

November Town Hall

Ocean Reef Club Chairman Ray Larkin opened the first Town Hall Meeting of the new season Friday, November 18 with a nod to the historic anniversary year. "I am thrilled to say on behalf of our Board, how honored and privileged we are to be your Board of Directors during our 75th anniversary of Ocean Reef's founding and the 30th anniversary of Member ownership," said Larkin. "It's a true honor. Alan Goldstein, Tom Davidson and Dick Farmer, beginning in 1992, had the foresight to look at Ocean Reef and say, we should turn this into a private club. Fast forward 30 years, Ocean Reef is the finest private club in the United States, if not the world. So thank you for your vision, thank you for your persistence."

Before moving on to the business portion of the meeting, Larkin went through the agenda, reiterating the commitment to no construction this season, while noting that there is focus on the Club's master plan and the projects being considered for the next 3-5 years, including Associate housing and The Spa expansion. He also shared that the Club will leave no stone unturned in the effort toward improving the Equity Member experience, "So you feel like this is your Club, you are happy and comfortable, and you are able to do what you want when you want to do it."

Member Usage & Satisfaction

ORC Vice Chairman Charlie Johnston, who serves as Chair of the Membership Committee, demonstrated that the Club continues to show strong usage by Equity and Legacy Members, strong demand for Membership overall, and a downward trend in Social Member usage. With the strong desire for Social Membership displayed over the past several years, Johnston announced the Club's decision to freeze the Social Member Waitlist, adding an even greater emphasis on Equity Member satisfaction.

In terms of Member usage and demand, Johnston reported that Equity Memberships have only increased about 147 since 2015.

While Legacy Membership appears to be growing, Johnston reminds everyone that "Legacy Members are our children and grandchildren. They come for holidays, they come for long weekends with their parents and grandparents and they would typically be here anyway even if they didn't have a Legacy Membership, so it's not as if there's a surge of new people coming." The Social Membership category continues to remain at 2,350 since the cap was put in place in 2015.

Johnston also reported that historically, the busiest months of the year are between January and March, and the average of Members here during that time are Equity and Legacy Members, with Social Members actually

November Town Meeting

New ORC & ORCA Working Closely & Positively Together

By LOIS MCCLURE
(and PENNE KAMP)

(Editorial comment: We interviewed a past president of ORCA, who had attended the second of two Town Hall sessions, conducted jointly by Alan Goldstein representing ORCA and Tom Davidson representing the New ORC. The past president's observation: "Never in my business career or other activities have I seen any meeting conducted more professionally or thoughtfully. Any home-owner-member at those meetings had to have had satisfied any interests or concerns." - JWB)

The first of several "Town Meetings" scheduled jointly by ORC and ORCA was held Saturday, Nov. 12, 1993. It was SRO at the Sailfish room. Highlights follow:

Tom Davidson, chairman of Ocean Reef Club (ORC) and Alan Goldstein, chairman of the Ocean Reef Community Association (ORCA), led "Town Meetings" on November 13 to bring club members/property owners up to date on what is happening on the Reef. They and Jack Hrad, ORC president, and David Ritz, ORCA manager, gave reports and then opened the meeting to questions. To enable everyone to have a voice, the meeting was held in two parts, with the first fully booked at 80 participants and the second with some 25 reservations.

Financial information regarding ORC will be presented on an annual basis in an audited format, Davidson stated. During the first fiscal year, beginning Dec. 1, more frequent oral and written reports will be made.

Regarding the Club's "bottom line," it is anticipated the first full year might end with a loss of $1.2 million, after $1 million depreciation.

Income for the club shows that the hotel has been a very important component, with income of $7.5 million, with $5 million gross margin. Dues are $4.5 million and everything else about $2 million. So, keeping the hotel rooms booked is an important priority. At present, this means conference business is very important. Perhaps in future years as the number of non-resident members increases, these non-residents and their families will comprise the majority of hotel facilities.

Membership growth is vital. Present members, Hrad pointed out, are the best source for procuring new members, and are also the most effective means of screening prospective members.

Alan Goldstein and David Ritz touched on ORCA concerns. Goldstein emphasized that the landscaping currently being installed is all paid for, with no additional assessments needed. The road repaving work is part of a three-year program to upgrade Ocean Reef. Those in the worst condition are being paved this season.

An ORCA dues increase was alluded to.

Just as this week's Ocean Reef Press features a recap of the week's Town Hall meeting, the front page on the November 24, 1993 edition of the "Free Press", (predecessor to the Ocean Reef Press), recounts details from the first Town Hall meeting for the newly member-owned Ocean Reef Club. Both Tom Davidson (Chairman of Ocean Reef Club) and Alan Goldstein (Chairman of ORCA) are referenced, similarly to the opening paragraph of today's ORP.

Rare Member-Owned Fighters Debut at Vintage Weekend

by Holly Houser, Ocean Reef Press

Jim Slattery and his wife Jane became Ocean Reef Club Equity Members in 2020 when they purchased a home at Ocean Reef, rather than continuing on the Social Member Waitlist – a decision they couldn't possibly be happier with.

"My wife and I absolutely love Ocean Reef," Jim said. "We first came here for lunch with a Member friend when we were living in Fort Lauderdale and fell in love. The people we've met are fabulous and all of the opportunities... it is just spectacular."

After attending Vintage Weekend last year as a spectator, and enjoying it so much, Jim was inspired to participate this year as an exhibitor, bringing three extremely rare and unique twin-engine fighters that have never before been seen at Vintage Weekend – the P-38 Lightning and two F7F Tigercats.

What makes these planes so special is their rarity. Jim owns the only flying P-38 in the world with combat history. He and his restoration team, led by Bill Klairs, President and CEO of the National Museum of WWII

Jim Slattery's rare P-38 Lightning – the only flying P-38 in the world with a combat record.

One of two F7F Tigercats after arriving at Miami Executive Airport last week for its Vintage Weekend debut.

Aviation, literally dug out it out of the ground in New Guinea in the 90s. After an eight-year-long restoration process, Jim's "White 33" is the only flying P-38 restored to as-new condition with a combat history, including seven victories in the Pacific.

The two Tigercats are nearly as rare, with only five or six that still exist in the world. These WWII era planes were created with one mission – to intercept Kamikaze suicide bombers. As Jim describes, "These particular Tigercats were the most sophisticated and the fastest airplanes of their day."

Jim, who is also on the Ocean Reef Airport Committee, has been passionate about aviation for most of his life. "I became a pilot at 16 before I even got my driver's license," he said. "I was always fascinated with flying and back in the early 1980s, I went to Oshkosh for the biggest air show in the US. I got a chance to ride in a warbird and I got hooked."

