig, smaller heavier air rigs, were useable, but near the limits of their usability. As such, yours truly decided to try the rare "C" Rig, an even smaller rig for much more extreme conditions. While it was effective on parts of the course, in most places the "C" rig was simply underpowered. So, I skipped a race and switched to the "B" Rig. It was indeed the correct choice, but I was glad to have been able to give the "C" rig a go. After five races that included one race where many sailors lost count of the lap they were on and quite a few collisions scattered throughout the racing day, it was Al Mast that emerged as the winner.

Second place went to the consistently fast Sim Wooten. Rounding out the top three was Erin Coffin who, despite being caught up in a few incidents on the course on the day, had consistently great finishes and finished the day better than her husband. That did bring a smile to her face.

Long-range forecasts are calling for yet another windy weekend. Fingers crossed that it turns out to just be breezy.

The Card Sound Model Yacht Club races every Sunday (except Easter Sunday) from December until the end of April at "the Pond." Races begin at 10 a.m. and we are always looking for new members to join our group of model sailors. So, swing by as early as 9 a.m. if you are curious and have questions. If you would like more information about our model yachting club and our EC12 model yachts, please contact me, Windsor Coffin, at csmyc12@gmail.com.

Beyond Exercise

"Fitness Focus"
by Luis Bracamonte,
Director of Fitness &
Wellness

Exercise, movement, physical fitness, whichever name we choose to describe the activity of using cardiovascular, strength and flexibility training to improve the way our bodies look, move and feel, is essential to wellness. However, there are other factors that heavily influence our wellbeing, health and performance. Here are two big ones:

Sleep

When we are fully rested, our energy levels are higher and our physical and mental performance is closer to full potential. Pay attention to both quantity and quality of sleep to ensure we are recharging and rebuilding properly. Here are some important guidelines:

- Consistently go to bed and wake up at the same time to create a sleep schedule.
- Reduce electronic and blue light stimulus closer to bedtime.
- Exercise improves quality of sleep, but avoid exercising too close to bedtime.
- Increase exposure to natural light during the day.

- Have a relaxation routine before bed. Examples include meditation, deep breathing, reading a book, taking a hot bath, listening to relaxing music, massaging and stretching.
- Make sure your bedroom is set at comfortable temperature. For most people it is around 70 degrees, but you should adjust to your preferences.
- Reduce alcohol intake and eating too close to bedtime.
- Avoid drinking fluids one hour before bedtime to reduce your chances of waking up.
- Manage thoughts by dedicating time before bed to stop thinking about problems and focus on rest and relaxation. Delegate problem solving for the morning, after resting and recharging.
- Experiment with different relaxing scents such as lavender, clary sage, chamomile or rose.

Nutrition

The nutrients we intake fuel our bodies to be healthier and perform better. Here are some important guidelines:

- The basics: avoid fried foods, processed foods, sugars, reduce starches and alcohol intake and manage portion sizes.
- Intermediate: plan your meals and choose healthy, satisfying options, increase intake of vegetables, water and other low calorie-low sugar fluids, pay attention to how food is prepared, avoid heavy sauces and experiment with fasts and cleanses under professional supervision. Shop for the foods that are going to contribute to your goals and learn to pick the best options in every restaurant menu.

- Advanced: supplement to avoid imbalances and increase performance. Don't forget that what is good for your heart is also good for your brain. Try to get an optimal amount of macro and micronutrients to ensure your body has what it needs to function optimally. Consult with your doctor and or nutrition coach and learn about what food and supplements you need. Find a ratio of nutritious eating to indulgences that is sustainable.

Exercise, sleep and nutrition are worth investing time and effort as they make a significant difference in quality of life and longevity. To learn more about exercise, sleep and nutrition, attend our complimentary lecture with Monica Auslander, RD on Friday, March 18 at 2pm, or book a consultation with an ORC Fitness Specialist.

This Week on the PGA Tour

One of the signature events on the PGA Tour took place this past weekend in central Florida. The top players in the world gathered at Bay

Hill for the Arnold Palmer Invitational.

Not only is this one of the most prized trophies in the game, but it gives all of us a chance to reflect on the life of Arnold Palmer as he left such an impact on the sports world. Birdies and pars were tough to come by with firm fast greens and deep rough, just as Mr. Palmer would like it.

One of the young phenoms came out on top, surviving the brutal conditions. Scottie Scheffler posted five under par to claim his second win in three starts!

