

Are You a "Year Rounder"?

By Mary Brady

Recently at the Farmer's Market, I ran into an old friend who asked me, "Are you a year rounder"? I had to think for a minute, and replied, "I guess, I am." Obviously, the term designates people who are at The Reef all year. I now am one of those people.

In talking with this friend, we thought – how great would it be to get together with other Members who are here all year long? To know, over the summer, people to reach out to for some company for lunch, dinner or just a visit. We are a close community and it is nice to look out for one another.

I asked Membership about this and to my delight, I was told that each month in the summer, the Club hosts get togethers for those Equity Members who are here in the summer months. At these gatherings, Members are encouraged to mingle, swap numbers and email addresses with each other. Some of the Members you'll meet at the get togethers will become new friends, while others will be old friends you never knew stayed for the summer!

Each get together is different – some are activities like scrapbooking and others a movie or cocktail reception. Below is this summer's schedule so you can mark your calendars. And guess what – there's one tonight!

Insurance – a Hot Topic at May 4 Chamber Luncheon

by Peter Raffalski,
President
Ocean Reef
Chamber of Commerce

The Ocean Reef Chamber of Commerce is having its next monthly lunch on Wednesday, May 4 at the Cultural Center. This month's topic is one that is not only on everyone's mind this time of year as we head into another hurricane season, but has been hotly discussed in many circles. That topic is insurance.

The Chamber will be hosting an Insurance Panel discussion featuring local members of the insurance community to cover issues ranging from the state of the insurance market in South Florida to ways in which you can save money and maximize your coverages. Our panel speakers will be Patrick Battle - Keen Battle Mead & Company, Meg Dieppa - Marsh McLennan Agency, Alan Lund - Brown & Brown, and Mel Montagne - Fair Insurance Rates in Monroe (FIRM).

As with all of the Chamber's monthly lunches, they are open to Ocean Reef Chamber members as well as residents of the community and their guests. Doors open at 11:45am. RSVPs are requested and can be made either by calling Christina Sarmiento at 305-340-8905 or by emailing director@oceanreefchamber.org.

Gotta Question?

Can books of excellent quality and condition be donated to our Library? If not, what are other possibilities?

The short answer is yes, but the books must fall under two umbrellas. Jean Reed, Cultural Center Librarian, provides the scoop:

"The Cultural Center Library strives to keep its Library collection current, ordering a selection of newly published books every few weeks. Due to space limitations and the ongoing ordering of newly published books, the Cultural Center Library does not accept book donations with the following two exceptions: the Library will accept children's books in good condition and also will accept adult books in good condition if they are no more than five years old.

The Key Largo Public Library accepts book donations as long as the donated books are "current" and in "great shape." At a minimum, good condition and/or "great shape" mean books with the dust jacket and bindings intact and no mold or other discoloration. Neither the Cultural Center Library nor the Key Largo Public Library will accept school textbooks, encyclopedias, medical books or similar items, regardless of condition or age.

If you have any questions regarding books you wish to donate, you may contact the Cultural Center Library at (305) 367-7332 or the Key Largo Public Library at (305) 451-2396."

Ukraine – You Have Made a Difference!

by Rev. Dr.
Bob Henley

Just about a month ago, I received a call from a friend, a concerned Equity Member of the Club. His intent, expressed in that call, was to make a matching gift donation of $100,000 to support Ukrainian relief. His desire was to invite support from participants of the congregations of the chapel, and the Members of the Club.

An All-Out Club Effort

When I submitted the article to the Ocean Reef Press, inviting your financial support, initially it appeared to be a non-starter. The reason being, a well-established policy that all fundraising within the Club is conducted through the All Charities Event.

However, being Ocean Reef, and knowing the unprecedented global crisis facing the Ukrainian people, whose lives are caught up in this conflict, what appeared to be a non-starter became instead, an all-out community effort!

With the blessing of the Community Foundation Board, an exception to this important policy was granted, and the article was published.

Their support made the effort possible, and I get to give you a report on the difference you have made!

The Results

As of this past Sunday, you have given $301,215 – to date, including the matching gift. There are still a few gifts that are coming in. What you have done has more than tripled the generous matching gift that started this outpouring of support.

Who Receives the Money?

A committee composed of Dave Meredith, Jeannie Schiavone, Candy Sutfin, and chaired by Pack St. Clair, conducted the research into possible recipients, and made the final determination.

As I indicated in my initial article, the goal of this team was to be able to “move the needle” through the support provided to a designated organization.

After considering five different organizations, all having a four-star Charity Navigator rating, they settled on two – Convoy of Hope and Americares. The funds will be divided equally between the two, in support of their work that is already taking place on the ground.

Convoy of Hope is a faith-based organization with a driving passion to feed the world. With a long history as an early responder in times of natural disasters, Convoy has served more than 193 million people since its founding in 1994.

Through partners across Europe and teams on the ground, Convoy of Hope is providing shelter, food, water, hygiene kits and other necessities to Ukrainian refugees in Poland and other strategic locations. Since a team from Convoy arrived in Poland on March 1, they have procured a warehouse in which to store incoming supplies and organize a full-scale response to facilitate the distribution of much-needed aid.

Go to their website, convoyofhope.org, to see first-person reports of the impact of their work.