That's when I began collecting and restoring airplanes. My first was the C-47 transport plane. Each restoration process takes five to seven years with a lot of dedicated manpower. The planes are historical treasures really."

Jim is the Chairman of the Board and main benefactor of the National Museum of World War II Aviation in Colorado Springs. He and his wife currently own at least 50 restored planes, with 28 of them, including the three he's bringing to Vintage Weekend, being displayed in the museum.

Jim's P-38 and two Tigercats are being housed at Wings Over Miami Air Museum while they await their Vintage Weekend debut on Thursday. They are guaranteed to awe from both land and air, when they take flight in Saturday's air show. In fact, Vintage Weekend Chair Lenny Sikora sounds like a kid in a candy store when he talks about these planes. His excitement is palpable.

"Jim Slattery is my new best friend," said Lenny. "He is so generous to bring these planes to Vintage Weekend. It's the first time these types of planes have ever been displayed and flown here so this will be a real highlight of the weekend. Needless to say, I'm stoked!"

Despite aviation being Jim's passion, his favorite part of Vintage Weekend is "everything," saying, "You don't get to see such a fine collection of cars very often and I've been a boater all my life, owning many, so the yachts that come in are very exciting as well."

Join Jim in appreciating all the classic conveyances Vintage Weekend has to offer December 1 to 4. See page 13 for the full schedule of events.

What Chefs Do On Their Summer Vacation

by Terry Baxter

Executive Chef Jared Reardon knows that chefs are creative and need stimulation, so he encourages them to reach out to peers around the globe. The summer breaks are the best opportunity. They study menus, taste preparations, and explore kitchen techniques and vendors. This enriches our culinary experience here at Ocean Reef and improves the quality.

Members can play an important part in the process. Julia and Steve Rushmore bonded with star Sushi Chef Eric Andreu over conversations around the Islander Sushi Bar. The Rushmores invited Eric to visit them in New York City to tour some of their favorite restaurants. Le Bernadin, widely considered the best restaurant in the city, was one of the evenings they got to visit with the chef and enjoyed a fabulous dinner.

On his return to Ocean Reef, Eric regaled his friend and teammate Chef Kareem, Chef de Cuisine of the Islander, with the wonders of the Bernadin kitchen. A few phone calls from Chef Jared and an endorsement from the Rushmores lead to a coveted invitation to a dinner and a chance to work a shift in the Le Bernadin kitchen. Kareem called it the "Chance of a lifetime."

"It was instructive to observe a set-up like the original French Brigade," Kareem said. The Brigade system was developed by Escoffier in the 1800's to bring order to the hectic kitchen at the Savoy. Escoffier delegated the key elements of dinner service to a hierarchy of trained chefs. He designated them: The Chef de Cuisine (Chief of the kitchen); Sous Chef (Deputy or "under chief"); Saucier (sauce maker, sauté cook); Rotisseur (roast cook); Poissier (fish cook); Garde Manger (salads and cold food items); and Pâtissier (desserts and other meal-end treats). The system was widely adopted. We use many of the same terms at Ocean Reef.

Kareem said, "CH Prime is closest to a classic French Brigade. It specializes in fine cuisine. The order tickets come right to Chef de Cuisine, Jonathan Kaiser, and he calls out the order to the cooking staff. The Islander is more "fast casual," but still refined. The tickets go directly to each station, fry, grill, or so on." Kareem was impressed with how the Brigade and ladder system helps develop chefs. "The training system is far more rigorous and demanding. As the cooks work up the ladder, they learn craft, precision, and repetition – good habits from the start," Kareem observed. "They taste each other's prep. It has to be perfect." Kareem concluded he "had to push the boundaries and introduce more new things. Cooks need to be motivated not to become stagnant. I want more satisfaction and clarity of purpose."

I asked Chef Eric if he uses the Brigade system in the Sushi Bar. "Yes," he quipped, "They tell me what to do and I do it."

Jared took Kareem and Eric to the Japanese Food Show in New York City. They found new products, utensils, and vendors. Eric is ordering a new salmon strain flown in fresh from New Zealand. It is farm-raised in the sea, nurtured by ocean currents and nutrients. He admired the milder taste. Kareem found King Crab from Norway, shipped live. We have the large live tank required to keep it fresh.

After the show Jared took them to a Korean BBQ. "It's pretty close, let's walk," Jared said. Kareem and Eric have a rapid-fire repartee with jabs and smiles. "Chef Jared is a walker," Chef Kareem's King Crab alive, fresh from Norway. Yikes.

Eric said. "It must have been twenty blocks." "More like fifty blocks," said Kareem. "And Jared has long legs," finished Eric. "It was a forced march."

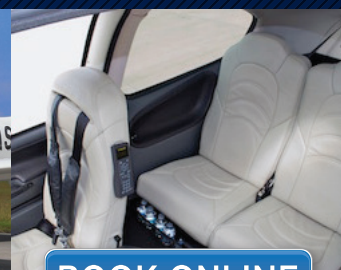

"We joke, but we always stick together," Eric said. They call themselves "Shake and Bake" after the goofy characters in "Talladega Nights." Bake is portrayed as the dimmer of the two, so I asked which of them is Shake. "I am," they both said at once.

"Don't even start," said Kareem.

Next week Eric will introduce a new dish he is excited about – Pacific Blue Fin Tataki: Blue Fin Tuna, blackened and grilled, citrus soy, heirloom tomato, Vidalia onion, Sashimi Style. Look for it at the Sushi Bar.

A Raised Paddle for Pickleball

by Joan Birsh

This sport is here to stay
Members returning to Ocean Reef for the new season are frequently asked – “Are you still playing tennis?” More often than not, the answer is “Yes, but I’m also playing Pickleball.”

The Club anticipated that response and over the summer added three pickleball courts. That gives Pickleball, the scrappy little newcomer, nine courts, same number as its older and more established Tennis elder.

And, if you are either a confirmed Pickleball convert or a switch hitter, who carries a Pickleball paddle along with his Tennis racquet, you will be happy to hear that there is now LED lighting on the courts (“so let the night games begin”). There’s also a new pickleball professional (Frankie Ngo) at the Tennis Center. Frankie will share the action with returning pro Kevin Girard. And be assured that Justin Romero, the Director of Racquet Sports at the Tennis & Games Center, will keep you in the swing of things with a whole lot of interesting Pickleball programs.

A Little History

When and where did Pickleball start? DATE: 1965. LOCATION: the backyard of Washington State Congressman Joel Pritchard’s home on Bainbridge Island (near Seattle).

