Manna From Heaven

By Terry Baxter

One of the great pleasures of Ocean Reef is gathering with friends to enjoy conversation, cocktails and dinner. Two of my favorite dinner companions are Randy and Fiona Woods. They have had a lifetime of incredible adventures, and are continuously plotting more. And, they are sophisticated foodies. So when they told me how much they were enjoying the Ocean Room, I realized I might be missing a good bet. "We have been three times in two weeks," Fiona said. "The updates to the decor have made the ambience more intimate. I think it was intended to be a 'mini Islander,' but we feel it has a heartbeat of its own.

This year's menu is much bigger and more varied. The staff is excellent, the service is prompt, and the room is calm and subdued." Randy added, "There is a new Manager with a big personality and a warm welcome. Another big asset is the Reef Lounge right outside the door. The bar is often kinetic with energy and a place where you can be perfectly happy waiting for your dining

Gotta Question?

From an early age, we were taught about the safety of walking facing traffic, yet I see many people walk with their backs to the traffic. What is recommended at Ocean Reef?

The following was pulled from a January 15, 2016 Ocean Reef Press article by Jim Leenhouts on walking safety, "...the overriding rule for walkers using Ocean Reef streets is defensive walking...Walk against the traffic in your walking lane. Look at what is coming at you... Assure yourself the driver sees you. Because you are walking against vehicle traffic, be aware that drivers entering a street from a driveway or side street in front of you typically look left (away from you) for their final opening before moving – often starting quickly and turning right toward you... Do not cross in front of the vehicle..."

That being said, Ocean Reef does have several areas designated as paved walking paths (see the map below), which can be walked on in either direction, and even some mixed-use paths where walkers travel alongside cart paths.

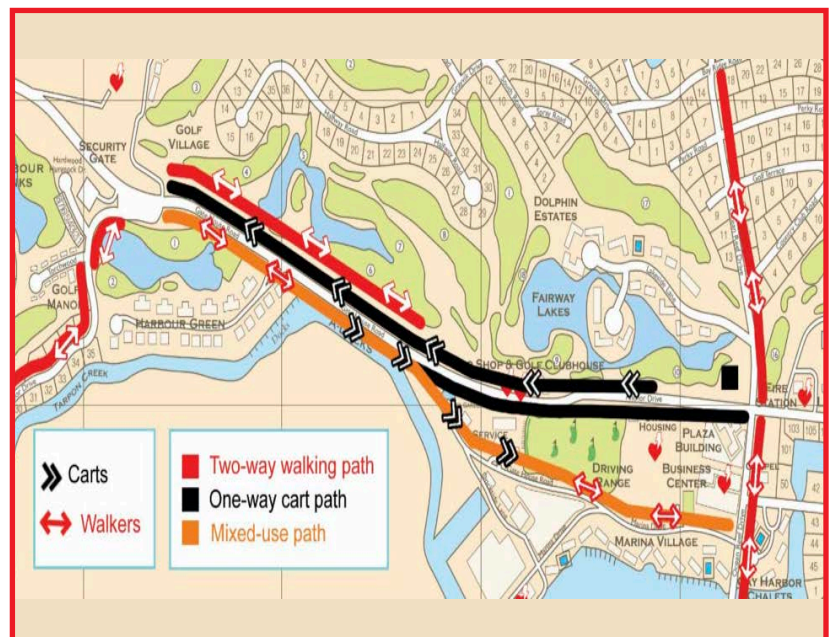

When traveling on mixed-use paths, be sure to follow the painted cart of pedestrian symbols indicating what lane to walk in. In these cases, pedestrians use the outside lane, closest to the road.

Overall, the most important things you can do are become an aware walker, walk against traffic when on the road, and follow painted symbols on cart and walking paths. If you have more questions on safety, contact Public Safety at 305-367-2222.

EDITOR'S NOTE: If you would like to submit a question, email the Ocean Reef Press at orp@oceanreef.com.

partners if they are delayed. The vibe occasionally extends to the dining room, although it is still quieter than other venues."

I decided I needed to take Fair Patricia for a test drive. As you may know, I am not really much of a fish person. I gravitate to cheese, meat, poultry, potatoes, and pasta. Oh sure, some fish dishes are irresistible: Ocean Reef Yellowtail Classic; Dover Sole Meuniere (I am a sucker for butter); the Turbot Chef Jonathan has added to the CH Prime menu this year (the sauce is so good you will chase any residue with a spoon), or anything Chef Eric creates at the Sushi Bar. But I am determined to broaden my horizons.

As we were seated, I remembered the wonderful (huge) Berkshire Pork Chop from last year. I found it was carried over to the new menu, which is a mix of favorites from the Raw Bar, the Islander, and Ocean Room specialties.

The Ocean Room A Team -- Chef de Cuisine Ryan Schmidt, Manager Nico DiPerna, Sous Chef Michael Meadows, Assistant Manager Alain Piloto Rios, star server Ana Suerte.

There are the same fresh fish as the Islander, and a full service Sushi Bar in the front of the room. Impressive. Mister "Big Personality" turned out to be Nico DiPerna, the new Ocean Room Manager. His girlfriend persuaded him to move south from Palm Beach where he managed the Morton's Steak House (she teaches Marine Science at the Ocean Studies Charter School in Key Largo. Never under estimate girlfriends. We are lucky for her pluck). In three minutes, it felt like we had known Nico for years. That's talent. By the way, his first job at eight years old was busing tables in his Uncle's diner.

Our favorite server from last year, Ana Suerte, has returned. She helped it feel like a reunion. As did Chef de Cuisine Ryan Schmidt and Sous Chef Michael Meadows who were generous with their time and enthusiasm about the menu. They and the staff are focusing on three pillars – Elevated Cuisine, Genuine Hospitality, Accessible Elegance. We felt they are delivering.

The Ocean Room offers six "Signature Preparations" for each of the six fresh fish. They say they are "composed dishes" rather than simply different sauces. I took the plunge. Black Grouper with the "Au Poivre" preparation (crispy marble potato, parsnip puree, Cognac [1], Fig jus). Quite delightful. Patricia had the Ora King Salmon, fresh from New Zealand (Chef Eric's find) -- known among chefs as the "Wagyu of Salmon" for its marbling and buttery texture. She paired it with the "Oscar" preparation (King Crab meat, Green and White Asparagus, Tomato Confit, Hollandaise). "Terrific," she pronounced, "Moist and flavorful with a crispy skin. Just right."

