All Charities Does It Again ("Thank You, Ocean Reef!")

By Sarah A. Cart

Richard Weinstein, president and COO of the Ocean Reef Community Foundation, recently emailed some wonderful news, including an amazing parenthetical statement:

"Sooo, it looks like we did it again (another record year for All Charities) resulting in the largest distribution to date to each of the not-for-profit recipient partners at Ocean Reef [Medical Center, Cultural Center, Academy, Art League, ORCAT and Conservation Association]. And, with the addition of some singular donations to the Community Grants Fund to the Ocean Reef Community Foundation, the Foundation will make its largest Community Grants distribution – over $2,000,000 – to more organizations in Florida City, Homestead and in the Upper Keys than ever!"

The monies will also further enhance the Foundation's Impact Fund, instrumental in assisting such projects as Baptist Health's helipad, programs at the College of the Florida Keys and others.

While honors are due to the 2023 All Charities Weekend co-chairs Anne Marie Peretz, Barbara Olcott and Kelly Hertzman, their committees, the Preferred Partners and the staff, Weinstein looks to the Members, noting, "Everyone's generosity shows the passion that the Membership shares, including Social and Legacy contributing through the dues check-off, to ensure that this special place and our neighboring communities remain vibrant. Ultimately, when All Charities is successful, it's because of the Members."

"And the generosity coin has two sides: Members bidding, AND donating – everything from wine, golf experiences, chef-prepared dinners at home and aboard boats, trips across the U.S. and the world, and great stuff. There were more First Dibs than ever before, and more ways to share adventures."

Many longtime Community Trustees (those who commit their monies and participation long before the weekend) stepped up to higher levels, and in their wake, many new Members added their energy, enthusiasm, and bids to the weekend's success. Also new this season, the neighbors of Sunset Cay banded together to put a special Fall 2023 party on the auction block (rumor has it that another neighborhood is already hoping to do the same again for the following fall). The excitement that is All Charities continues to grow.

Pointing out that this year's end-of-the-evening "Raise the Paddle," when everyone gives in recognition of the need, was the third highest ever, Weinstein applauded "the way people raised their paddles – an astonishing show of support." That generosity means that, "The ORCF Board, with its focus on youth, education, community, and health and family services, can expand its much-needed support of worthy charities to assist thousands of our neighbors, empowering people and helping others to be self-sufficient."

Details of those distributions will be forthcoming soon.

In the meantime, also deserving of applause are the many representatives of the Ocean Reef Chamber of Commerce who come through the gate every day and offered up dozens of exciting packages for bid, as well as ACW's 14 Preferred Partners, whose steadfast support, through their cash and auction item donations (valued this season at nearly $2 million), ensure that the monies raised at the Silent and Live Auctions enable ORCF to give 100 percent of the donations made by Club Members to non-profits.

As Weinstein points out, "While our Preferred Partners help us to accomplish so much, we can also help them by returning that support whenever we have a need, whether while we're here on The Reef or elsewhere." So cheers to Baer's

Ocean Reef Community Foundation	$1,689,290
Ocean Reef Medical Center Foundation	$1,719,349
Ocean Reef Cultural Center	$950,000
Academy at Ocean Reef	$781,549
Ocean Reef Art League	$390,774
Ocean Reef Conservation Association	$390,774
ORCAT	$115,179

In addition to these distributions, the Community Foundation will provide the second installment of $350,000 to the Chapel as part of a three-year commitment to their new Fellowship Center. An additional $550,000 has been reserved from the All Charities proceeds for impact projects in our surrounding communities. Previous Impact Fund projects have included the Baptist Helipad and the Upper Keys Campus for the College of the Florida Keys.

Please see next week's edition of the Ocean Reef Press for the complete list of the ORCF Community Grant recipients.

Furniture; Baptist Health South Florida; Barton & Gray Mariners Club; Haute Explore; John & Mary Lee's Fine Wine Society; Lester Lampert Jewellers; Lexus of Kendall/Lexus of West Kendall; Marsh McLennan Agency, Private Client Services; NetJets; Northern Trust; Ocean Reef Club Sotheby's International Realty; Seabourn; Somerset Charters; and Wheels Up.

As has been pointed out multiple times over the years since All Charities began, "This community has a tradition of making miracles happen." Thank you, everyone, for doing it again.

Hippity Hop for All Ages

by Jody Steele

Did you know the Easter Bunny is able to come right to your door on Easter morning? With a little help from some friends in Recreation, THE BUNNY starts the "Bunny Hop" route from 6-9:30 a.m. visiting each stop for 15 minutes with Easter Baskets in hand. If you prefer the evening before (without the Bunny escort), delivery can be to your doorstep after 8 p.m. on Saturday evening.

This year's amazing baskets are packed with a variety of goodies for infants, toddlers, elementary age children, teens, adults, and even a basket for your favorite pet. Theme baskets such as an Ocean Basket for younger children stuffed with a magnetic building set, a plush toy, a puzzle, and more along with candy or a Neon Teen Basket with a travel ball, a Moon Ball, a Spinner and other clever items are available. The Orchid Basket with a mug, coffee/tea, and chocolate sounds really good to me. Baskets for you to view are on display at the Concierge Desk at the Front Desk and Clubhouse and in Membership.

Fun in the Sun Basket – 7-11 years old

The Recreation Team has been working in a group called a "fluffie" for weeks on creating the best baskets ever. Yes, that really is a group of rabbits. We could say herd or colony, but that is not as fun to say. So kudos to our

Dolphin Course to Undergo Re-Grass Next Month

By Holly Houser, Ocean Reef Press

In a few weeks' time, Members will begin to notice the Dolphin Course looking a little different. For the avid golfer, you're likely familiar with this already as the Club conducts golf course aeration every summer, but the re-grass project beginning next week is much more intensive than aeration. That is why the Club is sharing with you the details of what it's doing this summer to uphold the world-class standards of our golf courses at Ocean Reef:

On Wednesday, April 5, re-grassing of the Dolphin Course will begin. The Dolphin Course fairways were last re-grassed in 2011, and in the years since, the Club has experienced several storms, including Hurricane Irma, that left many holes under water for extended periods of time. This has led to seeds from the rough washing into the fairways and germinating, or growing, resulting in significant cross-contamination that has been very difficult to combat. After many other methods have been tried and failed, the solution, which is being implemented this April, is to completely re-grass all Dolphin Course tees, fairways, collars and rough.

