The Tradition Continues

Equity Welcome Back "The Gathering"

When it made its debut in November 1993, the Equity Welcome Back Party was known as "The Gathering!" Chaired by the Social Committee, the inaugural Gathering was the Club's first big social event of the new era of Member ownership, followed only by "The Celebration!" - an end-of-season parade and party honoring the Member Buyout. The Gathering quickly became the unofficial kickoff to the winter season and a way to welcome Members home and increase excitement for the coming months.

The Gathering has become such an integral part of Ocean Reef tradition, that many Members make sure they return to the Club every year in time for the celebration. They enjoy catching up with friends they may not have seen over the summer, and reconnecting with fellow Members and Club Associates alike while building excitement for the season to come.

In its early years, The Gathering was held on Buccaneer Island on the first Saturday following Thanksgiving, and

Rules Reminder At Your Club Membership Cards

In an effort to reduce touchpoints during the pandemic, the Club did not require Members to present membership cards for transactions. With those days behind us, management would like to ask all Members to resume carrying membership cards and providing them at the point of sale. By doing so, improper charges will be greatly reduced throughout the Club.

The following are a few more rules related to Ocean Reef Club membership cards:

1. A membership card reflecting an account number and the category of membership shall be issued to the member as well as to his or her immediate family upon payment by the member of the required membership contribution, Capital Contribution (if applicable), and all dues. Membership cards must be presented upon request when signing in for use of the Club's facilities. Membership cards are not transferable.

2. A membership card may not be used by any person other than the person to whom it is issued. Failure to comply with this rule may result in suspension or termination of membership privileges.

3. When a membership card is lost or stolen the Club must be notified immediately. At the members' request the account will be cancelled and a new account opened. The member shall be responsible for all unauthorized charges placed on the account until the member requests a new account.

featured slides, a petting zoo, food and drink, and other family-friendly activities.

Over the years, The Gathering has become an elegant reception, recurring on the second Sunday of each November. The Saturday following Thanksgiving still features an annual Beach Party on Buccaneer Island – a nod to the original 1993 Gathering.

Over its 29-year history, the Equity Welcome Back Party – The Gathering has become something special for everyone at The Reef. While Members look forward to reconnecting with friends and enjoying good times at their Club, Associates also relish in welcoming Members to another exciting season. Each Club outlet prepares samplings of new menu items and returning favorites. Members listen to live music, enjoying a taste of what they missed while they were away and a sneak peak of what lays ahead during their time at Ocean Reef.

In fact, Terry Ferrarone, who

along with husband Ned has attended every celebration since the first in 1993, describes the party as having evolved into a "stellar culinary experience as each dining outlet struts their stuff." This year will prove to be no different.

The Club is looking forward to kicking off this 2022-2023 anniversary season with such a meaningful, long held tradition that truly connects Ocean Reef to its historical beginnings. Equity Members are encouraged to join fellow Members at Town Hall on Sunday, November 13 from 5 to 7 p.m. for a traditional Equity Welcome Back Party celebration.

Ocean Reef Club 75 Years

by Mike
Smith

This season Ocean Reef Club will celebrate its 75th anniversary. A desolate fishing camp in the '40's known as the Dispatch Creek Fishing Camp with four ramshackle cabins that would slowly morph into one of the most prestigious and luxurious private clubs in the world.

Morris Baker, a real estate developer from Minneapolis and avid fisherman, had heard from his brother who lived in Homestead that the Key Largo Angler's Club might be for sale. But, possibly because the price was too high, he looked elsewhere and learned of the availability of the Dispatch Creek property. Sight unseen, Mr. Baker made an offer which was accepted and in 1946 he became the owner of the camp and forty surrounding acres.

Morris and his wife Alice drove all the way down from their Minnesota home to take a look at their new acquisition. As you can imagine, they were greeted by mosquitoes, ruddy roads, crocodiles and coral rock. But instead of turning around and going home, Mr. Baker saw through the mangroves a vision, instead of a fishing camp, according to his daughter, Mary Philbin, the vision was "something that would last forever." He named that vision "Ocean Reef".

So, if Morris Baker first came here in 1946, why do we celebrate the 75th anniversary in 2023? Maybe we should have celebrated in 2021? We also know the Ocean Reef officially opened its doors for hall will focus on Loquat Road in north Key Largo, which closed in 2021 for safety concerns but opponents say it has damaged the well-established businesses off of CR 905 and created congestion and confusion. "We are doing a town hall meeting to see if people want to keep the road closed," said Kristen Livengood, spokesperson for Monroe County.