We sighed. We smiled. We lingered, contented, but thinking of Winston waiting back home. He would be straining to hear any faint sign of our return. A happy Date Night ended with an overjoyed dog running in circles.

Thanks for the tip Fiona & Randy. The Ocean Room is open daily for breakfast, and nightly Tuesday through Saturday.

Are you Ready for a Classic, Vintage or Antique Car?

"Dot.calm"
by Jane Silverman

Need One. Want One. You know you do. Maybe THIS year will be the year you drive your dream and go from spectator to owner of a Classic (a vehicle over 20 years old), Antique (over 45 years old), or Vintage car (dated from 1919 to 1930).

2022 marks the 26th Annual Vintage Weekend with over 75 cars divided into 10 classes. Vintage Weekend Car Co-Master of Ceremonies Bill Parfet believes anyone can own a collector car. He took time out from duck hunting -- errrr I mean cramming for his Vintage Weekend duties -- to offer advice for anybody with Vintage Car fever.

"Owning a Vintage Car is not as expensive as you might think," says Parfet. "Most of the cars increase in value with time. Plus, there's a whole world of fun you can have meeting other members and attending events around the country."

Parfet should know -- he has been a car enthusiast for 60 years, "My grandfather bought his first of many vintage cars when I was 15 and he used to let me drive them. Wow. That was it... I caught the bug." Fourteen years later he bought his first classic car: a 1951 Cadillac convertible which he stills owns.

Nowadays Parfet's primary hobby also happens to be President of the Gilmore Car Museum in Michigan - North America's largest auto museum with over 400 vehicles and a mission to tell the history of America through the automobile <https://gilmorecarmuseum.org>.

Are you ready? Cruise to these websites and phone apps to green-light your next adventure:

The www.ClassicCars.com website is a great place to start; it is the largest website for classic and soon-to-be-classic vehicles for sale.

The Mecum Auction Company www.Mecum.com is the world leader of collector cars, motorcycles, and Road Art, hosting auctions throughout the United States; Mecum is also host to one of the world's largest collector car auction held annually in Kissimmee, Florida (January 4-15, 2023).

Hemmings Classic Cars for Sale, News & Vintage Photos magazine and website www.hemmings.com is "the Bible of the collector car hobby since 1954." It features more than 20,000 classic cars and hard-to-find parts and refines searches by distance and seller type.

www.bringatrailer.com's daily email with live auctions features some of the best bargains, the best dream cars, and the best rarities out there. Be sure and sign up for the free daily email which lists about 40 different cars each day.

The Hammer Price app www.hammerpricelive.com brings you right into the real-time collector car auction action: track and compare car prices, follow your favorites, and preview auction lots.

"My Co-Master of Ceremonies, Bill Johnston, and I love to have a fresh deck of cars each year," shares Parfet.

"Just remember that if you buy a car through an online auction, people were much smaller in the 'olden days'. Be sure you can fit behind the steering wheel!"

To find out how to enter your new car for next year's 2023 Vintage Weekend, email memberevents@oceanreef.com or call the Vintage Weekend Hotline 305-501-5529.

MAKING HISTORY

A Vintage Tradition is Born

The following was excerpted from the Ocean Reef Club history book, On the Reef, written by Shirley Shipley and the late Dick Farmer.

The weeks between Thanksgiving and Christmas were traditionally slow at Ocean Reef and the board began searching ways to attract business for this period. Coincidentally, one summer weekend after the 1993 Member buyout, Vicki and Alan Goldstein were walking the docks at the Great Harbor Marina in Southwest Harbor, Maine, when they realized a classic yacht show was in progress. While admiring beautiful old boats, they were struck by the fact that after lavishing thousands of dollars to restore these yachts, the owners were so eager to show them off to others that they would pay to put them in a show.

With this kernel of an idea, the question remained whether or not this could work at Ocean Reef Club. There were no shortage of classic yachts in Maine but in Florida, beautifully restored true classic boats might be hard to find. Would Ocean Reef be able to attract enough boats to put on a credible show? Would boat owners actually pay for their

"room and board" so Ocean Reef could afford the show? And when should Ocean Reef have such a show? It seemed that a classic boat show would fit nicely in the slump between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

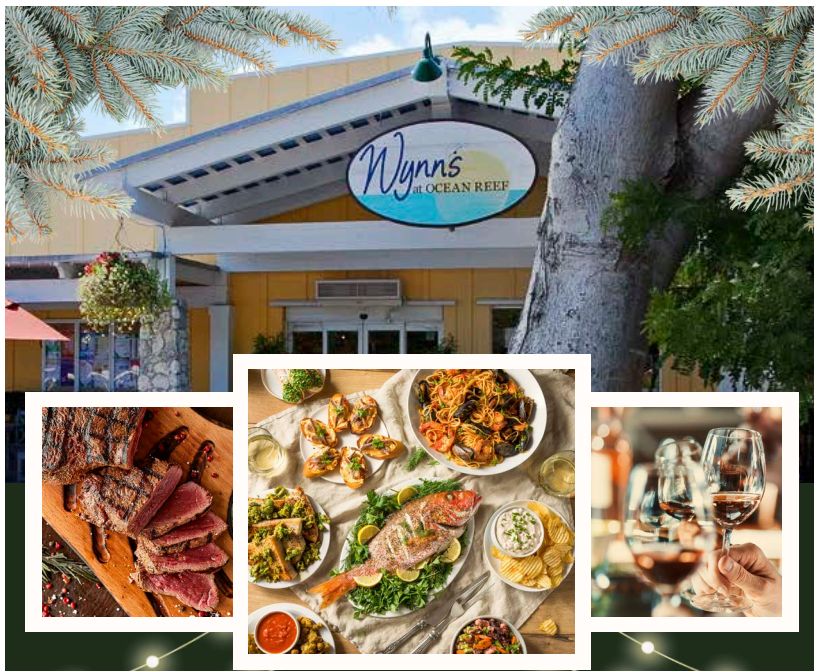

Retuning to Ocean Reef, Vicki Goldstein began her research and learned there were indeed an abundance of classic boats either in Florida or passing through whose owners were eager to show them off. Using her connections in the yachting industry and anywhere else she could think of, Vicki launched the first Vintage Weekend in 1994.