PICKLEBALL TIP

Dink with a Purpose

by Justin Romero,
Head of Racquet Sports

When I am playing tournaments and all four players are at the kitchen line, my goal is to try to force the opponent to make an error, either by missing the dink or popping the ball up to my volley. I find myself playing neutral rather than offensive. Statistically in a dink rally, the player who initiates that first aggressive shot ends up losing the point.

Is it possible to hit an offensive dink? Is there a shot that increases your percentage to getting a pop up? The answer is YES. Try this, I call it "Dink 2.0".

Dink 2.0

When you are dinking, don't try to hit the ball in the kitchen. Try to hit the ball on the opponents kitchen line. To do this, extend out the stroke, push your paddle forward in an outward motion rather than an upward motion. You want the opponent to take a low volley.

This is a much more difficult shot for your opponent to try to hit back in your kitchen. You will start seeing a lot more high balls that you can put away for the winning point!

If you would like to work on this shot, call the Tennis & Games Center to set up a lesson and we can get you dinking offensively.

TENNIS

Player of the Week

Jack Villamizar

Where did you start playing tennis?

Morningside Park with my mom.

Who is your favorite tennis player?

Novak Djokovic because he's funny and a great player.

What is your favorite shot in tennis?

Low overhead because it's easy for me and hard for them.

What other activities do you enjoy at Ocean Reef Club, aside from tennis?

Playing soccer, swimming and having fun!

Ocean Reef Club is Victorious!

by Kevin Girard, Head Pickleball Professional

This past Sunday, Ocean Reef Club hosted an interclub pickleball match vs. the Fisher Island Club, where twelve members from each club competed. The match-ups included men's, ladies', and mixed doubles categories.

After two hours of back-and-forth competition, Ocean Reef Club came out on top with an 11-1 match margin of victory. The score did not reflect how close that matches actually were as six of the contests were decided in three games (we used a best two out of three format).

This is a tradition we would like to continue with our friends to the north, with the possibility of adding other clubs to our schedule.

Top: Ocean Reef Club comes out victorious in the Pickleball Interclub vs. Fisher Island.

Medical Center "Fun" Raiser

"Tennis Shorts" by Jim Morton, Director of Tennis

If you have never played in the Medical Center's annual "Fun" Raiser event, this is the year to do so.

On Tuesday, March 15, the Tennis & Games Center and the Racquet Club will host the "racquets" portion of the event, starting with the Mixed Doubles Tennis Round Robin held at the Racquet Club from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. Players who sign up will be divided into an "A" and a "B" flight and will play with and against different opponents each round.

This fun, competitive event, has a great twist as players are permitted before the play starts to purchase bisques or tokens that they can use against their opponents to get a serve do-over, add a point to their score, or get a return of serve do-over to increase their chances of winning! Winners even get their names engraved on the plaques hanging in the Medical Center, as well as, a generous gift certificate to purchase items in our Tennis Pro Shop.

Following the Tennis, there will be a scrumptious luncheon provided for the tennis, pickleball and 9-hole golf participants set up at the Racquet Club. Then the action starts back up, this time at the Tennis & Games Center's pickleball courts where Pickleball Pro Kevin Girard will hold another fun doubles event.

As with the tennis, pickleball players will have tokens that they can purchase to increase the odds for them to win, like a serve do-over, forgive a kitchen violation, and add a point to your score. Winners of the pickleball also get gift certificates and more importantly, their names on the plaques in the Medical Center.

These events give Ocean Reef racquet participants the chance to support the Medical Center and their staff with their participation donation. Please help us make this one of the most successful "Fun" Raisers ever by signing up for this awesome event.

You can sign up by calling Jenny Rigby at the Medical Center (305-367-2600) or letting Willie Cakans and Sam Dahmer or Jim Morton and Kevin Girard know that you would like to be a participant.

ORC Croquet Update

By William Hinkebein,
ORC Croquet Chair

Last Friday, the Golf Croquet Singles Club Championship was held for the fourth year. The sky was blue, the wind was quite breezy and the beautiful green lawn was well manicured for the competition.

The field of ten players were split into two blocks, with the first and second place finishers from each block moving on to the Final Four. As the early games played out, the new level of high-quality golf croquet became evident. All games were quite competitive with some lasting 45 minutes. As block play ended, the final four players were realized and the semifinals were set.