The Club's Golf Course Maintenance Team will begin spraying of the Dolphin Course on April 5, which will essentially kill all of the grass currently there. Members and their pets should stay off the Dolphin Course on this day, but may safely return to the course by the morning of April 6. Within two weeks, you will notice the grass beginning to turn brown, however it will still be playable. Come May 1, the Dolphin Course will close for six months. The Hammock Course will also close periodically this summer for its regular aeration – the annual course treatment that ensures the courses remain in top condition during the season. Because of the re-grassing of the Dolphin and the regularly-scheduled aeration of the Hammock, only nine holes will be open on the Hammock at any given time this summer. To complete an 18-hole round, golfers will have to play those nine holes twice.

Beginning June 7, the Hammock back nine will close for maintenance. From there, the closure schedule will alternate between the front and the back nine of the Hammock throughout the summer. Stay tuned for the aeration schedule, to be published in upcoming editions of the Press.

"Our two championship golf courses are highly-valued parts of life at Ocean Reef for golfers and non-golfers alike," said Director of Agronomy Eric Bennett. "Our Maintenance Team is prepared for the extensive summer-long process and dedicated to returning the course to the superior playing conditions our Members expect and are accustomed to. While we apologize for the inconvenience this treatment will cause for golfers this summer, we are confident our Members will be able to see the difference, in both aesthetics and playability, when the Dolphin Course reopens in time for next season."

The Whys & Wherefores...

of Ocean Reef's 75th Anniversary Celebration

by Joan Birsh

On April 15th Ocean Reef will mark the 75th Anniversary of its founding with the Burgee Jubilee Country Night. This blow-out celebration on the Driving Range will feature three top country music performers – 20 Ride (Zac Brown Tribute Band); Lauren Alaina; Brett Young.

I don't know much about country music, but I can tell by the titles of a few of their hit songs that I am going to like these musicians (e.g. 20 Ride - Chicken Fried, Toes; Lauren Alaina - Like My Mother Does, Road Less Traveled; Brett Young - Platinum winners - Mercy, Lady). I will probably show my appreciation by clapping hands, but I am sure there will be wild enthusiasm for these talented stars from their many fans, spread out on the grass of the Driving Range.

And then of course, there's an extra treat with the evening's finale – a Drone Show that will close the Jubilee party at 10 p.m. with a breathtaking "sky-high" event.

This Ocean Reef Anniversary is going to be one to remember. I definitely plan to be there and so should you.

Here's what you need to know before you go.

The gates of the Driving Range open at 5:30. All tickets are general admission, with chairs and tables available on a first-come basis. You may also bring your own blanket or foldable lawn chair. Find your spot and settle down and enjoy the music and festivities with friends and family.

Aside from access to the performances, what does a ticket get me? There are three different passes available, but the one I'm going to buy is the "All Inclusive". This $225+ ticket will cover all you can eat or drink (including alcoholic beverages for anyone over 21). It looks like an answer to a long line and I am admittedly an impatient person. Note: Check out the info at the end of this article for where to buy the ticket that is the right one for you.

Before and After in Fishing Village....

Before: On Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. you can get a jump-start on the Jubilee's festivities by visiting the annual Spring Fling in the Fishing Village. Great opportunity for browsing and shopping in your favorite Ocean Reef stores. In addition, there will be vendors with booths stocked with Western-wear. Other special attractions include: a mechanical bull, a barnyard bounce house, raffles, and live country music.

After: When the big night at the Driving Range closes down at 10 p.m. you (not me, I'll be ready for bed) can continue to party in the Fishing Village. For late-night winners and diners, there will be food trucks and everybody's favorite Burgee Bar will welcome you until 2 a.m.

Brett Young

Last Word: Count on this being a really big night for a 75-year-old (I am referring to Ocean Reef, not me). Don't miss it!

MAKING HISTORY

Ocean Reef Season Busy... Rendezvous, Wedding and Parties Summer, 1964

The social season went along beautifully with a wedding, gala luncheon parties and many beautiful cocktail and dinner affairs.

The wedding, Ocean Reef's first, was that of Miss Constance Pierce Hughes, of Dubuque, Iowa to Mr. Kenneth Allen Montgomery, also of Dubuque, Iowa. The ceremony took place on March 20th and was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Trier, Jr.

In 2014, Ocean Reef's first bride and groom celebrated their golden anniversary at Ocean Reef. The late Gertrude Mann interviewed Connie and Ken Montgomery for the Ocean Reef Press and they recalled the event as follows:

While Ken was in graduate school, they decided to get married. Connie's mother, Mrs. Herbert Hughes, was a renowned hostess and party giver. She began planning an elaborate wedding in Dubuque, Iowa, but Connie, the oldest of three daughters, insisted on a small wedding. They immediately switched direction and called their dear friends Dorry and Bill Baker, at the place where they were spending the winter in the Florida Keys. Bill was the son of Ocean Reef founder Morris Baker, and they agreed Ocean Reef would be an ideal place for a wedding.

Mrs. Hughes organized the wedding event in about 10 days. Because Ken was still in graduate school, he came to the Reef just a few days before the wedding. He flew into Miami and took a small plane to the Reef. The flight to Miami was late. When the pilot of the small aircraft arrived here, he saw the landing strip had no lights. Emergency! He called for help. The Hughes and Baker families were at dinner but rushed to the airport with their cars, so the car headlights could illuminate the landing strip. The plane landed safely in the first nighttime landing at Ocean Reef.

