Get to Know Our Bag Room Open Final Four

Who is the best golf professional on The Reef? By this time next week, Ocean Reef will have the answer. For 46 years, the Bag Room Open has challenged golf professionals from Ocean Reef Club and Card Sound in a month-long, all-staff tournament with Member caddies. Now in the final week of this year's series, the community is on the cusp of answering the ever-interminable question.

The tournament's 1977 beginnings were born from talks of a friendly pro v. pro match among a few competitive professionals, and with increased Member involvement, has since grown into the anticipated tournament of today. Inaugural Bag Room champion Dan Fabian remembers seeing 20 to 30 carts during his final match in 1977, while today, the crowd regularly exceeds 100+ carts. Professionals often describe the feeling as akin to playing a PGA Tour event.

With the Semis and Finals upon us, the Club is proud to have so many golf leaders in the Final Four... Mike Leone – Ocean Reef Director of Golf, Zach Haynes – Ocean Reef First Assistant Professional, Matt Costigan – Ocean Reef Outside Operations Manager, and Griff Jayne – Card Sound Assistant Golf Professional and 2021 Defending Champion.

Learn more about this fantastic group of four:

Over Mike Leone's nine-year tenure at Ocean Reef,

Equity Member Mix & Mingle at The Point

The Peltons and Strupps

Dora and Steve Rubin

he's worked his way up from Outside Operations to Director of Golf. Playing in the Bag Room all nine years, he's made it into the Final Four twice, one resulting in a win. With Golf Chair Jodi Betz by his side as mentor and caddy, this weekend's matches could give him his second win. Of his 2019 title, Mike says, "Winning the 2019 tournament in front of a large portion of the Membership against such a strong field is an experience I will forever remember."

Zach Haynes has also twice made it to the Final Four in his four years with Ocean Reef. He believes that what makes this tournament so special are the Members and their participation. Evolving from a mentoring program, founded years ago by the late Stan Ellis, that fosters bonds between Member mentors and their Professional mentees. Haynes says having Bob Manzo, his Member mentor, by his side throughout each Bag Room journey makes all the difference.

Matt Costigan and his mentor, Jay Guarch, have had an especially amazing month

Stay Informed – Homestead is at a Tipping Point Online Discussion

By Teresa Holmes, Everglades
Protection Alliance Chair

Monroe County Commissioner Michelle Coldiron, environmental land-use attorney Richard Grosso, Friends of the Everglades board member Alan Farago, and Miami Waterkeeper environmental specialist Audrey Siu joined Friends of the Everglades executive director, Eve Samples, for a live-streamed conversation on March 30: Homestead is at a Tipping Point. An important discussion and overview of the development threats in Homestead, especially around the Homestead Air Reserve Base. This expert panel took the audience through what is going on, highlighting some of the reasons we are so concerned and on alert. You will get a better understanding of the risks to our natural resources — and national security — as the frenzied development pressure around the air base persists.

In case you missed the live event, a recap has been added to the Latest News tab on the Friends website, www.oceanreef.com/EvergladesProtectionAlliance. And a recorded video version will be delivered directly to anyone who is signed up for their email list. Tell your friends. Let’s all stay informed on these important issues.

Living à la Cart

by Sarah A. Cart

Sometimes when your last name is a noun, life offers lessons in not taking yourself too seriously. Take "Cart," for example.

Every time one friend sees me, he comes up with a pun based on "Putting the Cart before the horse." As a fan of chomping on a sweet Gala or MacIntosh or Red Delicious several times a week, when I'm in a mood, I wonder if I'm "upsetting the apple Cart."

Then there's signage.

In the parking lot of our local grocery store in Ohio, Ben, our four sons and I would joke and laugh about the signs that read "Pick up Your Carts Here" and "Return Your Carts Here." (Confession: On occasion, that second one presented a sore temptation for an exhausted mother).

And golf course signage can be paralyzing. "Carts on paths only." "No Carts on green or tee box." "Carts" with an arrow pointing left, or an arrow pointing right, or arrows pointing both left and right!

Now that we're Florida residents living in a community where such vehicles are a prime form of transportation, a slew of signs advises us where to go and how to behave:

"No Carts Allowed."

"No Carts Beyond this Point, Please," (If I'm having a bad day, that doesn't make it better. Even the "please" doesn't help.)