In one semifinal, veteran Gordana Schneider was up against sensational second year player Mike Love. Gordana was unable to play all last season as she was "stuck" in her native Germany during the covid restrictions. However, she has certainly made up for lost lawn time this year, emerging victorious and moving on to the final.

In the other semifinal, two of ORC's best players were matched up: Kendall Hendrick and Alan Thomson. Both players have many years of experience, holding previous club championships in singles, doubles or both. Kendall was playing very well on this day and emerged to the final.

The final match was an incredible display of setting up, clearing, stop shots, split shots, and fine shot making. Kendall jumped out to an early three-wicket lead, but Gordana was not intimidated or finished. Incredibly, rolling the ball near flawlessly, Gordana came back to tie the score and move ahead. Gordana got on the hottest hot streak as the final wickets played out. Many congratulations to Gordana Schneider, who played the best we have ever seen her play, for over six hours total on this day, defeating two former singles champions along the way.

Gordana Schneider is the 2022 ORC Golf Croquet Singles Champion!

Crocodile Cup 2022 Grand Finale

On Sunday, the final day of Croc Cup league play was held. On this final day of competition, players could make up any previous missed games, as all must have a minimum of 14 games complete for the final standings.

Of the 15 qualified participants, the final top five:

Kendall Hendrick, 187.2 points

Mike Love, 185.3

Susan Reichardt, 171.7

Carol Blackburn, 154.6

Gordana Schneider, 130.1

This was the closest final point total in Croc Cup league history. Thank you to all participants and to Ron Sekura for running the 2022 Crocodile Cup.

2022 ORAC Challenge Invitational

The annual golf match between Ocean Reef Club and Key Largo Anglers Club is coming up on Friday, March 18. This is the 20th year of this competitive and friendly competition where six doubles teams from each club will battle it out on both club's lawns.

The ORC team has been finalized with 16 total team members, 12 playing in the match. The ORC final twelve have emerged from players who have been highly successful in the many official croquet events this season.

Mike Love with his Croc Cup trophy.

As usual, Anglers Club is the favorite, having a long and strong tradition of croquet. The quantity and quality of players at Anglers croquet is one of the best in all of Florida. Ocean Reef croquet has been growing steadily the last several years and it would be quite an achievement for ORC to win this match.

RECENT CATCH

Larry Johnston recently caught this Large Mutton Snapper off Ocean Reef.

Phillip Higgins caught this huge Amberjack on a wreck off Ocean Reef last week.

Last month, Charlie Simms caught this 22lb Cobia in 120 feet of water off Reelin in the Keys, to luckily surpass his wife's 10lb mutton snapper published in the Ocean Reef Press the week before!

When Photographing Your Catch Remember to... KEEP EM' WET

The Ocean Reef Press encourages all anglers to follow Bonefish Tarpon Trust's "Keep 'Em Wet" stance regarding catching, releasing and photographing fish. If you do catch fish that are catch-and-release species, or fish you do not intend to eat, we ask that you don't remove them from the water for a photo. Instead, send us a picture of your crew out on the water, your fish flags and a description of the fish you caught.

Card & Games Corner

by Gregg Van Dyke,
Director of Card &
Games

The Texas Holdem Knockout held last Monday was wonderful and full of excitement. Eighteen players took part.

In an exciting finish, Fred Flippin rallied from almost nothing to the top of the pile during the last half hour at the final table to take 1st Place. Finishing a strong 2nd was Stan Henry. Defending champion Charlie Simms made a strong run and finished 3rd.

A big thank you to the Recreation department dealers and assistants who made the show possible.

Last Monday's Texas Holdem Knockout was full of excitement with 18 participants.

BRIDGE TIP

When the Bidding Goes...

1 Club – pass – pass - ?

By Gregg Van Dyke,
Bridge Director

When a 1club opening bid is passed to you, keep in mind your partner was not strong enough to overcall 1 Club.

When a 1club opening bid is passed to you, look at your club length. If you are short, your partner may yet have a good hand. If you have club length, there is a good chance that your partner is weak.

1) S- Q4 H- 876 D- KJ76 C- AJ95

2) S- Q98 H-A954 D-KJ87 C- 84

With (1), pass because your partner is probably short in clubs and probably weak, not to be able to bid at the one level. The opener probably has the 18 - 19 point balanced hand and wants to get back into the bidding.

With (2), double your club shortness - indicates that your partner may have a good hand with clubs after all.