If you cannot attend the meeting but would like to share your opinion on whether or not Loquat Road off of 905 should remain closed, email Holly Raschein at boccdis5@monroecounty-fl.gov.

business in 1949, so maybe we should celebrate in 2024. The truth of the matter is that our anniversary is marked in the year in which Baker incorporated the business and that was 1948. Now all you 'i' dotters and 't' crossers out there can relax and enjoy our upcoming anniversary.

Mr. Baker was later quoted in Miami News in 1949: 'To build something big and lasting is an inherent urge in every man, whether his dream is a business, a book or a club, it is a way of leaving a small part of himself behind.'

Thank you, Mr. Baker.

Journey Together Through the Scriptures

by Rev. Dr. Bob Henley

Jim Collins, in his book "Built to Last," coined a phrase that captured a concept. The concept is a powerful mechanism to stimulate progress in any organization. Collins coined the term 'BHAG', short for a "Big Hairy Audacious Goal."

'BHAGs' have a way, Collins writes, of engaging people – reaching out and as he says, "grabbing them in the gut."

The New Chapel & Fellowship Center
When the idea of a new chapel was first proposed, many people considered it a 'BHAG.' Understandably, not everyone was enthused by the proposal - at first.

Yet once people considered the fact-based case for the need of a new chapel, many people got it, and got behind it in a big way, right away.

The proof of that is captured visually in the beautiful Wall of Gratitude in the narthex of the Chapel and Fellowship Center at Ocean Reef.

While the goal is substantially complete, there are and will be further opportunities moving forward with room for many additional names to be added to the Wall of Gratitude.

An Invitation to Consider a Personal 'BHAG'

I want to invite you to consider setting a goal for your own life. It's one that many would consider "big, hairy, and audacious."

Just what is it that I'm asking you to consider? I'm inviting you to join me in a sixteen-month Journey Together Through God's story, found in the Scriptures of the Bible.

A Big Challenge

Understandably, some will not want to engage the challenge. The reasons may seem obvious.

The Bible is about a thousand pages in length. There are sixty-six different books written by dozens of different authors, in a variety of genre. That is the intimidating scope of the challenge.

And as anyone who has ever tried to read the Bible before understands, there is a wide chasm separating the world and culture of the Bible from our world and culture today.

As a reader, you encounter customs and practices you don't understand. There are perplexing events found in that history. There is also a profound sense of mystery.

And don't even start to try and pronounce the names parents gave their children, or the names of the places they lived. Yet many are filled with immeasurable significance.

What to Expect

Our journey, through a series of daily readings, will provide a panoramic perspective on the story of the Jewish people found in the First Testament. Their story is God's story.

It is through this people chosen by God, that the God of all creation began to reveal himself in the world through Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and their physical descendants.

In the New Testament, God's story then moves out into the world through the Jewish people in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth, whom many confess to be the Jewish Messiah of God.

When & Where

The Journey community will gather at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday mornings in the chapel. An informative overview of the Journey Together will be given this Sunday, November 6 at 10:30 a.m.

Who's Leading & What Will I Gain

I'm privileged to be your guide on the Journey. After more than 50 years of study, I'm still learning, and growing in my faith.

You may be religious, or not religious at all. You may be a Jewish person, or a Christian, or neither of the above. You may be Catholic or Protestant. The Bible may be familiar to you, or totally unfamiliar. It doesn't matter. Just come as you are!

Choosing to engage in this personal 'BHAG' for these next sixteen months is a big commitment. Like any worthwhile challenge, it will also be fulfilling.

The outcome of a study like this, if you truly engage, will lead to intellectual understanding of God's story as the result of grappling with the inevitable questions. More importantly, it may lead to a surprising, life-defining faith-encounter with the living God.

Hopefully, as we Journey Together Through the Scriptures, that will be your experience as well.

A Life Remembered

The late John Boll's extraordinary autobiography A Wheelbarrow and a Shovel

by Joan Birsh

With the passing of John Boll on August 24, Ocean Reef Club lost a universally respected, generous, and cherished Member. Marlene Boll lost her "Johnny" – the man, who had been the love of her life for seven decades.