"Carts do not enter. Wrong way. This side pedestrians only." (That one leaves me, a dedicated walker, highly conflicted.)

One all our family loves and appreciates, however, is "Cart Parking Only."

And if I'm distracted when a conversation turns to "Cart Safety," on occasion it takes a moment to realize people aren't talking about me.

No matter all the above or the dateline of today's paper, however, please remember cart safety deserves your attention and focus. We live in a magical spot, but that doesn't mean accidents don't happen.

- When you're driving, let that be the only thing you're doing; leave the phone call until you're where you're going, or pull over.
- Put toddlers in car seats rather than on a lap and encourage older children and other passengers to wear seatbelts.
- Be mindful of your speed, always, and especially on corners.
- Use your signals and always make your left-hand turns from the left lane.
- Be safe.

Easter Sunrise – Back at Buccaneer!

by Rev. Dr.
Bob Henley

The Sunrise Service at Easter on Buccaneer Island is one of the great traditions at Ocean Reef Club. The COVID pandemic interrupted our lives in ways large and small. One way being the cancellation of the Easter Sunrise Service. The good news is the Easter Sunrise Service tradition at Buccaneer will resume this year.

The traditional Easter Sunrise Service returns to Buccaneer Island.

An Interesting History

Easter Sunrise Services have been around for almost 300 years. Historians tell us the first Easter Sunrise Service took place in 1732. A group of unmarried men from a Moravian congregation in the town of Herrnhut, in Saxony, began the tradition. Following an all-night prayer service, at sunrise, the men went to the town graveyard, located on a hill known as God’s Acre. They chose a graveyard to celebrate the resurrection of Christ because of his Easter triumph over death and the grave. The following year, the entire congregation joined in, and the procession to the graveyard was accompanied by brass choirs playing chorales. We have Moravian missionaries to thank for spreading the idea of an Easter Sunrise Service around the world.

Personal History
That Moravian innovation brings back memories of many sunrise services. As a young married couple, we participated in our first sunrise service on a Florida beach. Several Easter mornings were spent watching the sunrise across the San Fernando Valley from our congregational gathering on Mulholland Drive in Los Angeles. Easter mornings on the blustery plains of Kansas found us watching the sunrise in the warmth of an indoor room through a large east-facing window. And yes, there were sunrise services bundled up on cold mountain Easter mornings in Idaho. Unlike here, where the Easter eggs are scattered on the beach, in Sun Valley, they were scattered across the snow!

Sunrise Services at Ocean Reef
None of those memories can rival the joy and delight of gathering with more than a thousand people, watching the sunrise on Easter morning, looking out on the waters of the Atlantic from Buccaneer Island. It is hard to capture in words the impact of seeing the spectacular cross of lilies, framed by the orange glow of the sunrise. No one could have imagined on the first Easter that the horror of Friday’s cross would become the beautiful embodiment of sacrificial love and undying hope. Easter is good news! The unspeakable dismay of Friday found Jesus being placed in a borrowed tomb. A small group of women carefully watched where they laid him. Following the Sabbath, they made their way to the tomb to complete the unfinished burial preparations. These women became the bearers of unimaginable joy at sunrise on that first Easter Sunday. Hurriedly returning to their friends, they blurted out their almost unbelievable claim. “He is risen!” And people of faith for two millennia have replied with our own Easter acclamation, “He is risen indeed!”

This Easter
Our Sunrise Service on Easter morning at Buccaneer Island will begin at 6:45 AM. The staff of Ocean Reef Club will have set up more than one thousand chairs overnight. And inn guests will hear the sounds of the choir and instrumentalists rehearsing well before the sky begins to lighten. Along with the choir and instrumentalists, our special guest musician will be the wonderful Mauricio Diaz. One of our most popular speakers in the Chapel, Dr. Tom Tewell will be with us. He’ll be introducing a very special guest that morning. To borrow a line from a favorite sportscaster, “We’re back at Buccaneer baby!” Come and join us as we celebrate the greatest event in human history – one that brings enduring hope to these troubling times.

The Drug Wars — US Policy in Latin America

Dr. Jeffrey Morton, on the big screen
Tuesday, April 5 at 5pm
Complimentary

Dr. Morton turns his attention to the Latin American sphere of foreign policy, where fifty years of drug control strategies have produced ill-fated returns of increased military forces, heightened violence and predatory criminality that are important drivers of asylum petitioners to the US. What are the options for US policy?