INSPIRATION: a couple of bored kids on a hot summer’s day looking for something to do. SOLUTION: Pritchard and his friend Bill Bell considered badminton on an old, seldom used court that existed on the property. INCENTIVE: When no badminton equipment could be found, the players improvised with ping-pong paddles and a whiffle ball. As the ball bounced on the asphalt, the adults, as well as the children, bounced with excitement at having found a game the whole family could play together.

How did Pickleball get that dopey name?

There are two versions. The one that I prefer is that the game was named for the Prichard’s dog, who was fond of chasing the errant shots of the pickleball players.

The second version of the name Pickleball claims that this new game, which is a conglomeration of a couple of different sports (badminton, volleyball, ping pong and tennis), brings to mind the “pickle boat” in Crew, where the oarsmen were chosen from the leftover rowers of other boats.

Who is playing Pickleball?

I got this answer from Kevin Girard, the returning Pickleball Pro at the Tennis & Games Center. In a word it is “everybody”.

Kevin, who started at the Tennis & Games Center last year, says he has worked with hundreds of players, and they are all ages and aptitudes. It appeals to everyone from older people in their 70’s and 80’s to little kids from The Academy. Family Pickleball is very popular and groups visiting Ocean Reef find Pickleball a wonderful diversion. Kevin said they recently had a wedding party of 40. Everybody played, many for the first time.

Do you have to be a tennis player to play pickleball?

There is agreement among the staff that the answer is “no”. They all assured me that there are plenty of novices, “who just get out there and play with family or friends”.

Kelly Jones, the young woman who won the Ladies Division Member/Guest Championship last year, never held a racquet until her father encouraged her to try Pickleball. On the other hand, Suzy Shields, who has played tennis at Ocean Reef since 1980, found Pickleball five years ago and it was love at first dink.

“Pickleball is more of a social activity,” says Suzy. “There’s more talk and joking around than you find on a tennis court. And a new player can learn to play in 20 minutes.”

What is the all-important dress code for Pickleball?

Last season 31% of the sales at the Pro Shop were for Pickleball clothes and equipment. The only prohibition in the dress code is that unhemmed sleeveless tops for men are a no-no. In my Joan the Shopper guise, I have observed that Pickleball clothes tend to be a little edgier and more fun than traditional tennis attire.

Is Pickleball likely to become an Olympic Sport?

At the rate the sport is growing (21% increase last year) it seems possible that down the road Pickleball could qualify for the Olympics, though keep your paddles crossed – it won’t be anytime soon.

Meanwhile there is money in the game. Annual prize money on the PPA (Pickleball Professional Association) circuit has gone from $500,000 in 2019 to more than $2.5 million last year. And there is an increasing number of tournaments where amateurs pay an entrance fee to play against their peers. The pros compete for cash prizes and the tour points that determine their national rankings.

How does Pickleball measure up as a Spectator Sport?

Last year I watched the Men’s and Women’s Finals of the Member/Guest Tournament at the Tennis & Games Center, so I can personally attest to the fact that Pickleball is a nail-biting crowd pleaser.

Because the set is short (2 games out of 3) and each game requires only 11 winning shots, watching a 3-game set of Pickleball gives you the kind of excitement you get from a tiebreaker in tennis.

Even from the sidelines you can understand the attraction of this game. The shots are often dramatic and emphasize skill and strategy rather than power (goodbye to male domination). And Pickleball has that welcome component of fun and joy, which makes each player feel like a winner, regardless of the score.

That’s Pickleball! Just another reason to be thankful for Ocean Reef.

Thankful for Past, Present & Future

by Sarah A. Cart

With Ocean Reef Club celebrating 75 years as a Club and 30 of Member ownership, the theme for this season's All Charities Weekend (ACW), February 10-12, 2023, will be "Honoring the Past, Building for the Future."

Roots: All Charities was conceived in 2008 as a fun and effective way to minimize the number of charity events held each season (there were nearly 30 at the time). Since then, the monies raised in conjunction with the annual auction weekends have enabled the Ocean Reef Community Foundation (ORCF) to provide millions of dollars in the form of financial grants with an emphasis on youth, education, community, and health and family services to assist thousands of our neighbors in Key Largo, Homestead and Florida City, as well as to support and strengthen the non-profit entities here on The Reef that are vital to our "unique way of life": the Medical Center, Cultural Center, Academy, Art League, ORCAT and Conservation Association.

The growth has been remarkable. Back in 2009, ORCF awarded 17 grants totaling $365,000; this past spring, 75 grants totaling $1,740,000 were awarded – a nearly five-fold increase. Several of those original off-Reef charities continue to receive ORCF support, and through the past decade and a half have been able to multiply the services they offer, and in many cases, ORCF has been able to double or triple the grants awarded. Meanwhile, on The Reef our own non-profits received $1,320,000 back in 2009. After the 2022 gala, those local non-profits received $5,720,000, more than a four-fold increase.

All in all, over 15 years, over $50 million has been raised and $14 million passed through to our neighboring communities. As the Foundation's fundraising event, ACW honors the past, and ORCF is grateful that The Reef's generosity makes that possible.

Wings: More recently, the Foundation created a Special Projects/Impact Fund to better support larger scale opportunities in our surrounding communities and respond more quickly in the future to crises like Haitian earthquakes and Hurricane Irma. Additionally, the fund has helped finance unique projects including the helipad at Baptist Hospital and the College of the Florida Keys Upper Keys Campus.

Tending to the near future are 2023 ACW co-chairs Kelly Hertzman, Barbara Olcott and Anne Marie Peretz, who are working closely with the co-chairs of ACW's 2023 Silent Auction, Susie Misini Hassett and Cathy Totonis. From Friday night's wine and bourbon tastings and silent auction gathering through the Saturday night gala with its great food, special entertainment and exciting live auction enabled by the personal touch of so many Ocean Reef Members, there will be headline-worthy surprises.

Recently Richard Weinstein, president and COO of the Foundation, shared the adage, "The best time to plant a tree was ten years ago, but if you didn't do so then, the best time is NOW," and looking forward, he notes, "We are thankful that the Members are here with us to continue the planting and building on this foundation for the future."

If you have questions, or an experience or item to offer for the auction, reach out to one of the chairs or to the All Charities office at 305-367-5996 or AllCharities@ OceanReef.com. To learn more, visit oceanreefcommunityfoundation.org.

trending down over the past years. The Club has also ceased large group business during this time, accepting only Member weddings and smaller corporate groups, which mainly eat in banquets and not the restaurants.

To further enhance Equity Member satisfaction, Johnston announced important changes to Social and Legacy Membership. On top of freezing the Waitlist, the Club decided to activate new Social Members from the Waitlist in May instead of January, avoiding an influx of new Members in January. Additionally, all guests of Social and Legacy Members must be accompanied by the sponsoring Member throughout the duration of the guest stay. The maximum number of day guests a Social or Legacy Member may sponsor at any one time has been reduced to six. The two-visit rule still applies, which means sponsored guests may visit twice in a period of five years.