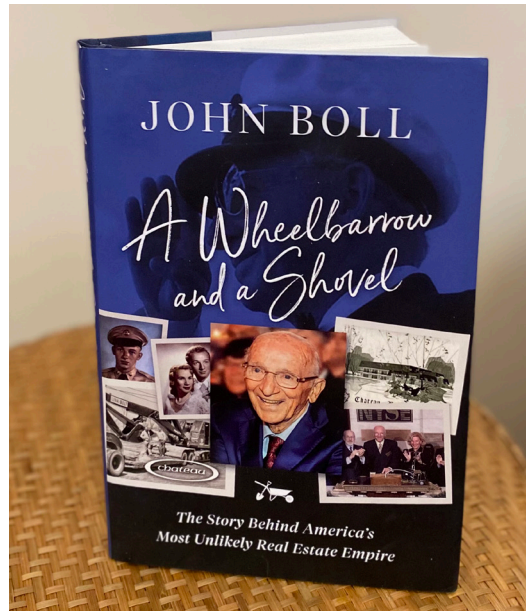

The Bolls were one of those special couples – soulmates, who recognized how lucky they were to have found each other. Theirs was the best kind of partnership, where each had separate roles, but they shared everything – the good times and the bad.

When I heard the news of John's death, I had just finished a review for the Ocean Reef Press of John Boll's autobiography "A Wheelbarrow and a Shovel".

In my article I tried to capture a little of what this man had to say about his extraordinary life. He found great joy in his love of Marlene and their family, unspeakable grief in the horrific loss of his mother, satisfaction in developing his revolutionary concept of the mobile home community. And always, solace in his faith in God and America.

A WHEELBARROW AND A SHOVEL – by JOHN BOLL
Early in John Boll's autobiography he recounts his first meeting with his beloved Marlene.

In 1952 John was a 20-year-old Army corporal, drafted during the Korean war. Marlene was an aspiring dancer, touring in North Carolina with a troupe called the Roxyettes. The soldier offered the dancer a ride to the State Fairgrounds for her show and thus began a courtship that would continue for five years and climax in 1954, when John at last persuaded Marlene to give up her dream job as a Rockette in New York City's Radio City Music Hall and to marry him and move to Detroit.

John had no money, but he had his wheelbarrow and shovel and his strong Dutch work ethic. And in no time, he had a bulldozer and his own construction company. He worked long and exhausting hours but found time to convert the basement of their house into a dance studio for Marlene and she soon had 80 promising students.

Then quite suddenly John's account of his life reverts from an interesting Horatio Alger story to a harrowing tale – shades of Truman Capote's In Cold Blood.

In a chapter John Boll entitled "An Unspeakable Tragedy" he chronicles the midnight break-in of the motel owned and operated by his parents. Three thugs, looking for money, brutally pistol whipped his father and then shot and killed his mother when she attempted to flee in search of help.

This was a life-altering event for the entire Boll family, one that John could scarcely bare to speak of. Possibly writing about it offered a catharsis and was one motivation for his book.

Note: When many years later the Governor called John about a possible parole for his mother's killer, John offered his forgiveness. "He served his time on earth."

For John the healing process came from his devotion to God, to Marlene and his three children, and to his dedication to an ambitious and innovative work project.

In 1964 John Boll launched Chateau Estates, the first of what was to grow to hundreds of manufactured home communities.

John's vision was to transform the concept of a trailer park (generally a conglomeration of mobile homes haphazardly located in an uninviting site) into a planned community with water and sanitation, attractive landscaping and often a clubhouse, swimming pool, activities for all age groups.

John and his unofficial partner Marlene fought local authorities for appropriate sites, established rules and associations for homeowners and generally promoted a pride of ownership in these flourishing communities. His thinking and the results were a true revolution in the housing industry.

In 2003, when Chateau Estates, was sold to the State of Washington Pension Fund, it consisted of 240 communities in 36 states with more than 100,000 residential homesites.

Sixty-eight years of married bliss.

John and Marlene Boll were always a devoted couple, whose marriage encompassed more than just hard work. They both loved being on the water and there were many boat trips with children and grandchildren. Their current homes in Grosse Pointe Shores MI and Ocean Reef FL have beautiful waterfront views.

The Bolls have been generous philanthropists and their Foundation has supported countless religious, cultural, and community-based charities, many of them at Ocean Reef.

John Boll ends his memoir A Wheelbarrow and a Shovel with a tribute to his God and to his country for making his success possible. He entitled this final chapter as "Only in America."

NOTE; Marlene Boll has agreed to supply the Ocean Reef Library with copies of John's autobiography "A Wheelbarrow and a Shovel". The book is also available online at Amazon.

I hope this sampling will entice you to read this fascinating story, told by John Boll in his own words

Hello, Neighbor

by Mary Brady

Like everything in life, change is inevitable. The complexion of our community has a youthful face due to the fact that we have many more young families giving us a breath of new life and new blood.