Americares is a global non-profit organization focused on health and development that responds to individuals affected by poverty, disaster, or crisis. The organization addresses these needs by providing medicine, medical supplies and health programs.

Americares has emergency response teams in Poland and Romania to support health services for families affected by the escalating humanitarian crisis in Ukraine. Their teams have expertise in coordinating large-scale shipments of medicine and relief supplies, and mobilizing emergency medical teams in crisis situations.

To date, Americares has shipped or delivered more than 37 tons of medicine and relief supplies to 8 partners responding in Ukraine and at least a dozen more shipments are underway or planned.

In addition, the Poland team has successfully completed the first local procurement of supplies valued at more than $100,000 and weighing 12.5 tons to be distributed to local partners. They are also providing emergency funding to local organizations supporting children and adults caught in the crisis in Poland, Ukraine and Romania.

We encourage you to visit their website, americares.org, to learn more about their work.

Final Thoughts

Will the generosity of the matching gift donor, and all the gifts we have given, meet every need? The answer obviously is, “Of course not.” But to those who are the recipients of the resources provided, it will be life-changing, to each one of them.

Sadly, the brutality being inflicted by the Russian military, is now in its 60th day. It shows no end of letting up. Yet neither does the resilience and courage of the Ukrainian people, their leaders, and their military!

There is still one other resource everyone can provide. Our prayers. Never take for granted the immense power of God in response to the cries and prayers of his people for compassion and justice in the face of such needless bloodshed and disruption of life.

One more thing. Never take for granted the generosity and compassion of the Ocean Reef Community. You are a community that makes a difference!

We Mourn the Loss

Joyce Baird

Joyce Page Grace Baird, 90, of Turbeville, passed away Wednesday, April 6, 2022 after a short illness. She was the daughter of Joseph Ben Page and Pauline Faulk Page of Lakeview, South Carolina.

Joyce enjoyed a long business career as an officer of Stephenson Finance Company, a tennis coach for Clarendon High School, and as the office manager of Grace Construction Company. She was devoted to her large family and served them lovingly her entire life. Her love of Christ and her servant's heart showed in her every kindness to family and friends.

Joyce led an active life, including being a high school All State basketball player and cheerleader in her early years, and a tournament and team tennis player well into her 80's. She loved spending time at the beach and in Key Largo, and playing regular card games with friends.

She was a lifetime Member of Ocean Reef, joining in 1975, and she, along with her family, celebrated her 90th birthday in October at The Reef.

Member since 1975.

Thomas Bell

Thomas Dale Bell was born April 6, 1938 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. His parents lived a simple life and instilled in him the values of family, honesty and integrity as well as his love for the great outdoors.

Tom attended the University of Oklahoma and pledged the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. It was there that he met a Kappa Kappa Gamma, Frances Lander, also from Tulsa. Fran was the love of his life and wife of over 63 years. Upon graduation in 1960, Tom took a job with Wagner Brake and Lighting. Tom worked for Wagner for over 22 years and his career there culminated with the Presidency of the company. Throughout his life, Fran and Tom were often relocated. They lived in Chicago, Illinois; St. Louis, Missouri; Short Hills, New Jersey and Wynnewood, Pennsylvania. And during that time, their 3 children, Mark, David and Katy were born.

Tom followed in the footsteps of his own upbringing by continuing to instill the same values in his children that his parents had done for him. He shared his love for the great outdoors by taking his family camping, canoeing, fishing, hunting, skiing and golfing throughout their lives. Fran and Tom joined Ocean Reef in 2002 and moved to the Club after his retirement in 2004. There he was able to enjoy his most favorite outdoor hobbies of golf and fishing. Tom will be most remembered for his love for his family and the OU Sooners, his quick wit, booming voice, the twinkle in his blue eyes, a wry grin, and his fondness for Dewers.

Tom passed away on Saturday, April 23rd due to complications from a long battle with Multiple Myeloma.

Tom was preceded in death by both his parents, Eugene Clarence Bell and Jewel Pauline Elgin Bell, his sister Norma Bell Hughes as well as his granddaughter, Lander Ann Miller. He is survived by his wife, Fran Bell, his children Mark Bell, David Bell and Katy Bell Miller, his daughter in law Lisa Prewitt Bell and his son in law William C Miller Jr. Known as their Pop Pop, he is also survived by his eight grandchildren Nichole Bell and her husband Patrick Hansen, Jonathan, Gabriel, Chrissy and Katy Bell and Lain, Maggie and Tommy Miller as well as two great grandchildren Mattheue and Zacoria Hansen. And of course his beloved dog, Boomer.

Tom will be cremated and his ashes will be spread by his family in his favorite locations throughout the United States. The Atlantic Ocean off the coast of Ocean Reef, the golf courses at Ocean Reef where he had holes in one, Clearlake outside of Wichita, Kansas and the Snake River in Jackson Hole, Wyoming. A Memorial Brunch will be held on Saturday May 14th at 11 a.m. in the Sailfish Room of Ocean Reef Club.

In lieu of flowers please consider a donation to the Miami Cancer Institute. Or rather, take some time to enjoy the outdoors with your family as Tom would have wanted to do and raise a glass in his honor.

Member since 2002.

