Card Sound Road Toll Rate Adjustment

On October 1, 2023, Card Sound Road implemented new toll rates based on the Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index. These adjustments aim to support road maintenance and future bridge repairs. Here's a breakdown of the new rates for SunPass and Toll-By-Plate users:

Sunpass Rates:

- Two-axle vehicles (cars, pickups, motorcycles): $2.00
- Three-axle vehicles: $3.84
- Each additional axle: $1.28

Toll-By-Plate Rates:

- Two-axle vehicles (cars, pickups, motorcycles): $3.00
- Three-axle vehicles: $5.76
- Each additional axle: $1.92

Please note that the toll collection is entirely electronic, accepting payments through Toll-By-Plate, SunPass, E-Pass, or EZ-Pass. Cash payments will not be accepted. The generated toll revenue will be allocated towards maintaining the road and addressing the repair and replacement needs of the five bridges along Card Sound Road.

For two-axle vehicle owners with a SunPass account in good standing, two discount programs are available:

Monthly Discount Program:

- No sign-up required.
- Enjoy a 40% rebate on your SunPass account after any calendar month with 28 or more one-way trips through the toll.

Annual Pass:

- Designed for frequent users. Unlimited trips through the toll.
- Available for $500 annually from January 1 through December 31, 2024.

Annual pass purchase will be possible in December 2023 and January 2024, with more program details to follow.

For additional information on toll rates and discount programs, visit <http://www.monroecounty-fl.gov/cardsoundtoll>.

What's on the Menu?

by Felicia M.
Koretsky,
Member
Since 2010

Get ready to whet your appetite as some delicious changes, additions, and refreshed looks are on the menu for the 2023-2024 season:

Hungry for breakfast/brunch?

- The Ocean Room's summer hit-acai bowls—filled with healthy berries, bananas, almond butter, honey, and acai—are officially on the breakfast menu. Master omelet maker Franco is back on Sunday to flip your custom creations. The weekend buffets and $9 steak-and-egg Member specials will soon return for both Saturdays and Sundays. Men—don't forget your collared shirts.

- All-day brunch returns to the Grill Room this weekend. The a la carte menu, which also includes lunch favorites, will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on both Saturdays and Sundays.

Meet Me for Lunch

Since some of us can't wait until dinner for our sushi fix, the lunch menu at Palm Court will now feature five rolls, including the popular Melanie roll, five new appetizers, nigiri, and sashimi. Look for new tables and umbrellas to be set up by mid-month when lunch moves back outdoors. The culinary team is adding Mediterranean-inspired dishes, featuring fresh fish and marinated vegetables and Churrasco steak with shoestring fries and house-made chimichurri sauce. Yum.

On the Go

Does your stomach start to growl around the 7th hole? Toski's has a remedy. Soon you'll be able to call in your lunch order on its direct phone line as well as from the Ocean Reef app.

Food and Beverage teams are excited for the 2023-2024 season offerings.

That way your lunch will be ready for pick up by the time you get off the green. For those who prefer to linger, there's now additional seating, a second new entrance from the front lot, more parking spots, and more menu items, including weekly hot dog specials and new sandwich selections. Look out for noise-free and environmentally-conscious electric Rum Runners to be zipping around the courses in early December, guaranteed to quench golfers' thirst and hunger pangs no matter how their game is going.

What are You Doing for Dinner?

- Exciting changes are on the horizon for CH Prime and CH Lounge. ORC welcomes new Executive Chef Ian Fleischmann, no stranger to the South Florida culinary scene. Ian's impressive credentials include his tenure as Partner/Chef at Fabel in Wynwood, serving as the opening Executive Chef for Pharrell Williams' Goodtime Hotel in South Beach, and leading the kitchen at The Adrienne Arsht Center under Chef Brad Kilgore. Members can anticipate delectable dishes such as Swordfish au Poive, Dover Sole Meuniere, scallops, and Bananas Foster. CH Lounge will soon offer an expanded menu featuring Steak Frites and other exquisite cuts.

- Beginning November 18th, The Ocean Room will start its twice-monthly Saturday Grand Seafood Buffet from 5:30 to 10 p.m. Holiday buffets are planned for Thanksgiving and New Year's Eve. Also, expect to see more dinner-time sushi and continued nightly fish boxes with at least three fresh fish of the day choices available in a variety of preparations.

- New Caribbean nights with live music are headed to Palm Court in 2024. Mark your calendar for January 20th, February 17th and March 2nd.

- Things are getting back to basics at Gianni. Returning Chef Ryan Schmidt will offer dishes made popular during Chef Betania's early days at the restaurant. Expect minestrone and Italian wedding soups, beet salad, and ground beef and pork lasagna along with other Italian staples. New windscreens will help accommodate more outdoor seating. You'll also notice new décor on the entry shelves.