The Leake family, consisting of 4, is one such new Ocean Reef Equity family. Rudy, 34, from Lexington, KY, was a cattle farmer and butcher shop owner in his "other life." His lovely wife, Anne, is an interior designer with her own shop in Lexington. Their two young children, V.V., 6, and Lisle, 3, both attend The Academy.

As Social Members for several years, the couple loved the lifestyle here. During COVID,

Anne and Rudy Leake

Rudy and Anne realized they could both easily work remotely from right here in paradise.

The couple agreed to take a leap of faith and sell their "big house" in Lexington, settle nicely into a two bedroom Pumpkin Cay condo, and live a minimalistic lifestyle. Anne decorated the place impeccably with 2 sets of bunkbeds in the guest room to accommodate visiting grandparents. They spend quality time with their children and enjoy nature every day. Rudy invested in a small boat to take his family out fishing and enjoying the sunsets. The children are equally in love with their new home, school, teachers and friends at The Academy. They love the daily ritual of going to Reef Treats after school as well as all the other amenities which enable them to run off steam on Buccaneer Island.

Asking them about their favorite part of living here, Rudy says, "Focusing on a healthy, stress-free lifestyle." He's moved on from the cattle ranch and butcher shop and is pursuing other dreams. Anne is still active in her decorating business, and enjoys daily bike rides to Pickleball each morning.

Clara the dog and Flower the cat have settled in nicely adjusting to condo living and being in close proximity each day with the family.

The couple agree that the security here on The Reef is so comforting. To simplify, life is a blessing and a healthier way of life.

Anne says, "I feel privileged to be in this community and thankful to be a part of the common thread that keeps us going. The children are learning manners and how to speak to various people. No one here cares if you live in a big house or small condo. There are no judgments made of how little or how much you have. The future looks bright and comfortable to us."

Rudy says, "I don't want to give up this lifestyle. It means too much to me. I have made so many friends. We like the rules, the dress codes, the structure and the freedom. There are a lot of 'like-minded' people here which is very different from other places. We are not necessarily the same religion or the same political order or financial background, but as for living life, we are like-minded in the sense of raising children with manners and dress codes and the importance of education. It is a slower, more quality type of life. Our children are exposed to an excellent education. This is now our home, and we are grateful to be here in paradise!"

Building Programs at Ocean Reef that Address Memory Issues

When we arrive and pass through the gate, we enter a tropical paradise. Our Club offers a wide selection of social, recreational and dining options.

The ForgetMeNots and the Medical Center, however, have a concern. Are we as a community extending to those who suffer memory loss sufficient opportunity and support?

We would like to identify those Members who have loved ones with memory issues and explore what actions can be taken at Ocean Reef to improve the quality of life for both the patients and their caregivers. Volunteers are welcome to register.

If you are interested in such a program, please visit the Ocean Reef Medical website and click on to the Memory-Corner Link. We seek your input to help us plan activities for the season that will give our loved ones some bright moments in their lives.

Through the years I have had the pleasure of assisting several of my Ocean Reef clients in marketing their wonderful off-Reef properties located in cities such as New York and Miami. In addition to consistently connecting with Ocean Reef members, my marketing reach includes an extraordinary database of contacts in Connecticut, New York, Pebble Beach and all over the country. And, I have asked my marketing team to create a special section on my website to showcase these properties.

Recently, I was contacted by one of my Ocean Reef clients who asked me for advice and assistance in marketing their spectacular estate in Naperville, Illinois, an exclusive suburb in western Chicago. I reached out to one of the top Sotheby's agents in Chicago who listed the property.

CLUB SHOPPING

Joan the Shopper

Does everybody need a personal trainer?.... Without a trainer at Ocean Reef I was beginning to feel the way I did in the 60's when everybody but me had a psychiatrist. Then I invented one. I named my fictional shrink Dr. Ana Lyst and made up some quirky dreams that I supposedly shared with her and unabashedly shared with my dinner companions.... It worked in my 20's but this time around, the older and wiser me decided to go for the real thing – I went to the Fitness Center and hired a personal trainer.... With my trainer's forceful guidance, I am hoping these regular workouts will ultimately result in tight abs and muscular arms. But in the meantime, after each session, I reward myself with a shopping experience in the sprawling boutique on the third floor of the Fitness Center.... Here I found the lush outfit modeled by my personal trainer Hillary Reichert. The poppy red mock turtleneck top ($166) and the flower-design leggings ($118) are both from Greyson, a promising new line at Fitness. Hilary's shoes are from On Running ($140). And for those of you who have hated tying your shoes since first grade, On Running also has the popular Cloud slip-on style ($130) for both men and women.... At the Fitness Center there's a whole wall devoted to Lululemon. I love Lulu's Energy Bra, which was voted (not sure by whom) the bra "most likely to be worn multiple times a week" ($52).... Not to be missed – the racks in the hall just to the right of the Fitness Cafe. What you find there are not "sale" items. Quite the contrary, they are often pricey, up-scale garments. Great for shoppers looking for something trendy.... LAST WORD: My trainer Hillary's previous job was a 10-year stint as a dolphin trainer at SeaWorld. I fear that someday she might ask me to jump through a hoop?