The second year, Ocean Reef member and car collector Bill Raithel recruited friends and fellow car enthusiasts to bring their vintage automobiles. One of them, Bill Parfet, in turn enticed Ron Elenbaas and Bill Johnston to bring their cars. The three men became a driving force in the success of Vintage Weekend.

On the Aviation side, Denny Moore, who was the Ocean Reef airport manager at the time, recruited aviators from nearby air shows to participate. Eventually, member Lenny Sikora, who had participated for many years, took the reins on the aviation part of the show in 2008.

Of course, the Vintage Weekend would not be possible without the goodwill of the Ocean Reef community, which annual endure noise, gas and diesel fumes, and hubbub. Many members give up marina slips, marina parking, and landing slots at the airport for the weekend. None of it would have happened without the help of Ocean Reef Club associates and management.

So here we are for the 26th year, welcoming vintage yachts, automobiles and aircraft in a way only Ocean Reef Club can do. Thank you to the innovators, supporters, exhibitors and attendees who continue to celebrate this incredible tradition.

Emergency Call Boxes Installed Throughout the Club

By Holly Houser, Ocean Reef Press

Over the summer, the Club made efforts to make Buccaneer Island an even safer place for Members and their families to enjoy. Previously, a handheld phone located by the Pool Desk was used in the case of an emergency. That phone was removed and replaced with five brand new emergency call boxes designated throughout the pool and beach areas.

In an effort to create greater widespread communication across all of The Reef in the case of an emergency, these same boxes have now been installed in the Marina Fitness Center and at the Croquet Courts as well. These boxes are an increasingly more reliable and accessible resource when faced with an emergency. They run on multiple cell service bands, are monitored 24/7 with a live emergency services dispatcher, and have a backup battery built in.

Whenever help is needed, the requester will push the button in the middle of the box, located under "PUSH TO CALL", and emergency services will be contacted immediately. Once the button is pushed and the emergency phone is activated, detailed location information will be relayed to Public Safety so EMS knows the exact location to respond to the emergency.

You can find emergency call boxes installed in the following locations:

1. Pool Desk
2. Snapper Pool by ice machine
3. The Point

4. Beach Activities Hut
5. Marlin Beach by ice machine
6. Marina Fitness Center near gym entry
7. Croquet Courts in the middle of the shelter

More to come in 2023!

Maggie & Steve Clark and Pam & Chuck Cook took an "Unforgettable Escape to Italy for Four" earlier this year as part of a 2022 All Charities live auction package they won in February. Pictured here are some of their trip highlights: truffle hunting with dogs outside Florence followed by a truffle dinner with a local chef, a trip to the Ferrari factory in Maranello where they had the opportunity to step behind the wheel and drive through the Italian countryside, and the four of them taking in the sights overlooking Verona. This incredible trip was donated by All Charities Preferred Partner Haute Explore.

Membership Rules & Waitlist Update

As the Club continues to prioritize the Member experience and put Members first, changes have been made with regard to how guests of Social and Legacy Members will be able to visit Ocean Reef Club.

Announced at November's Town Hall meeting, beginning December 1, 2022, all guests must be accompanied by the sponsoring Social or Legacy member. This applies to both day guests or those guests enjoying overnight accommodations.

Whether arriving by land, sea or air, a maximum of six guests, including lineal family, can accompany a Social or Legacy member for the day. When sponsoring family and friends to enjoy overnight accommodations, the sponsoring member must be staying overnight for the same time period. Guests are still afforded the opportunity to stay twice in a five-year period for up to 14 days per visit.

As a reminder, sponsoring Members are responsible for the decorum and behavior of their guests, including adherence to all Club rules.

Social Member Waitlist Update

It was also announced that the waitlist for Social membership is frozen (indefinitely) and the 2023 activation of waitlisted members will be in May rather than January as done in previous years.

The hope is that these changes will allow more Members to enjoy the Club experience and bring value to membership at Ocean Reef Club.

Christmas Happenings!

by Rev. Dr.
Bob Henley

Early December in the mountains of Idaho bears no resemblance to early December in the Florida Keys. In the mountains, there is snow on the ground by now, and a wood fire burning in the fireplace to take the edge off the cold. After purchasing a permit from the Forest Service, we'd load up the dogs, a thermos of warm beverage, and head out into the back country to cut down our Christmas Tree.

Bing Crosby's dream of a 'white Christmas' in a mountain resort town means breaking out the snowblower and shovels!

Christmas is and can be, that most wonderful time of the year, no matter where you live. It is an especially wonderful time at Ocean Reef – no snow blowers or shovels needed!

Christmas Happenings

As you're making your plans for the holidays here at Ocean Reef Club, I want to invite you to be part of several 'Christmas happenings' taking place in the Ocean Reef Chapel and Fellowship Center.

Christmas Holiday Party

The ladies of Chapel Women Connect are throwing a Christmas Holiday Party and ladies, you're invited.

It's going to take place in the Chapel Fellowship Center, on Thursday, December 8th, from 3-5 p.m. Here's what the program will be.

The table decorations will reflect the creativity of ten different ladies, giving you lots of ideas for your own holiday table. And if you've ever wanted to learn the skills of wrapping beautiful gifts and making bows, Linda Noble will be showing you how!

Topping it off will be food provided by the chefs from the Residence Club, and a seasonal reflection by Jane Henley.

Please RSVP at 305-367-2049, or contact@orcchapel.org.

Three Christmas Eve Gatherings

Remember the old saying about 'dark clouds and silver linings'? One of the 'silver linings' to come out of the 'dark cloud' of COVID was a new Christmas Eve Gathering. We wanted to gather on Christmas Eve, but it needed to be outside. So, with the help of Ocean Reef Club President Alex Tonarelli, the parking area outside Reef Treats became the perfect venue.

Once again this year, the first Christmas Eve Gathering will be celebrating Christmas in the Fishing Village at 9 p.m. on Christmas Eve. Come as you are with the whole family as we will sing Christmas songs and Carols and hear the Christmas story read like you've never heard it before. Our Chaplain, Bob Henley, will be telling a story about giving that speaks to the 'reason for the season.'