- The Islander. Longtime ORC Chef Fitz will be joining the Islander team. His Caribbean heritage is sure to inspire many of the nightly specials, filled with fresh, colorful veggies and bold flavors. Chef Kareem and Chef Eric are bringing back past favorites, including the Maryland crab cake and crispy rice. Also take notice of the warm gorgeous new wood-look plank porcelain floors and the updated tabletop surround at the sushi bar.

- There's something for everyone this season at Town Hall Waterside, scheduled to open Wednesdays through Sundays, beginning November 18th. Our upscale outdoor tented food court has replaced all its stations with larger trailers. Along with pizza, barbecue, and desserts, you'll also have Tex-Mex, Asian/sushi, and popular Raw Bar options. The 20-foot bar will be enhanced with new TVs for sports watching.

Let's Listen to Some Live Music

- Five nights of live music starts Tuesday at The Reef Lounge. Returning are The Juan Areco

Trio, featuring instrumentals on guitar, violin, and piano, as well as the Hal Roland Trio with contemporary tunes on piano, drum, and guitar. Expect Dim sum service and Asian-inspired favorites such as General Tso's chicken along with sushi options. Consider complimenting your evening with house-made infused Pecan Bourbon Old Fashioned.

- Look for expanded wine tastings along with "wine of the month" specials, trivia nights and additional food offerings at Port O' Call Wine & Spirits. The wine shop was recently refreshed with new ceiling panels and wallpaper.

Let's Order In

Need a late dinner or craving Chinese? Reef Eats is the place to call for night bites. New options for the season include an expanded selection of Asian inspirations, such as pot stickers, pad Thai, fried rice, and Mongolian beef and broccoli. Delivery service is 5 to 10 p.m. weekdays and 4 to 11 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays.

Breaking Beach News

Slated to open at the end of the month on Buccaneer Island is the new Everton's Rum Bar. Everyone's favorite beach bartender will serve rum-based drinks, beers, wine and basic cocktails in a separate tiki-hut, with great ocean views. Enjoy Everton's favorite reggae playlist, seating for 12 at the bar and additional Adirondack chairs set up on the lagoon side. Hours will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Thursdays through Saturdays. Equity members will get a taste of the new Everton experience on November 12th at The Gathering.

Community Unites in Solidarity: Remembering Kristallnacht & Support of Israel at Ocean Reef Chapel & Fellowship Center

By Michael L. Weiss, Member Since 2019

In a profound demonstration of unity, the Ocean Reef Chapel and Fellowship Center are set to host an interfaith service event, Remembering Kristallnacht and Support of Israel, led by Pastor Bob Henley and Rabbi Anne Feibelman. The event, scheduled for November 9th at 6 pm, serves as a solemn reminder of the atrocities of the past and a collective stand against the continuing struggles faced by Jewish communities worldwide, particularly amid the current conflicts in Israel.

Kristallnacht, or the "Night of Broken Glass," was a pogrom against Jews carried out by SA paramilitary forces and civilians throughout Nazi Germany on November 9-10, 1938. The name refers to the shattered glass from the windows of synagogues, homes, and Jewish-owned businesses plundered and destroyed during the violence. This event marked a significant escalation in the Nazi regime's policies of persecution against Jews, leading up to the Holocaust.

The lasting significance of Kristallnacht is immense. It stands as a powerful symbol of the destructive path to which discrimination, hate, and unchecked power can lead. The Nazis' state-sponsored pogrom was a critical juncture in the lead-up to the Holocaust, a systematic, state-sponsored genocide in which six million Jews were murdered. This dark era in history is a stark reminder of the profound consequences of antisemitism, bigotry, and hate-fueled ideologies.

The term "Never Again" has since been adopted by Jewish communities and others around the world as a rallying cry, not only remembering the horrors of the Holocaust but also insisting on vigilance and action to prevent such atrocities from occurring again. It's a universal promise to reject hate in all forms and a commitment to preserve humanity even in times of profound conflict and challenge.

Today, these historical lessons hold critical relevance in light of the ongoing conflict in Israel. The tensions and violent confrontations, particularly involving Hamas, an organization that the U.S., EU, and other countries have designated as a terrorist group, resonate with the trauma of persecution experienced during the darkest days of Jewish history. The rocket attacks, suicide bombings, and other acts of terrorism perpetrated by Hamas threaten the safety and security of people in Israel and undermine peace efforts in the region.

However, history has shown that there is resilience in the face of adversity. The Jewish people have faced calamities throughout history, from slavery in ancient times to pogroms in medieval periods and from the Holocaust in the modern era to the challenges posed by terrorism and geopolitical conflict today. And yet, the spirit of the Jewish community has endured and even thrived.