By now we know what to expect from ORC's favorite non-political commentator — a historic overview with piercing analysis, choices of action with consequences, and a candid but unbiased assessment of the situation.

He served as Director for the Office of Liturgy and Master of Ceremonies in the Archdiocese of Denver from 1990 until 1995. He served the archdiocese as an advisor to the Bishop's Committee on the Liturgy, and was named Secretary for Catholic Education, a position he held from 1995 until 1999.

In 2000, he was named a Prelate of Honor by Pope John Paul II, receiving the honorary title of Monsignor.

In 2002, he became Bishop of Fargo, North Dakota, and from 2005 to 2006 he also acted as Apostolic Administrator for the Diocese of Sioux Falls, South

Archbishop Sam Aquila

Dakota. In 2012, he was installed as the Archbishop of Denver, returning to lead the Archdiocese where he had originally served as a priest for 25 years.

Archbishop Aquila continues his ministry, serving on the Bishops' Advisory Council for the Institute for Priestly Formation, the Papal Foundation, and the Board of Trustees for the Augustine Institute. He is a member of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and has served as a member of Conference committees. Archbishop Aquila's episcopal motto comes from the Blessed Virgin Mary's instructions at Cana: "Do whatever he tells you (Jn 2:5)."

GREAT DECISIONS DRUG POLICY IN LATIN AMERICA

Tuesday, April 5 • 5:00PM
Complimentary

Have harsh drug control policies caused more harm than good? The issue of migration to the United States from Latin America has overshadowed the war on drugs, which has been underway for decades with little signs of progress. What are the roots and the bureaucratic logic behind today's dominant drug policies in Latin America? Is it time to reconsider punitive drug policies that disrupt supply chains and punish drug possession?

“Big Bird” and Friends – At The Reef

“Nature Notes”
by Nancy Zakon

Not the one on Sesame Street but Florida big birds. Ever see big birds that glide endlessly, circling ever so high over the ocean – and there are some that skim so close to the waves... and others that hover over treetops when going down Card Sound Road? They're here all the time – check it out.

The high-circling-over-the-ocean one is probably the Frigatebird – the pterodactyl of modern times with distinctive (almost Batman) wings and forked tail. Flying high, they have excellent eyesight enabling the search for fish. While feeding on flying fish, baitfish, squid, any protein on the water's surface, they must remain aloft – they can't get wet. They don't dive. Why not? Unlike other ocean-going birds, they have no oil glands to coat their feathers keeping them waterproof. (Wet feathers; they sink). So how do they catch fish? They compensate with agility and speed! They skim the water surface with only their beaks. But Frigates not only eat what they catch – but also eat their neighbor's catch! They swoop fast, attacking other flying birds making them drop hard-earned catches, then grabbing the stolen morsel midair before it lands in the water. Frigatebirds are called “Man-of-War” birds for a reason. Why the name “Frigate”? From the ship class of the same name – built for its speed and agility. Does it ever land? Yes, it nests on higher perches facing the prevailing wind which, like an airplane, helps take-off.

Another oft-seen big bird - flying over land, on Card Sound

Frigatebird

Road is the Turkey Vulture (sometimes called turkey buzzard – hence Buzzard's Roost for the locals). With a distinctive, slow, teetering flight, it searches for (shall we say) the scent of carrion. You'll see them flying in open areas or roosting in trees. They have an excellent immune system, as you might imagine! It's easy to spot by their “V” shape wings (as opposed to hawks with flatter wings). Do they help humans? Yes, they reduce the spread of disease and are an economical clean-up crew.

Have you noticed other big birds gliding endlessly over ocean waves - perhaps all in a line, evenly spaced? This is your Brown Pelican, ubiquitous in coastal areas. He travels on slight updrafts created by ocean waves – called compression gliding or ground effect. Why? Saves loads of flapping energy.

Turkey Vulture

But when hunting, he climbs up 60-70 feet, then dive-bombs head-first into the water stunning fish prey. The dive angle is at a very steep for a better aim with water refraction, and with a slight twist to the left (Big Bird Yoga?) – all possibly to protect vital parts of the throat. Do pelicans go blind from crashing themselves into the water? Nope. Built-in floaties! This clever bird has special air sacs under the breast skin which inflate immediately before impact. After trapping fish in the three-gallon pouch of the lower bill it tips his head up - draining water and swallowing a yummy, scaley, boney snack. Though strangely built, pelicans have looked the same for millions of years. You could say, they're perfect!