What is Medical Fitness & How Can It Help You?

By Moorey-Margaret Myers, BA, MFS, CPT, E-RYT 500, YACEP, Medical Fitness Therapist at Member Fitness Center

What is Medical Fitness?

Medical Fitness or the Exercise Is Medicine (EIM) initiative was established "to make physical activity assessment and exercise prescription a standard part of the disease prevention and treatment paradigm for all patients." This initiative was started in November 2007 by the American College of Sports Medicine and the American Medical Association.

What do Medical Fitness Professionals do?

Medical Fitness professionals provide evidence-based clinical exercise programming to manage and treat chronic diseases and disabilities such as hypertension, dyslipidemia, obesity, prediabetes, type 2 diabetes mellitus, arthritis, back pain, osteoporosis, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, coronary artery disease and atherosclerosis, angina, silent ischemia, peripheral arterial disease, cancer, amputations, frailty, cardiovascular disease, transplants, pulmonary disease, neuromuscular conditions, cognitive and psychological disorders.

How can Medical Fitness Benefit Me?

Medical Fitness can help individuals manage their disease by increasing longevity and mitigating disability in some conditions, increasing the length of the disability-free life, improving metabolic function, shifting away from diabetes and cardiovascular disease, improving physical functioning and quality of life, providing pain relief, increase strength, mobility, and range of motion, possibly reduce dosage and or eliminate the need for medication in some conditions, increase independence, reduce risk of falls, improve physical function, mood and cognitive abilities. On this basis, it is clear that exercise functions like a medicine and has a broader spectrum of applications than any single medication. There is no prescription with such pluripotent potential.

To book Medical Fitness appointments with Moorey-Margaret, please contact the Member Fitness Center at 305-367-5820.

Boating Safety Tip of the Week

by Robert Broton, Flotilla Commander, U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary-Ocean Reef

Taking a Safe Boating Course taught by the Coast Guard Auxiliary will help you know what safety equipment is needed on your boat, however, another way to learn about what equipment you need is to experience a Vessel Safety Check (VSC) conducted by trained members of the Ocean Reef Coast Guard Auxiliary.

According to an article by the USCGAUX at cgaux.org/vsc/, "Even experienced boaters need a vessel safety check! 15 minutes could save your life and the life of your family." According to the article, the main reason to get the VSC is "Safety! The peace of mind that your boat meets federal safety standards and that in an emergency you will have the necessary equipment to save lives and summon help. In many cases, boating insurance agencies offer discounts for vessels which undergo a VSC every year..."

If you pass the VSC, you will get a 2022 decal to place on your boat, which will tell the Coast Guard and other boating law enforcement and safety agencies that your boat was in compliance.

Some of the items that are checked are life jackets, registration and numbering, navigation lights, ventilation, fire extinguishers, distress signals, battery cover and connections, etc. The VSC is free and if your boat does not pass, no citation is issued at that time. Instead you are given a report which can help you bring your boat in compliance so you can pass the next VSC. If your boat is not docked at Ocean Reef, you can find a vessel examiner by going to the website at cgaux.org/vsc/.

If your boat is docked at Ocean Reef, you can arrange a VSC by contacting Bob Broton, FC, Ocean Reef Coast Guard Auxiliary 13-04, at rmbdiver@gmail.com, or the following Vessel Examiners: Dr. Peter Liashek at pljr@msn.com; Dr. Bernard (Barney) Steele at bstele1944@gmail.com; or Richard (Randy) Woods at rwoods@teamrat.com.

Bonnies Prepare for Fishing, Fun & Friendship

by Sarah A.
Cart

The Bonefish Bonnies will enjoy all sorts of fishing fun and friendship-expanding adventures throughout the coming season, from the Nov. 16 opening luncheon (see below for details regarding your required reservation) and the annual holiday party in December to monthly luncheons, educational programs, travel adventures and local tournaments.