PGA TOUR Pros Visit Ocean Reef

Three PGA TOUR® legends—Ernie Els, Jim Furyk, and Davis Love III—joined members on the Dolphin Course on April 18. Each pro played with a foursome, then participated in an interactive lunch and Q&A session moderated by ESPN announcer Michael Eaves.

These professionals are Brand Ambassadors for NetJets who has been a preferred partner of the Ocean Reef Community Foundation for more than 12 years, making an annual donation of flight hours to the All Charities Live Auction. In addition to the flight hours, their contribution to this year's All Charities event also included an auction lot that allowed Ocean Reef

Davis Love III, Michael Eaves, Jim Furyk and Ernie Els.

Community members an opportunity to bid on a round of golf with PGA TOUR® NetJets Brand Ambassadors at Ocean Reef Club.

NetJets Owners and Ocean Reef Members asked the golfers questions such as how they stay mentally fit and their approach to competition. Congratulations to Victor Benoit, David Johnson, Jeff Dorsey, and Stephan Parigian, who played with Ernie Els to win the round with a low net score of 54.

This was the first visit for each of the PGA professionals, and they were all equally impressed with the condition of the course and Ocean Reef overall. With seamless coordination, each pro was able to arrive and depart the same day from the private airport, and it was clear that Ocean Reef was the ideal partner to support this event.

Proposed for Membership Through May 5, 2022

Celebrating 40 Years at ORC

by Terry Baxter

Dr. Brian Tschirhart remembers a few of the frantic phone calls – the excruciating abscessed tooth in the middle of the night on a holiday weekend (of course); or then there was the mother of the bride who accidentally knocked out her front teeth the day before the wedding. Yikes. Both patients were expertly rescued.

Over four decades The Tschirhart Family dental practice has served our Ocean Reef Community with uncommon grace, skill, and dedication. Brian and Kathy recently passed the 40th anniversary of establishing their office here at the Plaza Building near Four Corners. How did they celebrate? They worked all day treating patients. "Members depend on us," Brian said, "They value our service and that is the best reward."

Brian and Kathy met when they were both students at Baylor's School of Dentistry. They married in 1978. Kathy's father was a dentist (impossible, demanding, but excellent). Kathy inherited the excellent part. When an associate left in 1979, her father invited

Brian to join the practice in Miami. Members convinced them to open a satellite office in Ocean Reef Club. Initially Brian was in Miami four days a week, and Ocean Reef one. Kathy practiced as a hygienist and actively ran the ORC office. Eventually, Brian found himself spending three out of four Saturdays every month in twelve-hour days at Ocean Reef. "We love the family feeling of Ocean Reef," Brian says. "We enjoy meeting Members from all over the United States instead of just locals."

If that history doesn't sound exhausting enough, Brian and Kathy volunteer for the Baptist/Key Largo mobile dental clinic. And between 1997 and 2000, they took five trips to Egypt to privately treat Prince Turki, brother of the King of Saudi Arabia. And seven times they undertook mission trips to Nicaragua. "We were the Medicaid for Nicaragua," Brian says. Similar to Doctors Without Borders, they also went to India twice, and Lebanon twice to treat those in need. "We love what we do. We feel a commitment," Kathy said. Now you know why the Tschirhart phone never goes unanswered.

My personal experience as a twenty-year patient of Dr. Tschirhart has been unfailingly positive. Treatment has included two extractions accomplished so gently that I had dinner the same evening with no pain. And Brian sacrificed a two-day holiday weekend to correct a poorly done false tooth (work of another dentist up North) for our daughter, Ashley. She went home with a new implant and beautifully matched veneers without even missing a day of work. It was an impressive blend of medical expertise and artistry. Ashley now has a smile that would make Prince Turki envious.

Thank you Kathy and Brian. When you see them, say Happy Anniversary.

Art League Concludes a Successful Season

by Susan Bohan

The Art League is concluding its season with a long record of successful Classes, Shows, Studio Workshops, Excursions and last, but not least, Book Club meetings. The final discussion last week was "The Splendid and the Vile" facilitated by Don Waite who was attending his first but, as he told Book Club Chair Deborah Geller, not last meeting. The room was filled with Members discussing aspects of the beginnings of World War II and its parallel to what is happening now in Europe. As a history buff with a particular admiration for author Eric Larson, Don led a lively, thoughtful group which enjoyed the intellectual sparing. Next season look for the list of books which will be discussed on 5 Wednesday afternoons. Some are fun, others more intense, but each is well worth the effort!

Summer Library Hours

Summer hours begin next week: Monday and Thursday, 10am to noon. Please check your shelves before leaving and return any overdue books anonymously in the book drop on the Airport side of the Cultural Center. Also feel free to take out paperbacks without a need to return them.

Library Corner

By Susan Bohan

There are 5 new non-fiction books being added to the Library; 3 concern life within a Presidency; 2 are very different topics and times set in the Far East; and another is about the drive to report on it all!

"The Man Who Ran Washington: The Life and Times of James A. Baker III" by Peter Baker and Susan Glasser – no Republican would win the White House without his counsel and he became their indispensable dealmaker for some of the most important decisions in the 20th Century.

"One Damn Thing After Another: Memoirs of an Attorney General" by William P. Barr – candid memoir of serving under 2 very different presidents which expands our understanding of the Bush and Trump legacies.