This resilience is mirrored in events like Remembering Kristallnacht and Support of Israel, where community members, regardless of faith, will come together in solidarity. The service aims not only to honor the memories of those lost during the Holocaust and other tragedies but also to reaffirm a collective stand against hate and violence in all their manifestations. It serves as a reminder that the actions of communities and individuals matter and that support, unity, and vigilance can uphold the ideals of peace and justice.

The gathering at the Ocean Reef Chapel and Fellowship

Center, therefore, represents more than an interfaith service. It is a testament to the human spirit's ability to overcome, forge alliances in the face of adversity, and build hope from past lessons. Pastor Bob Henley and Rabbi Anne Feibelman will lead the service as spiritual guides and as community leaders ushering in a message of unity, strength, and resilience.

In conclusion, the event encapsulates a spirit of hope, a commitment that, although the path is fraught with challenges, the journey toward peace and mutual respect is a worthy pursuit. By coming together, people of all faiths demonstrate the power of solidarity and the unwavering belief that, despite the darkest chapters of history, the human spirit can and will strive toward light. In these moments, the community finds its strength, ensuring that "Never Again" is a promise upheld and a future of harmony is a vision towards which we all tirelessly work.

STAND WITH ISRAEL

Community-wide Event
Thursday, November 9 at 6pm

Please join the Ocean Reef community as we join hands, sharing a moment of silence, respect, and prayer. Your presence will honor those whose memories we cherish and solidify our commitment to a world that knows peace, understanding, and unity.

Our strength is in our togetherness.
Never again is now.

Led by Rabbi Anne Feibelman and Reverend Bob Henley

WORSHIP ON WEDNESDAY (WOW) SERVICE

All are invited for the community Communion Service each Wednesday beginning November 8th at 9 a.m. in the Chapel Sanctuary. This Wednesday Rev. Robert DeShaies, previously serving in Plantation, Florida, will lead us. Our music leader this season is Mara Mulder Bonsanti, a familiar face to many in the chapel.

Medicare Open Enrollment is Now

October 15 to December 7, 2023, is Medicare's open enrollment period. This is a chance to reevaluate your Medicare insurances, which typically consist of Part A, Part B, a Medigap or Medicare Advantage policy and a Part D Drug plan.

Medicare Part A- is the hospital coverage insurance. If you or a spouse have worked 10 years or more, you are not charged a premium for Part A.

Medicare Part B*- covers non-hospital (medical) services. Social Security recipients will see this as a monthly deduction from their benefits. 2024's monthly premiums will be $174.70 *.

There is an annual deductible of $240.00 (for 2024) and co-insurance of 20% on covered services the patient is responsible for.

Choices for Gap Premium Coverages – Gap coverages pay the 20% Part B deductibles for covered medical services and drug costs, depending on the plan.

Medicare Part C – This is an option sometimes referred to as a "Medicare Advantage Plan." These plans work similar to an HMO or PPO plan with varied deductibles and are less expensive than a traditional Medigap plan. They sometimes provide other benefits such as drug, vision, dental and hearing coverage all wrapped into one plan.

Medigap Coverage*- This is a second option (in place of Medicare Part C) and only works with original Medicare. Medigap policies are standardized, and in most states are named by letters, Plans A-N. Compare the benefits each plan helps pay for and choose a plan that covers what you need. Premiums will vary county by county in the State of Florida. A popular Medigap Plan is through AARP United Healthcare. These do not provide drug, vision, dental or hearing coverage. Unlike Medicare Part C you are not restricted to plan participants and can see any healthcare provider who takes Medicare.

Medicare Part D* – Part D drug plans help cover your drug costs for those who have an original Medicare and a Medigap Plan (not Medicare Advantage). Signing up for Part D when you sign up for Medicare will save you a late penalty charge of around 12%.

If you don't want to change your insurances during open enrollment, then simply do nothing and your insurance will remain the same. However, if you wish to explore other options, go to www.medicare.gov for further information.

*If your modified adjusted gross income (MAGA) is over $97,000 a year Medicare will assess an income related monthly adjustment (IRMA).

Community Enhancements

Summer Projects Update

As Members are beginning to stream through the Front Gate, marking the start of the 2023-24 season, numerous projects aimed at enhancing the community's aesthetics and functionality are nearing completion.

ORCA's Public Works team has successfully wrapped up several projects to help keep our community to the standards our members have come to enjoy, including repaving the Marina Drive cart path and installing new curbs at strategic points near the Front Gate, Cinnamon Bark Lane and Bayberry Lane. Additionally, there are freshly-painted road stripes on Gatehouse Road, Anchor Drive, and Ocean Reef Drive, while a new streetlight has been installed on Cinnamon Bark Lane to improve safety and visibility.