State of the Club

Michael Heaney, Finance Committee Chairman, went on to highlight the successful financial year Ocean Reef has experienced, saying, "The Club is in terrific financial condition with the Ocean Reef Membership being the driving force behind these financial results." Heaney reported the Club benefited most from high usage among restaurants, retail outlets, and most other Ocean Reef services and amenities. Heaney also reported that 2022 should produce record results, with 2021 being the previous record year, and the Club continues to have no debt.

"We recognize this is your money," said Heaney. "It's all of our money collectively as equity holders, and the Board recognizes the fiduciary responsibility to invest this money back into the Club in ways that create greater Member experiences, as well as enhancing the value of our equity. That's exactly what we have done over the past few years with the renovation of the Clubhouse, the Ocean Room, and Buccaneer Island Lagoon, and it's certainly the game plan going forward."

Overall, Heaney reported that operating results and liquidity remain at historic highs.

Capital Projects & Dining Changes

Club President Alex Tonarelli shared Club Management's three key objectives for this past summer - to complete open projects to avoid disruption in the season, to enhance the Equity Member experience, and to find and train the best Associates.

First, Tonarelli shared the status of the Club projects from the year. The first being the Buccaneer Island Lagoon – a project which began last year with the Club's effort to improve the water quality in the Lagoon. This summer, the focus shifted to beautifying the Lagoon, enhancing the arrival experience, and improving the aesthetics of the road that leads to the Islander.

Next, was the Clubhouse, which opened during the holidays last year to add additional dining seats, but without some of the permanent furniture intended for the space. Now, after this summer, the proper furnishings are in place and the final touches complete, "making it really feel like a Member's Clubhouse."

There are plenty of other ways the Club looked to enhance popular Member spaces this summer, including adding a Putting Lab with "Putt View Technology" at the Academy of Golf, adding three additional Pickleball courts to the Tennis & Games Center, updating the Raw Bar bathrooms, and renovating the Member Dry Cleaning space with the addition of a full-time tailor.

Equity Member Experience

For the next portion of Tonarelli's presentation, the objective he called the most important, he spoke of enhancing the Equity Member experience, starting by thanking those Members who filled out Member surveys. "We read every single survey and we act on each one," he said. "When they're positive, we recognize the Associates you mention. When there are opportunities to improve, we review those and take action as best we can. We finished this year with a 92% overall Club score. By any measure, this is a very good score that we are proud of. That being said, there were opportunities to improve on from last year – one of those being the dining reservations process. This is where Club Management and the Board focused most of our time, really revamping the dining program and creating additional venues."

Among the changes that came from this analysis, Equity Members can now make dining reservations 14 days out – the number one request from last year - with Legacy and Social Members three days out. Holiday dining and Vine to Table and Specialty Dinner reservations have also been opened for Equity Members only at this time. And the most noteworthy change of all is the addition of Equity Member Only Nights at Gianni, Islander, CH Prime and the Ocean Room – "one easy way for us to give you that opportunity to have the restaurants for yourself."

Another emphasis of the dining policy changes, was to increase the number of available seats per night, giving all Members a greater opportunity to enjoy the dining offerings. "Three new concepts right off the bat is that food is now being served at CH Lounge, we have Mexican cuisine that has opened up at Palm Court Nights, and we've revamped the Ocean Room menu to have some of the best dishes from last season, but more importantly, to have all of the Islander favorite dishes as well as sushi and raw bar items," said Tonarelli.

Additionally, most of the restaurants have added an extra night, with many of them now open seven days a week, totaling an additional 2,400 dining seats on a weekly basis. Nightly seating is up 400 seats from last year. Another change positively impacting the availability of seats is the updated cancellation policy. An analysis of last season showed 30% cancellation rate with 40% of those within 24 hours of the reservation. After shortening the reservation window and revising the cancellation fee, the Club already sees improvement with a nearly 80% reduction in cancellations year over year.

"I appreciate every Member's support on this," said Tonarelli. "We've worked hard to create this plan. We're going to see where it goes, listen to your feedback, and then make adjustments as we see necessary."

Following the dining discussion, Tonarelli shifted gears to Member Events and the milestone anniversary season that has just begun. The Club has already celebrated traditions like the tennis and pickleball Member-Associate Tournaments, the 50th annual Member-Guest Golf Tournament with a record 106 teams, and Equity Welcome Back with more than 700 Members in attendance, but there is so much more to look forward to, culminating with the April 13-15 anniversary celebration.

Tonarelli also touched on Associate training and the Club's efforts to look for and hire the best full-time and seasonal staff. "One important way of doing this," Tonarelli said, "is through our Associate Season Kick-Off sessions, with the goal of making sure each and every Associate understands all the unique elements of our Club, and ensuring they share in the enthusiasm for a wonderful season ahead. Most importantly, it's a great opportunity for myself and our Leadership Team to help them understand the special relationship between you, our Members, and our Associates. That relationship is the reason so many of our 600+ loyal full-time Associates have been here for, in some case, over 50 years. I'm not sure how many places, clubs or businesses can say they enjoy that kind of loyalty and I thank you because in large part, that's due to you."

In closing, Larkin returned to the stand to introduce and thank the Board of Directors, reiterating how very proud and honored they are to be on the Board for the historic 75/30 anniversary.

Online Dining Reservations

Available 24/7

After last Friday's Town Hall Meeting, the Membership Team stationed themselves in the Carysfort Hall foyer to help Members navigate the Club's online dining reservations platform.

The online reservations platform is a fantastic way for Members to maximize their dining potential, by providing an easy way to make reservations and also to see what's available throughout The Reef. For example, if you request a 6:30 p.m. reservation at the Islander, but that time is not available, the system will tell you what time(s) are. So your 6:30 p.m. reservation may not be available, but a 6 p.m. or 7 p.m. reservation may be. Additionally, it lets you know whether Gianni, Ocean Room or CH Prime have reservations available around your requested time. And it's all right there on screen, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Accessing online dining reservations:

1. Visit oceanreef.com and log in to the Members' side of the website.
2. Go to "Quick Links" and select "Dining".
3. Find the restaurant you want to make a reservation for – Islander, Gianni Ristorante, Ocean Room or CH Prime – and click "Reservations" underneath it.
4. Select the desired date, number of guests, and desired time.
5. You will now see the available reservations at all four restaurants around your desired time.
6. Select one, input your information, and press "Book Reservation".
7. You're done!

If you have any questions or need more help accessing online dining reservations, visit the Membership Office or call at 305-367-5921.