"Island Infernos: The US Army's Pacific War Odyssey, 1944" by John C. McManus – the second volume in a trilogy covering the Army's action from New Guinea to Burma to the Marshall and Mariana Islands.

"Red Carpet: Hollywood, China and the Global Battle for Cultural Supremacy" by Erich Schwartzel – an eye-opening and deeply reported narrative that details Hollywood's need for China's cash as China realized the art of manipulation in the movies.

"Chasing History: A Kid in the Newsroom" by Carl Bernstein – a pioneer in investigative journalism recalls his humble beginnings to Pulitzer Prize and beyond.

Summer Prospecting

"Dot.calm"
by Jane Silverman

What do you imagine when you think of summer? Is there a memory that you return to with a smile? Lobster clam bakes at the shore with family? The wind and sun on your face as your sailboat is heeling over? Or perhaps the ocean view of your favorite golf course after playing 18 with friends.

For me, my perfect summer days were spent at Miacomet Beach in Nantucket. Each day we would sunbathe and body surf in the icy ocean waters and then rinse off in the warm freshwater pond just steps away. Invariably, there was always someone with a metal detector sweeping and beeping down the beach hunting treasure. "How cool," I thought and imagined all the treasure I would find if I had one too.

This summer, I plan to use the incredibly clever Metal Detector app for iPhone by Alexandr Balyberdin (Android users try Metal Detector by Smart Tools Co). On newer phone models, it uses the phone's built-in magnetometer (used for GPS and the compass) to create a magnetic field and locate metal items. Download the free app and point the camera toward the ground. Did you drop the back of an earring in your bathroom? No problem! Lost a watch at the beach at Buccaneer Island (me!)? While the range is not long, it works on any magnetic metal (except stainless steel which has poor electrical conductivity). Be sure to shake your phone to recalibrate the detector between tries.

Did you know the first metal detector was invented in 1881 by Alexander Graham Bell? He rushed to the bedside of US President James Garfield to try and aid the doctors searching for an assassin's fatal bullet. I learned this and much more from the online encyclopedia Wikipedia app and its "simple version" <https://simple.wikipedia.org> which explains complicated things in a much simpler way (great for Spanish speakers, kids, and people over age 50!). Treasure here I come....

OUT & ABOUT

From Steve Levin:

The Ocean Reef All Charities Birdwatch took place on Earth Day. Local birding and wildlife expert Larry Manfredi and ORC Member Bill Legg led the group on a fascinating and informative search for migratory and year round resident bird life in our own front yard at ORC. April is prime migration season and participants were treated to sightings of such species as palm, prairie, and Cape May warblers; northern cardinals, blue jays, western kingbirds, terns, white-crowned pigeons, white winged doves, white eyed vireos, and flocks of others.

Reef Gallery....

Longtime Member Bruce Elliott, the owner and curator of Reef Gallery in the Fishing Village, has an eye for fine paintings that have a special appeal to OR Members.... There's an old saying that – A picture is worth a thousand words. And at Reef Gallery there are many pictures (like the nautical painting by renown Cuban artist Quisbel Lezcano Blanco shown here) that are well worth, not only a thousand words, but also thousands of dollars.... Blanco has developed an unusual technique of superimposing a prominent image (e.g. the Carysfort light, a sailboat) on to his previously painted background, giving his large paintings an amazing 3-D effect.... Stephen Wood is another artist featured at the Reef Gallery. Wood specializes in Ocean Reef scenes. There's a wonderful 16x20 framed painting of the auto parade at Vintage Weekend, that I believe would be a perfect gift for an antique car enthusiast ($2950) I love flower paintings and the depiction of Lori Dougstrup's Inspiring Iris ($650) has me looking for wall space in my house.... Even if you are only browsing, you will find the magnificent jewelry in the Reef Gallery cases pretty tempting. The designs are unique and the stones (even the big ones) are real. Bruce says at his store – "if it looks like a ruby, emerald or diamond, it is one."

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

It's Not Goodbye, It's See You Later

By Holly Houser,
Ocean Reef Press Manager

Last, Saturday, April 23, the Club celebrated the unparalleled career of ORC Tennis himself, Jim Morton, as he takes the step into semi-retirement this summer. The celebration was filled with many of his fans sharing anecdotes and toasting the man that helped elevate Ocean Reef tennis to what it is today. There were even a few tears.

For 35 years, Jim has taught Ocean Reef Member families, their guests and Associates to play and love the game of tennis. His passion, commitment and innovative programming helped to create not only a vibrant facility in the Tennis & Games Center, but a boasting tennis culture Reef-wide.

What's the best way to recognize three and a half decades of commitment, service, laughs, learning, smiles, leadership, the list goes on? Through recounts of his career by a few of Jim's biggest supporters.

Several themes emerged during these talks, with all agreeing - Jim has created an unbelievably welcoming culture of tennis that he's also cultivated in his employees, and still goes out on court every day with the same positive energy and vivacious nature as his first day on ORC courts in 1987. The only disagreement was which of Jim's many contributions, is his most significant.