The second Christmas Eve Gathering will be in the Ocean Reef Chapel and Fellowship Center at 11 p.m. This will be a traditional Christmas Eve Candlelight Service of Carols and Readings. Celebrating the greatest event in all of history in the beauty of our new chapel will be an experience to remember.

Christmas Day

The Protestant Congregation will offer one worship service on Christmas Day in the chapel at 10 a.m. It will be a family-focused service. So, after you've opened your gifts and enjoyed your breakfast, come as you are and join us. There will be lots of singing, a special time with children, and a Christmas reflection by our Chaplain.

We Mourn the Loss

Patricia Ellen Breckir Miller

Patricia Ellen Breckir Miller, known to many as "Patti" or "Patsy," passed away peacefully on the morning of November 20, 2022, surrounded by family at Baptist Hospital in Miami. Patricia was born June 3, 1935 in Brooklyn, NY to Dorothy K. and Nathaniel J. Breckir. She lived a life brimming with passion; she was a teacher, a writer, an actress, a dancer and an artist. But most importantly, she was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother.

Patricia fell in love with Irwin "Bud" Miller on their first date, when Bud's brand new Corvette broke down. He called her the next morning asking if she remembered where he left the car. They were married for a full 50 years after that first date.

Pat and Bud had three children in respective order: Jane, Jim, and Luke Miller. She not only lives on through her children, but also her 5 grandchildren: Olivia, Lily, Owen, Zaneta, and Clementine.

Her family is mourning their loss and continuing to celebrate life as Pat would have wanted. No memorial service is scheduled yet, but updates will be posted when plans are known. In remembrance of Patricia's life, the family asks that any charitable donations be made to Planned Parenthood <https://www.plannedparenthood.org/>.

Member since 1998.

NEWS FROM THE MEDICAL CENTER

"On Your Mark, Get Set...Get Fit!"

Want to wrap up 2022 by looking and feeling your best? The Medical Center's FitMed weight management program and CoolSculpting sessions are a great start to accomplishing that goal. Dr. Carlos Smith and assistant Amy Walton work with patients to implement FitMed's methodology for lasting results in weight loss and weight management.

FitMed uses a whole-body approach by incorporating lifestyle changes, diet and the most current medical resources and technology available to create an individualized plan that works for enduring results. Amy uses her Bachelor's degree in Health Science and Biology along with her certified fitness and nutrition training to help patients reach their personal goal of looking and feeling their best. She is also a certified CoolSculpting technician.

Below are some frequently asked questions about CoolSculpting.

Q: What is CoolSculpt?

A: A fat-freezing procedure that is FDA cleared for non-surgical fat reduction treatment that uses a controlled cooling technology to eliminate stubborn fat.

Q: Can it reduce fat anywhere on my body?

A: In the U.S. the CoolSculpt procedure is cleared for the treatment of fat bulges in the areas of the thigh, abdomen, flank, back fat, just under the buttock area and under the chin.

Q: What happens to the fat?

A: The treated cells crystalize and die. They are naturally processed and eliminated from the body. Once treated those fat cells are permanently gone.

Q: What are post-treatment side effects?

A: Typical side effects can include temporary redness, swelling, bruising, numbness and tenderness. These effects are temporary and generally resolve within days or weeks.

Get ready for the New Year by looking and feeling your best. Contact the Medical Center for more information about the FitMed Weight Management Program and CoolSculpting at 305-367-2600.

Get Back to Nature

by Jody Steele

After a few hours in the pool with three grandkids (ages 3-13), it was time to get out of the gorgeous Florida sunshine. So we headed to the Nature Center where all of us enjoyed a special afternoon holding snakes and lizards, watching the tortoises crawl around, and then did some climbing on the amazing outdoor playground equipment.

Jeanette Rivera, Ocean Reef Club Naturalist, shared some changes that have been made at the Nature Center in the last few months. First of all, Olaf the famous cat has returned and he loves to have his picture taken with guests. New creatures added are a Ball Python, two Bearded Dragons, a few more Geckos, a San Boa, another Guinea Pig, and two Uromastix from the lizard family. The Nature Center also expands their hours during the season to be open from 2 to 5 p.m. Thursdays through Sundays. Staff is ready and able to guide you and the younger folk through the myriad of creatures. You will also definitely have the opportunity to take some cool critter pictures to share.

It was great to hear that the Wild Life Shows are returning in December with more details announced soon. Scheduled in the afternoon, they are another entertaining way for families to relax and learn something about our South Florida animals.

Eco Kayak Tours continue to be offered at 10 a.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. Members need to reserve a spot and arrive at Buccaneer Island at 9:45 a.m. for the 90 minute adventure. You will definitely be in the midst of nature.

Alligator Farm Tours are another exciting excursion offered by our Nature Center. This one is held every Friday from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and includes an air boat ride, an alligator feeding demonstration, and is followed by a stop for a delicious Robert is Here milk shake. Again, reservations are a must by calling Concierge at 305-367-6516.

For some personalized tours, the Nature Center offers trips to Everglades National Park, the Miami Zoo, and the Everglades Outpost. This is a fun way for families to venture off The Reef with our own naturalist, Jeanette Rivera, and have a memorable morning together. Arrangements can be made with the Concierge.

So we can all get out and appreciate our South Florida environment and create some great memories exploring together with help from our Nature Center.

Farmer's Market Favorites

by Susan Bohan

Between recovering from all the cooking and festivities over Thanksgiving weekend and spending hours on websites for Cyber Monday, it was a relief to walk around the Farmer's Market on Monday knowing dinner was only a vendor away.

Pasta Amore

So many choices, but this week I picked an Italian theme for its contrast to last week. Heading toward Pasta Amore it was apparent there were too many choices so I asked a knowledgeable Member for her favorite. According to Patti O'Connor, it was hands down Fiocchetti stuffed with pears, gorgonzola and parmesan topped with butter and sage sauce. Owner Gabriel commented his most popular selections this week were gnocchi and the different ravioli. But they constantly vary so a return trip is mandatory! And if you stop by at lunchtime, his warm meatball subs are in great demand. Beginning next week, he will also offer his famous tiramisu for dessert so save room.