Hoping you enjoy watching these Big Bird wonders!

Farmer's Market Favorites Stoney's Crab Claws

By Susan Bohan

The newest addition to the Farmer's Market, Stoney's Crab Claws, is a small family-owned business from Miami, which came highly recommended by one of our Members. Because all 3 sizes of fresh stone crabs, large, jumbo and colossal, are sourced and sustainably harvested from the Bahamas around the waters of Eleuthera, they are considered meatier and Stoney's Crab Claws come in three sizes – large, jumbo and colossal. Wow!

sweeter than local stone crabs. While the average sale is 6 to 10 pounds, if you need a larger quantity you can preorder the amount needed whether an appetizer or main course. They can also pre-crack any quantity but admit they last longer (2 to 3 days or more) when placed on a bed of ice in the fridge. A special sauce is recommended which has a mustard base rather than red cocktail sauce!

This “sea to table” treat is a wonderful addition to our list of vendors and whether Michael, Veronica or Kai are behind the table, you will be happy you stopped by.

The Farmers Market is open Mondays and Thursdays from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the 121 Marina Parking Lot.

See page 20 for next week's schedule of vendors.

Lovin' the Lagoon

by Jody Steele

If you were here last summer, you saw the first of the two-phase Buccaneer Island Lagoon project in process. The fence around the Lagoon lent a mystery to the rejuvenation as huge trucks traveled in and out while interesting noises were heard as the heavy work continued. In a short time the Lagoon was magically transformed into an enhanced and beautified space. An expanded beach, extensive landscaping, more parking for golf carts, and a shallower Lagoon became an upgraded destination.

The Recreation Team helps Johnny and Bobby Laughton into a kayak.

For All Ages

Mike Neves, Buccaneer Island's enthusiastic Pool Service Manager, is thrilled with the updated areas and he recently shared how many more Members are flocking to the Lagoon since the opening in October. He pointed out the new Lagoon dock filled with kayaks and paddleboards that are being well used by the older kids. More seating on the revived beach is often near capacity. And the zero entry shoreline has become a favorite place for younger children to take their bags of sand toys. I can agree that it is certainly a comfortable spot for grandparents to relax, too.

Clean and Clear

The Lagoon is a bit smaller, but much cleaner with a more natural turnover and continuous exchange of water with larger pipes that increase flow efficiency explained Mic O'Keeffe, Vice President of Sports & Amenities. This system, plus additional team maintenance will keep the Lagoon in great condition for years.

More to Do

Christopher Nelson, Assistant Director of Recreation, commented on the added activities offered at the Lagoon along with the paddle craft. The Rec Team has a planned event every morning at 11 AM and in the afternoons a bevy of inflatables are available. The Lagoon is a busy and happening place.

You Will Love It

If you have not ventured to the restored Lagoon yet, you are missing out on this special spot with an ocean view, lunch and drinks delivered to your beach chair, and the palm trees waving as the clouds fly by. Phase II is set for this summer with more enhancements.

Carly Laughton plays on the beach while her brothers enjoy the watersports.

A Gift of Song

"Dot.calm"
by Jane Silverman

If you have lemons make lemonade! Songlorious, a bespoke song company, did just that; it was started during the pandemic by a young married couple stuck in their Brooklyn apartment. They tapped into the huge market of quarantining bands and singer-songwriters who had nowhere to perform and gave them a virtual stage on the internet.

If you are familiar with CNBC's "Shark Tank" -- where budding entrepreneurs pitch their start-ups to titans of industry -- then you will understand the "wow factor" that Songlorious received a combined investment of $500,000 from 4 out of the 6 Sharks when they appeared on the show in October 2021.

The formula for the Songlorious website www.songlorious.com is simple: fill out the form and within a week receive an original, studio-quality song that's written from scratch. First step: pick a genre from Acoustic Pop to Country, R& B to Hip Hop, then "audition" over 150+ artists from sample song excerpts on the website (or let the site pick a singer for you). Second step: choose the length between 1 minute (60 words), 2 minutes (120 words), or 3 minutes (180 words), and choose a mood (happy, sad, romantic, reflective, or funny). Third step: explain in your own words the occasion and who the song is to and from and list the 4 most important items to include.