First things first:
Nov. 11 is the reservations deadline for the Nov. 16, season-opening luncheon and meeting at Town Hall Waterside. The Wednesday luncheon check-in will begin at 10:45 a.m., followed by the 11 a.m. Membership meeting. The plated three-course meal (soup, entrée and dessert with a fall flavor), will conclude by 1pm.

To make your reservation, either email your name and ORC account number to the organization's new, easy to remember, email address: BonefishBonnies1@gmail.com, or send a note with that same information to Bonefish Bonnies, Inc., 24 Dockside Lane – PMB 1, Key Largo, FL 33037 (at PakMail).

The luncheon charge will be $45 plus tax and gratuity; ORC accounts will be billed automatically, and discounts will be applied according to membership type. Ocean Reef Club requires a list of attendees and Member account numbers five days beforehand, therefore timely reservations are a must.

Bonnies won't want to miss this opportunity to reunite with friends, learn about what's ahead for the tournaments and other special events, and enjoy a "blast from the past."

Fine fishing ahead:

Since 1999, Bonnie members have been meeting regularly for luncheons and educational programs about angling and conservation; fishing our local waters and traveling to fish elsewhere in Florida, the Bahamas and beyond; and taking part in three annual Bonnies-only tournaments – the first, Fishin' Funatics, to be held this season on Mon., Feb. 6, includes fun fishing both on the flats and offshore; next will be Offshore, on Mon., March 6; and last will be the organization's traditional flats competition, on Mon., April 3.

Also planned for this season are a Cooking School luncheon and a Cast 'n' Blast, both in January, monthly kayak clean-up adventures, gyotaku at the Art League in February and a Book Club meeting in March, as well as trips scheduled for the Bahamas and Gasparilla Inn, and more fun besides.

Bonnie FAQs:

The Bonefish Bonnies gather women interested in fun, friendship and fishing and are open to all women of Ocean Reef and Key Largo Anglers Clubs and their mothers, daughters or granddaughters. Individual events are priced separately. To join, simply register online at www.BonefishBonnies.com; be sure to complete both the Membership Form and the Waiver and Release Form (in addition to your signature, don't forget to check the "I agree" box on the waiver). For additional information, check the Bonnies Bulletin Board in the Reef Treats lobby or reach out via BonefishBonnies1@gmail.com.

The Bonnies are happy to welcome newcomers throughout the season.

ATTENTION ALL BONNIES:
This season's Holiday Party will be Mon., Dec. 12; reservation details will follow in an upcoming Ocean Reef Press.

ROD & GUN CLUB NEWS

Fishing Tales, Far & Near

By Christine Patton, Rod & Gun Club

Our first fishing tale is from Mona Brewer, who this summer ventured out to fish in Spain's Pyrenees Mountains where she caught her first Zebra!

In the remote mountains of the Basque country, where villages have a population of 35 people who speak a dialect that few understand, rivers are secluded and fishermen who have access find that they have the time to really work the water. While husband Harold was off birding (that's another story), Mona was fishing in just such a river, casting across the water to a spot under the trees, where she could see the swirl of a big fish. Fishing dry flies in the Spanish style, with a huge, 16 foot leader, she tried fly after fly on her quarry, moving up in size from one fly to the next — Caddis, Adams, 25 different flies, everything in the box! — but unable to match the hatch.

On the other side of the Atlantic, so close that we'll call it home, here's a tale from Tom Davidson, Jr in his own words that's "Unbelievable but True":

"On October 5th, fishing in the homeowner's channel I had hooked 12 and landed 7 tarpon. Number 13 was just a bit different, I hooked the tarpon and got it to the boat several times, but on attempt number 4 to remove the hook from the fish (about 35 pounds) it leapt from my grasp taking my rod and reel with it. The entire thing witnessed by some delighted workers installing a new roof on a Member's home. I cursed for a while and then decided to go back to fishing. The very next cast, with my mullet swimming on the surface, I felt tension on my line. It didn't feel quite right — there was weight at the end of the line, but no fight. I continued to reel in, eventually to see that I had hooked the rod that I had just lost and even more to my surprise, the tarpon was still firmly hooked! I proceeded to land the fish and the rod. Number 13 turned out to be my lucky number that day."

Taking Care of Our Courses

"From the Gold Tees" by Michael Leone, Director of Golf

The Golf Staff is excited to welcome back familiar faces to kick off the season. Thanks to Director of Agronomy Eric Bennett and his team, the Dolphin and Hammock Courses are in pristine conditions and ready to host the first events of the season. The MGA, LGA, and 9 Hole LGA kickstart the season the first and second week of November. Following the Opening Days, we invite Members and guests from around the country to participate in the 50th Annual Ocean Reef Club Invitational. 108 teams will compete in five 9 hole matches over three days for the title.