The Sunrise Cay Bridge entrance planters have been rejuvenated with fresh paint and the addition of new wood panels. Palm Alley and the Four-Way stop have been enhanced with new plantings and trees. And throughout Ocean Reef, street and directional signs have been replaced as well as landscape and pathway lighting upgraded. We've even given the gazebo at Greenberg Park a thorough pressure wash.

ORCA is pleased to share the results of our summer work and welcomes feedback from community members. If you are out and about in the community and observe any issues that should be addressed, don't hesitate to report your concerns to ORCA. The best reporting method is through the ORCA Assist app, where a simple click on the "Requests" button ensures swift attention from the ORCA team.

The ORCA Assist App facilitates easy reporting of non-emergency issues, concerns and offers convenient access to frequently visited sections of the Association's website. You can download the ORCA Assist app from the Apple App or Google Play Stores.

Upon opening the app for the first time, create an account by providing your name, email, and a unique password. Once inside, opt for "Create a Request."

1. Select or search for the report type—e.g., Golf Cart/Cart Path
2. Use the interactive map to set the location—either tap near the blue dot for your current location or mark it manually.

3. Click on the arrow next to "Tell us more details," provide a brief description, and click Done.

4. Enhance your report with visuals—click on the paper clip under "Add photos." Capture a new image or choose one from your phone's library.

5. Conclude the process by clicking the Blue Submit button. Expect a Thank You notice and an email containing request details. Your information will be directed to the appropriate ORCA personnel for handling, and you'll receive updates on the progress of your request. Upon completion, a final email will include a survey for your feedback.

Members are welcome to get in touch with the ORCA office regarding any concerns at orca@orcareef.com.

Your involvement benefits the community by ensuring that issues are addressed so we can all enjoy the beauty and functionality of our community.

Diabetes and Hearing Loss

Diabetes is one of many comorbidities associated with hearing loss. High blood sugar levels can damage the delicate blood vessels of the inner ear over time, leading to hearing loss.

Did You Know?

- Patients with diabetes are more than 2 times as likely to develop hearing loss.
- People with prediabetes have a 30% higher rate of hearing loss than people with normal blood sugar levels.

If you are a patient with diabetes, it's important to add annual hearing screenings to your routine. Catching hearing loss early is essential for good communication and for preventing cognitive decline.

Homecoming

by Winston Baxter

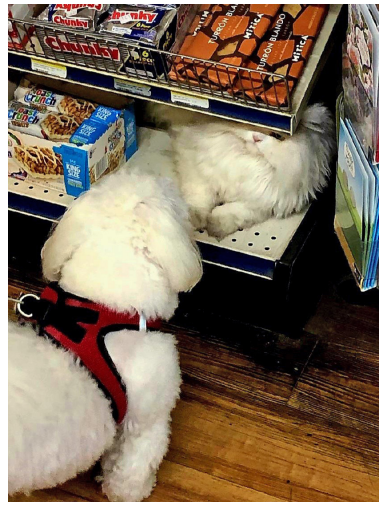

Greetings humans and dogs. I am very excited. I am coming home.

I have been up here in New Hampshire with my Mom and Dad all summer...in protective custody. Not that New Hampshire isn't nice, it is just filled with predators. Mom and Dad will not let me outside without a short leash because we have had foxes, a bear, coyotes, and wild turkeys bigger than me. Not to mention the giant cat JoJo at the general store. I don't get to walk with Mom on my stretchy leash like at Ocean Reef. I feel like a prisoner.

Mom tries to make me feel at home. She loves New Hampshire. She says she is "nesting," whatever that means. She lets me sit next to her in the flower garden. Personally, I don't get it. She sits on the ground and digs in the dirt. If I did that I would get in trouble. Mom is so happy she sometimes sings in the dirt. Gag me. Maybe I should try singing.

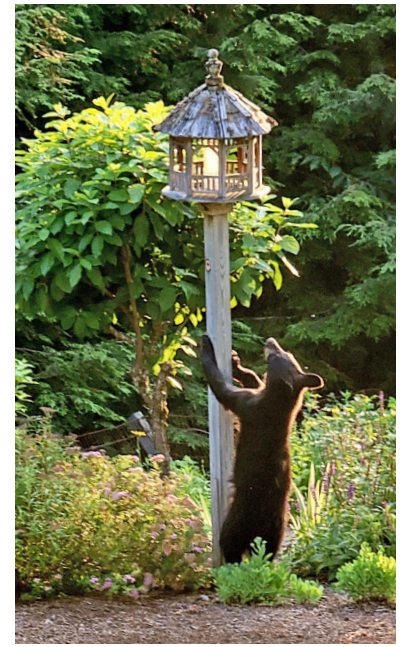

Thank goodness I do have some fun. The fall leaves are falling like snowflakes, I chase them around the back porch until I get dizzy. And Dad takes me every morning to get the milk and papers in his Mini Cooper. I sit on his lap and everyone thinks I am driving because I look so much more alert than Dad. They smile and wave. When we stop for the mail, Robin, our lovely Postmaster, gives me a treat. She likes me so much she puts the yellow ticket in our box even when we don't have any packages, JoJo the general store guard cat hides on the candy shelf to ambush Winston.

just so Dad will have to take me to the window. I lick Robin's nose and she giggles. I love Robin.