Within days your original and very personal song will arrive in your inbox. For small upcharges, you can request an upgrade to include the song on a USB stick or the option to stream it on Spotify, Apple Music, YouTube, and Amazon Music. You can even order a chord sheet to play it yourself or get a karaoke version backing track so you can sing it yourself.

I love this idea for a meaningful gift for weddings, birthdays, anniversaries, and more. ORC Member Wendy Levenshon was delighted by the song her husband Ira received for his birthday. Ira's 3 daughters collected all his favorite sayings and sent a list of things about his life to the website; they chose a country singer to pull it all together. "The song was amazing. I could not get the tune out of my head for quite a while," she laughed, "and Ira was so surprised."

Lilly Pulitzer....

This spring Lilly is determined to prove that white is also a color. Need evidence? Then tomorrow (Sat. 4/2) head to the Fishing Village for Lilly's White Dress Event, a browse and buy opportunity that will be enhanced by a glass of champagne.... My favorite of the "Lilly Whites" is the Tavana Eyelet Dress (pictured). The oversized pinwheel eyelet is truly an eye catcher ($348). This cool white fabric comes in many styles – maxi dresses, rompers, even shorts. But please don't think that Lilly Pulitzer has given up on their imprimatur – brilliant colors and arresting designs. Many of the store's dresses come in lovely combos of pink, blue and green. Some dresses have mother and daughter versions.... Lilly has terrific leggings (the "wear anywhere" kind). They are sky blue with an abstract print of green tigers. ($108). There is a matching sleeveless top. Put them together and you have a fun outfit.... A favorite of mine are the pajamas with a happy design of blue tigers on a pink background (pants $108/top $98).... Last Word – from Kim Kardashian: "White is actually one of my favorite colors. I have a white car. I love white." Me too, Kim. Except my car is red.

Fitness Mindset

"Fitness Focus"
by Luis Bracamonte,
Director of Fitness &
Wellness

Change, improvement, skill development, it all begins and it is always heavily influenced by our mindset. Get your mind in the right gear with these tips:

1. If we always avoid discomfort and pain, we grow frail and weaker by the day. Do not shy away from exercise because it might be temporarily uncomfortable. Instead, take the road that leads to physical and mental toughness and resilience.
2. When we live with a desire for adventure and self-improvement, we will often find ourselves as beginners.

3. One of the most powerful mental habits is the ability to reframe any situation and experience.
4. Always focus on what you can control and change. The past is a lesson, the future an opportunity.
5. Be a student of your own feelings, thoughts and emotions.
6. Physical effort presents us with a perfect opportunity to win mental battles. Mind over matter means not quitting when facing adversity.
7. In order to be better tomorrow, you must compete with who you are today.
8. Dopamine and serotonin are the reward of exercise. The higher the intensity, the greater the reward.
9. There is an imaginary wall which defines your limits. Break it, time after time.
10. It is ok to be afraid, it is not ok to let fear prevent us from doing what we can to increase the quality of our lives no matter what, who and where we are. Thrive every day until your last.

THE PLANKSTER RETAKES PLANK RECORD

On Monday, March 28, Bob "The Plankster" Schwartz retook the Club's plank record with an impressive 45 minutes and 1 second. The record was previously held by Cynthia Doolan who planked for 40 minutes and 54 seconds to win the Plank Challenge a couple weeks ago. On that day, Cynthia planked 50 seconds longer than Bob, who had minutes before broken his previous record of 30 minutes and 15 seconds. Members can request official counters in attempts to break Club records any time. Congratulations to Bob for another impressive feat of physical and mental strength and endurance!

Chakras A New, Yet Ancient, Way of Looking at Health & Well-Being

By Beth Bielat,
Member Fitness Center

At this point in our life, we all know there is a link between the mind, body, emotions and spirit. Theologians/religions have written about it, psychologists practice it, quantum physics can see it and science has proven it.

Understanding The Human Chakra System is a way of learning about the connection of our physical, emotional, mental, spiritual well-being.

It's an interesting and effective way of learning to live more consciously and understanding our illnesses and strengths, as well as, learning how to take an active role in healing ourselves.