Kool Treats

Then to keep in the Italian mood, I ventured to the newest vendor at the Farmer's Market, Kool Treats. Nicknamed in their Miami neighborhood as "Mama Dukes", Twann Wilkerson and Keandra Smith have 9 flavors of Italian ice and can also customize Acai bowls where in 6 steps you can create the perfect light lunch. Having tasted all, I can attest to their delicious flavors with a personal tie between lemon and watermelon. Great treats on a hot day or take some home.

These are only two of the wonderful vendors you can find on Monday and Thursday at the Field at Four Corners!

Our Very Own "Cookie Monster"

By Jody Steele

The Academy at Ocean Reef is led by an especially creative Head of School who three years ago began a wonderful tradition. Jerome Murphy, has been an educator for over 25 years, first as a full-time teacher and then as a school administrator. He shared that when he moved out of the classroom and into the school office, he looked for ways to maintain his connections with students. As he always has enjoyed baking, he decided to make cookies on a weekly basis for his students in Connecticut. After eleven years of sharing his cookies, he brought his recipe to The Academy at Ocean Reef. Now we are the lucky ones!

Every Sunday during the school year, Jerome Murphy makes a batch of approximately 80 chocolate chip cookies (his own secret recipe) for the students and staff. Off he leaves in the morning in his "Cookie

Mr. "Cookie Monster" Murphy's cookie cart.

Monster" golf cart to The Academy with his favorite cookie bin that he has used for years. Of course, everyone looks forward to Mondays (the kids call it Cookie Day) and this special treat. He has made thousands of these delicious cookies.

During lunch, Mr. Murphy

distributes cookies to each student by name and he calls his tradition his "cookie connection". This gives students an opportunity to have a personal chat with the Head of School, and it allows Mr. Murphy to maintain those important connections with the students. Of course, the faculty look forward to their chocolate chip cookie on Monday, too. It is such a great way to kick off the week.

This past Halloween, Mr. Murphy surprised the students with his own "Cookie Monster" costume that certainly added more fun to this sweet tradition. You might see Jerome Murphy in his golf cart with a distinctive license plate as he drives around Ocean Reef Club--- maybe, if you are really lucky, and it's Monday, you might get a delicious cookie.

Just A Golf Cart Away

We came to play golf, sun and dine
A three day visit was just fine
Called a realtor, took a peek
Put in a bid in less than a week

Hard to believe 27 years have flown
Now we happily call Ocean Reef home
Loved our first house and adore the next
Our quality of life is assuredly the best

Aging is an adventure not all will encounter
Highs and lows, never making it a downer
Living in our Paradise, joy every day
All that we need is a golf cart away

CLUB SHOPPING

Joan the Shopper

HATS ON....The lovely lady at the top of the facing column is Marita Sladky (1). I met her on Sunday morning at The Point, where on weekends Ocean Reef treats early rising Members to complimentary coffee and pastries. God provides the sunrise.... Marita told me that she loves hats and she bought the one she's wearing at the Golf Shop. No surprise there, since now in her 70's, she continues to play 18 holes of golf several times a week. She has been runner up for club champion six times. "Always a bridesmaid, never a bride" – she added a little wistfully.... Marita is one of a growing number of Ocean Reef Members (men and women), who enjoy wearing hats. And happily, there are many styles currently available at the Ocean Reef shops.... At the Spa boutique in the Member Fitness Center there are hand-painted hats (2) that are truly eye-catchers. They are good examples of wearable art. ($185).... The Burgee Shop is heading in the right direction. Two good examples – (3) A jaunty raffia hat from Tahiti ($66). Also at Burgee lots of the ubiquitous caps. The one I found most unusual (5) has a predominant flower pattern and a large brim.... If you have a taste for the big time, J. McLaughlin has the Patty Hat (4). Whether you are spying or just sunning, it is a great "undercover" hat ($128)....Less expensive and more sporty hats are available at MarineMax and Wynn's. NOTE; Whatever hat you choose to wear will be perfect for viewing the Concours d'Elegance Drive-By, a wonderful Vintage Weekend tradition (Sat. 10 am).

Magic Was in The Air

It was almost midnight at The Point with a full moon, soft breeze, and glasses of champagne in hand. Christopher Peter Rahe "CP" knew this was the moment. He knelt on one knee in the middle of the compass rose mosaic and proposed to Legacy Member Current D'Ignazio – she said yes!

"Ocean Reef has always been my 'happy place,'" smiles Current. "I have been visiting my grandparents -- the late Babe and Libby D'Ignazio -- ever since I was a baby with my parents, Equity Members Teri and Michael 'Owsley' D'Ignazio.

"I was totally surprised: we had drinks and bites at the Reef Lounge listening to live music. We walked hand in hand to The Point and sat in the rocking chairs just chatting. When we were ready to leave, I turned, and he was down on one knee. He swept me off my feet!"

Current first met CP through his brother at Roanoke College and later through mutual friends in NYC where she works in communications and PR for a skincare company. Her family hails from Oxford, PA and Avalon, NJ.

CP graduated from St. Lawrence University and works in investment services. He is from Southport, CT.

Current and CP reside in New York City's West Village and hope to raise future Legacy Members! They will wed in Harbour Island, Bahamas, in the Spring.

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

Reflecting on 50 Years of USCG Auxiliary Service

by Jim Leenhouts

In December 2022, Ocean Reef Flotilla 13-04 of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary will celebrate the 50th Anniversary of its 1972 founding. Ocean Reef Members should celebrate with them.

The founding Flotilla members were a small group of well experienced Ocean Reef boaters, who had military experience or, in many cases, were involved in civilian boating activities often related to military or commercial boating efforts.

The founders shared a strong sense that the Ocean Reef boating area of hidden reefs, strong and often adverse currents, limited navigation aids, and a lack of prompt rescue service created a beautiful yet dangerous boating environment that is especially challenging for new boaters without tropical water weather experience and navigation skills.

Luckily, structure for a local organization to provide help had been created by defense-oriented Congressional action in 1939 when, shortly before WWII, Congress created the US Coast Guard Reserve and then, in 1941, expanded and renamed it The United States Coast Guard Auxiliary. The action included civilian members to be organized into local "Flotillas", each administered by the 13 Divisions of the US Coast Guard.