NEWS FROM THE MEDICAL CENTER

Get Ready... Here Come the Holidays

Let's face it, those Thanksgiving recipes tasted so delicious because they are usually high in salt, butter and sugar and it's hard not to overindulge- "Second helping, please?"

Medical Center physician Dr. Carlos Smith offers the following advice: "In between the big events and travel, try to maintain a regular routine as much as possible during the holidays. This should include regular exercise (simply going for a walk has many benefits). Focusing on healthy food choices when you can, will help counter the negative effects from overindulging during holiday events."

People with hypertension

(high blood pressure) should moderate their choices during the Holidays. Avoid the salt and opt for a mimosa instead of a Bloody Mary during a luncheon and resist buying the processed, prepared foods- they have high salt (and usually fat) content. If you do buy prepared foods, check the ingredients and labels for salt, sugar and fat content and, if possible, choose an alternative.

Spending time with family and friends is wonderful- good for the soul. It can likewise be pretty chaotic and create heightened stress for some individuals, thus, taxing the immune system, raising blood pressure and leaving you fatigued.

Examine your Holiday planning and eliminate stressful or unnecessary activities or chores. Remind yourself to take a break with a solitary walk, a nap or skip a social engagement and recharge.

If you have out of town family or friends coming to visit and they arrive ill or become ill, be proactive and wear a mask. The Medical Center has in-house testing for influenza A & B and COVID-19. Increase sanitizing around the house with anti-viral wipes. Lysol and Clorox brands make handy containers with pull-out wipes. Remember to wipe down door, kitchen, bath and refrigerator handles- anywhere that is frequently touched.

Have a merry Holiday season and remember to take care of YOU first.

Remember to get your flu vaccine. Visit us on the web at www.mcor.org.

Your support of the All Charities Weekend strengthens entities, like the Medical Center, that enhance Ocean Reef Club's Unique Way of Life and enables the Ocean Reef Community Foundation to provide for thousands in Key Largo, Homestead and Florida City. Call 305-367- 5996 to learn more.

Greatness & Goodness

by Rev. Dr.
Bob Henley

In the summer of 1879, John Muir sailed to Alaska in the company of three Presbyterian clergy. They had come to visit a young, green seminary graduate, Samuel Hall Young. Upon meeting, Muir and Young formed an immediate connection that turned into a lasting friendship.

Hall joined the group, and by steamboat, they journeyed south through the inside passage toward Glenora, in British Columbia. The ship docked in Glenora one afternoon, awaiting favorable conditions before sailing a dangerous passage known as the Canyon.

Muir, not one to waste an opportunity, saw a distant crown of peaks in a cirque. He quickly invited Hall to join him on the climb. When Hall asked how far, Muir estimated some eight-thousand vertical feet, and perhaps ten miles - each way.

Greatness

Hall describes Muir on the climb, celebrating God's greatness in creation. He writes, "So absorbed was he in this amatory botany that he seemed to forget my existence." He described Muir's "spiritual insight into Nature's lore, which is granted only to those who love and woo her in her great outdoor palaces."

Late that afternoon, Muir realized they must rush to make the summit and see the sunset. The summit involved climbing a sheer face, some nine-hundred fifty feet high. With no climbing protection, no coat and wearing hob-nail boots, they went from handhold to handhold until they came within a few feet of the top, only to face a dangerous leap across a precipitous gravel slide.

Muir made the jump effortlessly. Hall did not. His fall left both shoulders separated, and his feet dangling over the edge at the bottom of the slide.

Goodness

What happened next is extraordinary. Muir made his way to Hall's precarious position. Standing on a narrow ledge, Muir rescued Hall with his teeth! He gripped the man's shirt in his teeth, swinging him out and up until Hall stood next to him on the ledge. Through the long night and bitter cold, Muir, step by precarious step, brought Hall down off the mountain.

Hall writes saying, "My eyes brim with tears even now when I think of his utter self-abandon as he ministered to my infirmities."

A Ministry of Goodness

Few of us will ever experience the in-extremis circumstances confronting Muir and Hall on that mountain in British Columbia. Yet none of us is exempt from the need, at some point in our lives, to have God's goodness extended through the care of another.

Perhaps you remember seeing the name, Team Timothy, in the Ocean Reef Press. To refresh your memory, Team Timothy is an organization coordinated through the Ocean Reef Chapel. It is not the outreach of any one congregation, but rather of the four congregations of the one community of The Chapel and Fellowship Center at Ocean Reef.

Lori Cilley, DO, is the leader and coordinator of Team Timothy. The purpose, Dr. Cilley says, is "To bring the love of God through acts of care." Our mission is to help support the work of the Ocean Reef chaplain in ways that do not require formal training in either religion or counseling.

Team Timothy can provide visitation with a sympathetic ear (including in-hospital), and practical help with small errands, etc., to the entire Ocean Reef community.

Lori and her husband Jon are equity members. Experience has taught them that though we have "A UNIQUE WAY OF LIFE," we are not immune to the very ordinary "slings and arrows" of living.

The demands on a chaplain, she observes, are many and varied. One individual cannot adequately meet the needs of all. Consider that a round trip hospital visit to Baptist Homestead takes a couple of hours, and a trip to Baptist Kendall is a three-hour tour.

That's why there is Team Timothy. If you have a need, you can find information about Team Timothy on the chapel website, www.orcchapel.org. Click the Team Timothy tab, where you can make a request for service or help.

If you are interested in being a part of Team Timothy, and would like to learn more, please contact Lori at Lcilley@sccoast.net or (609) 472-6180. We expect to provide services beginning in early January.

There is no more beautiful place to exult in the greatness of God than in the beauty of the Ocean Reef Club environs. And there is no better way to experience the goodness of God than through the care offered by the participants in Team Timothy.

Summer Camp "Iron Chef"

Winning Dishes at Waterside Fri. – Sun.

by Jody
Steele

The Advanced Chef for a Week Camp took place the last week in July right here at Carysfort Kitchen Cooking School. These chefs, 12-16 years old, had participated in previous cooking classes and were ready for a challenge with guidance from Chef Betania and Chef Cameron.

Melissa Mirocha, Recreation Administrative Supervisor, explained how each day of the week focused on a themed menu such as French, Italian, and Steakhouse cuisine with students preparing entrees, desserts, pasta dough, and sauces. After working on developing basic knife skills in cutting vegetables, fruit, and seafood on the first day, students prepared exquisite meals that they then enjoyed for a special lunch daily.