The wedding took place on a perfect Ocean Reef moonlit night outside around the pool of a new private home. Flowers were flown in from Hawaii. Bill Baker served as Best Man. Connie's two sisters were bridesmaids. The Hughes's hosted celebrations at Ocean Reef including a beautiful Rehearsal Dinner, an elegant Wedding Dinner, and another Ocean Reef catered party at the House on Stilts. The House on Stilts (not standing anymore) was located in open water and could be reached only by boat.

talked about the happy times she and her husband Herb spent at their Harbor House condominium. Also making the trip were Connie's younger sisters, Nan Reider of Indianapolis and Kay Thieleke of Atlanta, who both remembered fun at Buccaneer Island. The entire family-four generations- treasured the special times they spent together at Ocean Reef. It was the youngest grandson who spoke for the entire family when he said upon arrival, "Ocean Reef is my favorite place on earth!"

Rhythms of The Reef

by Terry Baxter

Richard Weinstein created a legacy of memorable images when he managed advertising for Ocean Reef. One I liked was a stream of attractive boats cruising past Buccaneer Island, with the tagline, "Our Members return each season as faithfully as the tide." Poetry. It perfectly captures the nearly gravitational pull The Reef exerts. We surf in on a wave of friendships and remarkable traditions. The season brings us The Gathering, The Holiday Concert, Vintage Weekend, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's celebrations, the Superbowl, All Charities, Valentine's, the Catwalk, Reef Boutique, President's Weekend, spring break...yikes. We appreciate the short lull before Easter.

The lull permits a different pleasure – starting to hear Members recount their adventures as All Charities' prizes are redeemed – such as watching a Formula One Grand Prix from the pit lane; attending The Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance; dining at the World-Class French Laundry -- unique experiences contributed to foster charitable giving. Thanks to Michael Berman, I just got to experience one of these. Mike arranged for the Wine & Spirit Education Trust (WSET) to present a daylong sommelier class leading to a WSET Level I Certificate. I joined thirty Ocean Reefers looking to expand their appreciation of wine. Sarina Kinney sat to my left, and Teresa Holmes was on my right. They remained impressively attentive and sober through nine glasses of wine and detailed instruction from Rebecca Hodges and Alessandra Esteves, our seasoned wine experts from WSET.

Fair Patricia and I have enjoyed wine for more than fifty years. We joined Les Amis du Vin when we lived in Washington, D.C. I remember my first Grand Cru (1970 Chateau Palmer, Bordeaux) was $9 dollars a bottle (now it is $430). On our first European vacation, we spent several days in the Vineyards of Burgundy and the wine caves under the town of Beaune. Over time, we visited Alsace, Bordeaux, St. Emilion, Provence, Champagne, Chablis, Cognac, Oporto, Tuscany, and Napa and Sonoma. The WSET class revealed how much I didn't know.

Rebecca and Alessandria concentrated on the tasting of wine and appropriate food/wine pairings. We sampled reds and whites, noting the fruit or the oak, and evaluating the sweetness, acidity, tannin, alcohol content, and body. For instance, sweetness is detected on the tip of your tongue, so Rebecca recommended tilting the glass and extending just the tip your tongue into the wine. Sarina and Teresa cracked each other up trying this maneuver. Winston would have been a whiz; his tongue is two feet long. We got a little basket of food products containing salt, acid, umami, sweet, spicy, or fat. Some surprise pairing results: salty food made both the red and white wines taste better, with more fruit and body. Acid (tomato) also made the red wine taste better, so salt your tomatoes. The demonstrations were fun and eye-opening.

As we departed, Mike

Berman passed out a take-home gift of two Grand Cru wines from Bordeaux, and a red and a white from Magnolia Blossom, a California estate bottling. A very generous finish. Thanks, Mike. You have given a nice boost to All Charities and contributed another enhancement to the rhythms of The Reef.

Short Takes

An alert reader noted that I did not mention that the Conservas on the Port O' Call lite bites menu are TINS of celebrated seafood delicacies of Spain and Portugal preserved in Olive Oil or Brine. Apparently, tins of imported seafood are all the rage among young people. Pass the word.

Chef Josh of the Ocean Room Breakfast Buffet has re-introduced his heavenly Bananas Foster topping for waffles. A handful of pecans, a dash of whipped cream and Bob's Your Uncle.

Easter — Where's the Rabbit?

by Rev. Dr. Bob Henley

Growing up in a small East Texas town, my earliest memory of Easter is formed around a question: "Where's the rabbit?"

The Holy Grail

Each year, an Easter egg hunt was held in our city park. As kids, we lined up, waiting to get our share of the sugary bounty. Our focus wasn't just on the easy pickings of the colorful eggs, scattered across the park. No, no! The goal, the ultimate prize, the holy grail, was the one and only golden egg! Not once did I find it – drats!

But what stumped me was the rabbit that laid all those eggs – especially that golden egg! Hence, my question! "Where's the rabbit?" A naïve child indeed! Many Easters have come and gone. There's no Easter "bah-humbug" from this grandpa. We celebrate the beauty and bounty of the resurgence of life in the spring.

But through the years, while my enjoyment remains, my questions have changed. One question stands out above all others.

Myth or Reality?

Death and re-birth legends and myths abound, reflecting the cyclical nature of life. They are ubiquitous through time and across cultures. A common assumption is that any one of these cultural stories or myths is as valid as another. Their origins are assumed to be human invention, attempts to explain and/or give meaning to these naturally recurring events.

The well-known English writer, C.S. Lewis, was an atheist for the first 40 years of his life. From childhood, he and his brother were steeped in Norse myths and legends. He assumed that the Easter resurrection story was just another of the myriad death and rising myths.

Lewis was a regular at the gathering of the Inklings, writers who met on Tuesdays at The Eagle and Child Pub in Oxford, for beer and wide-ranging conversation, as well as sharing their works-in-progress.

A Life Changing Question

Knowing Lewis' view, fellow member and writer, J.R.R. Tolkien, challenged Lewis' thought with this question. "What if the resurrection story of Jesus is the myth that came true?"

Following a deliberate search, his logical process of reason and study led Lewis to conclude that Christ's resurrection indeed, in his words, was "the myth come true." It was the first step in his life-changing journey of faith.