So, come to think of it, New Hampshire isn't so bad. But it is NO Ocean Reef. No elevator to ride in, no golf carts, no Donald or Georgette to sneak me a dog biscuit when we get our morning coffee. No Spot, or Sparky, or Reverend Bob to bless me.

The bear in the backyard gave Winston the "quivers."

But all is not lost. At long last, my FAVORITE time of year has arrived—the week when we return to Ocean Reef. Blue skies and sunshine here we come. I can't wait to see you all. Smile and wave, I'll be the one driving the golf cart.

A Taste...of Failure

by Micah Winecoff, Port O'Call Manager

It was May 2005 and my manager at the local Ruby Tuesday told me I was a "back of house guy". A week later, I was catching a ride with a friend who had to make a stop at Linville Ridge Country Club where he'd worked the previous two summers. I planned on waiting in the car at Linville. Fortunately, my friend JC made me go in and the moment their GM saw me, he said I should be a busboy. I felt dumb because I had to ask him what that was, to which GM Keith replied, "You pick up plates and make sure tables have bread and water." Little did I know that would be the moment my career would start.

Back to the Present – the Master Sommelier Exam

As many of you know, I have been studying for the Court of Master Sommeliers (CMS) Master Sommelier exam since passing the Advanced exam in 2018. I was initially slated to sit the MS (Master Sommelier) exam in 2020 but as we know all too well, that wasn't what the world had in store. After declining my invitation to take the test in 2021 and 2022, I decided this may as well be the year.

I've been asked quite often about how it went. Well, I hate to disappoint, but I failed. I scored a 55% and you need a 75% to pass and have the opportunity to take the Tasting and Service portions of the exam. It was humbling. In the 21 years I've worked in restaurants, I only experienced true failure one other time. Despite the failure, I'm confident that this time next year, I'll be telling a different story and hopefully have a cool new plaque next to my diplomas and a shiny pin on my suit at dinners.

How the Exam Process Works

There are 4 levels: Introductory, Certified, Advanced and Master. Introductory typically has an 85% pass rate and consists of a multiple-choice exam. The Certified exam generally has a 60% pass rate and includes Theory, Tasting (written notes on paper), and a Service portion. Advanced has a 30% pass rate and is often called the "mini master" as you have to blind taste 6 wines using verbal calls, an intense theory portion that is mostly fill-in-the-blanks, and a service exam that requires you to serve beer, decant wine, open Champagne, and even mix a cocktail while answering questions from two tables. The Master Exam has a 5% pass rate on average and every portion of the test is verbal. You must pass the Theory portion before being allowed to attempt the Tasting and Service portions. Since the CMS was established in 1969, around 800 individuals have passed the Advanced exam and 273 have passed the Master exam (globally).

The 2023 MS Theory Exam was held in Portland, Oregon. When it's time to take the test, you wait in the hotel lobby until you're greeted by the host. You then embark on the longest 4-floor elevator ride ever and step into a mezzanine where 12 Master Sommeliers stand in a line to meet the 6 candidates they will be grilling. At that point, you walk into a small office room with two proctors who outline the parameters of the exam. "Welcome to the MS exam, it's an incredible accomplishment just to be here. You will be asked 105 questions over the next 50 minutes. You may not go back once you answer a question. You are allowed to ask for the question to be repeated once. Please speak clearly as we are writing the answers to your questions." The next 50 minutes were a blur as I sat there answering some of the most obscure questions about wine, like why is Tokaji Essencia aged in glass bonnes instead of oak barrels and where is the sparkling wine hub of Romania.

There's a Lesson in Every Failure

In case you were wondering about the other time I had truly failed, it was my first day serving at Linville Ridge Country Club when I was 22 years old. I had been a busboy for 2 years before that. The previous Lead Server wasn't returning so the Manager told me I was the new Lead. "Keith, I've never served in my life and really am not that personable." He told me, "Good bussers make good servers. You're taking the Lead section tonight." Three hours, 11 tables and 34 covers later, I had successfully ruined 32 people's dining experience and been verbally berated by a few Members and Keith multiple times. I told him he made a mistake picking me but Keith said, "Micah, I fed you to the wolves on purpose. I yelled at you throughout service, the kitchen yelled at you, the Members yelled at you, and to be honest you messed pretty much everything up. However, you never lost your cool and never broke down. We don't have another person working that can handle that pressure, the job is yours."