For Kevin Fish, current Ocean Reef Tennis Chairman who spoke at the celebration, Jim's unparalleled dedication to the Membership stands out most. "Jim has been a staple of Ocean Reef tennis for quite some time, but it's the atmosphere that he creates around tennis that will live on. His devotion to the Membership is phenomenal as he's created a center where everyone is friendly and happy, a kind of family place. There's not a negative vibe for a mile. It's no surprise that when top pros come down, like for last weekend's 'Bring a Pro' Tournament, they gush with respect for Jim and his program. This praise, coming from his peers, is a huge accolade."

For Jim's mentor, Bob Ecuyer, whom Jim worked and eventually took over for as ORC Director of Tennis in 1995, it's Jim's ability to connect people through the love of a shared game. "Jim's genuine enthusiasm is evident in the successful group programs he's developed. These, I think, are his greatest claim to fame. The group clinics, sometimes with upwards of 30 players, give Members the special opportunity to exercise, while also meeting new friends – that is the ultimate goal of every tennis director. When you introduce new people on court, they become friends, invite more friends down, and eventually, you have new Members. Jim has created this wonderful snowball effect on the tennis court, introducing countless people through a shared interest, which is monumental in my eyes."

That same friendly and inclusive nature Jim exudes Club wide, is what has grown the Ocean Reef tennis community to be one of the most comprehensive, robust programs in the private club community nationwide. This, for Willie Cakans, who worked under Jim for 2 seasons and next door to him for the past 20 years at the Health & Tennis Club and now the Racquet Club, is Jim's most considerable contribution. "When I started with Jimmy in 1998, it was pretty much feast or famine when the seasons changed. Now, the Tennis & Games Center has a full staff, even over the summer, and the month of July can be as busy as their month of December. Jim's responsible for this growth. He's always learning, going to conventions, staying current. He's gotten more Members out playing, loving the game, and he's continued to come up with new programming to keep everyone interested and having fun. Whether in regards to his own program at the Tennis & Games Center or that of the Racquet Club's, he's always had the best interest in mind for the tennis community at large."

Lastly, Mic O'Keeffe, who joined as the Club's activities director for the second half of Jim's career and also spoke at his celebration. For him, it's Jim's dedication not only to the Membership, but to the development of his team members. "I've witnessed Jim teach both two-year-olds and those into their 90s with unwavering fervor. The constant energy, enthusiasm and professionalism that he brings to the table is unmatched and his desire to instill this in his employees will keep his legacy strong for many years to come. Each season, he acts as a mentor for half a dozen new and returning pros, ingraining in them the same values that he himself has displayed all 35 years+. And all the while, he's also been very successful at raising two kids at Ocean Reef, along with wife Helena, to have William go on to collegiate tennis and Tiana to be a doctor. Jim is a force to be reckoned with, but we're grateful he's fostered these traits in his team over the years. We'll be left in good hands."

Jim Morton has truly made himself part of the fabric of Ocean Reef Club and the greater Ocean Reef tennis community. The best news of all is that we don't have to say goodbye but simply, "See you next season." Going forward, Jim will take summers off, returning in the fall as a seasonal assistant professional. In his wake is a team boasting years of experience of their own, with Justin Romero, after 10 years under Jim's leadership, at the helm as the department's new director.

Thank you, Jim, for 35 years and a lifetime of influence on the tennis community. The Club honors you!

2022 Summer Golf Course Maintenance Schedule

It's that time of year again when the Golf Course Maintenance Team begins their summer work of aerating the Club's golf courses and green spaces. This year, the schedule looks a bit different.

On the schedule below, you'll notice each area will close only twice, for a slightly longer period than in year's past. Eric Bennet, ORC Director of Agronomy, says the longer closure will allow for more to be accomplished in that period of time, leading to each course opening up in better condition.

This means, for example, that when the Dolphin reopens August 1 to allow the Maintenance Team the opportunity to work on the Hammock, the Dolphin will be in better playable condition after its first round of aeration than it would have been under the previous schedule, which would sometimes give the Maintenance Team only 13 days to work before reopening.

As of October 24, the normal summer maintenance, which comprises core aeration of the greens, tees and fairways, will be complete with all courses and green spaces reopened for season.

STEFANIE SHAW,
FEATURED IN GOLF.COM

Use this Quick 4-Step Routine to Ensure Your Posture is Perfect at Address

In the April 15 edition of the Ocean Reef Press, you may remember reading an article, originally published in Golf Magazine's Golf.com, featuring Ocean Reef's own Stefanie Shaw. Well, this ORC Teaching Professional has done it again! The following article, featuring Stefanie, was originally published on Golf.com.

If you're having trouble getting the ball into the air, the problem may not be your swing — it could be your posture! "Women have a different center of gravity than men,"

says Stefanie Shaw, a teaching professional at the Ocean Reef Club in Key Largo, Fla. and Sebonack Golf Club in Southampton, N.Y. "For women, it's in our hips, which means we have to stand a little bit differently to keep our balance in the golf swing."

According to Shaw, that means that when you address the ball, the more that you can send your hips back, the better.

Check out the main photo above. In the left picture, Shaw is demonstrating bad posture:

upright, with too much knee bend. On the right, you can see the correct, balanced posture at the address position.

"It should feel like you're bowing toward the ground," Shaw says. "That gets your arms, hands and club closer to the grass."

By keeping your hips back, you're making it easier to hit the ground with your club in the correct impact zone, thereby making it easier to get the ball in the air.

Sounds simple, right? It is!