The final day was saved for a cooking competition where four teams of three prepared their own mystery meal of an entrée' and one side. The excitement of planning amongst these young chefs was extraordinary. Just like on the Food Channel, the teams presented their meals proudly to a team of judges. All students were notably successful, but one team triumphed over all.

team led by Charlie MacGuffie, Brianna Martinez, and Juliette Woodard! This weekend, Friday to Sunday, at Town Hall Waterside, the winning team's recipes will be featured and will include Tri-color Cauliflower Fried Rice, Lamb Chops, and Chicken Kabobs with a Mango Salsa that are simply delicious.

Certainly, in the future, we hope to see these chefs on the Food Channel and celebrate that it all began at Ocean Reef Club Summer Camp.

Bravo to all of our chefs!

What3words

"Dot.calm"
by Jane Silverman

Have you ever had to explain to someone where you were? EXACTLY where you were? For instance, let's say in a car stalled on Card Sound Road, in the Bahamas on a boat with its anchor stuck in shark-infested waters, or while abandoning ship in a fire at sea? Too extreme? How about meeting someone at a large beach or a music festival? If you said "yes" to any (or all) of the above (like me), then you should download the free what3words app www.what3words.com.

Meet me at the Beach Grill. I will be at anchoring.schedule.galloping.

The what3words app turns the entire world into a grid of 57 trillion 3-meter squares (that's 10ft squares for you and me); each square on the grid was assigned three unique groupings of words to create a precise geolocation service.

It is such a simple and ingenious concept: find any location on earth with just three words. Open the app on your phone or computer and tap on any square on the grid to see its designated three-letter word combination. Tap on the arrow in the corner to show exactly where you are or use the search bar to locate any place on earth. Share, navigate to, label, or save the location (click on the circle in the bottom corner to see the map with satellite imagery).

When would you use what3words? It is a great tool to share your location with friends: Buccaneer Island <https://w3w.co/magnificence.refuses.fizzy>, at the Festival on the Green <https://w3w.co/skim.surfer.clicked>, the vintage car show <https://w3w.co/sitcom.greatness.flinching>, or when going for a walk or bike ride. Log the exact spot of the perfect fishing hole, snorkeling site, waterfall on a hike, or even where you parked your golf cart.

This crazy but very cool idea was created by former music industry tour manager, Chris Sheldrick. This British inventor was tired of equipment, tour buses, and band members showing up at the wrong door or location even with the correct street address and found dictating latitude and longitude coordinates cumbersome.

Today millions of people and thousands of companies in 193 countries are turning to this innovative technology for precise geolocating for drone deliveries, taxi and ride-hailing services, and e-commerce; automakers Jaguar, Land Rover, and Mercedes-Benz, among others, are starting to incorporate this technology into their navigation systems.

What3words also takes the "search" out of "search and rescue"; 911 Emergency Communications Centers across the US are accepting what3words for emergencies, reporting wildfires, and tracking lost kayakers and hikers.

What me worry? Not when I have what3words.

Welcoming L'Atelier – ORC's New Tailor

On Friday, November 18, Ocean Reef Dry Cleaning held an open house, complete with wine and hors d'oeuvres, to recognize the newly-renovated building and addition of the Club's new tailor – L'Atelier.

Owned by Lydia Dopico, L'Atelier at Ocean Reef is now one of three successful locations (the other two are located in Miami), offering high-end men's and women's tailoring services, alterations, custom dress making and garment design. Lydia's skills were on full display throughout the Open House, as Members consistently filtered through requesting alterations and more. Formal wear is probably the most popular item Lydia

Jerry Saves Thanksgiving!

by Susan Bohan

Many Members travel elsewhere or enjoy their dinner at a friend's, but for those of us who host and cook a big traditional dinner, the monsoon-like rain early this week almost sunk (literally) our Thanksgiving dinner efforts. But, true to his steady support of Ocean Reef and the forethought of Manager Gemma Matthews, Jerry brought his beautiful, bountiful and colorful fruits and vegetables to the Field at Four Corners along with a few other loyal vendors. And most importantly, according to my granddaughters, he made his special guacamole and salsa just for them!

As fellow cook Carolyn Fovel and I gushed over all the goodies, we were content in knowing between Wynn's and now "Jerry Is Here", Thursday would be a success. And for all you readers who are loosening their belts a little, we all hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving regardless of where or how you spent it!

CLUB SHOPPING

Joan the Shopper

Putter Patter.... My introduction to golf at Ocean Reef came decades ago when my friend Nancy Zakon suggested that I might like to join an informal group of beginning golfers, who called themselves the Good Time Girls (having no clue that the name might have other connotations).... Our group (sometimes as few as 5 or 6, sometimes as many as 20) played 9 holes once a week. I don't think we ever kept score, though prizes were awarded to the GTG who wore the best costume for one of our semiannual themed parties, which always began with champagne on the first hole of the Dolphin. These girls were into dressing up and I have never seen more elaborate costumes.. The Circus theme found GTG's as lion tamers, trapeze artists, clowns, even a fat lady Many GTG's are still at The Reef – to name just a few: Mary Zwirn (a GTG founder), Joanne Wills, Marianne Florio, Julie Gere, Karen Watson, Darla Finley.... The end of Feb. the Good Time Girls are holding a reunion at Ocean Reef. I don't know if golf will be one of the scheduled activities, but I do know that shopping will be on the agenda. With that in mind I have selected a few items at the OCEAN REEF GOLF SHOP that are flamboyant enough to satisfy my fellow GTG's....All of the items mentioned are pictured here....

The unusual Pleated Golf Skort ($125) is from Grayson, whose motto is –“Throw me to the wolves. I will return leading the pack.” Need I say more.... The hot pink/purple Nylon Medium Tote is the right color, weight and price ($49)....I like the cocktail theme of the Headcovers, but for animal lovers there are also lions, lambs, gorillas, etc.... The “Grommet” Vest is unusual and stylish (Belke $175)....The Flowered Sleeveless Shirt, made in Thailand (gfore $125), will improve your mood, if not your golf swing.... As for the Golf Shoes – I have been painting all of my shoes for years. Now gfore has come up with these beautiful blue floral golf shoes ($236). Admittedly I am a touch jealous. I think I will encourage the Good Time Girls to buy those shoes and then I will paint my own shoes with a similar pattern and enjoy the knowledge that mine are “one of a kind.”

The Rarest Shot in Golf

"From the Gold Tees" by Michael Leone, Director of Golf

Thursday, November 17th, George Selling carded a Hole in One on the 4th Hole of the Hammock Course! Hole in Ones are rare, but a Hole in One on the 4th Hole of the Hammock Course is the rarest of them all, an Albatross (-3)! George stepped up on the tee late Tuesday evening and knocked it in from 250 yards! His first reaction was to call his grandfather George Lucas, a longtime Member. He was thrilled to tell his grandfather who still plays golf to this day. Mr. Lucas taught George and 14 grandchildren the game. After finishing the nine holes, George met his grandfather at the Burgee Bar to celebrate. Congratulations!!!