This same sentiment applies to my experience taking the Master Sommelier Exam - under no circumstance will the pressure ever be the problem. Ocean Reef Club is the best club in the world. If I can meet the expectations here, no test is going to make me break. I just simply have to study harder this year and will pass the Theory portion in 2024.

ACADEMY AT OCEAN REEF

Life Outside the Classroom at The Academy

by Jerome Murphy, Head of School

As I review The Academy's upcoming calendar of events, I am reminded of how important it is in a child's educational development... to get out of the school building! Further, I continue to be struck by how rich the local environment in which we live affords so many wonderful educational opportunities for our children.

Welcome to The Academy's Field Studies program, an initiative that appeals directly to our goal of providing Academy students with hands-on experiential learning activities.

Now in its 2nd year, we are so excited to expand our Field Studies program for the 2023-

2024 school year. To that end, we have organized a plethora of off-campus learning opportunities that will allow our Kindergarten-8th grade students to engage with and bring to life the curricular lessons they are learning in the classroom.

Through our partnerships with Mote, Mote Lab, and the Coral Restoration Foundation (CRF), our students will:

- Investigate how polyps are able to create skeletons from salt water—a chem—mystery.
- Discover the mighty coral polyp and create edible models.
- Dive into coral spawning and learn how the invertebrate reproduces.
- Snorkel at the Coral Restoration Foundation's coral nursery.
- Participate in coastal cleanups on land and in water via kayaks.
- Learn about scientist stem stations at the Mote lab.
- Learn about climate change and Academy middle school students learn about Coral Morphology and Storm Mitigation.

its impact on our reefs.

- Learn how slime helps sustain coral reefs.

Working with our partners from Mote and from CRF, each organization provides trained educational specialists who meet with our students in their Academy classroom before engaging them in a hands-on learning activity off campus. In so doing, we are delighted to bring to life for our students the lessons they are learning in the classroom.

Botanika Life Cryo Massage Roller Ball & Pain Serum

“Spa Notes”
by Jillian
Barron, The Spa Director

The Spa has many regulars who come see us for massage and pain relief, and we are excited to announce that we just brought in a great tool that you can use at home to relieve pain in between your massage visits! Botanika Life is a line that has just recently been brought into the Spa, and they have some amazing products for pain. Two of their best-selling items are their pain serum and their cryo massage roller ball. We have a kit that contains both of these now available for you at the Spa.

Botanika Life Cryo Massage Roller Ball

If you need to alleviate pain, this kit is for you! The Botanika Life Cryo Massage Ball Roller can be your go-to recovery and prevention tool and is designed to relieve muscle pain, inflammation, and soreness from knots. To use, simply place the inner stainless steel ball in the freezer for 2 hours to activate cold relief that lasts up to 6 hours. The free-rolling massage cryo ball can then be used on your entire body in a circular motion to reduce inflammation and lactic acid build-up.

Botanika Life Pain Serum

Common uses for the cryo ball roller include massaging calves, knees, biceps, necks, and feet. It can be used on top of clothes or on direct skin (only apply on top of fabric if used as a cold compress).

You can even use the rollerball on your face, which can reduce inflammation and puffiness while increasing muscle tone to leave the skin rejuvenated and glowing. As a bonus, the cooling of the cryo massage ball can help with headaches by relieving tension, and contracting blood vessels that may contribute to inflammation.

You can further amplify the benefits of the cryo massage by using the roller alongside a CBD-based cream or serum, like Botanika Life’s Super Soothing Pain Serum-Cream with CBD & Lidocaine. This serum acts as an analgesic with cooling menthol and numbing lidocaine, and treats pain, while the Cryo Massage Roller relaxes aches. You can get immediate physical comfort, even before the CBD is able to take effect due to the lidocaine. The cream’s CBD squashes inflammation and related soreness, expediting the recovery of pained muscles, joints, or backs. Best yet, it can help loosen up tense muscles to help stave off future injuries.

Whether dealing with an overworked calf, a pulled neck muscle, a sore back, or other muscle aches and pains, stop by the Spa to check out Botanika Life’s Pain Relief Kit Box with the Pain Serum and Cryo Ball. Call the Spa for more information at 305-367-6506.

Joan the Shopper

Wynn's Is My Kitchen....

It is difficult to imagine life at Ocean Reef without this amazing store. We all depend on Wynn's for the groceries and household products that stock our cupboards. But because I don't cook, Wynn's is quite often my kitchen.