Flotillas were primarily responsible for supporting boating safety objectives of the US Coast Guard and also included the use of Flotilla members' boats as search and rescue and training vessels. The Flotilla's responsibilities were public education, local vessel examination for required safety equipment, monitoring the condition and placement of navigation aids, boosting boat registration standards and, where needed, undertaking non-law-enforcing duties and activities at US Coast Guard Stations. Flotilla members were required to meet the standards of regular US Coast Guard personnel, and were responsible for their own training and testing of members.

As the Ocean Reef Flotilla is closely associated with the Coast Guard Station in Islamorada, each Flotilla around the country is associated with a particular Coast Guard Station that would either authorize or request all local missions in its area and require reporting its activities to the Officer on Duty.

Encouragement in organizing a Flotilla at Ocean Reef came from both United States Coast Guard Stations at Islamorada and Miami located 60 miles apart which "bracket" Ocean Reef. Each station has a 30 mile, 4 hour boating service gap, covering an especially incident-active, narrow, reef impacted area that had grown exponentially in boating use. The Ocean Reef Coast Guard Auxiliary helicopter rescue training mission, as former Commander Peter Liashek looks on. Great things are to come.

Flotilla at Ocean Reef was tasked to monitor and patrol this gap area.

On December 12, 1972, Flotilla 13-04 was established and then incorporated in 1976 so as to properly own, operate and insure its first Search and Rescue and Training Mission vessel, the RH Coleman. There were three successive vessels that were purchased over the years by donations from grateful Ocean Reef Members. All boats have since been able to retire for a lack of local emergency missions. Many Flotilla members have become qualified to use their own qualified vessels as Operational Facilities for rescue missions, Coast Guard member training, regular navigation marker condition inventory, and more.

Based on the remarkable reduction of Ocean Reef missions for rescue over 50 years, the hopes of the Founding Members seemed to have been achieved and boating is now a joyful and much safer part of life at Ocean Reef. The Flotilla has grown from 5 far-sighted originals to 15 first members and almost 90 members in the middle '90s. Formal classroom boating education courses are now offered for Ocean Reef Members, boating safety articles are published in the Ocean Reef Press, and a "Safe Boating Day" extravaganza is well attended every year on the Thursday before Easter. Free vessel examinations and instruction in the use and ease of advanced electronic navigation aids have all played a role in increased boating safety awareness at Ocean Reef. Though the reach of Flotilla 13-04 extends out beyond just Ocean Reef.

Using Ocean Reef Flotilla crews and vessels, Miami USCG helicopters can train to drop rescue swimmers to the Flotilla target boat or lower baskets to the boat as part of the training for helo squadrons. The Ocean Reef Flotilla had the distinction of doing this at night, and became the only Flotilla in the Florida Keys that was authorized by the USCG to do so! This success bred more training of other fellow Keys flotillas, USCG Stations and support at Ocean Reef. The Ocean Reef Flotilla began to share their crew and coxswains with the adjoining Upper Keys Flotilla 13-08, increasing the number of missions for the entire Upper Keys.

After 50 years, it seems that the Congressional mandate to "support" the US Coast Guard mission of public safe boating is undiluted and the Flotilla concept remains, by our Ocean Reef standards, a vibrant success, hinging on Ocean Reef support and member dedication.

Join Ocean Reef Flotilla 13-04 in the celebration on Monday, December 12, 5 p.m. at the Ocean Reef Yacht Club

RECENT CATCH

John Grunow III, John Grunow Jr., Captain Andy Pis, and Pike Noyes caught this 200 lb. Swordfish on Sunday, November 27.

Three generations of the Kaplan family enjoyed a beautiful Saturday afternoon catching Tuna with Captain Mike. There was plenty for all!

RECENT CATCH – OFF THE REEF

Yellow Margin Triggerfish

John Kinney recently returned from Alphonse Island in the Seychelles where he achieved a “Golden Grand Slam”, catching all 5 of the target gamefish on fly in one day: A Giant Trevally, Indo-Pacific Permit, Bonefish, Milkfish, and a Triggerfish. A rare accomplishment.

John’s wife Meghan said, “It was so special to be on the boat with John for what was definitely the best day of fishing he has ever had. According to the outfitter, only 2 other people have caught all 5 species in one day in their 25 years of operating. I am so incredibly thrilled for him!”

Rod & Gun Club Sponsors Fishing Contests

by Christine
Patton, Rod
& Gun Club

December is just the start to the fishing season at Ocean Reef, but the Rod & Gun Club is going full speed.

Grand Masters

You still have time to enter the Grand Masters, a golf and sail fishing tourney held on December 6 & 7 (contact membersevents@oceanreef.com).

2021 Holiday Fishing Tournament Champions – Sandrita. Anglers, from l to r, are Barrett Ersk, Kristina Ersk, Sandra Fish and Jodi Zifferer.

Entry forms and rules are also available on rodandgun.org calendar.

Fish of the Month

The Fish of the Month contest started December 1 and goes until New Year's, with prizes for the biggest Mutton Snapper and/or Kingfish, as weighed in at MarineMax's scales. The Rod & Gun website Events Calendar shows all the rules and monthly species through August 2023 — no entry fee or registration required.

Competitors in this contest get the benefit of some very good eating, varying monthly — Mutton Snapper is a delicious fish, its white flesh perfect for grilling, sautéing or steaming. It appears in a range of beautiful colors, pink to green to red, and varies in size as well as color, from 5 to 25 pounds.

The Kingfish is a member of the mackerel family. It is one of the most sought-after gamefish, known in the sports fishing world for their blistering runs, often confused with a Wahoo. They are taken mostly by trolling, using various baitfish, spoons and jigs, and come in a range of sizes, 10 to 80 lbs. The oily flesh is excellent for smoking, but also good as sashimi or freshly grilled. Mutton Snapper or Kingfish, even if yours is not the winning catch, you will still have a delicious dinner for yourselves and your neighbors.

Holiday Fishing Tournament

Also on the calendar — The Holiday Fishing Tournament is an annual one-day family outing organized by the Rod & Gun Club, and will be held this year on December 28. Open to all members and guests (only four anglers to a boat, but unlimited spectators) with a laundry list of eligible species awarded points by weight. All the details can be found on the website, rodandgun.org, including the rules and entry forms (no entry fee, thanks), or contact Ken Reda at ken.reda@marinemax.com or 305-342-0658. Lots of fun and good eating, too!