As another season comes upon us, the Golf Staff wants to remind our Members and guests of a few policies that help keep our courses in magnificent conditions. We urge all players to fix ball marks and fill divots with sand as they play. This assists in keeping our courses beautiful and pristine for the duration of the season. It is also important that all players follow the Golf Cart Guidelines due to the traffic our courses see. Please abide by the 90-degree rule at all times unless other restrictions are in place for that day.

Care of the Course Reminders

1. Please enter and leave bunkers at the nearest level point to the ball. Please smooth over with a rake upon leaving. Leave rakes in bunkers with the handle just outside.
2. Please repair your ball mark on the green and at least one other.

NEW IN THE GOLF SHOP

The Golf Shop is geared up for another season here at Ocean Reef Club. There is no better way to "gear up" for season then getting a new stylish golf bag! Stop by the Golf Shop to browse all the new golf bags from brands like Titleist, Sun Mountain, Taylormade and more! The Golf Shop is stocked with all of the styles and color schemes for all!

3. Fill all divots with sand and tamp down. The par three tees will be maintained by the Golf Course Maintenance Staff.
4. Keep all four wheels on the cart path to prevent unnecessary wear.

Golf Cart Restrictions

In the continued efforts to aid course conditions, only two carts per group will be strictly enforced whether in Club carts or private carts. The Golf Staff will ask players to pair up at all times to help minimize cart traffic.

Join our rental pool!

Join our rental pool of luxury condominiums, homes and docks and allow us to take care of all the details. You can rest assured we will provide white glove service for your guests.

Meet the 22-23 Tennis & Games Center Team

If you're yet to have the pleasure of visiting the Tennis & Games Center this month, you have something exciting to look forward to. The 2022-23 Tennis & Games Center team is the perfect mix of your favorite returning professionals and brand-new faces. Director of Racquet Sports Justin Romero has worked hard to bring the best seasonal and full-time team of professionals with extensive tennis, pickleball and croquet expertise, all eager to share their talents and enthusiasm with Members. Below is an introduction to this season's professional staff. Book a lesson with them, by visiting ForeTees or calling 305-367-6583.

Justin Romero

Director of Racquet Sports

Justin Romero, while in his first year as Director of Racquet Sports, has been with Ocean Reef Club for more than 10 years. Originally from Albuquerque, NM, Justin is USPTA and IPTPA certified, was a nationally ranked collegiate tennis player, and a world-ranked pickleball professional. Since his arrival at Ocean Reef, he has climbed his way up from Tennis Coordinator to Head Tennis Professional after only a year at the Club, a role in which he held until 2019 when he was promoted to Head of Racquet Sports. Justin took over the Director role in June 2022 and is excited to introduce his new team and programming this season.

Hannah Fleckenstein

Head Tennis Professional

Hannah, originally from New York, played college tennis at Colgate University where she majored in Psychology and Native American Studies. Hannah first made her appearance at Ocean Reef Club in November 2020 as a seasonal Assistant Pro.

The TGC Team (l to r) Tennis Pro Shop's Alessandra Cribillero, Tennis Supervisor Jamie Curtis and Jorgini Navarro, Professional Team members Hannah Fleckenstein, Frank Ngo, Director Justin Romero, Ricardo Martin, Jim Morton and Carolina Quevedo, and Maintenance Team members Joel Perez, Jesus Gonzalez, and Maintenance Supervisor Jesus Quinones.

After leaving ORC, she spent a second season as Head Tennis Pro at Sippican Tennis Club in Marion, MA before returning to college coaching where she was the Assistant Tennis Coach for the Women's Varsity Team at Middlebury College. Under Hannah's tutelage, Middlebury finished the year ranked #5 in the country and made it to the Final Four. Hannah found her way back to Ocean Reef for a three-month stint during last year's holiday season before returning to Ocean Reef Club full time this season as the new Head Tennis Professional.

Carolina Quevedo

Tennis & Pickleball Concierge

Originally from Barcelona, Spain, Carolina began playing tennis at four years old. She has since played collegiate tennis at Young Harris College and University of Illinois in Springfield where she earned her master's degree in communications. Carolina joined Ocean Reef in June as the Club's Tennis & Pickleball Concierge, and is available to help Members match with a game or a partner. Email her at cquevedo@oceanreef.com if you're interested in setting up a match or signing up for a tournament.