Dinner: For the big meal of the day, I generally choose one of Wynn's gourmet cooked items (e.g., chicken, crab cake, salmon, meatloaf, assorted pasta and vegetable dishes). These often benefit from sauces so tasty that I am sure that somewhere Wynn's has a master chef lurking over a saucepan (probably in Naples, FL, which is the store's home base). ... Lunch: Wynn's has introduced a sign-up form where you can choose exactly what you want on your sandwich. This avoids lines and speeds up the order process. A good idea but I personally prefer making my sandwich at home with the incomparable Wynn's chicken salad or my most recent discovery – Wynn's egg salad topped with a nice portion of pickled herring. I developed a taste for herring on a trip to Denmark and was thrilled to find jars of various kinds on a top shelf in Wynn's. Breakfast: Wynn's has all the fresh and frozen healthy ingredients for my breakfast "smoothie" (including the dreaded kale, which happily loses flavor in the blender).

From Wynn's bakery, there is a plentiful supply of breakfast goodies – bagels, muffins, donuts and, my favorite, raisin/walnut bread.... Unexpected: In addition to being a "food" store, I've found a surprising variety of inedible necessities on the shelves at Wynn's. For instance: Wynn's has cut flowers, cough medicine, reading glasses, batteries, tote bags, face cream, hair dye, wrapping paper, toys, brushless toothpaste for dogs. (Note: I've purchased everything on the list, except the last item.) My Best Buy at Wynn's – Two years ago I bought my dog at Wynn's. I named him Shopper and he goes everywhere with me on the back seat of my golf cart. Shopper requires no feeding or walking and never barks. Nor is he ever in need of a dog's toothpaste.... A woman's best friend is a dog – especially one like Shopper, that is not real but convincingly realistic.

Your Fitness and Wellness Checklist

“Fitness Focus” by Luis Bracamonte, Director of Fitness & Wellness

Taking care of our bodies takes time and effort, but it is an investment that pays back in quality of life and longevity. Here is a list of things you should be doing to keep your body young.

1. Strength Training: perform two or more sessions per week at moderate intensities, covering the major body parts such as the chest, core, back, arms, and legs. Strength training builds bone and muscle mass, which allows us to move better and be more injury-resilient. Moving better also means being less likely to fall and having a better athletic foundation to play sports.

2. Cardiovascular conditioning: perform three or more weekly sessions and increase daily movement activity. To develop your anaerobic system, perform intervals or bouts of moderate to high exertion. To develop your aerobic system, perform steady-pace exercise for over 20 minutes three or more days per week. Anaerobic and aerobic sessions can also be combined in the same workout, such as in a Cycle class. Doing different activities such as walking, jogging, swimming, cycling, hiking, and rowing will ensure that you do not over-train muscles and undertrain others. Cross-training also gives you the advantage of adding variety to your exercise sessions, which makes your exercise program less monotonous.

3. Massage and Stretch: strength training coupled with massage and stretching is the most optimal way to become stronger, leaner, and more pliable. Regular massage and stretching, which can be done daily, will reduce your risk for overuse injuries and make your body feel better and ready for action.

4. Healthy Eating and Hydration: what you eat and drink fuels your entire body, including your brain. Make sure to eat foods with good sources of nutrients such as vegetables, lean proteins, and healthy fats. Most of us know the difference between healthy and unhealthy foods. The trick is to build the habit of eating better meals regularly. If you need assistance with this, we have trainers with specialties in nutrition coaching who can guide and simplify things for you.

5. Mindset: our ability to make better decisions by controlling emotions can be improved through introspection, meditation, breath work, and regular exposure to controlled uncomfortable conditions such as intense exercise or cold exposure. Just like the muscles in our bodies, our minds can be strengthened and trained to be more resilient. Yoga classes, different forms of meditation, and cold plunges have become ubiquitous in the wellness practitioner routine.

6. Social Connection: according to Dan Buettner’s famous longevity research initially presented and discussed in his book “The Blue Zones”, social connection is a pillar of longevity and fulfillment. Engage in group activities, and attend and participate in social gatherings and club events. While some of us enjoy more time socializing than others, we all need it to thrive.

The fitness and wellness lifestyle can increase longevity, making life more enjoyable. The Member Fitness Center is your Club hub for fitness and wellness. For more information on personal training, group classes, and other programs and services contact us at 305-367-5820.

Harvest Moon Tournament Highlights

“Center Court” by Justin Romero, Director of Racquet Sports

The 2023-24 Season at the Tennis & Games Center started with a bang this past Thursday with our Harvest Moon Tournament. Over 60 Members took part in the rotating round-robin tournament across Tennis, Pickleball, Croquet, and Card & Games. Following the play, all participants met up on the Tennis & Games Center patio for a nice spread of a Harvest dinner including many homemade appetizers and desserts.