The word Chakra is Sanskrit for wheel or disk and signifies one of the many basic energy centers in the body. Although there are more than 100 chakra in the body, seven major chakra correlate to major nerve ganglia branching forth from the spinal column. In addition, these seven wheels of light correlate to our health and illnesses, body functions, sound, color, developmental stages of life, organs, levels of consciousness, archetypal elements, and much more.

Our chakra and energy field respond to our thoughts and experiences, and the energy affects our physical body. This, in part, is how illness or good health can be caused by our own thoughts and experiences. And how healthy we are depends on how we care for ourselves and how our chakra energy flows.

The Human Chakra System can be used as another way of viewing our life. By understanding chakras, we can better understand our illnesses. There are a plethora of techniques to help heal, balance, and energize our chakra and become healthier and happier.

Learn more about them during Beth Bielat's class on Wednesday, April 6 at 2pm. Beth has been teaching Martial Arts, Breathwork, and guided meditation for over 45 years. To reserve your spot, call Member Fitness at 305-367-5820.

Bag Room

since the 2022 Bag Room began. Not only is this Matt's first time making it into the Final Four in his eight years at Ocean Reef, but this is his first time making it out of Round One! Asked to share one thing about his Bag Room Open adventure, Costigan says, "It's an amazing feeling and I extend a genuine thank you to the Membership for making this experience possible year after year."

The final member of the top four is Card Sound's Griff Jayne, Bag Room Defending Champ, who came out swinging (literally) last year when he won the competition after only six months on the job. Griff joined Card Sound out of college, where he played some club golf but, on the pre-med track, spent much of his time studying. After graduating and having what he called his "quarter life crisis," he realized golf was his calling, leading him to Card Sound and into his second Final Four appearance.

Mike Leone stands with Member mentor and caddy, Jodi Betz, in a sea of carts as Bag Room competitors tee off.

What may surprise you is that the buzz around this tournament extends further than just amongst the Membership. Last year, just two days after Griff's 2021 Bag Room win, he received a congratulatory text from the Head Pro at Yellowstone Club in Montana, where Griff spends his summers. Not having yet shared his win with those beyond ORC, Griff was surprised to find that even golf professionals outside The Reef know and follow the Bag Room tournament. "It speaks volumes about the uniqueness of Ocean Reef," Griff said. "It has people's attention."

Follow Along Today & Tomorrow

the final matches are must-sees. Members can follow along on the Dolphin Course today (Friday) at 1 p.m. as Mike Leone takes on Griff Jayne and Matt Costigan takes on Zach Haynes. Then on Saturday, Finals begin at 1 p.m. on the Dolphin Course as carts follow the match that determines which professional will claim this year's coveted championship. Not to be missed!

Play for the Cure Sets New Record

"From the Gold Tees" by Michael Leone, Director of Golf

The ladies of ORC Golf came out in full force to participate in the annual "Play for the Cure" fundraiser. This event raises money for the Breast Cancer Treatment Program at the Open Door Health Center in Homestead. This event is always well attended and the support the ladies have for this cause is amazing! Coming out on top in the Gross Competition was the team of Katie Rossborough, Amy Joseph, Mona Brewer and Cindy Manzo with an impressive score of 66! The net competition was fierce, but no team was able to match the score of 53 that was turned in by Tricia Holbrook, Jodi Betz, Joan Hession and Shirley Shumway. The most important stat from the Play for the Cure is the $12,500 that was raised for the Open Door Health Center, setting a new record and blowing away any number raised before in this event!

event that has taken place recently (read more about it on front page). The PGA Tour hosted their annual match play event this past week in Austin, Texas. 64 of the top players in the world are placed in a bracket where they compete in individual match play. It came down to the final four on Sunday (Dustin Johnson, Scottie Scheffler, Corey Connors & Kevin Kisner). Scottie Scheffler and Kevin Kisner came out on top after exciting finishes in both semifinal matches. The red hot Scheffler and match play king Kisner battled it out for the title with Scottie Scheffler coming out on top! Scheffler continues his stellar place and this win pushed him to the number one player in the world for the first time in his young career!

Ladies' Singles Tennis Club Champion Crowned

"Tennis
Shorts"
by Jim
Morton,
Director of
Tennis

Kathleen Metzman is our first Singles Tennis Club Champion at the Tennis & Games Center as she defeated Debbie Rappaport to win the Ladies Title for 2022. Their match was a battle as Metzman took the first set 6-3, only to then have Rappaport pick her game up and win the second set 6-4. In the final set, Metzman dug in and battled back to take the last set 6-3, clinching the match. Congrats to both for a great tournament!