9 Hole LGA Opening Day

What a start to 2022-2023 9

After George Selling carded a Hole in One on Hammock Course Hole 4, he celebrated at the Burgee Bar with his grandfather George Lucas, who taught Selling to play.

Hole LGA season! We were very happy to see some familiar faces, and welcome our new comers to the Opening Day Scramble. We would like to highlight that last Thursday was the highest participation we have EVER had for a 9 Hole LGA Opening Day!

Our participation was so great that we split the field into Front and Back Nine divisions. Both Nines saw a close race for 1st place. On the Front-Nine Dolphin the team of Virginia Smith, Michele Welch, Linda Buermann & Karen DiMaura shot a Net 26 to win the division. On the Back-Nine we saw our lowest score of the day, a Net 25 recorded by Teresa Ferrarone, Charlotte Curry, Mary Logan & Adelaide Jared!

LGA Weekly Event

With Thanksgiving this past week, items to be thankful for should be on the top of our list! One item on the list is how lucky and thankful we are for is Director of Agronomy Eric Bennett and his team. After several inches of rain, the Dolphin Course was in pristine condition to welcome our LGA participants last Tuesday morning! The rain had passed and the sun finally came out for our Bingo, Bango, Bongo tournament. Players had to strategically play their way around the Dolphin Course and use all aspects of their game while trying to accumulate points in this fun format. Points were earned by being the first player on, closest to the hole and first in the hole. See below for full results.

SWING TIP

Green Side Bunker Play

To Hold or To Throw.... That is the Question

by Derek
Swoboda,
Director of Instruction

When we are in a green side bunker, we are often faced with a high lip which we need to carry. The most important thing to remember from this position is you need to get the ball out and onto the green! How do we attack the green side bunker shot and what should our setup position look like? Some of the best in the world do it all differently regarding their set up but there is one single similarity among them all!

Do Not Hold the Angle

The title of "to hold or to throw" is potentially the most important part of hitting this wonderful bunker shot. We have been told not to cast the club our entire lives, we want the club to dig into the sand, etc.... We are going to completely erase those narratives today and encourage you to cast the golf club in the sand. The most important part of a bunker shot like this is that we get the club head moving fast enough under the ball and through the sand so the leading edge doesn't dig too deep. The loft of the club will take care of the height of the ball coming out of the sand.

Set-Up Position

1. Feet should be slightly more wide than shoulder width
2. Weight should be on your forward foot
3. Hands should feel fairly low to the ground, not upright
4. Feet should be square to the target, not open

Once you are set in this position, you are free to swing with the hands as active as possible. The feeling I like to think of on the back swing is how can I make the club feel as light as possible, as early as possible? Another way to say that is to hinge your wrists as early as you can on the back swing.

On the way through the ball, I want to feel as though my club head will pass or outrun my hands. When this is performed properly you will see a beautiful soft sand shot and the bounce of the club will engage with the sand.

The last thing I will leave you with is to be confident and take a bigger, faster swing than you feel is necessary. The brain wants us to swing slowly and softly when we see the short distance we need to go. The sand will act like a pillow and slows the golf club down through it. Swing freely to a full finish and watch the ball fly out of the bunker with ease!

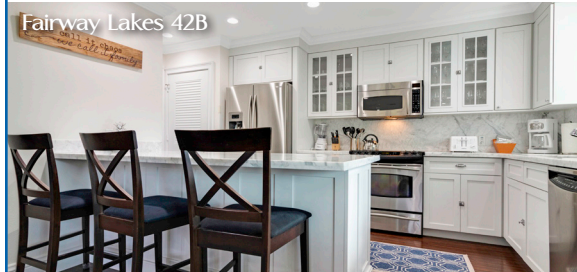

As always, enjoy your week on The Reef and please come see us at the Academy of Golf for more instruction on how to hit proper bunker shots! If you would like to set up a lesson with one of our expert Teaching Professionals, call 305-367-5912 or visit ForeTees.

Tournament Season is Upon Us

"Center Court" by Justin Romero, Director of Racquet Sports

This week boasted lots of activity at the Tennis & Games Center featuring Tennis Mixed Doubles Club Championships, Fall Singles Croquet Tournament, and Pickleball Leagues.

Tennis Mixed Doubles Club Championships

13 teams competed for the first Club Championships of the year! The teams were separated into two flights. We had 6 teams compete in the A flight and 7 teams in the B flight. Round robin play was on Saturday where every team played everyone from their respective flight. Top two teams in each flight would move on the Finals. The matches were close and the energy was high. This year, there was a little added pressure on the line. Tennis Committee Member George Pino donated 4 tickets to the Miami Open Tennis Tournament's 72 Club. These are the best seats in the house and winners of both flights get to experience the Miami Open the best way possible. Thank you George!

Fall Singles Croquet Champion Laura Hendrick (right) and second place finisher Kendall Hendrick.

Coming out of the A Flight round robin with the most games won was Michelle Flanigan and Shannon Bass. Coming in second place in the flight was Sandra Fish and Mark Bamford, setting the final matchup in the A Flight. In the B Flight, there was one clear team that dominated the flight and that was the team of Tucker Deane Krantz and Amanda Engel. Coming in second was Britta Garcia and Rick Capps. Now, with the weather on Sunday looking a bit iffy, we asked all finalists if they would like to keep playing that day. The B Flight was ready to rock 'n roll and when they started, Krantz/Engel took an early lead and never looked back defeating Garcia/Capps 6-3, 6-2.

The A Flight took a bit of a risk and wanted to play on Sunday.

Sunday rolled around and delayed the 9am match start time, but we saw a break in the weather around 11:30am. Our Court Maintenance Team consisting of Supervisor Jesus Quinones and Jesus Gonzalez did what they do best and magically dried a court in no time to get it ready for play. The action started and the A Flight Club Championships were underway. Flanigan/Bass jumped out to an early 4-1 lead, but Fish/Bamford didn't back down and tied the set at 4-4. Almost every game went to deuce and Flanigan/Bass captured the first set 7-5. The second set was all hustle as players were scrambling for balls just to get one more ball back. The speed and consistency of Fish/Bamford prevailed as they took the second set 6-4. This is as close as it gets - a third set tie-break! First to 10 win by two. 3-0, 3-3, 5-3, 9-7, 9-8, 10-8 for Michelle Flanigan and Shannon Bass. What a final! Thank you to all participants, the tennis and the atmosphere this year was amazing.