The New Atheists

There is a contemporary movement of "new atheists." They relentlessly assail religious faith of any kind, especially Judeo-Christian faith. They assert that belief in God makes no more sense than believing in the Easter bunny. In their minds, anyone pursuing faith might as well be engaging in the kind of childish magical thinking that asks, "Where's the rabbit!"

Questions are good. But what if their conclusions are erroneous. What if the evidence, honestly considered, leads to a different conclusion – to Lewis' conclusion? It changes everything.

The Meaning of Easter

The Biblical witness of Judeo-Christian faith is that the God of all creation revealed himself in history through a people he chose, the Jewish people. It was through them and their Scriptures that God's nature and purposes were first revealed in history.

The core of Christian faith is that the God of Israel assumed our humanity in the incarnation of Jesus of Nazareth.

He lived in obscurity for 30 years. The account of his three-year ministry, recorded in the Gospels, has stirred belief in questioning minds and seeking hearts for centuries. At the age of 33, he was put to death by public, Roman execution.

What happened next totally confounded even his closest followers. On the third day, they found the stone rolled away and the tomb empty. Their eyewitness testimony is the claim of his resurrection. It was the ultimate demonstration of God's power. Death has been destroyed, and the way opened to everlasting life.

That declaration is the shared witness of faith celebrated by Christians of every tradition at Easter. We celebrate "the myth come true."

Holy Week

We invite you to join us in the Ocean Reef Chapel and Fellowship Center as we recall these history shaping events during Holy Week and on Easter.

It begins with our worship recalling the events of Palm Sunday, this April 2 at 9 a.m.

On Thursday, April 6, there will be a Tenebrae Service of Darkness at 7 p.m., recalling the events on the night of Jesus' arrest and trial.

We will celebrate the joy of the resurrection at the Easter Sunrise Service at 7 a.m. on Buccaneer Island, and then at 10 a.m., in the Chapel and Fellowship Center.

Educating Future Generations About the Ecosystem in Our Own Backyard

By Tom Davidson and Bill Nutt

At last month's presentation by The Everglades Foundation at the Ocean Reef Cultural Center, we were reminded of the value of educating future generations about the importance of the Everglades to Florida Bay. The Foundation's Everglades Literacy Program is focused on exactly that. Established in 2014, this program offers the world's only free, preK-12 comprehensive Everglades curriculum. Throughout the state, it has impacted 175,000 students and provided free training to 5,000+ teachers, including several right here at The Academy at Ocean Reef.

The most recent training by the Foundation's education team included sample lessons and activities that are part of the free, standards-aligned curriculum. Teachers at The Academy built models of the historic versus altered Everglades watershed to understand historic changes to the ecosystem, learned about the importance of American alligators and threatened or endangered species, and reviewed five habitats and 39 species that live in the Everglades.

At neighboring Key Largo School, Ms. Pamela Caputo has been teaching K-5 students for 28 years. We found her comments about the Everglades education program to be inspiring, and as fellow residents of Ocean Reef, we thought you would, too.

Q. How did you first hear of the Everglades Literacy Program?
 A. "Years ago, a local motel

The Everglades Foundation's Everglades Literacy Program is dedicated to teaching future generations about the importance of the Everglades and how to be stewards of the environment we live in.

hosted the 'Fairchild Challenge,' and offered to also host a training for teachers about the Everglades Literacy Program. We learned so much, we were inspired to do more.

Our school won the challenge, and one of the perks was to have a scientist from Florida International University set up an aquaponics system in two of our classrooms. I've had a system in my classroom ever since. We also had the opportunity to spend a day with our students at Dolphin Research Center. All this opened our eyes to the magical things that live in the seagrass, and how important the Everglades ecosystem is to the Keys.

The 'challenge' and learning about the Everglades inspired me to teach students how to be stewards of our world, starting in our own backyard. The Everglades and Florida Bay are right here, but many kids in Key Largo have never experienced either one. My goal is to provide them with as much access as I can to our amazing ecosystems."

Q. How has the Everglades education program benefited you and your students?

A. "I am a firm believer in learning all you can about the beauty of our world, especially right here where we live. I think we are doing an injustice to future leaders by not educating them about one of the most vital and wondrous ecosystems – and lifelines – in Florida: The Everglades.

The program has opened my eyes to the fact that we need to do a better job teaching about Florida Bay and the Everglades. It's wonderful to see students engaged and wanting to do more, learn more, and get more involved. I've seen students get excited about recycling, doing their own cleanups, asking their parents to take them to the Everglades, and just eager to get involved.

It's up to us as educators to show our students how to be stewards of our environment, to take care of our world and each other, to get outside and look for the beauty, and never stop being curious and asking questions. That's what it's all about."

For 30 years, The Everglades Foundation has been singularly focused on its mission to restore and protect America's Everglades through science, advocacy and education. Learn more at EvergladesFoundation.org, and for information on how to join the Ocean Reef Advisory Council, please contact the Foundation's VP of Development Jodi Farrell at JFarrell@EvergladesFoundation.org.

Medical Lecture Series Presents "Current Concepts & Management of Low Back Pain"

Please join us on Tuesday, April 4th at 5 p.m. at the Cultural Center Theatre for a presentation by Dr. Ronald B. Tolchin, D.O. on current concepts and management of low back pain. He is the Director of Spine Care at Baptist Health Miami Neuroscience Institute and specializes in rehabilitation medicine, lower back pain and spine disorders. Dr. Tolchin is board-certified by the American Board of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

"Back pain is very common, whether it's a chronic condition as we age or it hits suddenly after improperly straining the spine to pick up something heavy. Whatever the cause – arthritis, spinal stenosis (narrowing around the nerve roots), blunt injury or something else — back pain is one of the most common reasons why Americans over the age of 45 seek medical care, next to the common cold," explains Ronald Tolchin, D.O.

In part of a video presentation, Dr. Tolchin discusses his approach to patient care and stated the following: "I would like my patients to remember me as someone different, someone who thinks outside of the box, someone who is open to alternative avenues of medicine, which I am. So, if they have ideas and they come to me and say, 'I'd like to try acupuncture or I'd like to try massage or Tai-chai', then we can have that conversation because I understand that, and I'm open-minded about that because I learn from my patients as they learn from me."