Last year 14 boats competed, with the overall winner being the "Sandrita" with 1109 points, anglers Barrett Ersk, Kristina Ersk, Sandra Fish and Jodi Zifferer (see picture above).

And if you prefer to stay on dry land, the Card Sound Shooting Range is open every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, 10am-3pm. All the details are on rodandgun.org, including Google directions to the range.

Ocean Reef Club at the Legends Invitational

"From the Gold Tees"
by Michael Leone,
Director of Golf

Due to the generosity of John and Mary Lee, the winner of the 2022 Bag Room Open was awarded a spot in the cherished Legends Invitational at Pebble Beach Golf Links. This wonderful event shines a light on the brave men and women that fight for our freedom, while raising money for the Navy Seal Museum. The field is full of Medal of Honor recipients, Navy Seals, and NFL Hall of Famers. Ocean Reef Club was represented by the team of Zach Haynes, Bob and Cindy Manzo. Bob Manzo caddied for Zach in the 2022 Bag Room Open in which they won, earning them their spot in the Legends Invitational.

Coming Up: Vintage Open

The annual Vintage Open golf tournament is coming up on Sunday, December 4. If you would like to participate, call the Golf Shop at 305-367-5912. The format will be a modified alternate shot format with a shotgun start at 12:30 p.m.

Thanksgiving Turkey Shoot

Another record-setting Turkey Shoot is in the books. The 2022 Turkey Shoot featured the largest field of players to date, so thank you to all those who participated in this year's tournament.

The Turkey Shoot is a unique 3 Hole shoot out format. Each player was placed within a flight and competed individually against the other players. After the first hole was complete, half of the flight was eliminated. The remaining players advanced to the next hole and the same process was followed. Once all 3 holes were completed, a flight winner was determined. Our 6 Flight Winners were Oliver Haslett, Kristian Fortis, Tony Olmert, Hunter Kates, Bill Sport, and Sam Buse.

The 6 Flight Winners then competed in a shootout on Hole 9 of the Dolphin Course. The first player to hit was Oliver Haslett who stuck it 6 feet. Tony Olmert hit the green to 25 feet and Kristian Fortis hit the green to 15 feet. After both players did not make their putts, Oliver Haslett was left with a 6-footer for the win, and made it. Congratulations to our 2022 Turkey Shoot Champion Oliver Haslett.

Turkey Shoot flight winners, I to r, Kristian Fortis, Bill Sport, Hunter Kates, Tony Olmert, Sam Buse and Oliver Haslett.

Two-time defending champion Larry Brady (right) presents Oliver Haslett with the 2022 champion's trophy.

We must mention a great new tradition was started at this year's Turkey Shoot. Our two-time defending champion Larry Brady asked to hand out the trophy to this year's winner. The catch was, he had to wear the turkey mask (see photo above).

MGA Weekly Event

Last Monday's MGA event was on the Dolphin Course with a modified Better Ball format (1 BB on Par 5s, 2 BB on Par 4s and 3 BB on Par 3s). In this difficult format, teams needed to double down on the par 4s or triple down on the par 3s to separate themselves from the field.

There were some great scores during the competition, but one stood out from the rest. Our Low Gross team was Max French, Jeff Dorsey, Rich Riley and Jack Salisbury with a +3 score of

140. On their way to victory, their "A" player, Max French, shot a personal best on the Dolphin Course with a 6 under round of 65.

On the NET side of the competition, the team of Steve Rosenberg, Brad Vandenberg, Dean Teglia and Gary Ball cleared the second-place team by 3 shots with a -14 round of 123 to claim first place.

Our sharpshooter awards for the day went out to Geoff Noyes (2'3" on #5) and Joey Rivera (4'2" on #11). Great playing gentlemen.

9-Hole Men's League Weekly Event

While the MGA was on the Dolphin Course, our 9-Hole Men's League played over on the Hammock. Monday's winner was Larry Biddinger with a -3 round of 33.

LGA Weekly Event

What a fabulous day we had for our Best Nine Holes format on Tuesday. There were a lot of very impressive scores, including career low rounds from two of our participants. Congratulations to Pam Gibson and Beth Noyes for carding their lowest 18-hole score ever.

On top of impressive scores, our closest to the hole winners both knocked it within 3 feet. The competition is strong and everyone's game is rounding into form as we head into the heart of the Golf Season.

SWING TIP

Measure Don't Guess!

"Swing Tip"
by Derek
Swoboda,
Director of Instruction

Have you ever taken a golf lesson and wondered why it is so difficult to see improvement? Here at the Ocean Reef Academy of Golf, we don't believe you get worse before you get better. We believe improvements are made incrementally during each session but never stepping back. How do we ensure your progress and what is the best way to begin at the best place without any guesswork? Get measured for your golf swing!

Even professional golf players have different swings. Pictured here from left to right are Dustin Johnson, Jim Furyk and Shane Lowry.

We use a series of measurements which include how your body individually is made to move. How can golf be so different you may ask? Everything we do on a daily basis is different in some capacity from the next person. This is, in fact, what makes us unique and able to be an individual.

All of these players' golf swings have won major championships and multiple tournaments professionally, yet they are so very different. How could we have consistency in golf with such different movements? The answer is very simple, your movement does not hit the golf ball, your golf club does.... and the golf ball doesn't know who is hitting it!

From a biomechanics standpoint, these golf swings are all correct for each individual and have worked well for countless years. Come get measured for your golf swing and increase your success today! For more information, call the Golf Shop at 305-367-5912.

CSSC Post-Thanksgiving Fun

By Bill Reynolds, Card Sound Sailing Club Commodore

What a good time! Conditions were relaxing with light 5 kt wind and a sunny day, perfect if you're still digesting Thursday's Thanksgiving meal and Friday's leftovers. Five boats were on the line for the 9:30 start of the first of three races. The breeze was light but the racing was spirited and close.

The first race was won by Windsor and Erin Coffin, followed by the team of Gary Sayia and Tom McKenzie, closely followed by Team Lucas with Skipper George Lucas and crew of grandson-in-law Mike Buckley and great granddaughter Katie Buckley. In race 2, Chris Streit and Fritz Sellig crossed the finish line first with Team Coffin second and Sayia/McKenzie third.