Speaking of the tournament, the Men's Final is scheduled for this Saturday morning with the participants yet to be determined at the time of this writing. Check with the Tennis & Games Center on Friday to see who will play in the final.

Duke Tennis Team to Visit Ocean Reef

This past week, I met with Jamie Ashworth, Duke University's Head Women's Coach, on the possibility of bringing in their team to practice and possibly play an exhibition match at Ocean Reef Club next season. This will be an amazing opportunity for our Members to see extremely high-level college players (Duke was ranked #6 in the NCAA last week) practice and train. Stay tuned for more details to come.

Make it a point to invite your favorite tennis partner from back home to play in next year's historic event, as it will be one to remember!

Sports

We are excited for this weekend's Pickleball Mixed Doubles Club Championships April 1st & 2nd. The A and B Flight play begins today, April 1, at 9 a.m. with the Semis and the Finals April 2 beginning at 9 a.m. Come support our pickleball players!

DUPR

In other exciting news, we are rolling out a new rating system called DUPR. This will now be the gold standard for ORC Pickleball Ratings and will be used as such for accurate seeding for tournaments, leagues, and rec play.

Isabelle Gruetznier, granddaughter of Linda Jaikins, warms up for her clinic after shopping at the Pro Shop for that special outfit!

It is free to sign up and we would like every ORC

Pickleball player to have a DUPR account. There are two ways to access DUPR - www.mydupr.com or download the app. We are excited to be on board with DUPR and know this will be the most accurate way for our Members to get rated. If you would like to know more about it, visit mydupr.com, read frequently asked questions below, or ask Kevin or myself.

What is DUPR?

Dreamland Universal Pickleball Rating is the most accurate and only global rating system in Pickleball. All players, regardless of their age, gender, location, or skill, are rated on the same scale between 2.000-8.000 based on their match results.

Who can have a DUPR rating?

DUPR is free and anyone can have a rating. One match result is all it takes to have a DUPR rating, and 5-10 match results is all it takes to have an even more accurate rating. If you've ever played in a Pickleball tournament you most likely already have a DUPR rating and can claim your account at mydupr.com or by downloading the iOS or Android app.

How is the DUPR rating calculated?

DUPR is a modified Elo algorithm that uses a player's last 30 (singles) or 60 (doubles) eligible matches. The algorithm considers three factors:

1. Points Won: How many points did you win?
2. Victory: Did you win or lose?
3. Type of Result: Was this a self-posted rec play score, a league match, unsanctioned tournament, or a sanctioned tournament result?

Wednesday, April 6 from 5pm

Joan and Art Ruffing in April 2021

until dark is the season ending Pizza Party. We can play some croquet and ORC will provide pizza and soft drinks for all by 6pm. BYOB if you want to bring your own beverage (duh).

Also, this will be a special night as The Ruffing Award will be handed out to a most distinguished most deserving individual. You will not want to miss the presentation of The Ruffing Award.

The Ruffing Award: Wednesday, April 6

What is The Ruffing Award?

This is an honorable award given to a person(s) who has given much to the ORC croquet community. To receive a Ruffing Award is a very special achievement. The award recognizes outstanding contributions which have enhanced the overall experience of our croquet life at ORC.

The Ruffing Award is so named in honor of our great croquet friends and leaders Joan and Art Ruffing. Joan and Art Ruffing are longtime ORC and KLAC members who helped build the croquet community.

Through their long tenure at both clubs, they volunteer countless hours in creating, organizing and leading the croquet activities.

Joan and Art have taught hundreds of people the croquet games at ours and their northern clubs. They are pillars of the croquet community upon whose shoulders we stand.

In honoring an individual with this special award, we also honor the Ruffings themselves.

Women, Wickets & Wine: Monday, April 11

The final official WWW is Monday, April 11 3:30-5pm.

This new activity this season has been quite popular and will be continued in the 2022-2023 season. ORC will provide the vino and our outstanding croquet gals will provide the fun. Please come join the final WWW.

Aeolos (Greek), Ancient God of the Winds.