Please join us after the lecture for a cocktail reception and to meet Dr. Tolchin, who is also a Medical Center visiting specialist. For a listing of visiting specialists and calendar dates, visit us on the web at www.mcor.org.

Safe Boating Day is Here

Thursday, April 6
10am-2pm on Buccaneer Island

by Mary Brady

The annual Safe Boating Day is a complimentary event for adults and kids. Sponsored by the Coast Guard Auxiliary and Ocean Reef Club, we have planned an exciting day filled with arts and crafts for the children as well as face painting, swimming with the rescue dog in the Lagoon, and relay races. Plus, members of Members of the U.S. Coast Guard will be in attendance to meet-and-greet and offer vessel tours.

Safe Boating Day offers plenty of opportunities for children to have fun while learning.

The Nature Center will have animals in attendance for Safe Boating Day-goers to pet, hold and learn about.

the US Coast Guard will be in attendance giving people tours of their patrol vessel. Then at noon, the Public Safety Fire Boat will sail down the canal shooting the hoses as they go, to show how they put out fires on boats in the open sea. It is thrilling to see!

This year we will also have knot tying and nautical radio demonstrations, appointments for free vessel examinations, Hobie Cat Sailing demos, life jacket demos, kayaking safety and paddleboard safety instructions. Nautical cookie decorating is always a yummy way to end the day.

Lots of vendors will be in attendance, such as the Turtle Hospital and Fish and Wildlife, and our own Nature Center will display live animals such as baby crocs, gators, snakes, and a plethora of other critters, and will explain how valuable they all are in our South Florida world. The Coral Restoration Foundation will even show how we are building back our coral reefs one section at a time.

So much to learn and so much to do. Lots of hand-outs and hands-on activities.

Mark your calendars for April 6! There is so much to enjoy and learn!

For people who pride themselves on surrounding themselves with the extraordinary, look no further for high-quality vintage, antique and contemporary furniture, art, fine jewelry, watches, and fashion.

The 1st Dibs website and app lets you peruse expertly-curated furniture, jewelry, fashion and art from prestigious sellers and galleries.

1st Dibs is one of my guilty pleasures. Each week I delight in scrolling through their app with thousands of new items added weekly. Their magazine Introspective comes to my inbox each week filled with interesting articles and interviews with designers, artists, and trendsetters along with swoon-worthy shopping. It is a treasure trove of design ideas and must-haves from the world’s best interior designers, art dealers, fashionistas, and jewelers. Their exceptional and rare finds would complement any home or a lover of all things fashionable.

Download the free app to your smartphone, create an account, and peruse “the most beautiful things in the world” from a global network of trusted sellers. You can window shop, buy directly from the app or website, or join the online auction; be sure and click the “contact the seller” or “make an offer” button to negotiate the best price. Scroll down to the “Local Shopping” button to see all the 1st Dibs stores and designers in your area and schedule an in-person hands-on “look-see.”

(Tip: In case you wondered how that Lucite 1977 Coffee Table for $495,500 or a framed and signed Peter Beard image for $125,000 looks in your home, many of the art and home design items have videos or a “tap to view” option which uses augmented reality to place the item on your wall or in your room.)

*According to www.dictionary.com:

When you call dibs on something, you claim it, especially in advance (before other people can claim it or get to it). The first records of the word dibs come from early 1700s Britain... from a shortening of the word dibstones. Originally, dibs referred to the children’s game we call jacks, in which small objects are thrown and then picked up between bounces of a ball with the children calling dibs on the stones.

CLUB SHOPPING

Joan the Shopper

UNEXPECTED..... Every dedicated shopper spends a fair amount of time cruising the aisles for the pleasure of “just looking.” On one of my browsing (not buying) excursions, I discovered some interesting surprises.... Check out the little photos opposite. There is something unusual about each of them – possibly their locations or buyers’ appeal....

1. The picture on the top is the artistic rendering of Pastel Mabi ($595). It is from MarineMax Ship Store. No surprise there. What I found unusual was not the location but how many large and beautiful aquatic prints are for sale at MarineMax. They cover an entire wall. More like a mini art gallery than a store for fishermen.... 2. In the photo below Ruth Perfido wears the beautiful Everglades Print top from J. McLaughlin ($178). What’s unusual about this design is that the Everglades Foundation verified that the flora and fauna depicted, accurately reflected the Everglades environment. Also unusual – 15 percent of the sale price of this top is allocated to the Foundation.... 3. The Makala Ukulele shown here ($69.95) is from (you would never guess) – Sandpiper. Nice to have musical accompaniment to that vast array of attractive mini/maxi dresses available in this popular Barracuda Lane store.... 4. Where did those cuddly stuffed animals come from? Not Wynn’s or the Gift Shop or Sandpiper or Dockside Living or the Burgee Shop (they all carry toys for little kids). The Playful Pets pictured here ($24.99) are from PakMail. Pretty convenient to be able to buy a present for a grandchild and mail it immediately.... 5. The glamorous V-neck Maxi ($388) is from Abode in Barracuda Lane. I know, you thought it was a Home Furnishing store. So did I, but in addition to furniture, pillows, lamps, etc. – Abode has a fine assortment of women’s apparel. ... 6. In the left-hand corner of the illustration there is an adorable pink dress, perfect for a little girl’s first birthday (Garb $64). I’m including it as “unexpected” because we often forget that the Burgee Shop has a first-rate children’s boutique with an entrance on the right side of the store. The sizes go from 0 to 12 and the design and quality of the merchandise are 100%.... Last Word: Everything in this article is true – unless you read it tomorrow when it is all lies. April Fools!

The Warmth of a Wet Towel

Mona and Harold Brewer, pictured here with their dear friend and logger, Andy (age 85), and their daughter Anne Clarke and husband Rich, were deep in the Maine woods on the headwaters of the Kennebago River for a fishing trip. They were completely off the grid with no electricity for three days, it rained a cold, cold purple rain. Fresh bacon from a flying pig cooked and drained on evergreen kept them warm and their stomachs full. They could not have felt further from the conveniences of Ocean Reef Club until they looked up in the four-leaf clover tree and spotted the trademark Buccaneer Island towel. They could not believe their luck, nor could they miss the opportunity to wish you all a Happy April Fool's Day!