"A picture is worth a thousand words." Photos by Cynthia Weglarz and Bill Overend.

TENNIS TIP

Tennis Tip of the Week: Mix & Match Your Serves

by Carolina Quevedo, Tennis & Pickleball Concierge

The serve is the only stroke in tennis that you have control over. From the start, you get to decide how you want to play your opponent - serve and go to the net, serve wide to force your opponent off the court, serve to the "T" to keep your opponent from hitting an angled return, and so on. Being able to mix and match your serves will keep your opponents on their toes and keep your game indecipherable.

Here are some tips to improve your serve:

First, you need to make sure that your service motion is repeatable. This starts with your ball toss and requires your contact point to be similar on each serve. The toss is a key component, and it takes a lot of practice to figure out what works best for you, your body, your motion, and your timing. When practicing your serve toss, be sure to keep your arm long and straight. Bending the elbow and too much flick of the wrist causes the toss to be erratic. Also be certain to release the ball at the top of your service motion. Letting go of the ball too low causes your toss to float away from you again causing toss inconsistencies.

Second, your in-match decisions will often dictate your serve percentages. Depending on how you feel on a given day, you should be choosing serves that you are more comfortable with in order to get that serve in to start the point.

Finally, and most importantly, you need to be putting in the necessary repetitions to improve your serve and keep it sharp. If you are interested on working on your serve with me, call the Tennis Pro Shop at 305-367-6583 to book a lesson.

ORC Pickleball Well Represented in Palm Beach Tournament

by Kevin Girard, Pickleball Professional

Seven Members and one non-Member took their pickleball talents up north November 17-20 to play in a sanctioned tournament, the World Pickleball Open, that was hosted in Palm Beach Gardens. The women's doubles teams consisted of Cathy Ryon & Jodi Betz, Bonny Gothier & Sue Shuldman, Anne Marie

Anne Marie Peretz and Kelly Jones

Peretz & Kelly Jones, and Joannie Rich & Deb Becker. Three of the four teams medaled in their respective events. Ryon & Betz took home bronze at the 3.0 level 60+ age division, Peretz & Jones won silver in the 3.5 level division that combined ages 19+ and 35+, and Rich & Becker took silver in the 3.5 level 50+ age division. Gothier & Shuldman fell one match short for an opportunity at a medal... they were also the only team to win a game against the eventual gold medal winners.

Pickleball's growth continues at a very high rate, and this tournament had just shy of 650 players. We look forward to The Reef bringing home some more medals from tournaments all over the country.

Way to represent ORC pickleball ladies!

Kat Wheatley, Yoga Instructor & Reiki Practitioner

Kat Wheatley is delighted to be returning to the Ocean Reef Member Fitness Team. Originally from North Carolina, Kat has lived in the Florida Keys for over 20 years. When she's not working, Kat chooses to camp, hike, travel and be outside with family and close friends.

When working, you'll find Kat teaching yoga, guiding a healing energy session, or helping clients build a healthy mind-body connection. She's an experienced Registered Yoga Teacher with Yoga Alliance, as well as a Level Two Reiki Practitioner and Certified Sound Healer. She's also working on a certification in Table Thai Yoga. Kat has been teaching yoga for nearly a decade and she's passionate about all aspects of the practice. She believes that yoga is more than a series of poses you do on the mat; it's a philosophy for life that she weaves into her classes. Yoga is being kind, breathing deeply, stretching the body, meditating, journaling, decluttering, sitting in self-reflection, and so much more - all the things that help us to be the best version of ourselves. Kat encourage her students to always "take the yoga with them" when they go, and she believes everyone can - and should - have a yoga practice.

Kat aims to create a safe space for her students through a calming presence and soothing voice. She can tailor a yoga practice to meet the needs of an entire class or an individual, and has perfected a style of teaching that makes you feel welcome and at ease. Kat is equally comfortable guiding a gentle yoga class or teaching a power vinyasa flow, and is certified in restorative yoga, yin yoga, and standup paddleboard yoga. Kat

BRIDGE TIP

Basic 2-Over-1 Principles & Definitions

2-over-1 forcing-to-game is "on" only when your side opens 1 ♦ or 1 ♥ or 1 ♠ in 1st or 2nd seat and the next player passes and responder makes a non-jump bid of 2 of a new suit.

The only relevant auctions are:

1 ♦ -2 ♣    1 ♥ -2 ♣
1 ♥ -2 ♦    1 ♠ -2 ♣
1 ♠ -2 ♦    1 ♠ -2 ♥

1 ♦ -2 ♣ can be used to show an opening hand and might include a 4-card major.

Example:

♠ KQxx
♥ Jx
♦ Kx
♣ AQxxx

2-over-1 meanings are "off" when:

- Opener is in 3rd or 4th seat. A passed hand cannot force to game.
- Your opponent (responder's RHO) makes an overcall or double. In competition, all of responder's bids revert to their standard meanings:
  - After an intervening overcall, responder's new-suit bid shows a long suit and decent values, but it is not forcing to game. It could be as few as 8-9 pts if you have a strong suit.
  - After an intervening double, responder's 2-level bid of a new suit is weak (5-9 pts.).
  - After an overcall or a double, a 1NT response is standard (7-10 pts. with a stopper) and is not forcing.
  - Redouble should be used to show 10+ points after an intervening double.

Game level is defined as 3NT or 4 of a suit. If your trump suit is a major, the "4-of-a-suit" agreement will get you to game. Note, though, that if your trump suit is a minor, you are not forced all the way to 5 ♣ or 5 ♦. Even if you've made a 2-over-1 response, your auction can end at 4 ♣ or 4 ♦ if that's your agreed suit.

A 2-over-1 response is just one of the ways you can show game values.

Playing the 2-over-1 system does not affect the meanings of other auctions. One-level responses (1 ♥ -1 ♠) and direct raises of partner's suit (single, limit and forcing) have the same meanings as in standard bidding. Other conventions and treatments -- Weak Jump Shifts, Bergen Raises, Jacoby 2NT, Splinter Bids, New Minor Forcing, etc. -- can be included in your 2-over-1 system with no modifications.