Jim Morton

Tennis Professional

Jim Morton has been much more than just a familiar face around The Reef over the past 35 years. Having first stepped foot on Ocean Reef courts in 1987, he would go on to spend his decades-long career at both the Racquet Club and the Tennis & Games Center. Jim took over the ORC Director of Tennis role in 1995 and continued to lead the charge at the Tennis & Games Center until his retirement in May of this year. Now, Jim remains a part of the ORC tennis community as a seasonal assistant professional this season.

Ricardo Martin

Tennis Professional

Ricardo Martin joined the ORC team last month, though you may already recognize him from several Ocean Reef Pro-Am Tournaments over the past five years, where he's clinched a first place, second, and consolation winner finish. Ricardo was a decorated tennis player in his hometown of Colombia where he was ranked #1 as a junior under 18's. Ricardo won ITF circuit tournaments in South America and Africa and was a part of the Colombian Tennis Federation Team. He obtained a full scholarship to the University of Wisconsin where he majored in Fine Arts and a minored in Graphic Design.

Alex Henderson

Tennis Professional

Originally from Jacksonville, Alex Henderson, a familiar face around the Tennis & Games Center, will return to Ocean Reef this November as a seasonal Assistant Tennis Professional for his 8th season. A USPTA certified tennis professional and past champion of the ORC Pro-Am and Bring-a-Pro Tournaments, Alex is looking forward to seeing the Members again and trying his hand at more tournament wins.

Kevin Girard

Pickleball Professional

Kevin Girard returns to Ocean Reef Club for his second season of pickleball. Originally from Michigan, he began his career as a tennis teaching professional before transitioning to pickleball and becoming the head pickleball pro at the Oxford Athletic Club. Kevin was also the co-head professional for the Cranberry Township Pickleball Association, a private organization with over 800 members. Kevin is an IPTPA certified Level II pickleball teaching professional and has won gold medals in multiple tournaments throughout the country. In 2021, Kevin qualified for the USAP National Tournament held at Indian Wells. Now that he's back at Ocean Reef, Kevin is eager to get out on the courts, work with Members, and help them take their game to the next level!

Frank Ngo

Pickleball Professional

Frank Ngo comes to Ocean Reef for his first season as a Pickleball Professional. Formerly a competitive tennis player, he converted to pickleball in 2020. Winning gold medals at the 4.5 level in Connecticut and subsequently at the 5.0 level in Florida has helped him quickly advance to professional level pickleball tournaments. Frank is a Level II IPTPA Certified Instructor and is excited to share his knowledge with Ocean Reef Club Members this season.

28th Annual Harvest Moon Extravaganza

Celebrating Tennis, Pickleball & Croquet

"Center Court"
by Justin Romero,
Director of Racquet
Sports

The 2022-23 season at the Tennis & Games Center started off with a bang this past Thursday with our Harvest Moon Tournament. 50 members took part in the rotating round robin tournament across tennis, pickleball and croquet.

This year's event was especially monumental as we christened three new pickleball courts that were built this summer, expanding Ocean Reef's facility to nine tennis courts, nine pickleball courts and two gorgeous croquet lawns! The event was capped off with delicious drinks, a fabulous fall harvest dinner and prizes for our winners.

Many thanks to all those that came out and celebrated the kickoff of season with the Tennis & Games Center Staff! We are excited for the events and tournaments that lie ahead. See a full list of Harvest Moon champions on page 29.

Bridge Tip of the Week

Defense

Defense is the most difficult part of bridge. To win you must know defense. Review these rules before each match until you know them cold.

Opening Leads

To Suit Contracts: You usually want to make a "safe" opening lead that will set up tricks for your side without giving declarer extra tricks. Your general order of preference can be:

A suit partner has bid. Lead low if you have 3+ cards lead high from 2 cards.

1. A suit that offers a good attacking combination — two or more touching honors (KQ10x, QJ10, AKxx, J109).
2. A singleton (hoping partner can lead the suit back for you to trump).

3. Your longest suit. Lead low if you don't have touching honors.

4. A suit the opponents have not bid.

5. If there are no unbid suits, choose a suit that dummy has bid.

6. Lead trumps if you have no other safe lead OR if declarer has shown a twosuit hand. This may prevent declarer from using dummy's trumps separately.

When leading to a suit contract, AVOID:

1. Leading an unsupported ace if you have another safe lead. (Aces are to catch kings).
2. Underleading an ace (don't lead a small card from a suit headed by the ace).
3. Underleading broken honor combinations (KJxx, Q10x) unless it's in partner's suit.
4. Leading a suit declarer has bid (unless you're leading trumps).