Here's a quick four-step routine, courtesy of Shaw, to help ensure that you're setting up for success when it comes to your posture.

Four Steps to Perfect Posture

1. Start with your feet shoulder-width apart.
2. Grip your club and extend your arms in front of you, with your club at a 45-degree angle.

3. From here, hinge forward or "bow" to the ground from your hips, allowing your arms to hang directly below your chest.

4. Unlock your knees. And there you have it!

One thing to look out for, says Shaw, is to make sure you don't have too much knee bend, because that will pull your chest and arms away from the ground. Keep your arms directly below your chest, and enjoy your newly crisp contact!

The Bonefish Bonnies' Season Draws to a Close

by Sarah A.
Cart

The Bonefish Bonnie's concluded a fun and memorable season April 13 with a lovely annual meeting in the Butterfly Garden at the Key Largo Anglers Club followed by a delicious Bento-boxed luncheon for 75. The day's arrangements were managed by Paul Headley, Anglers' function coordinator, the meal was prepared by Executive Chef Jonathan Mayer, and the event's success was made possible by the Anglers staff team.

Getting down to business:

President Mary Bloom welcomed everyone, gave a brief review of the year and expressed thanks to all current and past Board members as well as this season's tournament chairs and volunteers whose hard work made each of the Bonnie's events fun for all.

Vice President DeeDee Lisenby conducted the election of officers and board members. Laura Wilson was elected president and Liz Zug, secretary, re-elected to continue serving on the board were Bonny Gothier, Kathy Weiland and Jodi Zifferer, and Allison Freeland and Jan Miller were newly elected. All terms are for two years.

DeeDee Lisenby will continue as vice president and Johanna Carrier will serve as treasurer. Other Board members include Carol Andrews, Diana Frazier, Patty Strunk, Laura Zausmer, and Founder Nancy Zakon.

Mary Bloom and Diane Hill, both retiring after seven years on the Board, were thanked for their unfailing service and

In a poignant moment as the Bonefish Bonnie's Annual Meeting drew to a close, outgoing President Mary Bloom pinned the treasured President's Pin on President-elect Laura Wilson. The rhinestone bonefish was found many years ago in a flea market in Paris by a past Bonnie's president who recognized that it would become a cherished representation of the office.

dedication to the Bonnie's focus on "fun, friendship and fishing."

On behalf of the Board and the membership, Laura Wilson presented a beautiful oil painting of the Lady Angler statue that stands at the corner of Marina and Fishing Village Drives to Mary Bloom in recognition of and appreciation for her four years as President. The piece was created by renowned plein air artist Morgan Samuel Price.

The day closed with wishes for "Tight lines!" for the 16 Bonnie's departing soon for an early May Bahamian fishing adventure at Mangrove Cay Club, and to all Bonnie's for fish-tale worthy adventures wherever they may find themselves through the summer months.

Bonnie FAQs:

The Bonefish Bonnie's gather women interested in fun, friendship and fishing. They meet monthly in season for luncheons and educational programs, and lots of other fun besides. Open to all women of Ocean Reef and Key Largo Anglers Clubs and their mothers, daughters or granddaughters, the membership form/dues statement can be found at www.BonefishBonnies.com. Individual events are priced separately. For additional information, check the Bonnie's Bulletin Board in the Reef Treats lobby or contact to Admin@BonefishBonnies.com.

How Will You Challenge Your Fitness this Summer?

"Fitness Focus" by Luis Bracamonte, Director of Fitness & Wellness

Fitness challenges add excitement to our lives and inject youthful energy into our years. They aim to create a future higher standard beyond our present condition and our current limits. These challenges are conceived with optimism and a dauntless belief in our capacity to grow and improve. Human lives have endless potential for learning, progress, advancement and refinement. Those who constantly challenge themselves realize that to be in harmony with ourselves and nature, we must seek to push and expand our limits constantly. A life well lived is one approached with curiosity, wonder, optimism, hope and courage. Here are some fitness challenges ideas to consider:

-Test your endurance by training for a long hike, swim, run or bike ride.

These challenges can include organized events such as marathons, triathlons, 5k run/walks or personal tests such as solo or group hikes, bike rides or swims. Endurance events are as much mental as they are physical tests. Training to endure a fitness challenge will also increase your capacity to endure other life challenges.

-Test your strength with weightlifting goals, such as testing one, five or ten rep max on classic exercises such as squats, deadlifts, bench presses or military presses. Machines such as the lat pull down, chest press and leg press can also be used to test strength increases. We lose strength as we age if we do not work on slowing down and controlling the road to frailty. We all can and should be strong at any age.

-Test your strength endurance by the number of pushups, pull ups, plank holds or wall sits for time. The added advantage of training to improve these exercises is that they will also prepare you for our official Club Challenges next season. Current overall records stand at: 111 for pushups, 33 pull ups, 60-minute wall sit and 45-minute plank. How close can you get to the Club records?

-Test your skills by either improving a current sport or learning a new one. Also, why not both?

-Improve your body's composition though better exercise and nutrition habits. Changing our body is very challenging but also deeply rewarding. You can only make sustainable changes through new movement and eating habits.