Talent on The Reef

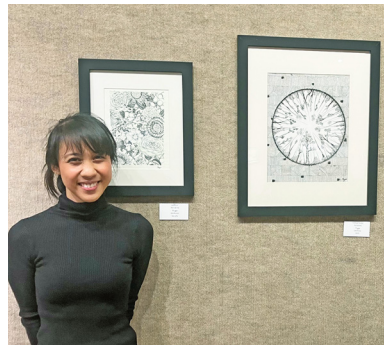

by Susan Bohan

On Tuesday, the "Talent on the Reef" Reception was a big success as Members were treated to see what some of the Associates and those who work at The Reef do in what little spare time they have.

Although it is her first year at The Reef, Thygo (her artist name!) from the Philippines, works at CH Prime and had both pen and ink drawings as well as self-taught fruit carvings. In just a short time she has moved from the kitchen to "the front of the house" she explained and is very happy here.

Norma Jean Kuhr, who works at the Front Desk, has beautiful photography on display. Her "Sailing Mist" reminded me of the many rainy dusks at a marina up north.

Maria Rivera from Accounting and Sergio Tuda from Cart Repair may not work together, but as a couple they created lovely artwork in acrylic and pen.

The mailbox by Felix Lopez from the Wreck Hall is pure whimsy and I am sure we will see it shortly in someone's front yard. Maybe he takes custom orders?

Member Fitness' Kristine Ingold works in acrylics and also showed a light side with her fish and flowers.

show a unique imagination mixed with utility that is striking to see.

There are many other works by people you will know so please stop by today through Monday to marvel!

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

More Wind Reaches the Pond...Finally!

by Windsor D. Coffin, CSMYC Commodore

After many consecutive Sundays with very gentle breezes and glass-like water conditions, the sailors of the CSMYC arrived at the Pond this past Sunday to the clear sight of ripples on the water. This was a welcome sign that we were going to have much better wind conditions for racing.

While the lighter air conditions of the previous Sundays offered their own unique challenges, most sailors I know prefer racing with more wind. The improved wind velocity over previous Sundays, coupled with a rising tide that would raise the level of the Pond and increase its size, made for some excellent racing. But, as always, unforeseen wind shifts, unexplained dead spots where the wind temporarily had gone calm, and navigating close-quarters racing with the other boats are just some of the factors in the finishing order of each race. Navigating through five races and winning the day was Al Mast. Al found himself in a few situations where he had to come from behind to finish at or near the top in individual races but still took wins in the first three races. You cannot ever count Al out of contention if his boat is in the water. Second place for the day went to yours truly, Windsor Coffin. After having another boat collide with me in Race 1, a missed mark in Race 2, and some less-than-helpful sail trim changes in Race 3, I finally got my act together and took wins in Races 4 and 5. Rounding out the top three and continuing his streak of vastly improved racing was John Grunow, III.

Spring break is always a fun time to race our East Coast 12 Meters on the Pond. It is neat to see the amazement on the faces of the children and adults as we compete. We are fortunate to continue the decades-long tradition of model yacht racing at Buccaneer Island.

Early forecasts are suggesting that the gentle breezes that we have had for most of March will make a return for our last Sunday of racing before we take Easter Sunday off. We will see come Sunday!

The Card Sound Model Yacht Club races every Sunday (except Easter Sunday) until the end of April at "the Pond." So, swing by the Buccaneer Island Lagoon if you are curious or have questions. Racing begins at 10 a.m. Our sailors are always willing to discuss our racing model yachts and, for interested sailors, there are even a few currently available for sale here at Ocean Reef. If you would like more information about our model yachting club and our EC12 model yachts, please contact me, Windsor Coffin, at csmyc12@gmail.com.

OCEAN REEF

A Busy Week for CSSC!

by Bill Reynolds, Card Sound Sailing Club Commodore

Thursday we had our second "Gathering at Waterside". This event has proven popular with our membership offering opportunities for us to gather outside of the sailing venue and to have spouses join in the fun and camaraderie. Also, it's interesting to see what everyone looks like when not in sailing gear and covered in sunscreen and sunglasses. We really are a handsome group.

Friday we conducted a sailing trial of sorts to explore and test relative performance attributes of rigging the jib with and without "the club". The club is a bowed wooden boom that attaches to the clew (lower edge of the jib where it meets the trailing edge of the sail) and the forestay about 18" above the deck. The club has a turning block on the aft (back) back end which allows the jib to be set on a trim and is self-tacking. Without the club, the jib may be trimmed and tacked by the crew. This is highly preferred by the fleet here at Ocean Reef. The Bullseye Class Association prefers the use of the club and does not sanction direct sheeting during their sponsored National Championship Regatta.

Smith and Henrichs Families

We held this technical trial to determine if there is a discernable performance difference and to provide data in order to request that the class rules allow a hosting club to permit the optional use of the club.

Joining CSSC for this event were former Bullseye National Champions Joan and Ed Tiffany from Beverly Yacht Club of Marion, Mass. We held multiple starts with sprints to the weather mark featuring six boats using the club and six boats using direct sheeting without the club. We then sailed several two-boat sprints between boats with and without the club. This also gave us the opportunity to examine relative sail shape differences and apparent slot variables between the jib and main. One of our members took just over 500 photos of the trial for reference and discussion. We hope to have a follow-up on this effort before the 2023-24 season.

Enough of the technical stuff. We mostly are about fun on the water so on Saturday we were back to racing. We had plenty of wind and our All-Star Race Committee of Lorne and Natasha Price, Shirley Shumway, Jane Shepard, and special guest George Lucas were able to coax from the fleet four clean starts and competitive races on a beautiful sailing day. Again, Joan and Ed Tiffany joined us for the race day and contributed to the level of competition and camaraderie. Beverly Yacht Club must be a fun bunch also! First for the day in The Bulls division was the team of Gary Sayia and Jack Lampman. Second, team Windsor and Erin Coffin who won the tie breaker with Jim Lampman and Jim Foster, booking a third.