Sailors Again Hit by Aeolos

by Frank Schneider,
Card Sound
Sailing Club
Commodore

Aeolos, ancient God of the Winds, has again shown no mercy for CSSC sailors. He was known as the keeper of the winds but also for his difficult character. His strength: Being able to control violent winds. His weakness: To control his own temper. This leads to sudden outbreaks.

Even good old Odyssey's had his difficulty with him as told by Homer. Our sailors felt his wrath last Saturday.

Gusty winds out of the North had built up waves with white caps on the waters of Card Sound, a signal for our Race Committee to check the Race Course for safe sailing conditions.

Our guidelines are clear about when to consider race cancellation: Gusts with windspeed up to 16 kts and more in northern winds. That was the case when our Race Committee boat went out and took measurement: 20 kts. As a result the race was canceled.

What a sailing season! We never had so many cancellations before in the history of our club. When you are looking for the villain who is messing up our glorious racing days you know now this disruptor has a name: Aeolos.

Everyone interested in sailing please contact our CSSC membership chair Gary Sayia at gsayia@aol.com for more information.

Gusty & Shallow Conditions on the Pond

by Windsor D. Coffin, CSMYC Commodore

Cool, clear skies looked to set up a beautiful day for the sailors of the Card Sound Model Yacht Club as they took to the ebbing tide on the Pond last Sunday morning. But it was two elements, the gusty winds and shallow waters, that were the factors during racing.

Since the redesign and restoration of the lagoon (we call it the Pond), some of our sailors had been concerned that the right mix of low tide and our scheduled race time might converge to cause issues running aground. The East Coast 12 Meter, at 59 inches long and

20-22 pounds in weight, is not an insignificantly sized boat. But for their size, they only draw just less than eight inches of water, and this helped make sure that only a few boats managed to find the "shoals" in the shallows of the Pond. The real issue of the day was the gusty conditions. We all elected to sail with our largest mast/sail setup, the "A" Rig. This was the right choice for about 90% of the time. For the other 10% during the stronger gusts, it was a wild ride.

As such, there were a number of collisions on the course though most of the sailors will manage to avoid needing time in their workshops this week to make repairs. Regardless of the gusty conditions and the shallows, we managed to run a season high seven races during our allotted time to use the Pond. Winning the day was Al Mast with a very consistent run over the course of the morning. In Second Place was Sim Wooten who began the day with two difficult races only to finish the day with a run of five races with no finish worse than second. Rounding out the top three was yours truly, Windsor Coffin. I managed a couple of victories, but a few bad decisions and a bit of bad luck had me looking forward to next Sunday.

Speaking of the upcoming weekend, as of this writing its looking warm and sunny with lighter winds but high tide occurring during racing. Hopefully, we get a little stronger breeze, but either way it should be a fantastic racing day!

The Card Sound Model Yacht Club races every Sunday (except Easter Sunday) from December until the end of April at "the Pond." Races begin at 10AM and we are always looking for new members to join our group of model sailors. So, swing by as early as 9AM if you are curious and have questions. If you would like more information about our model yachting club and our EC12 model yachts, please contact me, Windsor Coffin, at csmyc12@gmail.com.

Bridge Club Champions Announced

by Gregg Van Dyke,
Director of Card &
Games

The 2022 Ocean Reef Club Bridge Championship has been completed after three sessions. Congratulations to Beverly and Brian Platner for winning a close race. Second were Pamela Harding and Adelaide Jared.

Texas Holdem' Tournament

Men's Texas Holdem' Knockout Monday, March 28 had 18 players participating in the last one for this season. Paul DiMaura was the winner and Harvey Bundy III finished second. Thank you to the staff that helped me put on this event.

COMING UP: Ladies' Poker Night – Last of the Season

For the ladies, there will be one last Ladies' Poker Night on Thursday, April 7. Sign up by calling the Card & Games Room at 305-367-6609.

Beverly and Brian Platner, 2022 Bridge Club Champions.

I have about 20 players signed up so far and would like to hit 35 ladies. Come over for a fun evening. You don't have to be a good player to participate. You do have to want to have fun with your friends.

Thursday, April 7th is the next time I will be going over to Waterside @6PM. I will be doing Backgammon there on 2 Tables. It is a great chance to learn this wonderful game.

Mah Jongg Saturdays

I am still trying to put together Mah Jongg for experienced players on Saturday mornings at 10:30. Call me at 305-367-6609 if you feel another time will work better.

See you at the table.