The Member Fitness Center

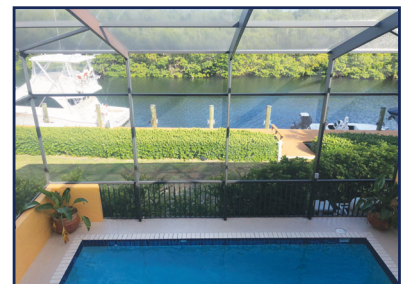

Sarah Cart was promoted to blue belt last week by Shihan Beth Bielat. Sarah has worked very hard this year in her pursuit in Martial Arts. Congratulations!

will remain open 7 days a week during summer. We will offer 30 classes per week plus special events. Personal Trainers, Pilates, Yoga and Swim Instructors are available for one on one and small group coaching. Virtual coaching is also available for Members leaving the Club during summer. CSMYC 2022 Season Finale

by Windsor
D. Coffin,
CSMYC
Commodore

The sailors of the Card Sound Model Yacht Club had beautiful conditions for the final racing day of the season last Sunday with sunny skies and a strong breeze. While the sunny skies endured all morning, those strong breezes tapered off throughout the course of racing. With a prevailing easterly direction, the mangroves that sit on the ocean side of Buccaneer Island created a wind shadow in the middle of the Pond that caused some tactical problems for our sailors. It sure made things interesting!

We looked to have a strong end-of-season turnout of five boats racing, but that number jumped to seven with Pike Noyes and John Grunow arriving at the Pond with two beautiful brand-new East Coast 12's. It was great to have Pike and John back on the water racing again. With a little extra time allowed so they could get their boats launched, racing began. Even with this extra time allowed, we still managed to run six races. Despite a few collisions that resulted in boat entanglements and a few collisions that resulted in boats ending up on the rocks, the usual suspects emerged at the top of the scoresheet at the end of the day. Winning the final race day of the 2022 season was Al Mast with first place finishes in four out of six races. In second place for the day was yours truly, Windsor Coffin, with wins in the other two races. Rounding out the top three for the day was Jim Seale.

Season Series Results

As this was the final day of racing, we now can figure out the results for the 2022 Season

Series. In third place for the season is Erin Coffin who always manages impressive results even though she is always multitasking. She races, greets curious onlookers, engages the starting system, and occasionally scores and sometimes most of those all at once! In second place for the season is Al Mast who remains at the top of the fleet year after year. Finally, we come to the winner of the 2022 Season Series, and for the second time in three years the winner is yours truly, Windsor Coffin.

This year we added a new award called the Commodore's Award. This award goes to someone who shows excellence in racing and/or significant contributions to the CSMYC. Whether it be with help in setting the course every Sunday, helping sailors with technical issues with their boats, or talking to curious folks, his contributions are very much appreciated. With those attributes in mind, the inaugural winner of the Commodore's Award is Al Hill. Special recognition this season also goes to Lynne Mast for her tremendous help with scoring. Finally, on behalf of all the sailors of the CSMYC we want to thank Ocean Reef Club for providing us racing time Sunday mornings year after year on the Pond.

As one season closes, we turn our focus to summer activities. But next season is already on the mind of this Commodore. We will begin next season with new Monthly Series added to our regular Season Series championships.

Between the new series and the confirmed interest from new sailors for next season, the CSMYC looks to continue to grow.

From all of us at the CSMYC, we wish the readers of the Ocean Reef Press a healthy, safe and fun summer.

The Card Sound Model Yacht Club races most Sundays from December until the end of April at "the Pond." Though the CSMYC racing season is over, we are always looking for new members to join our group of model sailors, so it is never too early to plan for next season! We will have a few boats available for sale to start the next season and little experience is required to get accustomed to sailing a model yacht. If you are interested in more information about the CSMYC and our EC12 model yachts, please contact me, Windsor Coffin, at csmyc12@gmail.com.

"Tennis Shorts" by Jim Morton, Director of Tennis

Last weekend, the Tennis & Games Center hosted its 4th annual "Bring a Pro" Tennis Tournament on a bright, sunny, beautiful day at The Reef. Sixteen Members invited Tennis Professionals from all over South Florida to play with them in this high level, all day tennis tournament. The teams were divided into four flights of four teams with each team playing all of the teams in their flight to determine who would play in the Championship draw and who would play in the Consolation draw. After finishing the round robin, all players were treated to an amazing catered Ocean Reef Club luncheon before resuming play.

In the Championship draw, semifinals Ricardo De Bedout and former ORC Assistant Pro Brad Mixson knocked off last year's champions, Michael Stockamore and his Pro Tyler Shelly from Boca. In the other semifinal, first year champions Bill Rockwood and ORC Assistant Pro Alex Henderson couldn't relive the magic as they were defeated by George Blaha and his Pro Baker Newman, who won last year's January Pro-Am. In the final De Bedout and Mixson proved to be too balanced as they outlasted Blaha and Newman 7-5 to clinch their first title together. The Consolation was won by the Merik Fajt and Pro Reid Carleson team as they beat Dick Wallace and Pro Connor Gilmore.

TENNIS

Player of the Week

Tom Marotta

What is your favorite tennis memory?

My favorite memory is of when my father built a tennis court at our house back in New Jersey because he saw how much I loved to play.

What is your favorite tennis shot?

The serve.

Who is your childhood hero?

My father.

Why do you love playing tennis?