Baha Mar Cup

Want to participate in a Tennis Bahamas getaway? Want to have lunch, play with, and play against Pro players? Join your fellow Ocean Reef Members as you are invited to Baha Mar, a beautiful resort in Nassau, Bahamas. This event will take place December 9th-11th and features star players such as Andy Roddick, James Blake, Lindsay Davenport, Jessica Pegula, Victoria Azarenka, Milos Raonic, Mark Knowles, and Cliff Drysdale. This is sure to be one amazing weekend. If you are interested, have questions or to see the schedule and package offers, email me at jromero@oceanreef.com.

Fall Singles Croquet Tournament

Six participants competed in the first croquet tournament of the year. The weather was beautiful and ORC Croquet Lawn was lush and in great condition. The tournament site was set with freshly painted lines, hydrating beverages, towels, and snacks. When play began, Croquet Committee Member Carol Blackburn got off to a hot start as she won every match in round robin play, but the playoffs is where the magic happens. Dynamic duo Laura and Kendall Hendrick powered through as they competed in the finals against each other. This one was a barn burner and was as close as it gets. Laura gets bragging rights in that household as she defeated her husband Kendall 7 wickets to 6. Thanks to all who played!

The next croquet event will be a New Players Invitation to Croquet Open Play. If you are thinking about learning this great game, come out as Committee Members welcome you to join Open Play on December 4th at 2:30pm. Lastly, we have a weekly Learn and Play Beginner Clinic every Monday from 2:30-3:30pm. For more advance players, Guest Croquet Pro Sherif Abdelwahab comes to ORC every Wednesday for private lessons and clinics. Sign up now by calling the Pro Shop at 305-367-6583 to get on his schedule!

TENNIS TIP

Don't Forget to Lob!

by Hannah
Fleckenstein,
Head Tennis
Professional

Have you ever gone out to play a set of doubles with a game plan in mind that did not work as you hoped? Were your opponents dominating the net, but you weren't sure what to do? Lob!

Although lobbing can be difficult in windy weather, no one ever likes playing a lobber! Why you ask? Well, to play a lob back, it takes more footwork, more patience, and less pace. In the realm of doubles, lobbing can be used to keep your opponents honest and off the net because it forces them out of position and onto the defense.

The best way to put this strategy into practice is to hit the lob over the net player's backhand side. By hitting the ball over their backhand side, it keeps the ball away from everyone's favorite finishing shot, the overhead. Once the lob has been successfully hit over the net player's head, look to move forward to the net and finish the point.

If you are interested in practicing your lob with me, call the Tennis & Games Pro Shop at 305-367-6583 to schedule time with me!

Card Sound Sailing Club Race Season Takes Off

By Bill Reynolds, Card Sound Sailing Club Commodore

The first race series of the season took place on Card Sound Saturday, November 19. This is when we shake off the dust and rust on the boat and/or the skipper and crew. Conditions were challenging with wind out of the NE blowing 12-17 mph and 1 ½ - 2-foot waves making for a windy and wet three races.

First place honors for the day went to the Team of Lampman/Post; Second place team Sayia/McKenzie, followed by Team Streit/Wilson.

At the end of the day, everyone proved to be most improved and every boat finished in the top four in at least one race.

After the boats returned to Baker Harbor to bail out, dry out and be covered, skippers, crew and volunteers gathered around the refreshment cart to re-live the races and renew the spirit of comradery and friendly competition as we do at the end of every race day.

Sailors are by nature a frugal bunch. When you have leftovers after Thanksgiving, what does one do? Create a mini regatta of course. Our next race day, Saturday, November 26, weather permitting, is the Wild Turkey Cup with special awards, refreshments and Turkey sliders by Suzanne Sayia. Our schedule identifies this as "no series racing." That's not to say it's not "serious racing." We do have fun!

If you are interested in sailing or volunteering to participate on a committee, serving as or on an attendant boat, come to Baker Harbor on a Saturday around noon or give me a call - Bill Reynolds, Commodore. My secret number is 614-296-7592. If you are interested in learning more about CSSC membership, call Gary Sayia at his secret number, 201-919-7432.

The ORC Fitness Team organized an outdoor workout and invited Members to join in. The workout was led by ORC Fitness Specialist and strength and conditioning expert Matt Clynne, who set up a circuit consisting of battle ropes, slam balls, straps, and everyone's favorite, the pickup truck pull and push. Both Members and staff enjoyed working out side by side, making the event both challenging and fun. Stay tuned for more opportunities like this throughout the season. The ORC Fitness Team wants to ensure that every Member stays motivated and consistent with their workouts and habit improvements. You do not have to pull a truck to be fit, but the more in shape you get, the more you want to do it!

Reminder from the ACBL:

Be Scent-sitive!

Some people have an extreme sensitivity to fragrances (colognes or perfumes). Many ACBL clubs, units and districts have adopted policies that prohibit players from wearing fragrances. The ACBL has not issued an official policy on the matter, preferring instead to appeal to the goodwill of its members to refrain from using fragrances.

Because duplicate bridge requires players to be in close proximity to each other, individuals who suffer from fragrance-related reactions cannot avoid those who are wearing them. Among the commonly reported symptoms are intense headaches (indeed, fragrances can frequently be a trigger for migraine sufferers) or breathing-related problems. For these individuals, the issue is much more serious than simply disliking a particular smell — it's a real health problem. Please, if you're going to play in a club, don't wear cologne, perfume or scented lotions.

Ocean Reef Playing Cards

Do not forget to get your Ocean Reef Playing Cards. They are available in both regular deck as well as special Canasta Cards. These cards are unique to Ocean Reef Club and are available at the Gift Shop. With the holidays coming up, keep these in mind as a great gift idea!

Bridge Tip of the Week

Cuebids: (Slang Qbid)

By Gregg Van Dyke, Bridge Director

A cuebid is the bid of a suit that is very unlikely to be trump, either because it has been bid by the opponents or because your side has already agreed on trump. There are three types of cuebids:

Cuebids That Promise:

These usually show first (or sometimes second) round control of the suit bid (i.e. the ace or void for first round control and the king or singleton for second round control).

(1S P 3S P 4C P 5C) shows second round control of clubs but denies first round control in either hearts or diamonds.

Cuebids That Ask:

Usually looking for a stopper for no trump (1D 2S 3S) or for help in a suit in game.

Try (1S P 2S P 3C,) looking for club help.

General Force:

Usually showing a limit raise or better (1S 2D 3D) or (1D 1S 1NT 2D), which shows limit raise or better in spades.

For more tips like these, schedule a lesson with Bridge Director Gregg Van Dyke by calling the Card & Games Room at 305-367-6609, or attend one of his weekly lessons. For the full Card & Games Schedule, visit oceanreef.com/CardandGamesSchedule.