During our Staff announcements of winners, finalists, and lesson giveaways, we gave a special shout-out to a very special person – Claire “Bear” McCann. When I began working at ORC 12 years ago, and long before that, Claire played a crucial role in contacting all the players who were either currently at the Reef or planning to return for the upcoming season opener. Sadly, Claire passed away this summer after celebrating her 100th birthday. In honor of her memory, we dedicated this year’s Harvest Moon Extravaganza to Claire.

See below for this year’s Harvest Moon Tournament winners and finalists:

Winning Strategies in Tennis

“Tennis Tip” by Chiara Rebecchi, Tennis & Pickleball Concierge

As we all know tennis is not just a physical game; it’s a mental one too. To excel on the court, it’s crucial to maintain a positive and focused mindset. This means staying fully present in the moment, not dwelling on past points or worrying about future outcomes. Instead, focus on each shot and each point as they happen.

Another important factor in tennis is footwork, which forms the foundation of good play. Proper footwork ensures you’re in the right position to execute your shots effectively. A key component of footwork is practicing the split step, a maneuver that enables you to react swiftly to your opponent’s shots. Additionally, improving your lateral movement and quick changes in direction is vital. Remember, the better your footwork, the more control you will have over the game.

One of the most important strategies in tennis is consistency. Consistency is the key to success in this sport. Focus on making controlled shots, and don’t always aim for winners. Keep the ball in play, forcing your opponent to make mistakes. It’s not just about hitting hard but hitting smart. Work on your accuracy and placement, and you’ll find that winning points becomes easier when you maintain consistency. Ultimately, the player who can keep the ball inside the court for the longest will come out on top.

SWING TIP

Many Amateurs Don't 'Release' the Club, So Try This For More Distance

By Nick Dimengo, GOLF.com, featuring ORC Director of Instruction Stef Shaw

Learning how to release the golf club is a skill that every amateur must master to hit better shots.

While many of us average players struggle with our ball-striking ability, by understanding how to close the clubface to hit more of a draw, you'll have more opportunities to hit the sweet spot of the club, resulting in that perfectly flush shot that'll make your playing partners jealous.

So how can you actually become a pure ball-striker?

Teaching professional, Stefanie Shaw, addresses a common problem she sees with many amateur players: Keeping the clubface open at impact.

"There are openers and closers of the golf swing," Shaw says.

"I find that people tend to have too open of a clubface, and the No. 1 thing that they're trying to do is move their hips faster — which is going to only open your clubface more."

Essentially, when the swing sequence is off, we try to use our hips to catch up with our hands mid-swing. This is often what causes those slices and mishits — because you lose clubface control.

Try this drill to start releasing the club

"Your feet are going to stay closer together, we're going to totally take your lower body out of it, and we're going to take nice and easy, relaxed swings," Shaw explains. "I want you at a three or four out of 10 on the grip. And I want you to see if you can get that clubface to close."

Next, Shaw says to practice swaying your arms, which should help give you the feel of releasing the club.

"I want you to tee up a few balls, [put your] feet together, and I'm just going to let my arms sway," she says. "See if I can get that clubface to close and have the ball to start curving left."

By putting this all together, you'll stop opening your clubface, which Shaw says will result in farther, straighter shots.

"Anytime I can get this clubface closing, or another term for that is 'releasing', you're going to get more distance, you're going to stay in the fairway more, and you're going to like the ball flight so much better."

BRIDGE TIP

Bidding With Interference

Bidding would be a lot easier if the opponents did not interfere, but we know this is not the case. Here are some guidelines when the opponents get in our way:

After a Suit Overcall

Suit Responses

If your partner opens and the next opponent overcalls in a suit, then 2/1 Game Forcing (including 1NT Forcing) are off. We now revert to Standard Bidding:

- New suit at the 1-level promises 4 pieces (6+ points).
- New suit at the 2-level promises 5 pieces (10+ points).
- 1NT would show a balanced hand with 6-10 HCPs (with stoppers in the opponent's suit).

- Raise in partner's suit would show 3 card support and 7-10 points.

- Double raise in partner's suit would show 4 card support and 6-9 points.

- Triple raise in partner's suit would show 5 card support and 6-9 points.

- Cue Bid would show a Limit Raise (11-12) or better.

Examples:

West	North	East	South
	1♣	1♦	1♠
	= 4 spades and 6+ points
	1♣	1♦	1NT
	= 6-10 HCPs with diamonds stoppers (no 4-card major)
	1♠	2♦	2♥
	= 5 hearts and 10+ points (forcing)
	1♠	2♦	2♠
	= 3 spades and 7-10 points (non-forcing)
	1♠	2♦	3♠ =
	4 spades and 6-9 points (non-forcing)
	1♠	2♦	4♠
	= 5 spades and 6-9 points (non-forcing)

Negative Doubles

Don't forget about Negative Doubles!