I love tennis because you develop a relationship with your racket and it shows how it is an extension of all the skills you have learned.

Card & Games Corner

by Gregg Van Dyke,
Director of Card &
Games

I have returned from Gatlinburg where I had a great time. The bridge was first class. I played in four Team Knockout events and reached the finals in the last one. Good to meet many people I haven't seen for awhile.

Men's Poker

I will run another Men's Poker Nite on Monday, May 2.

Bridge Games Continue

Bridge games will continue through May. Depending on participation here, I may move to the Online Games in June like last year. The idea is that you will have Duplicate Bridge available on a year-round basis.

2022-2023 Calendar

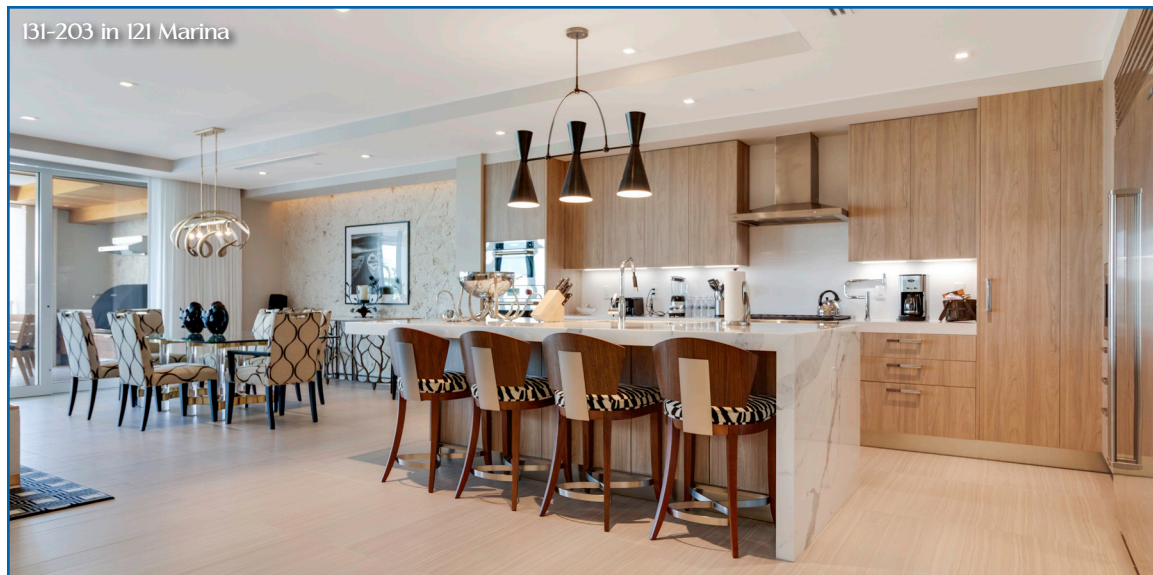

I will start putting my calendar together for the 22-23 season. Please let me know your thoughts on what you would like to see and how I can make it better. Your input is very important to me. I will have lots of events for your enjoyment, but your participation in them is what makes them work.

Mah Jongg & Backgammon

I am seeing more Mah Jongg players as well as Backgammon players. I will put together a program for both next season. Please call me with ideas – 305-367-6609.

Thank you all for making my job enjoyable and for a great season.

Bridge Tip of the Week

By Gregg Van Dyke

Double: A bid technique. Various kinds, however all doubles not for penalty are considered conventional.

Some examples:

Balancing Double/Balancing

Bid: Making a bid in position where passing would end the bidding (i.e.: 1 D P P?).

The requirements for balancing (with a double or otherwise) are always less than bidding in the middle of a live auction. The reason for this is that here the opponents have given up in a part score, so you can assume that your partner has some good cards. In a live auction they may be going to game and your partner may be totally bust (a really bad hand).

Business Double: Same as a penalty double (i.e. I mean business).

Lead Directing Double: A double which asks partner to lead a specific suit. Often these will be doubles of artificial or Qbids made by your right hand opponent. The most common would be a double of stayman (2C over 1NT) which says, "Partner, I have clubs". A double like this does not usually ask to compete in the auction, but may be made on something like KQTxx of clubs and not much else.

Lightner Double: Almost always used when opponents have bid to a slam. They are made by partner of opening leader and always ask for an unusual lead. Many times that player will be void in a suit. Very often it will specifically ask for the lead of dummy's first bid suit (doubler may have AQ of suit, or K with outside A, or be void).

Negative Double: Used after partner bids and opponents overcall shows 4 cards in the unbid major.

Optional Double: Simply means a double that can be passed, or not, by partner. In a sense, all doubles are optional, but some more so than others.

Penalty Double: Used when you think you can set (prevent them from making) opponents' contract.

Responsive Double: A specialized bid for more advanced players which allows partnerships to decide whether to compete for part score, go to game, or defend.

Support Double: A specialized bid for more advanced players. Used when you have opened the bidding and partner has responded, and your right hand opponent has bid. A double at this point shows 3 cards in partners suit (ie: 1 D P 1S 2C X).

To bid 2S would show 4 spades (and no extra values beyond opening hand). To pass or bid anything else would deny having as many as 3 spades.

Takeout Double: Used after opponents bid to indicate support in unbid suits.