In The Eyes Division first place went to the team of Chuck Cook and Suzanne McManmon, second place to team Forelli, and third to team Glenn and Anne Gormley.

For some of the teams these two days combined for many starts, weather legs and races. No need to go to the Fitness Center this week!

Regrettably, our season is nearing the end and it will soon be time to haul and store boats and pack to head north. April 1st and 8th mark the last two racing Saturdays. The 1st is also the last "Hot Dog Day" of the season. April 11th is our annual awards banquet and then preparations for the end of this year's great Ocean Reef year.

CSSC membership makes a great Christmas gift. Call Gary Sayia, membership chair at 201-919-7432. You can also check out our new website at cardsoundsailingclub.com (be patient, it's still under construction).

Thirty Eight Years

By Christine Patton

How many times do you hear an Ocean Reef story like this? Born and raised on the water in St Augustine, Peter Menten has been fishing all his life. In 1960, as a junior employee of Ford Motor Company, he was first introduced to Ocean Reef when he was helping transport Benson and Edie Ford to the Anglers Club. Ten years later he was in Fort Lauderdale, married, had a Ford dealership of his own, and was coming down to Key Largo by boat to fish weekends. A Member of OR in 1974, and in the '80's, with the help of Bill Dickinson (some things never change!), the proud owner of a Channel Cay home with his 31 ft. Bertram in the canal behind.

The years fly by, but fishing is a regular part of life, and for 38 years annually fishing in the Reef Cup, with wife Deborah right by his side and son David, his wife, and then grands, is a regular tradition. The boats may change over time — Pisces III was for the shared zodiac sign of Peter, Deborah and David, and when David married, there was a Pisces IV, finally followed by the current Pisces V, built to be kinder and gentler on the joints, knees and shoulders.

Some things lasted longer, like captains — Matt Shunk was the captain for 25 years, until the call of the seas was drowned out by the siren song of art, such that he is an artist today, and so accomplished that he painted the artwork that was raffled off at the charity auction at this year's Reef Cup ball! The Mentens didn't have to look far for a new captain — son David's friend since 2nd grade, Greg Graham, has spent his life on the water too and stepped into the job and has held it for years now.

Some years they were winners — Top Boat in 1989 and in 2012 — with multiple Top Angler awards, especially granddaughter Casey's Junior Angler trophies. The fishing itself has changed over the years with the technique of kiting and the strategic options it offers. Some years are more about the shared experience of the contest and enjoyment of the social events — Deborah is always in charge of the costumes, which have sometimes been elaborate, witty and even a little embarrassing for some crew members, but the whole team participates.

But going out fishing is a constant, and it keeps the generations close. When the Mentens go on vacation, they go by water — twice through the Panama Canal — or get back on water when they arrive — Cabo, Hawaii. Fishing may mean diving, too — another attractant of Ocean Reef.

What have you done for as long as 38 years? I've been married that long, but that's about all that has been consistently a part of my life. I've changed lifestyles, homes and jobs, and never looked back. The recent Reef Cup was Peter and Deborah Menten's 38th annual tournament, and it looks to me like dedication, practice and repetition really does pay off — especially if you know what you like and recognize it when you see it.

A dash is equal to three dots.
The space between parts of the same letter is equal to one dot.
The space between two letters is equal to three dots.
The space between two words is equal to five dots.

The International Morse code of dots and dashes is used for flashing light signaling. The flashes and space between them are defined in terms of UNITS - a dot is one unit long; a dash is three units; the space between the dots and dashes of a single character (letter or number) is one unit long, between characters it is three, and between words or groups it is five. The length of a "unit" is roughly set by the skill of the operator and the speed at which he can transmit accurately; it is best to transmit more slowly than your maximum capability, to minimize errors, and to exaggerate the lengths of dashes and spaces slightly rather than shorten them. Morse code letters, numbers, and punctuation marks are signaled by combinations of dots and dashes. Letters have from one to four components, numbers have five, and punctuation symbols have six. The basic Morse code is shown here. Memorizing the Morse Code characters takes time, but it can be done by anyone, and it is well worth the effort. Once learned, and occasionally used, it will not be forgotten.

Bag Room Open Final Four

“From the Gold Tees” by Michael Leone, Director of Golf

It is hard to believe that we are onto the championship weekend of the 2023 Bag Room Open already. There are now four golfers remaining hoping to become the 2023 Bag Room Open Champion and punch their ticket to Pebble Beach. Congratulations to Zach Haynes, Jordan Sanyshyn, David Sandberg, and Kyle Johnston on their phenomenal play so far to reach the Final Four. This weekend, all four of these professionals will play both days, with an awards ceremony at the Dolphin Pergola following play on Saturday. We are excited to see everyone at the finals and to crown this year's Bag Room Open Champion!

TODAY Friday, March 31 at 1 p.m.

Zach Haynes vs. David Sandberg

Jordan Sanyshyn vs. Kyle Johnston

Saturday, April 1st matches TBD

Ladies' Interclub

ORC recently hosted three other clubs in the Ladies' Social Interclub. Members of ORC teamed up with members from Riviera Country Club, MGA Anchor Cup Champions – Team Oceanside.

Trump National Doral, and Fort Lauderdale Country Club to compete in a 2 best ball shamble format. There were a lot of really impressive scores but the team including ORC Member Joan Hession ran away with the event with a score of 114 with the next best team at 124.

MGA Four-Ball

The 2022-2023 MGA Four-Ball has been decided. This final matchup for this season featured Henry Salas and Wicho Hernandez vs. Mike Materna and Jay Rourke. Our finalists took the course to decide who would take home this season-long, four-ball, match-play competition. Salas & Hernandez got off to a quick start, making birdie on the first hole to go 1 up. Then Rourke & Materna came right back to win Hole #2 with a smooth par to get the match back to all square. Teams then traded blows on holes 6-10, then Materna & Rourke were 1-up as they made their way to Hole #11. After winning three holes in a row, the teams halved Hole 14 with Birdies but the lead was too great for Salas & Hernandez to overcome. Materna & Rourke then won Hole #15 to claim the 2022-2023 MGA Four-Ball.

MGA Anchor Cup

Going into round two of the MGA Anchor Cup, Team Oceanside had a promising 22-point lead on Team Bayside. With 96 points at stake, Team Bayside was down, but not out. After half of our matches were in, Team Bayside was chipping away at the lead, sweeping a handful of matches coming off the course. As our contestants eagerly stood by to see what the final results would be, scores continued to pour in on either side. At the conclusion of scoring, point totals were at a dead tie for the singles matches. Fortunately, for Team Oceanside, their first-round lead was enough to fend off Team Bayside and hold onto the Anchor Cup. Congratulations to our 2023 Anchor Cup Winners, Team Oceanside.

9 Hole LGA Scramble

Another great week of 9 Hole LGA is in the books. After all 16 groups finished playing, there were two tied with a score of 30. Congratulations to the team of Corinne Fuller, Mary Johansson, and Angeline Materna and the team of Julie Gere, Louise Spina, Helen Burish, and Kym Read.

Rod & Gun Honors Nelson Sims

by Christine Patton, Rod & Gun Club

Last Tuesday was the Rod and Gun Club's annual dinner event, and this year was a fun and casual Men's Night Out. Even though the ladies were left out, the dress code of hunting/fishing garb made for an attractive crowd of camo and sea foam-colored shirts with the occasional strong shots of neon orange, proving once again that it's the males of the species that sport the most vibrant plumage.

Held at Waterside, there was plenty of space for fun and games, especially those skill-based challenges — net-throwing, axe toss, and video marksmanship — that are unique to the Rod and Gun society. More conventional swag bags and raffles were also present, but it was the tantalizing buffet that everyone was talking about. The

OR Culinary staff really went all in on the hunting theme, with tiny quail (provided by Ignacio Borbolla), duck risotto, elk wellington and venison chili (served in little pseudo-shotgun shells!) followed by the traditional pie and ice cream that real He-men require.

The speakers were equally appropriate for the happy, hearty menfolk in the audience — locker room humor. Had Fuller led off the joke-telling with some wonderful stories, followed by classicist Leonard Wood and the master, Tom Davidson, Sr.

The centerpiece of the evening was Gus Hillenbrand's introduction of Nelson Sims as Sportsman of the Year. Gus had a photo montage that spanned over a decade of travel -- in his estimation, 50 fishing and hunting trips that Nelson had taken with many of those at the dinner. He described Nelson's roles as a sportsman, a conservationist, an environmentalist and a founding member of organizations that support those causes, like Bonefish and Tarpon Trust and the Rod and Gun Club, both of which he went on to chair and lead to significant growth. In addition, Nelson led ORC as chairman through the difficult 2008-09 years, and even oversaw the Chapel through its design and construction, leaving each institution in a stronger, more vibrant state. His secret to a successful board? "Get the right guys on the Board and it will be easy."

Nelson himself said that he has always loved the outdoors and hunting, starting with his first BB gun as a 6-year-old, a 20-gauge at 8, and so on. As his grandfather started him shooting, so he has done with his children and grandchildren, teaching them gun safety while helping them practice with sporting clays at the R&G range as well as home in Colorado. He remains an active hunter himself, bagging his first turkey just this year. Looks like we got the right guy for this award.

Strength Training for Health

“Fitness Focus” by Luis Bracamonte, Director of Fitness & Wellness

No other form of physical activity offers more benefits than strength training. Here is a list of them according to the American College of Sports Medicine:

Surprise birthday celebration for Anton Schutz by wife Laura and friends at the Member Fitness Center.

Strength training increases:

- Muscle strength, endurance and power.
- Bone, muscle and connective tissue growth and durability.
- Communication between brain and muscle.
- Growth hormone production.

- Blood glucose regulation.
- Aerobic fitness.

Strength training can help treat and manage many conditions, including arthritis, cancers, cardiovascular disease, dementia, depression, diabetes, fall risk, hypertension, insomnia, low back pain, mental health, obesity, osteoporosis, stroke, pulmonary disorders, and peripheral vascular disease.

For optimal results, combine strength training with cardiovascular exercise and flexibility training. Strength training should be performed two to three times per week at moderate to high difficulty. For muscle tone and strength development, the optimal formula is 8 to 10 multi-joint exercises for 2 to 3 sets of 8 to 15 repetitions with good form. Combining bodyweight exercise, free weights, and machines creates an efficient and effective program.

For guidance in including strength training in your weekly routine, consult with one of our Fitness Specialists.

LIFEBREATH & CHAKRA DOWSING WITH BETH BIELAT

April 5 & 19 at 4pm
(90 minute class)
Member Fitness Center

LifeBreath is a powerful self-help technique that assists us in balancing our mental, physical, and emotional well-being. Through LifeBreath, we experience life energy, called “chi” that can be manifested through breathing. Not only is the LifeBreath session experiential and powerful, but practitioners also bring home two important lessons. First, they become better “everyday breathers,” and reap the benefits of deeper healthy breathing patterns. Secondly, they are able to practice the LifeBreath technique on their own, learning to breathe even more deeply while becoming healthier, more energetically balanced, and happier.

The LifeBreath session on Wednesday, April 5 will also include a technique called Chakra Dowsing. Each Member will receive a dowsing session (a “reading”) on their seven major chakras to learn which centers are open, healthy, and flowing and which are more closed and “stuck”.

The word Chakra is Sanskrit for wheel or disk of light and signifies one of the many basic energy centers in the body. Although there are more than 100 chakra in the body, the seven major chakra correlate to nerve ganglia branching forth from the spinal column. In addition, these seven wheels correlate to our health, well-being and illnesses, body functions, sound, color, developmental stages of life, organs, levels of consciousness, archetypal elements, and much more.

Beth Bielat will be teaching this class. She has been teaching Martial Arts, Breathwork, wellness, fitness, and guided meditation for over 45 years. Learn about The Human Chakra System and experience LifeBreath.
